DISTRICT CENSUS HAND BOOKS

District Census Hand-books for each of the 43 Districts in Madhya Pradesh

PREFACE

The publication of District Census Hand-books, which was begun in the 1951 Census, represents a significant step in the process of making census statistics available for the smaller territorial units basic to executive and developmental administration. Apart from the fact that the proper implementation of policy depends on the ability of the administrative authorities concerned to quantify accurately the variables involved, it is at these levels that policies get really thoroughly tested; also, policies can fail—and probably have failed—because their statistical basis was weak. It is undoubtedly necessary that gaps in statistics at lower levels be filled as rapidly as possible. It was not possible at this Census to base all census statistics on the development block as the unit mainly because in 1961 there were many areas not till then covered by blocks. The coverage had become complete by about the middle of 1963 and it is not unlikely that the 1971 Census will recognise the block as the basic field unit as much for purposes of presentation as for operational purposes.

2. What we have tried to do in the 1961 Census Hand-books is to make them more informative by the inclusion of as many categories of non-census statistics as possible; some of these are climate, agriculture, co-operation, industry, banking, education, health etc. There is also an introductory note to each Hand-book high-lighting the more striking fea ures. It has not been possible for the Census Organisation to check the accuracy of the figures supplied by various authorities; it is to be hoped that some other organisation, better equipped for the purpose, will take up this task.

3. For the seventeen districts of Mahakoshal (Part of erstwhile Madhya Pradesh) and for Panna and Tikamgarh districts of erstwhile Vindhya Pradesh, which are part of the present State of Madhya Pradesh, the area figures for districts and tahsils furnished by the Director of Land Records and presented in Table A-I are internally inconsistent in the sense that the tahsil areas do not add up to the district area. This inconsistency arose from the fact that, in the case of these districts, the district area includes, but the tahsil areas exclude, 'forest' area for which the tahsilwise breakup was not then available. Later on, while this Hand-book was in the press, the Director of Land Records brought out revised area figures for the year 1962-63 for tahsils and districts, which among other improvements, do not suffer from the defect of internal inconsistency even in case of these nineteen districts. Revision of Table A-I on the basis of these area figures was not feasible at this late stage; the only alternative was to print these revised area figures also in this Hand-book.

4. One unfortunate fact about these Hand-books is that they became available to the users rather late in the decade. This is partly due to the considerable time required for the collection of information from various authorities and partly to difficulties in printing. Owing to the fact that State presses, with a heavy back-log of printing weighing down on them, would find it impossible to print all the District Census Hand-books themselves, arrangements have been made for printing them in private presses. If these Hand-books are to have a useful life of more than four or five years of inter-censal decennium, more expeditious methods for the collection of non-census statistics, for the preparation and checking of the manuscripts and for printing will have to be devised.

5. The Census Organisation is grateful to the Government of Madhya Pradesh for having been so kind as to undertake the publication of these Hand-books and to the Superintendent, Government Printing and his organisation—particularly the Assistant Superintendent, Printing, Government Regional Press, Indore and his staff—for the printing arrangements made. The inspiration behind this ambitious venture is that of our indefatigable Registrar General, Shri Asok Mitra, to whom we are all deeply grateful. Our thanks are also due to the various authorities who supplied us with all the necessary statistics.

NOTES AND EXPLANATIONS

This note gives the meanings and explanations of terms and concepts used in this Handbook. This is necessary because, without a proper grasp of the meanings of such simple concepts as building, house, household, worker, etc., it is not possible to appreciate the data presented in the Handbook. Thus, one who does not know that an unpretentious hut in the thick of Bastar forests with unplastered bamboo walls and a thatch roof and with space hardly enough for two cots is not a whit less of a building than the Indian versions of the skyscrapers in one of the metropolitan cities, or that a central jail housing all manner of criminals and shady characters is as much a household as the household of the most pious and god-fearing citizen in the State, may not be able to appreciate what exactly the figures represent. Besides explaining the terms and concepts, the note also contains brief notes on the salient and peculiar features of some of the Census tables presented in this Handbook.

Census.—The Census in India is a decennial operation taking place in February-March of the first year of every decade. It ensures coverage of all members of the population irrespective of age. The operations constituting a Census involve, besides counting of heads, the counting of numerous attributes of the person counted. These are demographic, social, economic and cultural in nature. The number of these attributes regarding which information is recorded has been increasing from census to census and is limited only by considerations of cost, time and organisation.

Population.—The important thing about a population is that it is dynamic. It is a constantly changing entity. These changes take place by the natural processes of birth and death as well as by migration. A statement of population has therefore little sense unless the point of time to which it relates is also stated. A population figure is correct only for a particular point of time; and, even though in practice one may omit to indicate this point of time, one should none the less be clear about it. The population figures presented herein refer to the sunrise of 1st March, 1961, unless otherwise stated.

Rural-Urban Classification:—Data collected at a Census is usually presented separately for the rural and urban areas. A 'town' or a 'town-group' constitutes an urban area. A 'town' in the 1961 Census was either (i) a municipality, cantonment or corporation; or (ii) a habitation with a population at least of 5,000 with atleast three-fourths of the adult male population being engaged in non-agricultural pursuits. The rural-urban classification, being operationally cardinal and prior in point of time to the census count, had to be tackled earlier and a list of 219 towns in the State was therefore, prepared much earlier than the census proper. This included 28 habitations which were tentatively treated as towns, the intention being that, after the 1961 Census data became available, their cases would be re-examined. Later on, however, no modification was made in the list, even though 7 towns did not satisfy either the minimum population criterion or the one based on the ratio of non-agricultural adult males being 75% or greater. These are Gogaon in West Nimar, Datla Bandhi in Chhindwara (both under 5,000 in population); and, Icchawar, Patan, Pendra, Akaltara, Arang respectively in Sehore, Jabalpur, Bilaspur, Bilaspur, and Raipur Districts (not satisfying the economic criterion). The reason for not disturbing the original list of towns was that as many as 14 habitations which did not satisfy one or the other of the criteria laid down earlier managed to sneak into the list of towns as municipalities, and inclusion of seven more such towns was not supposed to introduce greater demographic distortion than was already present. The cases of Chachaura-Binaganj town in Guna District and Sardarpur-Rajgarh in Dhar District are peculiar in that each of these two municipal towns consists of two distinct habitations separated by 2 miles in the first and 3 miles in the second case.

All areas, which were not urban were rural. They consisted of 'villages'. A very large majority of the census villages were 'revenue villages', which had well demarcated or recognised boundaries, and which included not only the inhabited portion (or portions) but also agricultural land and uninhabited waste (or other) lands. The census village was thus not synonymous with a habitation or a dwelling; in fact, a village could contain two or more distinct habitations separated by considerable distances known variously as 'tola' or 'mazra' or 'para'. Besides, in many districts there were forest villages, situated inside Reserved forests and without clearly demarcated boundaries. The areas entered against these villages in the Village Directory are thus only approximate. It is to be noted that being, as observed by Martin [Census Superintendent (old) Madhya Pradesh, 1911 and Census Commissioner for India, 1921] arbitrary and irregular units of area, carved out chiefly for revenue and administrative purposes, there are many revenue villages which do not have any habitation. They are not, therefore, of much demographic interest, and their inclusion in the Village Directory is only for a proper tally of area aggregates.

A—General Population Tables:

There are four main tables and three appendices in this series.

Table A-1.—This table presents the basic figures relating to area, houses and population separately for the rural and urban areas of each district, each tahsil, and for each city, towngroup or town. The area figures used in the table for the district and the tahsils are those furnished by the State Director of Land Records. In case of the district, the area figures furnished in 1962 by the Surveyor-General, India are also given. The Surveyor-General does not furnish area figures for tahsils. In case of cities and towns the area figures are furnished by the local urban authority (if any) in charge of the municipal administration, or by the local revenue authorities. Except in case of Raipur and Sagar districts, there is no agreement between the area figures for the district furnished by the Director of Land Records and the Surveyor-General, India. These differences arise principally from the differences in the methods adopted by the two agencies in measuring and computing the area.

In the case of eighteen districts (Bastar, Raipur, Durg, Raigarh, Bilaspur, Surguja, Balaghat, Seoni, Chhindwara, Mandla, Narsimhapur, Jabalpur, Sagar, Hoshangabad, Betul, East Nimar, Tikamgarh and Panna), only the district 'total' and 'rural' figures for area include the forest area; the figures for forest area were not available for individual tahsils in these districts, and hence the tahsilwise area figures for these districts do not include forest area. This fact is important particularly for appreciating the district and tahsil population density figures of these districts. The population density (i.e., persons per square mile) given in column 4 of the table is calculated on the basis of the figures of area supplied by the State Directorate of Land Records.

Occupied Residential House.—This is a Census house which was actually occupied at the time of enumeration for residential purposes either partly or fully. The concept of 'Census house' together with the allied concepts of 'building' and 'household' are dealt with later in this note.

Town Group.—The introduction of the concept of "towngroup" is a new feature of the 1961 Census. One kind of 'towngroup' has its basis in what may be called demographic prognosis, this being that a particular group of towns is situated in such a way, and exhibits some interconnecting features of such a kind, that they can be considered a single demographic entity whose organic nature is likely to become more and more evident in the future. Examples are: Bhopal City with Bairagarh in the West and Heavy Electricals Township in the East; and Durg Town and Bhilai Industrial Township. The other type of towngroup is a group only in name in the sense that it represents a group of localities which geography unites but definition separates. Examples are Sagar Towngroup consisting of Sagar Municipality and Sagar Cantt., and Jabalpur Towngroup (consisting of Jabalpur Corporation, Jabalpur Cantt. and Khamaria). In both these instances, the urban complex is single and continuous, but as each corporation or cantonment is a separate town by definition, it gets split up in the Census into more than one town. In Madhya Pradesh there are six towngroups in all; three of them belong to the first type: Bhopal in Sehore District: Murwara in Jabalpur District and Durg in Durg District; the other three belong to the second type, Pachmarhi in Hoshangabad District, Sagar in Sagar District and Jabalpur in Jabalpur District.

Houseless & Institutional Population:—"Houseless population" means those who did not live and were not enumerated, in Census-houses at the last Census. Obviously these swell the ranks of the social destitutes who, to speak in every day parlance do not have even a roof over their heads, but live under the shade of trees or bridges or on pavements. "Institutional population" means the population that was enumerated in institutions at the last census i.e., in hostels, jails, boarding houses, hospitals etc.

Class of Towns.—Towns are classified into six classes as below according to their population sizes:—

Class	Population range
I	100,000 and above
II	50,000—99,999
III	20,000—49,999
IV	10,000—19,999
V	5,000—9,999
VI	Below 5,000

Towns of Class I are also known as Cities.

"Status" of a town means the authority in charge of its local urban administration. Thus a town could have a Municipal Corporation; a Municipality, a Cantonment Board, a Gram Panchayat, a Town or Notified Area Committee, etc.

B—(i) General Economic Tables.—This series includes 22 tables containing information on certain economic aspects of the population. The concepts involved have undergone significant changes as compared with the 1951 and earlier Censuses. In the 1951 and earlier censuses or at any rate in the last few censuses income or economic independence (and dependence) were treated as the criteria for denoting the economic status of a person. Separate account used to be taken of all persons who were economically independent and of those who were economically dependent. An intermediate category of economic semi-independence was also introduced in the 1931 Census. This consisted of the 'earning dependents' of the 1951 Census and even there the element of income was present. This income-based classification seems to have not infrequently resulted in a suppression of information relating to those who worked in household economic activities but did not actually earn any income like men other than the head of the household and women of the family or children working at the family cultivation or cottage industry but not earning any incomes. The 1961 Census introduced the concept of work and totally abandoned the 'income' approach. Thus all people who worked (i.e., were "economically active") including family workers who were not in receipt of any income, & working children who did not earn enough for their maintenance were treated as workers. On the other hand such persons as a receiver of rents on immovable property, or of interest on securities deposited in a bank, and doing no other work, were treated as non-workers. Persons professionally engaged in anti-social activities (i.e., thieves, robbers, prostitutes, beggars, etc.) were, however, not treated as workers. The approach to the concept of "work" was pragmatic and numerous illustrations were given to clarify the concept. The basis of work was held to be satisfied in the case of seasonal work i.e., work at cultivation, livestock, dairying or household industry if the person has had some regular work of more than one hour a day throughout the greater part of the working season. In the case of regular employment in any trade, profession, service, business or commerce the basis of work was satisfied if the person was employed during any of the fifteen days preceding the day on which he was visited by the Census enumerator. A person who was working but was absent from his work during those fifteen days or for a longer period owing to illness or other causes was treated as worker. Work included not only actual physical work but also effective supervision and direction of work.

The Working Categories:—The primary classification of the population is by means of a simple dichotomy into workers and non-workers. The former is further sub-divided into nine sub-classes or working categories of the Census. These are listed below; the correspondence with the Standard National Industrial Classification is also indicated.

