PREFACE

District Census Handbook has been introduced since 1951. The level of presentation in all-India volumes is State, District and City. In State volumes, this level goes down to tahsil level for some tables while in District Census Handbooks most of the tables give data down to tahsil and a few tables give data for each town and village also. The greatest advantage of District Census Handbook is that data on all topics are available in one volume while in all-India and State volumes only data of one topic are available in a volume. As District Census Handbooks gave non-Census and Census data upto the lowest level these were found very useful by the planners, administrators, election departments and research scholars, etc.

2. In 1951-Census, District Census Handbook besides presenting most of the Census tables at tahsil level gave primary Census data of village/block level and presented non-Census data on a number of topics e.g. Health, Education, Administration, Agriculture, General Physiography, etc. This coverage was further enlarged by Dr. Asok Mitra, the then Registrar General, India and 1961-Census Handbook gave very useful day-to-day information on non-Census data besides Census data.

3. The 1951 and 1961-Census Handbook having been applauded by the research workers, administrators and planners it was decided to further enlarge the scope of this handbook for 1971-Census. Shri A. Chandra Sekhar, the then Registrar General, India and Dr. B. K. Roy Burman, Deputy Registrar General, India (Social Studies) prepared draft guidelines for preparation of 1971-Census Handbooks. As per these guidelines District Census Handbooks were to appear in three parts details of which appear in introductory notes. This part i.e. Part-C of the Handbook was to contain detailed analysis and it was aimed to study whether it supported some anticipated hypothesis or the inference drawn from the analysis of the data went against the hypothesis. On account of inordinate delay in procurring non-Census data and processing of analytical tables, the idea of testing these hypothesis was dropped for all districts except Ambala. Detailed analysis could only be carried on for Ambala district which has been presented in District Census Handbook of that district. Those interested in this type of study can go through District Census Handbook of Ambala and if interested attempt detailed study of other districts.

Dated Chandigarh, the 7th November, 1978.

Deputy Director of Census Operations,

INTRODUCTION

The compilation of District Census Handbooks was initiated for the first time at the 1951-Census since it was felt that the District was the most manageable and rational unit for the presentation of Census data. Census statistics were also compiled for individual villages and towns as they constituted the basic units of human habitation. Besides, some other useful information had also been included in it to make it a self-contained book of reference for the district. The compilation of District Census Handbooks was, however, not altogether a new idea, since Census data for smaller units were published in earlier censuses also in one form or the other. In 1891, a district-wise list of villages was published giving the population of each village. At the 1911-Census, data of villages were published in the form of Village Directory. Such village directories were again compiled in the shape of district census statistics at the 1921-Census. In the ultimate form the District Census Handbooks emerged as regular decennial publications since 1951-Census. The general appreciation and utility of this handbook encouraged the Census Organisation to increase the scope of the publication from mere compilation of Census statistics of the district and its component villages and towns in 1951-Census to a sort of district gazetteer depicting variegated phenomena of human life in the present Census.

2. The 1961-Census brought significant changes in the compilation of District Census Handbooks with a view to presenting more comprehensive picture of the district by including additional information on non-Census items such as physical features, climate, fauna and flora, history of the district, towns and places of interest and its administrative machinery. The economic aspects such as agriculture, land-use pattern, irrigation and main crops, livestock, industries, trade and commerce and communications ; social and cultural life, ; developmental activities ; and demographic pattern were also included within the scope of the District Census Handbooks in addition to numerous departmental statistics as collected from the various government departments ; Census Tables and Directory of Villages and Towns.

3. The compilation of District Census Handbooks witnessed a new momentum at the 1971-Census and its publication became a colossal job due to inclusion of information on a number of new aspects. It was difficult to provide complete information in one consolidated volume. Moreover, it was also felt that the basic Census data should not be delayed for want of non-Census data and information, collection of which was really time-consuming. In this perspective, it was decided to publish the District Census Handbooks in three parts viz., Part A—Village and Town Directory, Part-B—Village and Town-wise Primary Census Abstracts, and Part-C—Analytical Report, Administrative Statistics and District Census Tables. In the case of Haryana State, the data for Parts A & B of the District Census Handbooks were compiled and finalised simultaneously and as such both these parts of the District Census Handbooks have already been published together in one volume.