	CENSUS WORKING CATEGORY	CORRESPONDING DIVISION OR MAJOR GROUP OR MINOR GROUP OF NIC
I	Workers in cultivation	Minor Groups 000, 001, 002, 003, 004,
II	Agricultural Labourers ...	The same as in I above
III	Workers in mining, quarrying, live-stock, forestry, fishing, hunting and plantations, orchards and allied activities	Major Groups 01, 02, 03 and 04 and Division 1; Minor Groups 005, 006, 007, 008, 009 (if not classifiable as household industry)

The only term requiring explanation is household industry, the others being self-explanatory. As regards household industry, a three-fold test was laid down, viz:—

(a) "Household Industry" should consist of manufacture, processing or servicing and may include sale but should not be confined simply to buying and selling. At least part of the goods offered for sale from the household should be manufactured or processed by members of the household.

(b) "Household Industry" should be on the household scale where the workers mainly will be the Head of the household himself and/or members of the household, the role of hired workers from outside being of secondary importance. Thus, in any Household Industry, members of the household should be in a position to lend a hand in the industry whenever they find the time in the course of their daily chores. Household Industry cannot, therefore, be on the scale of a registered factory but can use machinery and employ power like steam engine or oil engine or electricity to drive the machinery.

(c) Location also is important, for proximity decides participation by members of the household. In a village this participation is possible if the Household Industry is located at home or within the village because village organisation is such as makes it possible for members of the household to move about freely in the village to look after their work. In urban areas such free movement is not possible, and therefore, for household industry in urban areas we should consider only those industries which are located or at least the major part of whose work is located at home.

Class of Worker:—A worker, other than a cultivator, agricultural labourer or a worker at household industry could be: (i) an Employer, that is, who hires one or more persons in his work; (ii) an Employee, that is, who does his work under others for wages or salary in cash or kind; (iii) a Single Worker, that is, who is doing his work without employing others, except casually, and without the help of other members of the family, except casually (this includes workers working as members of a co-operative); and (iv) a Family Worker, that is, who is doing his work in his own family without wages or salary in cash or kind. A person could be an employee in a household industry also.

PRINCIPAL AND SECONDARY WORKER:

Table B-VII Part A and Part B involve the concepts of principal and secondary work. For every worker the principal work had to be indicated in the case of a person who was engaged in more than one work, and also the secondary work if he was engaged in two or more than two productive activities. The concepts of primary and secondary work had nothing to do with the income accruing to a person from his work. The principal work of a person was that activity which took up most of his time; similarly the secondary work (in case a person was engaged in two or more than two kinds of work) was that which took up less time than the principal work but greater than the other kinds of work. Unless specifically stated to the contrary in the table heading itself the tables in the Handbook are based on the principal work of a person.

Non-workers:—The non-working section of the population also was divided into eight classes according to the nature of their activities. Thus a non-worker could be (i) a full time student or child attending school, (ii) a person engaged in home duties (like a housewife or other adult female who does no other work) (iii) dependent including an infant or child not attending school, a person permanently disabled from work because of illness or old-age; (iv) a retired person who is not employed again, rentier, a person living on agricultural or non-agricultural royalty, rent or dividend, or any other person of independent means for securing which he does not have to work and who does no other work; (v) a beggar, vagrant or independent woman without indication of source of income and others of unspecified source of existence; (vi) a convict (not an undertrial who was to be recorded for the work he did before being admitted to Jail); (vii) persons who were seeking employment for the first time; and (viii) persons who previously had worked, but were out of employment, and were again seeking work.

Education Levels:—A person was treated as illiterate if he did not satisfy the test of literacy, this meaning the ability both of reading and writing. The test of reading was held to be satisfied if a person could read printed matter or easily legible manuscripts. The test of writing was the ability to write a simple letter. The minimum educational level is primary or junior basic, and this includes all persons who have passed this examination but have not passed the next higher level examination i.e., matriculation or higher secondary. Persons who had formal schooling but had not passed the primary or junior basic level examination were literates without any educational levels. A person belonging to any particular educational level means a person who has passed the examination denoting that level.

INDUSTRIAL AND OCCUPATIONAL CLASSIFICATION OF WORKERS:

Workers have also been classified according to their occupation and industry. The concepts of 'industry' and 'occupation' are of fundamental importance in connection with all economic activity and it is necessary that they should not be confused with each other. By "industry" is meant the sector of economic activity in which a worker is engaged e.g., the textile industry, mining industry, etc., whereas by 'occupation' is meant the exact function that a worker performs in that sector e.g., fitter, carpenter, typist, etc. Occupation thus is "a trade, profession or type of work performed by an individual independent of the worker's industry, status or years of experience".

THE INDIAN STANDARD INDUSTRIAL CLASSIFICATION (I. S. I. C.):

The industrial classification used in some of the economic tables of this hand-book is the 'Standard Industrial Classification' prepared by the Ministry of Labour and Employment, Government of India. Under this scheme of classification, the whole range of economic activity is divided into nine 'divisions', and a code number is given to each. The first digit of the code number of any specific economic activity stands for the 'Division' under which that activity is classified. Each division is then divided into a number of major groups not exceeding ten. The first and second digits of the code number represent the division and the major group into which an economic activity is classified. Each major group is again sub-divided into a number of minor-groups not exceeding ten, and the first, second and third digits in the code number of any economic activity represent the division, the major group and the minor group into which it is classified. To illustrate, the industrial 'code', '261', represents an economic activity corresponding to minor group 261 in major-group 26 of Division 2. A reference to the Standard Industrial Classification will show that the minor group code stands for the economic activity 'Dying and bleaching of silk' in the major group 'Textiles Silk' of the Division: 'Manufacturing'. The 'Divisions', 'Major Groups' and 'Minor Groups' of the Standard Industrial Classification are printed immediately after this note as Appendix I.

NATIONAL CLASSIFICATION OF OCCUPATIONS (NCO):

Table B-V gives the occupational classification by sex of persons at work other than cultivation. This classification is based on the 'National Classification of Occupations' prepared by the Ministry of Labour and Employment, Government of India. Each occupation is represented by a code number containing a number of digits (extending in the NCO upto 5). We have used only the three digit Code number for classifying occupation. All occupations are divided into ten divisons to each of which a digit is allotted. The first digit of the code number of an occupation stands for the 'Division' into which it is classified. Each division is then sub-divided into a number of groups not exceeding ten. The first and second digits of the code number represent the 'Division' and 'Group' into which an occupation is classified. Each group again is divided into a number of families not exceeding ten and the first three digits of the code number stand for the division, group and family into which an occupation is classified. To illustrate, the code number 911 stands for the family 911 (Cooks, cook-bearers, domestic and institutional) included in the Group 91 (Housekeepers, Cooks, Maid and related workers) included in the 'Division' 9 (Service, Sport and Recreation workers). The Divisions, Groups, and Families of the National Classification of Occupations are printed after this note as Appendix II.

It may be mentioned that the three digit industrial code can easily be extended into a four-digit code on the principles illustrated earlier to secure greater precision in the classification of the economic activitity of a worker. This has in fact been done in case of workers at household industry, and these four-digit code numbers have been used in Table B XIV Part B.

B—(ii) Household Economic Tables:—Tables belonging to this series differ from others in two respects: (i) they have been prepared from information recorded on the household schedules, while the other tables are prepared from information recorded on the individual slips; (ii) whereas the other tables are based on the total population, the tables in this series are prepared from the data contained in a 20% sample of all households. The instructions for selecting the sample are reproduced below:—

"Every fifth household from the starting random household will be selected to make a 20% sample. The sample household will be marked continuously for rural areas of a tahsil/taluka and for urban areas of a district i.e., households left over in a household pad should be carried over to the next household schedule pad for the selection of sample households.

"Before making the sample households the household schedule pads should be arranged in the order of location code numbers of villages in a Taluka or Tahsil in the case of a rural area and in the order of location code numbers of towns in a district for urban areas. The first sample household should be chosen randomly among the first five households in the first household schedule pad and stamped (s) as selected. This random number (random start) should be chosen separately for rural areas of each taluka/tahsil and for the urban area of the district. From the first random household every fifth household should be continuously stamped as selected..... The sample should be continuously marked for all the pads of villages in a tahsil and urban areas in a district. If in a particular household schedule pad at the end, some households (these will be four or less) are left after marking of the sample household, the housedolds left over should be carried over to the next household schedule pad and the appropriate household in that pad should be marked as a sample household".

C.—Social and Cultural Tables:

This series contains 8 tables of which Table C-1 is prepared from data abstracted from the 20% sample of households.

Marital Status:—As regards marital status a person could be (i) never married, (ii) married, (iii) widowed and (iv) divorced or separated. The figures given do not necessarily indicate the legal position. Thus, persons who lived together as man and wife and who were regarded as such by society were treated as 'married' even though there might not be any legally valid marriage between them.

Age.—The age of a person was recorded in completed years as on the last birth day at the time of enumeration, so that a child who had not completed a year of its existence was recorded as of age '0' Inspite of the best efforts, distortion of ages is common phenomenon in Indian Census. This distortion is ascribable to the combined effect of a variety of causes like, for example, digit-preference, age-bias and estimation error and its most obvious manifestation is the heaping of the ages at digits ending in 0 or 5 and in even rather than in odd numbers.

Mother Tongue:—Mother tongue is the language spoken in childhood by a person's mother to the person, or mainly spoken in the household.

Religion:—Separate figures are given only for the six main religions: Hindu, Muslim, Jain, Sikh, Christian and Buddhist. Figures for persons professing other religions have been clubbed together under the head: Other Religions and persuasions'

Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes:—In view of the constitutional safeguards guaranteed to persons belonging to scheduled castes and scheduled tribes with a view to ameliorate their social and economic condition, basic census figures are for the first time being published separately for each scheduled caste and scheduled tribe. A scheduled caste or a scheduled tribe means a caste or a tribe included in the Order issued by the President of India under Articles 341 (1) and 342 (1) of the Constitution, amended, if necessary in accordance with Articles 341 (2) and 342 (2) thereof. It should be remembered that the population of a particular scheduled caste or tribe as given in the tables does not necessarily mean the entire population of that caste or tribe in the district. This is so because scheduling of a caste or tribe under the Constitution is territorial so that a caste or a tribe scheduled in a district, (or a tahsil or tahsils of a district) is not necessarily a scheduled caste in other districts (or other tahsils of the same district). Thus Gond is a scheduled tribe in all tahsils of Jabalpur District except Jabalpur Tahsil so that the figures for Gond population in Jabalpur District exclude the Gonds of Jabalpur Tahsil. Secondly, some of the scheduled tribes have not been given independent status in some parts of the State by the Order but have been clubbed together with some major tribe, while, in other parts of the State, they have not been so clubbed but have been included as distinct scheduled tribes. Thus, in the districts of the Mahakoshal region of the State, the tribe Agaria has been clubbed, along with many another, with Gond as the latter's sub-tribe. In these districts, therefore, figures relating to Agaria tribe, whose ethnic identity with Gond is controversial, do not appear independently in the tables of these districts, but are included in the figures for Gond. In the Vindhya Pradesh region, however, Agaria is Scheduled tribe in its own right and in the districts belonging to that region Agaria population appears separately in the relevant tables.

Religion of Scheddled Castes and Tribes:—A scheduled caste can exist only in Hindu and Sikh religions and in no other religion. A scheduled tribe, however, may be found in any religion.

E—Housing Tables:—The Handbook includes five tables on housing. In using these tables, it should be remembered that they are prepared from the data on households abstracted from the 'Houselists'. Tables E-I and E-III are based on the full count while table E-II, E-IV and E-V are prepared from a 20% sample of households entered in the Houselists. Houselisting was non-synchronous with census proper, having taken place in the month of September-October, 1960, about five month before the reference date of the Census. Also, the population of households entered in the houselists is not necessarily identical with the population of households in respect of which household schedules were filled at the time of the Census. Thus the samples of households drawn from the household schedule, and from the house lists are different samples.

The instruction for drawing the 20% sample of households from the houselists are reproduced below:—

"Before marking the sample households the Houselists should be arranged in order of location code numbers in the case of rural areas for tahsil etc., and in the case of urban areas other than towns with population of 50,000 and over. In the case of towns with population of 50,000 and over the Houselists should be arranged in order of blocks. The first sample household should be chosen randomly among the first five households in the first Houselist. From that every fifth household from the first random household should be continuously marked..... The sample should be marked continuously for all the Houselists. If in a particular Houselist at the end two households are left after the marking of the sample households then these households should be carried over to the next Houselist and the third household in that list should be marked as sample households".

Census House and Census Households:—The concepts of "building" "house" and "household" are important and differ somewhat from their connotations in common speech. A building refers to the entire structure on the ground. A census house is a structure or part of structure inhabited or vacant or a dwelling, a shop, a shop-cum-dwelling or place of business, workshop, school etc., with a separate entrance. A census house was thus a building, or part of a building with a separate entrance. A census house could have a variety of uses, residential as well as non-residential; or it might be vacant (at the time of houselisting).

A household was defined as "a group of persons who commonly live together and would take their meals from a common kitchen unless the exigencies of work prevented any of them from doing so." A household necessarily lived in a census house or part of a census house. The definition of a household was broad enough to include all persons living together in a census-house and dining from the same kitchen, even if they were not related to one another. Such were the institutional households, like jails, hostels, hospitals etc. The house in which a household lived could either be owned or rented. All census-houses which were not owned by the households living in them were treated as 'rented' even though no rent was being actually paid.

"Factory" and "Workshop":—As is clear from its definition, a Census house could be a workshop. A workshop is a place where some kind of production, repair or servicing goes on, or where goods or articles are made and sold. A bigger workshop which was either registered under the Indian Factories Act or was of the scale of a registered factory was returned as a factory. For a manufacturing, repairing or servicing establishment to be registered under the Indian Factories Act, it should have ten or more workers if using power and twenty or more workers if not using power.

VILLAGE DIRECTORY AND ITS APPENDICES:
Village Directory:—The Village Directory corresponds to the Primary Census Abstract of the 1951 Census. It gives for each village of the district: (a) information relating to area, census houses, households, scheduled castes and scheduled tribes and literacy; and (b) the classification of the population into workers and non-workers, and again 'workers' into their 'Industrial Categories' separately for both the sexes. For facilitating comparison with the Census Handbook of 1951 the serial number at which the village is to be found in 1951 Handbook is also given. A new feature introduced in this Census is the presentation of additional information about each village relating to schools, hospitals, child and maternity welfare centres, medical practitioners, electricity, post and telegraph offices etc. This has been done by entering symbols against the name of each village. Another novel feature is the presentation in eleven appendices of useful information relating to villages and towns i.e., industrial establishments, places situated on bus routes, or within five miles of a railway station, places having pucca wells, markets, public reading rooms, drains etc.

To enable the reader to locate the village in the Village Directory without much difficulty, an alphabetical index of village names is given. This gives for each village the 1961 location code number of the village (in the Village Directory, villages are arranged according to their Location Code Numbers); and its location code number in the 1951 Hand-book.

INTRODUCING THE DISTRICT

By

K. S. BHATNAGAR

Deputy Superintendent of Census Operations, Madhya Pradesh

The district as we know it today, was constituted after the formation of Madhya Bharat in May 1948. Prior to this the area of the district was spread out among Rajgarh, Narsingarh, Khilchipur, Dewas (Junior), Dewas (Senior) and Indore States. The entire area of the first three States now forms a part of the district and some villages from Dewas (Junior and Senior) States, constitute tahsil Sarangpur. The former Indore State tahsil Zirapur, which was a part of Mahidpur district, now a tahsil in Ujjain District, constitutes a sub-tahsil in Khilchipur tahsil. The details of the territories comprised in the constituent States are:—

Rajgarh:

The district headquarters are located at Rajgarh, once the capital town of the State which enjoyed a thirteen gun salute during the British days. The ruling family were Umat Rajputs. The State had an area of 962 sq. miles and 675 villages. The town has a population of 9,095 persons.

Narsingarh:

It was a Princely State, also ruled by Umats and became a separate chief-ship in 1681 when Paras Ram the founder of the State made a division of his possession with his brother Mohansingh. Thus once Rajgarh and Narsingarh were ruled by one chief. It had an area of 734 sq. miles, there were 413 villages and one town. It is now the sub-divisional headquarters and is the biggest town in the district (population 11,558).

Khilchipur:

The State was founded by Dewan Ugra Sen in 1544 A.D. The ruling family belonged to the Khilchi section of the famous Chauhan clan of Rajputs. It is situated eleven miles north-west of Rajgarh and forms the State border with Rajasthan. Its late Ruler was Junior Up-Rajpramukh of Madhya Bharat. It is now a tahsil headquarters (population 6,970). It had an area of 273 sq. miles and 285 villages.

Dewas Junior and Senior:

Dewas Junior and Senior States had their headquarters in Dewas town. The villages in Sarangpur tahsil of today were formerly in these two States and were completely intermingled. The chiefs of both these States enjoyed a salute of 15 guns.

Indore State:

In the former Indore State, Zirapur was a tahsil of Mahidpur district. It was merged in Khilchipur tahsil and lies 23 miles to the west of Khilchipur.

Inter-Censal changes:

During the decade there has been no change in the district except that one village has been transferred to Khilchipur municipality.

Boundaries:

The district is bounded by Shajapur on the south-west, Sehore in the south-east, Guna in the north-east and district Jhalawar Rajasthan in the north-west and lies between 23° 28′ and 24° 18′N and 76° 11′ and 77° 20′E. In shape, it resembles a pear with its border running along Sehore district and forming a base. In the State where the average area of a district is 3,957 sq. miles, Rajgarh with 2,365.7 sq. miles, forms one of the smaller districts in Bhopal division. It is completely isolated from railways or air service; the nearest rail-head being Shujalpur (Shajapur district) about 53 miles away from Rajgarh. In the Third Five Year Plan, however, Guna-Maksi link on the Western Railway, which is under construction will pass through the district and Sarangpur, Pachor, Biaora would then be on the rail line. This rail link, it is hoped, would help to open up the area and improve the economy in general.

Physical Features:

The district forms border with Rajasthan. Rajgarh tahsil in the north consists mostly of small hills that have little vegetation and rocky slopes. The tahsil mostly lies between 1300′ to 1600 feet above the sea level. To the west of Rajgarh lies Khilchipur tahsil with almost similar physical features. The river Kali Sindh flowing towards north forms the district boundary with Jhalawar in Rajasthan towards west of the tahsil. Towards east of Rajgarh lies Biaora tahsil, which is mostly in the plateau region, with better soil. The river Parbati flowing north forms the district border with Guna district. On the banks of the river there is a little forest. The general elevation of the tahsil is a little higher than Rajgarh tahsil; lying between 1300′ and 1700 feet above sea level. To the south-west of Rajgarh lies Narsingarh tahsil, which is partly hilly but mostly a plateau. The river Parbati flowing south-west of Narsingarh forms the district border with Sehore. Near about Narsingarh there is a little forest and the highest point is 1890′ above sea level. Sarangpur tahsil which lies to the south of the district headquarters is mostly in the plain area between 1300′ to 1500′ M.S.L. There are few hills and mostly the area is under cultivation. The river Kali Sindh after entering the tahsil flows north and forms the boundary with Shajapur district.

Rivers:

The main rivers of the district are the Kali-Sindh, the Parbati, the Newaj, the Ghodapachhar, the Gadganga and the Ajnar.

The Kali Sindh:

The river is also known as Greater Kali Sindh and rises in Bagli tahsil of Dewas district. It finds a frequent mention in the ancient Sanskrit literature and is also mentioned by Abul Fazal as one of the principal rivers of Malwa. It flows for the whole year and retains plenty of water in pools. Entering the district near Sarangpur it flows across Sarangpur and Khilchipur tahsils and enters Jhalawar and Kotah districts of Rajasthan. There are no irrigation works on the river and no damage due to floods have been reported. Sarangpur town is situated on the bank of this ri v

The Parbati:

The river flows along the eastern border of the district in Narsingarh and Biaora tahsils. It flows north and turns towards west beyond Narsingarh. On the banks of the river there is a little forest, which although not dense, shelters some wild life. It retains water all the year round. It cuts across the National Highway 12 (Jaipur-Bhopal) where the low lying bridge often holds up traffic during heavy rains, thus cutting of Rajgarh and Gwalior from Bhopal.

The Newaj:

The district headquarters Rajgarh is situated on this river, which flows north-west. There is an all weather bridge at Pachor on the National Highway 3 but the bridge near Rajgarh gets submerged and holds up traffic during the rains. An all weather bridge is now being constructed at Rajgarh. The river retains water all the year round; but has not been used for irrigation.

The Ghodapachhar:

The river Ghodapachhar flows north-west and forms the boundary with Guna district. An all weather bridge over the river on National Highway 3 keeps the traffic moving even in the rains.

The Gadganga:

The Gadganga is a small river flowing in Khilchipur tahsil.

The Drainage:

The drainage of the district is generally towards north and north-west. Since banks on all the rivers are rather high, they do not cause flood problems except at Rajgarh and Khilchipur where the flood waters are known to have entered the towns. In Rajgarh, the flood waters touched the Collectorate building in 1952. The waters of the rivers are generally not much used for irrigation, only in a few places lift irrigation is carried on.

Flora and Fauna:

The following trees are easily met with salai (Boswellia serrata), khair (Acacia catechu) dhaora (Anogeissus-latifolia), ber (Zizyphus jujuba), karonda (Carissa carandus), gular (Ficus glomerata), mahua (Madhuca-latifolia), tamarind (Tamarindus indica), sandal (santalum-album), jamun (Eugenia jombolona), mango (Mangifera-indica), babul (Acacia arabica), khakra (Butea frondosa), achar (Buchânania latifolia), pipal (Ficus-religiosa), bargad (Ficus bengalensis), aonla (Phyllanthus emblica) and nim (Melia indica).

The district is not particularly rich in flora.

Fauna:

Species of deer, panthers wild bears, hynaes, jackals and foxes are easily met. Panthers are foundin all tahsils except Sarangpur. The usual birds, fishes and reptiles are easily met with. A few crocodiles are found in the Parbati and Kali Sindh. There has been indiscriminate shooting in the past few years and this has caused considerable damage to the wild life. During the period of erstwhile State, shooting was prohibited and wild life was plentiful ; but all this has apparently changed and wild animals and birds have become scarce.

The Forests:

The area of the forests in the district is about 90 sq. miles and is spread over, in nearly 26 blocks. The forests do not possess any timber of value. The trees mostly consist of dhow (Anogeissus latifolia), khair (Acacia catechu), ber (Zezyphus jujuba), karondi (Shrunk Carpissa spinarum) kardhai (Anogeissus pendula), babul (Acacia arabica), chandan (Santalum album), achar (Buchannia latifolia), chheola (Butea frondosa) and tendu (Diospyros melanoxylon). The district falls under the Divisional Forest Officer, Sehore for administrative purposes. There is one Range Office at Rajgarh and two Deputy Rangers are posted at Narsingarh and Khilchipur. The timber is mostly used for making agricultural implements, fuel and building purposes. Auctions are held for disposal of the following forest produce : gum, resin, wax, honey, grass, and tendu leaves, used for making biris. In Saragpur tahsil chandan trees were plentiful and these were not in forest area. They have been surreptiously cut and in many cases sold off. The forest department has taken up planting of nurseries at Rajgarh and Narsingarh where the vegetation is slightly thicker specially near Kotra in Narsingarh tahsil.

Climate and Rainfall:

The district lies in Malwa Plateau and is between 1500′ to 1900′ above sea level. Thus the climate is on the moderate side. The average rainfall of the district is between 30″ to 45″ commencing from end of June. The months of July-August are the rainiest ones and there are about 45-50 rainy days in a year. The monsoon begins to decline by September and is reduced to a few occasional showers in October. In 1961, however, there were 55.79 cms. of rain during September which was nearly half of the year's total rainfall of 111.96 cms. The variation of rainfall has been from 18″ in 1951-52 to 57″ or 144.78 cms. in 1961-62. The average as per last twelve years rainfall is 41" or 120.84 cms. There are very little winter rains although sometimes accompanied by gusty winds and hail-storms, the rain may fall between January and March. In Rajgarh and Khilchipur tahsils bordering Rajasthan the rainfall is generally below the district average.

The winter season commences from November and December, January are the coldest months. The temperature is known to have gone down upto 5°c in these months. Summer commences by end of March or early April and May is the hottest month when the mercury is known to have touched 45°c. In the district itself Rajgarh and Khilchipur tahsils are comparatively hotter, but Narsingarh remains cool, being surrounded by forest and vegetation.

II

The Administrative Set Up:

The Representation of The District.

In the Parliament:

The General Elections in 1962 were conducted in accordance with the Delimitation of Parliamentary and Assembly Constituencies Order 1961, the relevant extract from which is reproduced below :—

A—Parliamentary Constituencies.

Serial No. and name of constituency	Extent in terms of Assembly Constituencies
1	2
29 Rajgarh	(227) Biaora, (228) Rajgarh, (229) Khilchipur, (230) Sarangpur, (231) Narsingarh, (232) Shujalpur, (235) Susner, (236) Agar.

The constituency thus comprises not only of Rajgarh but includes practically the entire district of Shajapur, excluding two legislative constituencies therein, viz., Gulana and Shajapur which are tagged on to district Dewas.