4. In Part-A of the District Census Handbooks, the Village Directory furnished information about the total area of each village, availability of educational, medical, power supply, drinking water, communications, post and telegraph amenities, staple food, land-use pattern, location of nearest town and its distance and places of religious, historical, archaeological interest in the village. The Town Directory, on the other hand, presents data on each town giving their civic status, growth history and functional category (Statement I), physical aspects and location of towns, 1969 (Statement II), municipal finance, 1968-69 (Statement III), , civic and other amenities, 1969 and (Statement IV), medical, educational, recreational and cultural facilities in towns, 1969 (Statement V), trade, commerce, industry and banking, 1969 (Statement VI) and population by religion (Statement VII).

5. Part-B of the District Census Handbook contains Village and Town-wise Primary Census Abstracts. These abstracts have been presented village-wise and in the case of towns, ward/urban enumerator's block-wise and give data on area of village in acres and of towns in sq. km, occupied residential houses, number of households, total population, number of scheduled caste persons, number of literates and educated persons, the number of workers and their distribution into nine industrial categories as per the Code of National Industrial Classification and lastly number of non-workers, sex-wise.

6. However, as a result of considerable delay in the compilation of material due to various reasons, it has been decided to reduce the coverage of District Census Handbook, Part-C. The present volume now comprises three sets of tables, namely , (a) Census Tables, (b) Tables on Village Directory and Primary Census Abstract data generated on the computor, and (c) Tables on Administrative, Welfare and Developmental Statistics, preceded by a small introduction. The analytical portion as given in the case of District Census Handbook, Part-C of Ambala district has been given up for the remaining districts.

Definitions and Concepts

7. Two broad divisions of areas, namely, rural and urban have always been recognised at the censuses. It is, therefore, necessary to define and demarcate these areas carefully well before the Census itself.

The definitions of village, town, ward, urban block, house, household, scheduled caste, literate, worker and non-worker adopted for the 1971-Census are given below :—

Village

8. The definition of the village adopted in our State for the purpose of Census corresponds to the one contained in the Punjab Land Revenue Act, 1887. A village means "any area

(a) for which a separate record of rights exists ; or

(b) which has been separately assessed to land revenue or would have been so assessed if the land revenue had not been realized, or compounded or redeemed ; or

(c) which the state government may by general rule or special orders declare to be an estate".

The above definition, abstracted from the Punjab Land Revenue Act, has been uniformly adopted in previous censuses also. Generally speaking, all areas not specifically taken as urban belong to one village or the other.

Town

9. The definition of a town or an urban area adopted at the 1971-Census generally follows the one adopted at the 1961-Census and stands to denote :—

(a) All places with a Corporation, Municipality or a Cantonment Board or a Notified Area Committee ; and

(b) All other places which satisfied the following criteria :—

(i) A minimum population of five thousand ;

(ii) At least seventy-five per cent of the male working population was engaged in economic pursuits other than agricultural ; and

(iii) A density of population of atleast 400 persons per sq. km. or 1000 persons per sq. mile.

In Haryana, however, only places with a Municipality or a Cantonment Board or a Notified Area Committee have been treated as towns to the exclusion of all other considerations.

Ward

10. All the towns in the State are divided into a number of municipal wards. A ward is a compact unit of an urban area with well defined geographical boundaries, demarcated by the local administration, for the purpose of municipal or any other local body elections.

Urban Block

11. Although for the purpose of Census enumeration, the villages had been divided on the basis of their population into Enumeration Blocks consisting of approximately 750 persons each, data for villages have not been given enumeration blockwise but for the village as a whole. In the case of towns, on the other hand, data have been furnished for individual enumeration blocks within a ward. The urban blocks were formed on the basis of a population roughly of 600 persons. At the 1971-Census, there were some newly constituted towns such as Naraingarh, Ganaur, Jagadhri Workshop Railway Colony and Tosham where demarcation of electoral wards was yet to be done. In such cases, the entire town was treated as one unit and then divided into enumeration blocks. Some of the big towns had been divided into sectors in pursuance of the scheme on permanent house-numbering. In such cases too, the enumerators' blocks were carved out ward-wise and not sector-wise.