In the Assembly

The district returns five members for the State Legislature and this includes one on the Scheduled Caste Seat from Sarangpur. The break up of these five seats is as follows :—

B—Assembly Constituencies

Serial No. and name of constituency		Extent of constituency
1		2
227	Biaora	Biaora tahsil.
228	Rajgarh	Rajgarh tahsil; and patwari circles Nos. 49 to 58 and 70 to 76 of Khilchipur tahsil.
229	Khilchipur	Khilchipur tahsil (excluding patwari circles Nos. 49 to 58 and 70 to 76).
230	Sarangpur (SC)	Sarangpur tahsil; and patwari circles Nos. 26, 27, 29 to 31 and 34 in Narsingarh tahsil.
231	Narsingarh	Narsingarh tahsil (excluding patwari circles Nos. 26, 27, 29 to 31 and 34).

Revenue Administration:

The Collector is the Chief Revenue Authority in the district and is assisted by four Deputy Collectors, three of whom are stationed at Rajgarh and the fourth, usually a junior member of the I.A.S. or a senior officer from the State Civil Service, is resident at Narsingarh. The Collector who is also the District Magistrate is responsible for law and order in the district. Under the Madhya Pradesh Land Revenue Code each tahsil is a sub division and is placed in the charge of a Sub Divisional Officer (Deputy Collector) who is also the Sub-Divisional Magistrate for his charge. Since there is complete separation of the Judiciary from the Executive the Sub Divisional Magistrates are only responsible for the maintenance of law and order and try and dispose of cases under the Preventive Chapters of the Criminal Procedure Code. Each tahsil is under a Tahsildar who is assisted by an assistant called the Naib Tahsildar. The Collector is responsible for the maintenance of all land record papers and collection of land revenues. For administrative convenience a tahsil is further split up in Revenue Inspectors' Circles and Patwari Halkas. A Patwari is a petty revenue official who maintains records and accounts of revenues. His work is supervised by a Revenue Inspector. The inset table below gives the details of these sub divisions:—

District	No. of Tahsils	Revenue Inspectors' circles	Patwari halkas	Police Stations and outposts
Rajgarh	5	15	288	22

The Collector is also the chief co-ordinating authority in the district in which capacity he co-ordinates and guides the developmental programmes of other departments. With the impact of development activities his charge becomes onerous. One of the Deputy Collectors assists him in the work pertaining to development. Thus he (the Collector) occupies a pivotal position in the district.

The five tahsils of the district are (1) Rajgarh, (2) Khilchipur, (3) Biaora, (4) Narsingarh and (5) Sarangpur, all of which are also towns. For administrative convenience Narsingarh and Sarangpur form one sub division and the remaining tahsils the other. Besides the above tahsils, a sub tahsil is also located at Zirapur. In former Holkar State (Indore) Zirapur was a tahsil of Mahidpur district. A Naib Tahsildar is now stationed at Zirapur. For each village a head-man or patel is appointed by the Collector. The patel is generally responsible for safe-guarding the government interests and also collects the land revenue for which he is paid commission at the following rates

Provided that the annual remuneration of any patel in respect of any village shall not be less than Rs. 36.00. The remuneration is paid from the treasury once in each year. Lately Gram Panchayats have also been given the powers for collecting land revenue.

The Judiciary:

The Judiciary is separate from the Executive.The district falls within the jurisdiction of Sessions district at Guna. An Additional District and Sessions Judge is however posted at Rajgarh for trial of sessions cases. Besides these, Magistrates, who also exercise powers of Civil Courts are posted at Rajgarh, Narsingarh and Biaora, the last one also forming a link court with Sarangpur. Khilchipur is covered by a link court from Rajgarh.

The Police Department:

In the district the police force is under the administrative control of the Superintendent of Police, an officer of the Indian Police Service. He is assisted by two Deputy Superintendents, members of State Police Service, one of whom is posted as S.D.O. (Police) at Narsingarh and the other at Rajgarh. There are 16 police stations in the district and each station is under the control of Station House Officer usually an experienced Sub Inspector of Police. Besides these there are 6 police out-posts chowkies. The district generally is quiet and free from dacoity problem.

The N.E.S. Blocks:

The first block was started as a C.D. Block at Pachore on 2-10-53 and was later converted to Post Intensive one on 1-4-58 when its headquarters were also shifted to Sarangpur. In the initial stage it was a composite block containing villages from Narsingarh, Sarangpur and Rajgarh tahsils. The entire district is now covered by N.E.S. Blocks and the details are—

Local Bodies (Urban)

There are five municipal committees in the district, all in the towns which are also the tahsil headquarters. These are : (1) Narsingarh (2) Sarangpur, (3) Khilchipur, (4) Biaora and (5) Rajgarh. Most of these came into existence during the princely regime. Narsingarh municipality was founded in 1924 although the first elections were held only in 1954 after the formation of Madhya Bharat. The municipality at Narsingarh was classified as Class I Municipality, which included such municipalities whose income was above Rs. 75,000/- or whose population exceeded 15,000 persons as per 1951 Census. The other municipalities were treated as class II. During the erstwhile State of Madhya Bharat the municipalities were governed by the provisions of the Madhya Bharat Municipal Act, 1954 by which a uniform system of direct elections was introduced for the first time, although a provision for nominating 25% of members was made. This made the local bodies highly representative. At present the municipalities are governed by the provisions of M.P. Municipalities Act, 1962.

Local Bodies (Rural)

The Panchayats

Even during the days of erstwhile State Village Panchayats existed in some form or the other. It was however on the formation of Madhya Bharat that a uniform pattern of the rural local bodies was introduced. A three tier system of panchayats with Mandal Panchayat at the apex and Gram Panchayat for a village or a group of villages as the case may be was formed. Generally the area of a Gram Panchayat was co-terminus with the Patwari halkas. In between these two a Kendra Panchayat, usually covering the area of N.E.S. Block was formed to supervise the work of Gram Panchayat. The panchas in a Gram Panchayat were elected directly by secret ballot on basis of adult franchise. In the Kendra and Mandal Panchayats however the elections were indirect.

Besides the above Nyaya Panchayats had been constituted as a Civil and Criminal Court. They mostly try petty suits and offences. The total number of panchayats in the district is shown in the table:—

Table—Showing Local Bodies (Panchayats in the district)

District	Gram Panchayats	Kendra Panchayats	Mandal Panchayats	Nyaya Panchayats	Total	Remarks
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Rajgarh	270	6	1	15	292	Gram Panchayats exercising the powers of Nyaya Panchayats (9)

The income of Panchayats is mostly derived from taxes, cesses, fines and licence fees although the government grant-in-aid still remains the biggest source.

The Education Department:

During the decade there has been considerable progress in this sphere, though the district still does not offer higher educational facilities but the progress is unmistakeable. During the decade, the figure of primary schools has gone upto 437 as against 212 in 1951. The other new additions have been the starting of Basic Training Institutions, two Degree Colleges (one at Rajgarh and other at Narsingarh) and an increase in the numbers of Higher Secondary Schools ; their number has gone upto 12 from one in 1951. Educational Institutions have multiplied fast during the last few years. Besides these schools there are Music, Sanskrit and Weaving schools. In the primary schools alone the number of boys has nearly doubled itself, during the decade and there are 2,213 girls in these schools. The primary schools for boys had an enrolment of 14,761 students and 608 male teachers giving an average of 24.3 pupil per teacher. If the female teachers and students are also included then the average number of students per teacher is 26.2. There were 76 lady teachers in the year 1962-63 which is their highest number for any year. It is observed that generally all educational institutions, with their pupils and teachers, have increased in number. The District Education Officer looks after the schools, while the Degree Colleges are under the Director of Collegiate Education.

The Public Works Department

Rajgarh is not the headquarters of an Executive Engineer, who holds the charge of the district from Shajapur. An Assistant Engineer is however stationed here to look after the constructions and maintenance of government buildings and roads. Rajgarh depends entirely on road communications with the rest of the country. The jurisdiction of the Assistant Engineer covers all roads in the district. (An Executive Engineer has, recently been posted at Rajgarh and so it becomes a P.W.D. Division).

The Irrigation Department :

There are no major irrigation works in the district. The total area irrigated is only 33,036 acres or 4.57% of the total cropped area in 1960-61. The main source of irrigation is wells which account for 31,830 acres or 4.18%. The other sources are given in the table below:—

Table—Showing Irrigation by various sources

Years	Sources
	Govern-ment canals	Tanks	Wells other than tube wells	Other sources
1	2	3	4	5
1960-61	120	580	31,830	498

There is very little irrigation in the district. although it has more than doubled itself during the decade for only 13,041 acres were irrigated in 1951. The comparatively better irrigated areas are in R. I. Circle, Talen, Kurawar of Narsingarh tahsil, Pachor and Sarangpur of Sarangpur tahsil, Zirapur of Khilchipur tahsil, and Malawar of Biaora tahsil. The headquarters of the Executive Engineer Irrigation are at Narsingarh, who also looks after the Irrigation Works of Shajapur district.

Besides these sources there are two medium projects (costing over Rs. 10 lakhs but less than Rs. 5 crores) in the district. (1) Barodia tank constructed in Narsingarh tahsil at the cost of 18.80 lakhs with an irrigation potential of 2,600 acres but irrigating so far only 15 acres and (2) the Chhapi River Project, the work on which commenced in 1962 and when completed would irrigate 6,700 acres in Khilchipur tahsil. The likely cost of the project would be Rs. 33.04 lakhs. An abstract of minor works in the district is indicated below.

Table—Showing Minor Irrigation Works in Rajgarh district

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Rajgarh	39	2	3	7	4	5	3	63

The Co-operatives:

There is a Central Co-operative Bank at Rajgarh with six branches at Narsingarh, Sarangpur, Biaora, Khilchipur Zirapur and Pachor. The Co-operative movement appears to sink its roots deeper each year and during the decade there has been marked progress. The number of agricultural societies alone has risen to 370 and non-agricultural ones to 24. Although there was an increase in number of General Marketting, Farming, Irrigation, Housing and Weavers Societies, but no Grain Banks or Primary Land Mortgage Banks were established during the decade.

The Department of Industries:

There are no large or medium sized industries in the district. Once there were 28 Ginning and Pressing Factories employing over 2,200 workers out of which only 10 to 18 have been working during the last few years. There has been a steady decline in the cotton growing and ginning in the district, while some of the factories closed due to management difficulties (Pachore, Narsingarh), others could not work because of lack of cotton. In the last few years either the rains were heavy or too scanty hence not particularly conducive to the growth of cotton. Sarangpur was famous for producing fine muslin, even now the tradition has been kept alive and the local weavers produce good quality cloth.

The Medical Department

There is a Civil Surgeon for the district and there are four hospitals which are fairly well equipped. Besides these there are 18 civil dispensaries, graded and ungraded.

The health history of the district is fairly normal and no major epidemics have been reported. The progress during the decade is mainly in the expansion of Primary Health Centres and provision of extra beds. Five Family Planning Clinics have also been established, besides 5 Maternity Homes and 4 Primary Health Centres. The total number of Ayurvedic dispensaries is 31.

Other Offices:

Some district offices have not been located at Rajgarh. The Forest Department functions through the Divisional Forest Officer at Sehore. Similarly the Irrigation Department headquarters are at Narsingarh. This is partly due to lack of accomodation at Rajgarh. (At the time of going to press the offices of Executive Engineer P.W.D. have been shifted to Rajgarh).

The People:

The table below gives the growth of population during the last sixty years.

Table—Showing Percentage Variation of Population, 1901-61 (+Increase) (—Decrease)

	U	+ 56.89	+19.12	+ 3.79	+12.67	+ 7.02	— 6.81	+12.92

The decade 1901-11 was a difficult one for northern districts (Bhind, Morena and Gwalior) of erstwhile Gwalior State and this lead to an exodus of population to southern regions of Malwa, where their conditions were better. It is likely that the increase shown above was partly due to more difficult conditions in Gwalior State. The growth during this decade was the highest. This was followed by the dark decade of 1911-21 in which plague and influenza epidemics destroyed a great bulk of population. The returns revealed 6.40% loss evenly spread out in rural and urban areas. In 1921-31 and 1931-41 the increase has been more or less fair. The decade 1941-51 returns an increase of 6.37% only, which accords well with the general rate of growth. Similarly in 1951-61 the growth has been fairly near the average.

The table below gives the growth of the population of the district in the last sixty years.

Table—Showing the growth of population of the Rajgarh district in the last sixty years

Year	Persons	Decade Variation	Percentage Variation	Bhopal Division	Madhya Pradesh

1901-61	..	..	+88.17	+73.80	+92.00

During the last sixty years there has been an increase of 88.17% in the district population; which is considerably higher than that for Bhopal Division figure of 73.80% but lower than the State figure of 92.00%. Leaving aside the dark decade—1911-21, the rate of the growth in the district exhibits two distinct patterns. Upto 1931 the rate of growth was higher than that in the State and Bhopal Division and thereafter the rate of growth fell below the State growth although remaining higher than the growth in Bhopal Division upto 1951. During 1951-61 decade the growth, both in Bhopal Division and the State has been much higher.

The Growth in Rural Areas:

The growth of population in rural areas during the last sixty years 1901-61 has been to the tune of 92.19% which is considerably higher than that of Bhopal Division 64.14% and also higher than that of the State 80.13%. The population continued to grow throughout the four decades viz. 1901-11, 1921-31, 1931-41 and 1941-51 at a rate higher than that for the Bhopal Division. Only in 1951-61 is the rate of growth higher in the Division. When compared to the growth of the State the rate has been higher in all decades except 1931-41, 1941-51 and 1951-61. In the dark decade, however, the loss of population was also higher.

The Growth in Urban Areas:

Rajgarh is one of the few districts where the number of towns has remained the same during the last sixty years. The percentage decade variation of the towns since 1921 is given below. The year 1921 is selected because it was only after that year that the conditions were conducive to growth.

Table—Showing the Percentage Decade Variation

District	Town	Year
		1921	1931	1941	1951	1961
Rajgarh	Narsingarh	—4.39	+5.47	+19.42	— 9.99	+16.36
	Sarangpur	—9.17	+6.06	+ 2.32	+28.78	+23.27
	Biaora	—9.29	+7.13	+11.41	+17.06	+19.99
	Khilchipur	—9.68	+9.04	+15.30	— 6.54	+11.93
	Rajgarh	—2.39	+8.39	+13.00	- 3.01	+22.77

All the towns lost in population in 1921. During 1921-31 Khilchipur returned the highest rate of growth, a place which was taken by Narsingarh in 1941. An interesting feature of 1941-51 decade is the high rate of growth of Sarangpur- 28.78% and Biaora-17.06% and a decline in Narsingarh —9.99%, Khilchipur —6.54% and Rajgarh—3.01%. It appears that as a result of political changes leading to the formation of Madhya Bharat, the capital towns of former Princely States suffered a loss of population. Thus Narsingarh, Khilchipur and Rajgarh returned less population. This was mainly due to disbanding of the services in these States, coupled with the exodus of those who were dependent on the Rajas. In contrast with this the increase of road traffic on the Bombay Agra National Highway 3 which formed a main artery of communication of Madhya Bharat, caused an increase in the case of Biaora and Sarangpur both of which are located on the above Highway. In 1961 Sarangpur (+23.27%) and Rajgarh (+22.77%) lead in growth. In the case of Rajgarh the growth is mainly due to its being the district headquarters and Sarangpur followed by Biaora (+19.99%), continues to grow as before.

The Tahsils, Villages and Towns

The district covers an area of 2,365.7 sq. miles or 6,127.3 sq. km. with a population of 516,871 persons, giving it a density of 218 persons per sq. mile. There are 1,751 villages (1,673 habited and 78 uninhabited) and five towns. During the decade there has been no change in the total number of villages and towns but as many as twelve villages out of the depopulated ones became habited. The figures for uninhabited villages are :—

Table—Showing uninhabited villages

District/ Tahsil	Uninhabited villages		+Increase —Decrease
	1951	1961
1	2	3	4
Rajgarh District	90	78	—12
Khilchipur Tahsil	35	30	—5
Rajgarh Tahsil	25	21	—4
Biaora Tahsil	16	16	0
Sarangpur Tahsil	4	2	—2
Narsingarh Tahsil	10	9	—1

Khilchipur and Rajgarh tahsils have returned greater number of depopulated villages. This is partly due to the area towards north of these tahsils being arid and does not offer much scope for cultivation.

Re: Villages:

The villages are generally small in size the area being 1.34 sq. mile or 857.60 acres. In the rural areas there are only 199 persons to a sq. mile: the 1951 figure being 164.62. Thus in rural areas there has been an increase in the density. In the rural areas among the tahsils of the district Sarangpur with 219 persons per sq. mile has returned the maximum concentration of population and Rajgarh with 167 persons to a sq. mile is comparatively less densely populated.

An inhabited village of the district has an average population of 309 persons which is below the State average of 394 persons. In Rajgarh tahsil the average population of a village is only 187 and in Sarangpur it is 396, which is much nearer the State average. Thus in the district, Sarangpur tahsil has the highest density and the villages are comparatively more populous. The table below gives some details.

*Table—Showing the number of villages, area in sq. miles, population and density per sq. mile.

District/ Tahsil	No. of villages	Area in sq. miles	Total population	Density per sq. mile
1	2	3	4	5
Rajgarh District	1,751	2,366	516,871	218
Khilchipur Tahsil	558	632	139,285	220
Rajgarh Tahsil	395	422	79,036	187
Sarangpur Tahsil	194	349	87,222	250
Biaora Tahsil	293	443	94,090	212
Narsingarh Tahsil	311	520	117,238	225

Thus Khilchipur is the biggest in area and also has the highest population and the number of villages. Sarangpur is the smallest in area and number of villages but has the highest density of 250 persons per sq. mile.

Size of the Villages:

The table below indicates the percentage of villages and population.

Table—Showing the Percentage of villages and population

	1951	90.48	63.36	7.65	22.74	1.39	7.80	0.48	6.10

* Calculations are based on the latest area figures for 1962-63, supplied by the Director of Land Records.

In the district 86.85% of the villages have a population of less than 500 persons with nearly 56.63% of the districts population in them. Another 10.04% villages have a population ranging between 500-999; 2.45% are between population 1,000-1,999 and 0.66% are between population 2,000—4,999. The decade reveals the following changes: (a) there is a proportionate decrease in villages with a population of 500 and less, followed by an increase in villages 500—999 population; (b) nearly 81.40% or over four-fifths of the population lives in villages having a population of less than 1,000 persons and (c) there has been an increase in the villages of population 1,000 persons or over. This suggests that villages are increasing in size of population.

The Towns:

A table giving the population variation for the last thirty years is given below:—

Table—Showing the population of Towns with variations (1931 to 1961)

Town	Year	Population	Variation (+) (—)	Area in sq. miles	Population per sq. mile

	1951	9,933	—1,103	6.00	..
	1961	11,558	+1,625	5.00	2,312

The details are:—

(1) Narsingarh:—Excepting in 1941-51 decade when the population decreased, the growth of the population has been steady. This was due to the political changes viz. the merger of the Princely State into Madhya Bharat followed by winding up of State Forces, Police, Customs, Excise, and such other Services. In many cases those that were effected left the main town for villages and other places.

(2) Sarangpur:—The growth of the town had been very poor till 1941, but during the following decade, on formation of new State of Madhya Bharat, the growth was rapid. The road traffic increased following the removal of traffic barriers, which existed in the pre-Madhya Bharat days. The National Highway 3 was the main artery of communication of the State for it passed through eleven of the sixteen districts in the State. During the present decade the growth accords with the general trend.

(3) Biaora:—The reasons given for Sarangpur apply with greater force in case of Biaora which is an important road junction, for apart from the Agra-Bombay Highway, it also connects Bhopal to Kotah, Jaipur, Rajasthan and Gwalior-Agra-Delhi.

(4) Rajgarh:—What has been said with respect to Narsingarh also holds good in case of Rajgarh. Although Rajgarh became the headquarters of the district yet in 1951, it registered a decrease of 3.01% in the population.

(5) Khilchipur:—The decrease of population in Khilchipur, during 1941-51 like Rajgarh seems to be due to the same reason. Thus the political changes, caused a decrease in the capital towns of these three States, all of which are in the interior.

The Houses:

The houses are generally made of mud walls and thatched roofs or roofs that are covered with local tiles. In the towns, houses of bricks and stones are also seen. The leaf roofs are mostly of chhola (Butea frondosa) and are more commonly met with in the interior region of Khilchipur and Rajgarh tahsils.

There are 5.51 persons per occupied census house (a residential house). The comparable position of crowding in some nearby districts is given below:

State/ Division/ District	Total	Rural	Urban
1	2	3	4
Madhya Pradesh	5.20	5.16	5.42
Bhopal Division	5.13	5.11	5.25
Rajgarh District	5.51	5.54	5.23
Shajapur ,,	5.09	5.04	5.58
Vidisha ,,	5.10	5.07	5.30

Rajgarh has the maximum concentration of persons per household. There are 44 households per sq. mile.

During the decade the variation in the number of occupied houses has been as under.

Table—Showing the position of the occupied houses during the decade.

Year	No. of occupied houses	Variation (+) (—)	Percentage	Persons per occupied house
1	2	3	4	5
1951	79,769	—	—	5.36
1961	93,751	+13,982	17.5	5.51

Whereas the population increased by 20.90%, the increase in the number of houses was only 17.5%; thus the congestion increased as is obvious from above. Among the tahsils the number of persons per occupied house is indicated below:

Name of District/ Tahsil	Year		+Increase —Decrease
	1961	1951
1	2	3	4

Biaora Tahsil	6.41	5.51	+.90
Sarangpur Tahsil	5.12	4.97	+.15
Narsingarh Tahsil	5.23	4.95	+.28

Thus among the tahsils Biaora has the highest number of persons 6.41 to a house. Excepting Rajgarh tahsil where there has been some reduction all other tahsils show an increase in the number of persons per occupied house.

The Proportion of Sexes:

The table below gives the changes in the proportion of sexes.

Table—Showing changes in the Proportion of Sexes

	Females per one thousand males
	1961	1951	1941	1931	1921	1911	1901

Rural	918	919	913	905	904	924	N.A.
Urban	905	968	905	916	924	962	961

In 1911 the district returned the highest number of females ever, 928 per 1,000 males. In the next two decades the number of females remained steady at 906. Another noticeable feature was that the urban areas had a greater number of females than the rural ones viz. 962, 924, 916, for 1911, 1921 and 1931 respectively. In the next two decades it appears that there was a slight increase in female births in the district; there being 912 and 924 females per 1,000 males in 1941 and 1951 respectively. Thereafter during this decade the number has again gone down and in 1961 there were 917 females per 1,000 males. In the urban areas there are 905. The figure of 917 females per thousand males is near the Bhopal Division figure of 919 but much lower than State figure of 953. The position in adjoining districts is as follows: Shajapur (943), Sehore (864), Guna (899). Sehore district with Bhopal Town Group, has returned 864, the fewest number of females in the above group and as one goes towards the north of the State, in Gwalior Division, the number of females decrease further.

In the urban areas of the district there are 905 females to a thousand males. This is much above the Division or State figures which are 838 and 856 respectively. This is mainly due to the fact that there are neither important industries nor many employment facilities in the urban areas.

The Age Table

The age data given below are based on ungraduated ages and though the quinquennial groupings adopted below suppress to some extent the distorting effects of age-heapings at multiples of 5, still the data is not fit enough to permit analysis by quinquennial age-groups unless corrected or smoothed. It would therefore be safer to confine the scrutiny of the age-data to the age intervals 0-14, 15-34, 35-59 and 60+ which may be described as corresponding to children, young persons, middle aged persons and old persons.

From the above table 40.5% or 2/5 of the population is in the age-group 0-14 and the females appear to outnumber the males. In the 15-34 age-group there are 32.4% or nearly 1/3 of the population. Thus nearly 72.9% or little less than 3/4 of the population is youthful. This is more or less in accordance with the State figures.

The table inset below gives the percentage distribution of 100 persons in the district in 1951, by broad age-groups ; the relevent proportions for 1961, are also given in order to focus attention on the changes that have occurred. The 1951 data is based on 10% sample of the population, and in making the comparison with 1961 Census data (based on total population) we are making the assumption that the age-composition in the sample (1951) represented the universe.

Religion :

Hindus form the bulk of population constituting 94.67%. In the rural areas they constitute 96.7% of the population. The table below giving the comparative figures for the two decades indicates that the percentage of Hindu population has gone down by 0.18% and among the Muslims it has gone up by 0.10%. These two categories account for 99.72% of the district population. The sex ratio among Muslims is 945 females per thousand males as against 915 among Hindus.

Although the Christians show an increase of 194.73% their number is insignificant. More Sikhs seem to have come to the district during the decade.

The Mother Tongue:

The district has returned as many as 33 languages as mother tongues. Hindi with 496,016 speakers or 95.97% is the main language of the district. Hindi is followed by Urdu with 15,262 or 2.95% speakers. Apart from these two, Malwi has 2,166 speakers. There are no other languages with 1,000 or more speakers in the district. The percentage increase in the speakers of these languages is indicated below:—

Table—Showing percentage increase in Mother Tongue Languages

Languages	Persons		+ Increase — Decrease	Percentage (+) (—)
	1951	1961

Malwi	87,156	2,166	— 84,990	— 97.52

There has been a phenomenal rise among persons whose mother tongue is Urdu. It is difficult to account for the spurt since there are no ostensible reasons for it. It also appears that many persons who returned Malwi as their mother tongue in 1951 have returned Hindi in 1961. The table below gives the details regarding languages returned as mother tongue.