House

12. For the purpose of Census, the term 'house' refers to a building or a part of a building, having a separate main entrance from the road or common court-yard or stair-case etc., used or recognised as a separate unit. It may be inhabited or vacant. It may be used for residential or a non-residential purpose or for both. In Village and Town-wise Primary Census Abstracts, however, the data have been given in respect of occupied residential houses only i.e., Census houses used wholly or partly for residential purposes by one or more households at the time of enumeration.

Household

13. A household is defined as 'the entire group of persons who commonly live together and would take their meals from a common kitchen unless the exigencies of work prevent them from doing so'. A household can be either a one person household or a multiperson household i.e., a group of two or more persons. They may be related or unrelated persons or a combination of both. A cook or a servant living in the house of his employer and taking his food there has been considered as a member of the master's household. Similarly, a hotel or hostel or a jail etc. where a number of unrelated persons live together has been considered as 'institutional household'.

Scheduled Caste

14. Under Articles 341 and 342 of the Constitution, the President is empowered to specify the list of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes for each State and Union Territory. In the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes Lists (Modification) Order, 1956, amended up to date, as many as 37 castes are listed as Scheduled Castes in the State of Haryana. Of these, 33, Scheduled Castes are listed in the whole State, three for districts other than Mahendragarh and Jind and one for Mahendragarh and Jind districts only. A condition for a person to belong to a Scheduled Caste is that he must be professing either Hindu or Sikh religion. There is, however, no Scheduled Tribe listed as such for the whole or any part of Haryana State.

Literate

15. For the purpose of Census, only a person who can both read and write with understanding in any language, has been considered 'literate'. Evidently, a person who can merely read but cannot write has not been treated as a literate. It is not necessary, however, that a person who is literate should have received any formal education or should have passed any minimum educational standard. Children below the age of five years even if they could both read and write have not been considered literate as such because they could not be considered to have developed the required understanding.

Worker

16. Before defining the term 'worker', it is necessary to explain the concept of 'main activity' adopted for the first time at the 1971-Census. By main activity is meant, as to how a person engages himself mostly. From the point of view of main activity, therefore, the population got divided into two categories viz. workers and non-workers. A worker is a person whose activity is participation in any economically productive work by his physical or mental activity. Work involves not only actual work but effective supervision and direction of work.

Non-worker

17. A non-worker is a person who as his main activity is not engaged in any economically productive work but is basically non-working. The non-workers constitute those engaged in Household Duties, Students, Retired Persons or Rentiers, Dependents, Beggars, Inmates of Institutions and other Non-Workers. The other non-workers include all other non-workers who may not come under any of the six categories mentioned above and may mainly consists of persons seeking work.

TABLE A-I

AREA, HOUSES AND POPULATION

Flyleaf

This is one of the most important basic tables and gives data regarding the number of occupied residential houses, number of households and population with its break-up by sex. It also gives the area of each unit and the density of population per Km^2. Figures on all these items are presented also for the rural and urban areas separately. The number of inhabited and un-inhabited villages and the number of towns in each of the units have also been shown in this table.

2. The data in this table have been presented for the district. The figures for the tahsils are given in the order of their location code-numbers within the district. Insofar as the towns are concerned, their data are shown after the urban figures for the tahsil in which they fall. The allocation of code numbers to each unit for census taking was however done in a very systematic manner in order to ensure complete coverage at the time of enumeration and compilation and also to have a uniform pattern for the presentation of data.

3. There are three appendices to this Table. The information given in these appendices is as follows :—

Appendix-I.

4. This appendix lists out the areas that go to make up the present area of Jind district as a whole as also the changes that have taken place between the 1961 and 1971-Censuses in the jurisdiction of the district and its tahsils.