Literacy:

Although there has been some progress in literacy, the district on the whole remains far behind in literacy there being only 9.99% literates—it was only 5.4% in 1951. In fact this figure is the lowest in Bhopal Division. The literacy returns of the neighbouring districts are:—Shajapur 14.13%; Sehore 21.48% and Guna 13.80%. The break up of literacy in rural and urban areas is as follows:—

	Percentage of literates and educated
	Total	Males	Females
	1	2	3
Rural	7.44	13.00	1.39
Urban	34.25	48.18	18.88

In rural areas literates are very few. In respect of literacy Rajgarh is the third from the bottom in Madhya Pradesh. The two districts returning even lower literacy are: Jhabua 3.48% and Bastar 5.93%. Rajgarh is closely followed by Sidhi 7.47% and Surguja 7.81% literacy for rural areas.

Migration:

The table below gives the details regarding the place of birth.

Migration Table

Total Population 516,871

Persons born in place of enumeration	Born elsewhere in the district of enumeration	Born in other districts of the State
356,604	116,770	32,124

4	5	6	7
11,148	201	3	21

Thus a very great portion of the population 356,604 persons or 68.99% is born and enumerated in the same place. If we add another 116,770 persons or 22.59%; we have over 90.58% of the population as being born and living in the district itself. In the other districts of the State another 32,124 or 6.22% were born. Out of as many as 11,148 persons born in the other States 9,356 or 83.93% are from Rajasthan, 934 or 8.38% from Uttar Pradesh, 387 or 3.47% from Maharashtra and 129 or 1.16% from Gujrat. Out of 201 persons born in Asia 173 or 86.07% are born in Pakistan and 25 in Nepal.

The table essentially underlines the comparative lack of mobility of population.

Marital Status:

All persons between ages 0-9 were tabulated as never married. This does not however mean that children in this age group are never married, for 56.75% females and 21.80% males in 10-14 age group are married, and some of these married are likely to be in the 0-9 age group. The table below gives the details of marital status.

A.N.S.	100	100	91.30	96.00	8.70	2.67	..	1.33	..	..	..	..

The table reveals that over half of the females 56.75% in 10-14 age group are married. The age of marriage commences at about 10-12 in the females in the males since 21.8% are married it could be reasonably be assumed to be a little higher.

In the 15-19 age group nearly 95.34% among the females are married and only 4.01% remain never married. Thus before attaining the age of 19 nearly all females are married and in 0.58% cases even widowed. As many as 53.44% among the males get married by this time which again emphasises the comparative late age of marriages among males. It is however in 20-24, 25-29 and 30-34 age groups that the percentage of married ones both among males and females is highest being 78.96, 88.52 and 87.99% for males and 98.04, 96.42 and 94.16% for females respectively. Widows and widowers also begin to show an increase, whereas among the males the percentage of married ones oscillates between 80.17% at 50-54 to 89.29% at 35-39 it comes down to 53.59% for females in 50-54 and to 87.75% at 35-39. Thus in the case of females the percentage of married women begin to come down after 39 years and consequently the number of widows rise high. In the 50-54 age group nearly 45.89% are widows and 14.62% widowers.

In the case of females the percentage of married ones slumps appreciably after 55 being 45.94% for 55-59 age group, 29.71% for 20-64 age group, 23.83% for 65-69 and 22.68% for 70 and obove age groups. As this goes down there is an appreciable rise in the percentage of widows touching 77.18% in 70+ age group. Among the males though the percentage of married persons goes down yet as many as 49.75% in 70+ and 68.21% in 65-69 age groups remain married. Thus in the upper age groups the percentage of married males is much higher.

With regard to widows and widowers there are more widows in all age groups except 10-14 and 15-19 than the widowers. From the age of forty onwards at least one-fifths of the females are widows and after the age of 60 over two-thirds are widows. The divorcees are comparatively few.

The Scheduled Castes and Tribes

The Scheduled Castes were enumerated in accordance with the Scheduled Castes and Tribes Lists (Modification) Order, 1956 which underwent some changes, rendering comparison with 1951 figures difficult.

The Scheduled Castes

There are 97,831 persons—49,960 males and 47,871 females constituting 18.93% of the district population who have been returned as scheduled. The predominant castes are:—(1) Chamars, Bairwas, Bhambi, Jatav, Mochi or Regar, who total 61,514 persons or 62.88% of the total Scheduled Castes. This is followed by Balais 20,085 persons or 20.53%, Bagdi or Bagaris 3,294, Bhangi or Mehtar 3,033, Pardhi 2,308, Nat, Kalbelia or Sapera 1,837 and Koli or Kori 1,423 persons (only castes returning over one thousand population have been described above). As among the tahsils Sarangpur tahsil, with 18,403 persons or 21.10% of its total population, has returned the maximum concentration in the district. This is followed by Narsingarh 21.01% and Biaora 19.68%. The remaining two tahsils viz. Khilchipur and Rajgarh have returned 16.82% and 16.25% Scheduled Castes respectively.

The Scheduled Castes are mostly spread out in rural areas. Only in Biaora and Narsingarh towns they number 1,680 and 1,632 or 16.56% and 14.12% of the population respectively.

The table below gives the details of workers of these main Scheduled Castes.

Other details regarding these castes are briefly mentioned below.

The Chamars:—The Chamars are the professional workers in leather and hides. In the district they are living mostly in the rural areas. Their main occupations are cultivation and agricultural labourers followed by workers in 'Other Services' and 'Household Industries' which is mainly limited to the manufacture of leather products. Only 946 persons are engaged in tanning and currying of hides, a profession which they are beginning to detest because it is regarded as an unclean one. The Bhairwas, Bhambi, Jatav, Mochi and Regar are the synonyms for the same caste.

The Balais:—The Balais are the professional caste of village watchmen and servants and live mostly in the rural areas. Their main occupation is cultivation followed by working as agricultural labourers and 'Other Services'.

The Bagdi or Bagris:—The Bagris were also known as Moghias. Once they were known for their predatory habits. Their main occupation is cultivation, followed by 'Household Industries' and as agricultural labourers.

Mehtar or Bhangi—This is the traditional class of sweepers and scavengers. They were regarded as untouchables. Their main occupation is 'Other Services', mostly personal services followed by cultivation and workers as agricultural labourers. As many as 482 persons are still engaged in scavenging and of these 205 are in urban areas.

Pardhi:—They are a wandering caste of bird catchers and hunters who are slowly taking to settled life. In some districts of the State viz. in the Mahakoshal region and Raisen and Sehore districts they are treated as a tribe. Their main occupation is 'Household Industries' agricultural labour, cultivation and hunting, fishing etc.

Koli:—This is a functional caste of weavers who are chiefly spread out in the rural areas of the district. They number 1,423 persons and their main occupation is 'other service' followed by cultivation.

Nat, Kalbelia or Sapera:—The word nat is derived from nata meaning a dancer and so represents a caste of dancers, acrobats and showmen. A common image of a Nat is that of tight rope walker. In the Vindhya Pradesh region they are regarded as a Scheduled Tribe. The Sapera represents the snakecharmer who often earns his living by exhibiting snakes. They number 1,837 persons.

The Scheduled Tribes

There are only 979 persons—485 males and 494 females who have been returned as Scheduled Tribes. These are mostly Saheriyas (907) persons. There are more females than males and they mostly live in the rural areas of Biaora and Narsingarh tahsils in villages bordering forest. Rajgarh tahsil has not returned any Scheduled Tribe. The other tribes in the district are Gonds (70) and Korku (2).

The Vital Statistics:

In 1953 the Madhya Bharat State Government promulgated the Madhya Bharat Births, Deaths, Marriages Registration Act, 1953 basing it on a similar Act of 1886 of the Government of India, making the registration of births and deaths compulsory, but it was never enforced. The position regarding the maintenance of vital statistics, therefore, has been far from satisfactory. During the decade, under the existing laws the municipalities and the panchayats were required to maintain statistics of births and deaths. Both these local bodies have not been able to keep an accurate statistics and the position remained practically the same as was described by Ranglal in 1955. In the Report of Operations connected with the Improvement of Population Data M.B. 1952, he wrote:—*

"The arrangements for the registration of births and deaths are unsatisfactory even in large municipal towns. The Director's Report as to the agency responsible for the reporting of the deaths in urban areas is silent. All that is known is that generally the responsibility has been laid either on members of the family of the deceased or on sweepers or on both."

* Census of India, Paper No, 2 - 1955, Sample Census of Births and Deaths - 1952-53

Whereas the position was bad enough in the municipalities, it was much worse in the case of panchayats. Kendra panchayats were made responsible to arrange for the registration of births, deaths and marriages in their jurisdiction provided it could find funds for the purpose. The Gram Panchayats were supposed to record births and deaths and send the figures monthly to the Madal Panchayats through the Kendra Panchayats which submitted returns to the Deputy Director of Health Services. The municipalities also sent these returns to the Deputy Director concerned who after consolidation sent it to the Director Health Services. The panchayats failed to grasp the importance of this duty and no regular records were maintained. Thus no statistics worth the name were ever compiled.

The births and deaths statistics of the Corporations are generally those that are made available to them by the Government or municipal hospitals and such others as may have been collected by their Health Department. The coverage by is by no means full as many births and deaths are never reported. There being no supervising agency, it is impossible to verify the accuracy. In 1952 when an experimental Census of births and deaths was conducted in Madhya Bharat the results were as follows:—

1	Period covered by Census	30-10-51 to 18-10-52
2	Period for which figures were supplied by the Health Department	1-11-51 to 31-10-52

Births and deaths rates per 1,000 of population calculated on basis of :

	Result of experimental Census		Figures supplied by Health Deptt.
	Births	Deaths	Births	Deaths
State of M. B.	33.0	18.8	10.4	6.5
Plateau Divison (which includes Rajgarh District)	34.7	22.0	12.0	8.1

The absence of accurate statistics causes great difficulty in estimating the annual rate of natural increase. No wonder it was then estimated at between 1.4 to 1.6 percent annually.

The Rural/Urban Setting :

The district returns 90.52 : 9.48 ratio of rural urban composition. The ratio in other neighbouring districts is as follows :—

Unit	Percentage of rural and urban population to total population.
	Rural	Urban
Madhya Pradesh	85.71	14.29
Bhopal Division	83.85	16.15
Shajapur district	89.92	10.08
Vidisha district	86.86	13.14
Sehore district	63.99	36.01
Guna district	87.43	12.57

The urban areas thus constitute less than one tenths of the total population and as compared to the above neighbouring districts Rajgarh shows least urbanisation, with as many as five towns.

The Workers and Non-Workers:

The table below gives the proportion of workers and non-workers.

State/ Division/ District	T R U	Total population			Total Workers
		P	M	F	P	M	F
Madhya Pradesh	T	1000	1000	1000	523	602	440

	U	1000	1000	1000	333	499	149

The district returns more workers than those for Bhopal Division or State. Although the rate of participation is high but it does not indicate prosperity or economic development of the district. On the contrary it emphasises the backwardness of the economy. In the rural areas the participation rate for men and women is much higher than that in Bhopal Division. In the urban areas however the proportion of workers in the district is less than that of Bhopal Division.

The Pattern of work in the District:

Nearly four-fifth of the population is engaged in cultivation or as agricultural labourers; followed by workers in 'Other Services' and 'Household Industry'. Workers in other occupations are comparatively few and there are no industries in the district. The table below gives the details of occupation.

Cultivation:

Out of the total area of 1,514,081 acres the area under cultivation in 1960-61 was 723,192 acres, the highest during the decade in which more land has been brought under cultivation. It represents 47.76% of the total area. It was 613,009 in 1951-52 and since then it has consistently shown an upward trend. The cultivation is mostly of a dry type, there being very little of irrigation as only 33,036 acres or 4.57% of the cultivated area is irrigated. The district mainly grows jowar, wheat and gram, other crops being rice, ground-nut, pulses, sugar-cane, condiments and little cotton. More kharif than rabi crops are sown. The major crops are:—(Area figures unless stated otherwise refer to 1960-61).

Jowar:—Jowar is the main crop of the district and is sown in 332,378 acres or 45.96% of the total area sown. It is unirrigated and the yield is 597 lbs. per acre. The above figure represents the highest ever area under jowar. During 1956-57 which was a season of very heavy rainfall it fell to 234,114 acres, the lowest for the decade. It is grown in all the tahsils.

Maize:—It was grown in 44,111 acres; the area varying between 35,493 in 1955-56 to 44,111 in 1960-61. It is mostly unirrigated and the yield is 359 lbs. per acre.

Wheat:—Wheat is a winter crop and was sown in 108,512 acres or 15.00% of the total area. During the decade the area under wheat has gone up considerably. It was only 46,187 acres in 1951-52 and in 1956-57 (a season of heavy rainfall), it rose to 157,230 acres, the highest for the decade. Whenever the rainfall is heavy and late, the tendency is to sow more area with wheat. In some parts of Sarangpur, Narsingarh and Biaora tahsils wheat is very extensively grown. Towards Rajgarh and Khilchipur tahsils the conditions are a little different. Only 14,440 acres of the total area under wheat are irrigated. The yield has been about 410 lbs. per acre for the unirrigated variety.

Gram:—Gram is usually sown along with wheat and was sown in 39,311 acres. As in the case of wheat during the decade more area has been brought under gram and in 1956-57 it was 65,078 acres, the highest for the decade. It is unirrigated and the yield is about 543 lbs. per acre.

Pulses:—The total area under pulses is 77,015. Tur (Arhar) is sown in 13,257 acres mostly as a mixed crop. The other pulses are urad, moong, masoor.

Sugarcane:—The area under sugarcane has exhibited erratic trends. It was 2,448 acres in 1951-52 but went down to 960 acres the following year. Since then it has shown an upward trend. The main difficulty has been the lack of a crushing plant in the vicinity. The Sugar Mills at Sehore and Mahidpur which are over 40 and 50 miles from some of the nearer villages, are the only places where a cultivator may take his produce. Although the Sehore Mills set up a small purchase camp on Narsingarh-Sehore road, but even that is not of much help to the cultivators coming from other tahsils. In 1960-61 an area of 3,333 was under cultivation. It is an irrigated crop.

Condiments and Spices:—The area under cultivation of condiments and spices has shown an upward trend having gone upto 12,421 acres in 1960-61 from 2,724 acres about ten years ago. The commonest of these are ginger, garlic, cuminseed, onions and coriander.

Fruits and Vegetables:—The area under fruits and vegetables has steadily gone down to 2,292 acres from 3,249 in 1951-52 and 6,050 in 1952-53. The fruits are mostly of the citrus family, guavas and papayyas. Vegetables are grown mostly near the urban areas, where they have a better market and exported to Bhopal by road.

Non-Food Crops

Ground-nut:—Ground-nut has been sown as a kharif crop in 18,960 acres. The area has varied from 8,214 in 1955-56 to 19,265 in 1959-60. There has been a steady increase in the area under ground-nut. This is mainly due to good prices at which it sells.

Sesamum (Til):—The acreage under sesamum has shown a decrease having gone down to 7,152 in 1960-61 from 15,083 in 1951-52.

Cotton:—Ginning and pressing factories are met with in many places in the district. Cotton has been sown over 133,832 acres in 1960-61 and this acreage is fairly high. In 1955-56 cotton was sown in over 197,087 acres, being the highest ever under this crop. The acreage under cotton has been showing a steady decline. (Also discussed under Industries p. lxi).

Irrigation:—The district is very poorly supplied in sources of irrigation. The government canals account for only 128 acres of irrigation. The number of tanks used for irrigation are few and so the cultivators are mostly obliged to fall back upon wells. The area irrigated by wells is 31,830 acres. The statement below gives the details regarding irrigation.

Table—Showing Irrigated area by sources

(1960-61)

By Government Canals	Tanks	Wells	Other Sources	Total
128	580	31,830	498	33,036

Irrigation Project:

There are no major projects (projects over 5 crores) in hand in the district. Two medium projects (projects likely to cost over 10 lakhs but less than 5 crores) have been drawn up, out of which Barodia tank in Narsingarh tahsil has been completed; but waters have not yet been fully utilised for irrigation. The Chhapi River Project in tahsil Khilchipur when completed at an estimated cost of 33.04 lakhs would irrigate 6,700 acres.

Settlement:

The land revenue settlement of the district was made by different States, prior to the formation of Madhya Bharat. Only Rajgarh tahsil was settled in 1953-54. The other remaining States had carried out the following settlements:

State/ Territory 1	Year of Settlement 2	Year of Expiry 3
Narsingarh (Tahsil Khujner and Chhapahera now in Khilchipur tahsil).	1923-26	1940-41
Holkar State	1924-28	1955-56
Rajgarh (Tahsil Biaora and Kotra now in Narsingarh tahsil)	1927-	1941-
Khilchipur	1935-36	1955-56
Dewas (Junior) (With reference to Sarangpur tahsil)	1938-39	1958-59
Narsingarh Rajya (Narsingarh tahsil)	1943-45	1958-

There have been no fresh settlements and under the present law (M.P. Land Revenue Code, 1959, Sections 84 and 90) these settlements despite the year of expiry, remain in force.

The General Cropping Pattern:

The district is essentially a kharif crop producing area jowar being the main followed by wheat. The district mainly produce food grains. Among the non-food crops cotton is the most important one being grown in almost one-sixths of the total area. The table below reveals the cropping pattern.

Table—Showing Cropping Pattern—1960-61

District/ Tahsil	Area sown	Rice	Jowar	Maize	Wheat	Total Cereals & Millets	Gram	Tur	Other Pulses	Total Pulses	Total Food grains	Total Condi-ments	Total Food crops	Ground Nut	Total Oil Seeds	Cot-ton	Total Non-food crops	Area sown more than once. Net area sown

The salient features of the above tahsilwise are:—

Khilchipur Tahsil:

The proportion of kharif crops is very high. Jowar, maize, rice, tur, grond-nut and cotton account for over 90% of the total area sown. The better cultivated tracts are towards Zirapur sub-tahsil.

Rajgarh Tahsil:

The pattern is more or less the same as Khilchipur. The area under wheat and gram falls to 8.93% only.

Biaora Tahsil:

The tahsil is essentially a kharif crop growing tract; however in some areas more wheat than before is being grown. In 1960-61 over 14.51% of net area sown was under wheat and another 10.82% under gram. This distinguishes the pattern from Khilchipur and Rajgarh for over 1/4 of the area is under rabi crops.

Narsingarh Tahsil:

A little over one-third of the total cropped area was under rabi crops. The area under rabi appears to be increasing although the tahsil is still a kharif crop growing area. The net area sown more than once is only 2.51% which is the least in the district.

Sarangpur Tahsil:

The tahsil mainly grows kharif crop and jowar is the main one. Most of the area in the tahsil is under cultivation.

Area sown more than once:

The table below gives some details of the net area sown more than once in the district.

Table—Showing percentage of area sown more than once to total croped area.

District/ Tahsil	Net area sown	Area sown more than once	Total croped area
1	2	3	4
Rajgarh District	94.88	5.12	100.00
Khilchipur Tahsil	92.66	7.34	100.00
Rajgarh Tahsil	94.14	5.86	100.00
Biaora Tahsil	94.51	5.49	100.00
Narsingarh Tahsil	97.49	2.51	100.00
Sarangpur Tahsil	95.48	4.52	100.00

Khilchipur tahsil has returned 7.34% out of 100 cropped acres as being sown more than once; on the whole such area is very little.

Rates of Land Revenue:

The rates of land revenue very considerably. The land revenue on rich black soil receiving irrigation, locally called adan aval alif varies between Rs. 12.09 and Rs. 19.12 per acre. The variation for other variety of soils are similar. In Sarangpur tahsil the rates are the highest and acre was the unit of measurement. In other States bigha was the unit and one bigha equalled 5/8 of an acre.

Soils:

The soil is classed according to its natural formation, its situation and the use to which it is put. A variety of soils are met with in the district. The black cotton soil is found in some parts and is the best class of available soil. The others are of the ordinary type. The soil of the first quality is known as 'adan aval alif' which is of rich black variety and is usually near water source. It retains moisture for a considerable time. Formerly opium was grown in it. The above is divided into four categories varying in content of clay. The other important variety is Bhumar—Kalwat, Kali, Bardi, Salgatta—Bhumar is brown in colour and is specially suitable for cultivation of wheat and also produces gram, jowar, cotton etc. Kalwat is usually of dark brown composition mixed with sand and pebble. The varieties of black cotton soil are Kali-1, Kali-2, Kali-3; they are hard clayey, adhesive and also capable of retaining moisture for a long time. The variety 'adan aval alif' includes black cotton soil. The Bardi variety is of brown colour, very shallow containing hardly 8"—10" of clay and is mostly found in the slopes of hills and produces very little. The Salgatta variety is suited for rice only and is nearly always located near tank of river beds.

Workers as Agricultural Labourers:

There are 35,846 persons—17,354 males and 18,492 females or 12.63% of the workers who have returned their primary occupation as agricultural labourers. Out of these 35,606 or over 99% are in the rural areas. These are mostly of (i) permanent (ii) casual types. The permanent ones stay with the cultivators—who usually own more than 15 acres and are paid partly in kind and partly in cash. Their payment ranges from Rs. 300/- to Rs. 350/- per year. Towards Kurawar which is near Sehore and Bhopal towns, the wages are higher; in some places in the interior a labourer could be had for Rs. 250/- a year. Besides the cash, nothing else is given. In a few cases a set of clothes and shoes are also given in addition to cash. Many labourers obtain advance payment and so remain steeped in debts. There are instances where food and clothes are also given to a permanent labourer but in such cases their wages are reduced to about Rs. 150/- only. The agreement and all payments are duly signed in the bahi or accounts book.

The casual labourers are mostly engaged on an adhoc basis specially at the time of preparing fields, sowing and cutting of the crops. They are paid mostly in kind and sometimes in cash. Those who receive payment in kind are given grains at the rate of 3 seers per day in the form of stacks. Sometimes they are engaged on contract basis and paid 15 seers per bigha after the crop has been cut, stored and cleaned. Casual labourers are also paid at the rate of one stack of wheat (locally called poola) for every nineteen cut by them. Since they themselves make these bundles, the one meant for as payment for the labour is invariably of a bigger size.

In bigger villages and urban centres preference for cash payment is becoming noticeable. Agricultural labourers are becoming scarcer each year. The construction of Guna-Maksi link, has also upset the availablity of casual labourers. A noticeable feature among this category is that the females outnumber the males.

Workers in mining, quarrying, livestock, forestry, fishing, hunting and plantations, orchards and allied activities

This category has returned 11,261 persons—10,277 males and 984 females or 12.63% as workers. The number of females returned as workers is relatively very small. The main categories in which these workers are employed are:—

Code No.	Brief description of the industry	Number of workers			Percentage to 3	Ranking
		P	M	F
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
009	Production of other agricultural produce (including fruits and nuts not covered b code number 006 and flowers) not covered above	144	138	6	1.26	4
024	Production of fodder by exploitation of forests	178	70	108	1.50	2
040	Production and rearing of livestock (large heads only) mainly for milk and animal power such as cow, buffalo, goat	10,333	9,636	697	90.58	1
042	Rearing and production of other animals (mainly for slaughter) such as pigs	129	83	46	1.46	5
107	Quarrying of stone (including slate) clay, sand, gravel, limestone	150	120	30	1.33	3

A great majority of the workers are engaged in the production and rearing of livestock. As many as 21 fairs are held each year in the district and in these cattle trading is brisk. The above again serves to emphasise the rural economy of the district.

Workers in the Household Industry:

There are 15,378 persons—10,775 males and 4,603 females or 5.42% of the total workers who have returned manufacture in Household Industry as their main occupation.

The main household industries of the district are:—

Code No.	Brief description of the industry	Number of workers			Percentage to 3	Ranking
		Persons	Males	Females
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
206	Production of butter, cheese, ghee and other dairy products	306	164	142	1.99	11
207	Production of edible fats and oils (other than hydrogenated oil)	733	487	246	4.77	8
235	Cotton weaving in handlooms	673	321	352	4.38	9
273	Making of textile garments including raincoats and headgear	1,184	1,020	164	7.70	5
282	Manufacture of structural wooden goods (including treated timber) such as beams, posts, doors, windows.	1,870	1,842	28	12.16	4
288	Manufacture of material from cork, bamboo, cane, leaves and other allied products	2,187	997	1,190	14.22	2
310	Currying, tanning and finishing of hides and skins and preparation of finished leather	807	649	158	5.25	6
311	Manufacture of shoes and other leather footwear	2,032	1,437	595	13.21	3
350	Manufacture of earthenware and earthen pottery	2,280	1,313	967	14.83	1
369	Manufacture of sundry hardwares	779	668	111	5.06	7
393	Manufacture of Jewellery, silverware and wares using gold and other precious metals	627	601	26	4.07	10

The highest number of workers are thus engaged in the manufacture of earthen ware pottery, a profession plied mostly by the kumhars. This is followed by manufacturing from leaves, cork, and bamboos and making of shoes and other leather products. These industries again emphasise the rural characteristics of the district. Among the other industries, cotton weaving in the handlooms appears to be an old tradition in Sarangpur, where the weavers have a well organised society. At village Padana in Sarangpur tahsil attractive hand woven cloth is produced by the local weavers. A Tannery located at Narsingarh trains in the currying and flaying of hides.

Workers in Manufacturing other than Household Industry

There are only 1,725 Persons—1,577 males and 148 females or 0.61% of the total workers in the above category. The district has no major Industry and whatever little it has, is confined to urban areas. The workers are mostly engaged in manufacture of miscellaneous textile garments 325 persons—315 males and 10 females; followed by manufacture of wood and wooden products 203 workers—196 males and 7 females. Manufacture of clay products occupies the third place with 164 workers—104 males and 60 females. The pattern of industries is similar to the household industries.

Workers in Construction:

There are 1,130 persons—1,008 males and 122 females or 0.40%of the total workers in this category spread evenly in the rural and urban areas. A great number of the workers are engaged in construction and maintenance of buildings 723 persons—655 males and 68 females; construction and maintenance of roads and railways account for another 251 persons—223 males and 28 females. The rail road construction Guna-Maksi link on the Western Railway which will pass through the district, was started in the year 1962.

Workers in Trade and Commerce

In this category there are 5,401 persons—4,881 males and 520 females or 1.90% of the total workers spread out evenly in the rural and urban areas. The trade is mostly of the retail type which engages 5,025 persons—4,517 males and 508 females. Thus a very great portion of workers under this category are retail traders of miscellaneous types. There is not much of trade or commerce in the district. Among the retail traders those dealing in fibres, yarns, sarees, dhoties, ready made garments of cotton, silk etc. are highest in number being 689 persons—680 males and 9 females.

Workers in Transport, Storage and Communications:

There are 723 workers—711 males and 12 females or 0.26% of the total workers in the above category. They are mostly confined to urban areas and are engaged in transporting by buses, trucks and other motor vehicles.

Other Services:

There are 20,261 persons—13,520 males and 6,741 females or 7.14% of the total workers in this category. They mainly relate to the following categories.

Code No.	Brief description of the industry	Number of workers			Percentage to 3	Ranking
		Persons	Males	Females
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
511	Garbage and sewage disposal, operation of drainage system and other work connected with public health and sanitation	548	281	267	2.70	11

811	Educational services such as those rendered by colleges. schools and similar other institutions of non-technical type	1,463	1,318	145	7.22	2
820	Public health and medical services	615	412	203	3.03	8
831	Religious and allied services rendered by pandit, priest, preceptor, fakir, monk	582	573	9	2.81	9
872	Recreation services such as theatres, operas, companies, ballets etc.	739	692	47	3.64	5
880	Services rendered by domestic servants	669	202	467	3.30	6

884	Hair dressing	620	620	..	3.06	7
900	Activity not adequately described	10,876	5,761	5,115	53.68	1

During the last decade there has been considerable expansion in the employment under the Government Departments. In 1951 there were only 678 persons—578 males and 100 females as against 1,627 persons—1,482 males and 145 females in 1961. (The figure apart from Code 811 also includes teachers in technical colleges and scientific services). There are 868 persons—862 males and 6 females under the employment of the State Government in 1951, as against this there are 1,401 employees in 1961. In 1951, the Medical and other Health Services had 361 persons—277 males and 84 females as against 615 in 1961. The number of female employees has gone to 203. Thus employment facilities under the Government have shown considerable increase.

The Non-Workers:

The district has returned 451 persons—375 males and 533 females, per 1,000 persons/males/females, as non-workers, respectively. The details are indicated in the table below:

Table—Showing persons not at work classified by the type of activities.

COMMUNICATIONS

There is no railway line in the district. It is also not approached by air hence it has to depend on roads for all contacts with the outside world. Two important National Highways viz. Agra-Bombay Road National Highway 3, and Jaipur-Nagpur via Bhopal, National Highway 12 cross the district. The former is an all weather Highway thus it enables an all the year round link with Indore and Gwalior (129 and 207 miles respectively). Biaora is situated on the junction of these Highways. Rajgarh gets cut off during high floods in the river Newaj. Bhopal also gets cut off because of high floods in the river Parbati, flowing about 21 miles south of Narsingarh. On both these rivers the bridges are low; but at Rajgarh an all weather bridge is under construction. Among the other tahsils Khilchipur 11 miles west of Rajgarh easily gets cut off also because of Rajgarh. Sarangpur and Narsingarh usually are not cut off, although communications between Narsingarh and Bhopal get cut off.

The other important roads in the district are: Zirapur-Khilchipur; Pachor-Talen-Shujalpur; Pachor-Machalpur; Biaora-Suthalia; Narsingarh-Kotra; Rajgarh-Kalipeeth. The distances to adjoining districts are: Sehore 83; Guna 77; Shajapur 72 and Jhalawar 76 miles. The rail head at Shujalpur is 53 miles via Pachor on Shujalpur-Pachor road.

Posts, Telegraphs and Telephones:

There are only five places where telephone facilities are available and these are (1) Rajgarh, (2) Biaora, (3) Narsingarh, (4) Pachor and (5) Sarangpur. At these places Public Call Offices have been started. Telegraph facilities exist at eight places in the district viz. Rajgarh, Biaora, Khilchipur, Narsingarh, Pachor, Sarangpur, Machalpur and Zirapur.

Besides the above there are nine sub-offices and eighty six branch offices extending postal facilities. All the towns have at least one post office each and Narsingarh has two. This gives one post office for 5,441 persons or 24.9 sq. miles. In rural areas this works out to 19 villages per post office.

V

CONCLUSION

Situated on the Malwa Plateau and touching the Rajasthan border in the north, the district remains fairly secluded and cut off. The lack of rail roads has perhaps aggravated the position. There are practically no major and few minor industries and the poor communications never encouraged their growth. The construction of rail link is likely to open up the interior regions. At present there does not appear much potential for industrial growth.

The Agra-Bombay National Highway 3 the main artery of communication incidentally in a limited way, also acts as a line of demarcation for certain physical features. It has been observed that from Pachor, the highway as it proceeds towards the north divides the western region into comparatively less fertile, arid lands and small hills with little vegetation. The eastern portion has more fertile soil, is better cultivated and economically more well off. Thus we find north-western parts of Rajgarh and Khilchipur tahsil, which are nearer Rajasthan borders arid and the soil is shallow and of poor quality being mostly covered with stones and pebbles.

The district occupies 1.39% of the total surface of the State but returns 1.60% population; thus suggesting that the density of population 218 persons per sq. mile is higher than State figure of 190. Rajgarh ranks thirty third in population and thirty fifth in area. It is a 'below average' district both in area and population. In area it is little less than one seventh of Bastar the biggest district but at least more than two and half times Datia, the smallest in the State. In terms of population, it is a little more than one fourth of Bilaspur the most populous district and again over two and half times Datia, the least populous one. In the population growth for the last sixty years it again ranks twenty third.

In literacy the district is much behind other adjoining districts. Agriculture is the main prop of its economy ; cultivation is limited to the dry type and at present the means of irrigation are meagre. There are not many industries and even household industries are few. Lack of good communications have perhaps delayed progress It happens to be one of the few districts which have no rail link. On the more positive side, much of the district lie in the Malwa Plateau where soil is fertile and climate less severe. The Maksi-Guna link of the Western Railway will bring rail communication to the district and the medium irrigation project more prosperity.

IMPORTANT PLACES IN THE DISTRICT

1 Andalheda (pop. 721)

Andalheda is an old village about 6 miles from Narsingarh lying about 2 miles from the road. It was once included in pargana Bihar of Sarkar Sarangpur.

2 Biaora (pop. 10,133)

Biaora is situated on the National Highway 3 and thus occupies a very important position in the district. It also connects the northern districts of the State and Rajasthan to Bhopal ; hence it is an important centre of communications. The Maksi-Guna rail link will pass through it, and bring it on the rail map. It is an old town and was once the headquarters of a mahal in Sarangpur Sarkar. (Also please see p. xlviii).

3 Biaora Mandu (pop. 743)

The village is said to be over one thousand years old, having been named after a Kulmi Patel. The Muslim troops used to be stationed here and legend has it, that it was from here that they saw the fire at Sola Khamba at Bihar (Narsingarh). It is situated on the bank of Kali Sindh river and is 6 miles from Sarangpur, its tahsil headquarters. It was scene of battle in 1813 and 1847.

4 Bihar (pop. 461)

The ruins around Bihar suggest that it must have been an important centre of Jain religion. These led Luard to think that it may have been a monastery and the name a corruption of 'Vihara'. It lies seven miles south of Narsingarh and the river Parwati flows nearby. It was under the Khichis, who were conquered by Muslims. The ruins of a building known as Sola Khamba or sixteen pillars stand on a hill nearby. It is believed that the building was fifteen storied high and destroyed by the Muslims who saw the lights from Biaora Mandu. A relic of Muslim occupation is a tomb erected in 1465 A.D. Besides these, there are two temples one dedicated to Mahadeo and the other to Parwati. It is a sequestered and picturesque place and is reached by a bullock cart track from Kotra.

5 Chhapihera (pop. 2,710)

The name is derived from Chhapi Nala which flows past. The nala subsequently becomes Chhapi river. It is situated on Pachor-Zirapur road. There are some old temples around the village.

6 Khilchipur (pop. 6,970)

Khilchipur was formerly a State and now a tahsil with its headquarters at Khilchipur town. It is situated eleven miles west of Rajgarh near the borders of Rajasthan. Khilchipur State was founded by Dewan Ugrasen in 1544 A.D. The ruling family belonged to the Khichi section of the Chouhan clan of Rajputs. It is the biggest tahsil in the district and includes former Zirapur tahsil of Indore State. (Please also see p. xlviii).

7. Khujner (pop. 4,112)

A village in Rajgarh tahsil and once a tahsil of Narsingarh State. It is said to be over 500 years old. It is situated on Pachor-Zirapur road.

8 Kotra (pop. 601)

It was once a tahsil of Rajgarh State. It is situated 6 miles south of Narsingarh. It is on the fringe of forest and some old shikargahs (hunting places) are well laid out.

9. Narsingarh (pop. 11,558)

The town is nearly 300 years old having been founded in 1681 by Dewan Paras Ram. The beautiful lake in the town in which is reflected the old fort and palace still bears the name of the founder. The town is 51 miles away from Bhopal and is reached by a good road which, however, during very heavy rains gets cut off because of a low lying bridge across the river Parbati. The site of the town is the place of the temple of Shiva—then known as Toplia Mahadeo, for the persons who lived there manufactured toplis or baskets ; hence the name stuck. It is however in the autmnal months that the place becomes exceedingly picturesque and beautiful. From the top of the Baijnath Mahadeo temple the pleasant panorama is very appealing, with the lakes full of limpid water, with the land carpetted in lush green grass, with the small streams racing down the slopes of the hills and the hills themselves covered with good vegetation and as the rustling wind sweeps the murmuring countryside adorned with mellowing crops, radiant in the evening sun, the brilliance of the blue skies seems to be evenly matched with the grandeur of the green. (please also see p. xlvii).

10 Pachor (pop. 4,490)

It is situated on the banks of Newaj and is on the Agra-Bombay National Highway 3. During the 1857 movement it was captured by the troops from Indore. It also connects to Shujalpur and Zirapur in the district. Thus it is an important road junction. It was the Block headquarters before the same was shifted to Sarangpur.

11 Padhana (pop. 2,654)

Padhana is a big village situated about 8 miles north-east of Sarangpur and approached from Mau (5 miles north from Sarangpur on National Highway 3) by a recently constructed approach road. Cloth of good quality is woven here.

12 Rajgarh (pop. 9,095)

The district headquarters town on the left bank of river Newaj was founded in 1640 by Raja Mohan Singh and is 87 miles from Bhopal. In 1857 the nationalist leader Tatya Tope attempted to pitch his camp but on being pursued by the British cavalry left the place. The district forms border with Rajasthan. (Please also see p. xlviii).

13 Sankha (pop. 445)

A small village situated near the river Parbati and is about 3 miles from Kotra, once its tahsil headquarters. Each year in the month of Magh a mela is held here and is known as Shyamji-ka-mela.

14 Sarangpur (pop. 11,263)

The town is situated on the Agra-Bombay National Highway 3 about 78 miles north of Indore, on the east bank of the Kali Sindh river and dates back to the times of Muslim kings in Malwa. The site however is said to be more ancient. During Akbar's reign the town was incorporated into Mughal Empire in 1561. On the defeat of Baz Bahadur; his handsome and gifted wife Rupmati a great musician of her time, fled to avoid the captors. Sarangpur became a Subah of Malwa and the Chief town of Sarangpur Sarkar. The Marathas captured it in 1734 and in 1809 given to Karim Khan Pindari in jagir. Scindia took it back in 1814 and it was restored to Dewas in 1818. In May 1948 it came under Rajgarh district and has remained a tahsil in it. Once muslin of excellent quality was weaved: the tradition seems to persist and the Katiya and Momins still do some useful weaving. Good quality fabrics are still woven in and around Sarangpur. The town has been electrified.

15 Talen (pop. 3,200)

It is situated on Shujalpur-Pachor road on the river Newaj and the area around Talen mostly grows wheat. A police station and a Nyaya Panchayat are located here. It was a part of Rajgarh State and a tahsil headquarters.

16 Zirapur (pop. 4,593)

The village is situated on the left bank of Chhapi river and was formerly a tahsil of Indore State. It is now a sub-tahsil (tappa). It is also mentioned in Ain-e-Akbari being the headquarters of a mahal in Sarangpur Sarkar.