5. The Sub-Appendix to Appendix I shows the areas for 1961 and 1971 censuses for those towns which have undergone changes in area since 1961-Census and also the population of 1961 and 1971 for the transferred areas of such towns. The population of the transferred areas is, however, not available.

Appendix-II

6. In this Appendix are given the number of villages with a population of 5,000 and over and towns with a population under 5,000 for the district as a whole and for each tahsil. Besides the number of such villages and towns, the population residing therein and percentages of their population to the total rural and total urban population of the State respectively have also been shown in this Appendix.

7. In Jind district, there are as many as 11 villages with a population of 5,000 and over. It may be mentioned here that all places with local administration are treated as towns irrespective of their population.

Appendix-III

8. This Appendix shows the number of houseless households and institutional households as well as the houseless population and institutional population with sex break-up for the Jind district and its tahsils.

9. A hostel, a jail or any other place where a number of unrelated persons live together is treated as one household and is termed as 'institutional household'. There is another group of households i.e. 'houseless households.' These are the households living on the road side, pavements or in open spaces i.e. who have no Census houses to live in.

10. In the district as a whole, there were as many as 223 houseless households comprising a population of 1,108 (723 Males and 385 females). Enumeration of such persons was done at the places where they were found on the night between 31st March, 1971 and 1st April, 1971. Break-up of such households for rural and urban areas is 201 and 22, respectively.

11. The number of institutional households is the district was 436 with a population of 1,877 (1,728 males and 149 females). Of these institutional households, 336 were recorded in rural areas and 100 in urban areas. The number of males in institutional households is very large as compared to the number of females in such households.

Notes—1. M.C.—Municipal Committee.

2. The density of Urban (U) of District and Tahsils is worked out using the are figures corrected upto 2 places of decimals obtained by adding the urban areas of individual towns in the respective units. For 'Total' and 'Rural' the density is worked out on area figures corrected upto one place of decimal.

3. ‡ Total area figures for the Distric represent 'Geographical area' figures (provisional) supplied by the Surveyor General. Figures for urban areas are those supplied by the Local Bodies. Area figures for rural areas are derived by subtracting the urban area from the total area of the district. The total of the area figures of the tahsils will not tally with the district figures because the former represent 'land-use area' and are derived from the figures supplied by the Director of Land Records.

TABLE A-II

DECADAL VARIATION IN POPULATION SINCE 1901

Flyleaf

In Table A-II is given the population of the District for the past eight Censuses i.e. from 1901 to 1971 according to its jurisdiction as on the reference date i.e. the 1st April, 1971. Besides the total population, the variations of population as these took place from Census to Census have also been given in absolute figures as well as in percentages (Cols. 3 and 4). In columns 5 and 6 is given the sex-wise break-up of population for each Census, since 1901. While the population for the district for 1961 and 1951-Censuses have been worked out by taking into account the population of the villages affected by reorganisation or the inter-district transfers, the figures for earlier Censuses have been worked out on pro-rata basis because the village-wise statistics are not available for those Censuses.

2. For Censuses, prior to 1951, the population of an area transferred has been estimated on the assumption that the proportion of population in the area transferred to the total population of the district (or tahsil, if tahsil-wise figures are available) in which it was situated at the time of transfer was the same in the previous Censuses, as it was in 1951. Distribution by sex of the population so estimated for a previous Census has been made on the basis of the male/female distribution of population in that particular previous Census of the district (or tahsil) in which it was situated at the time of transfer.

3. The Appendix to this table gives for the district:—

(i) The area and population as in 1971 ;

(ii) The area in 1961 ;

(iii) The 1961-Census population according to the jurisdiction in 1961 ;

(iv) The population in 1961 according to the jurisdiction in 1971 ; and

(v) Net increase or decrease between the two sets of 1961-Census population mentioned above.

4. The details of the transfer of areas in respect of the District have been given as foot-note to the Appendix.

TABLE A-IV

TOWNS AND URBAN AGGLOMERATIONS CLASSIFIED BY POPULATION IN 1971 WITH VARIATION SINCE 1901

Flyleaf

Table A-IV exhibits the variation of population of each town from 1901-Census to 1971-Census, arranged in the descending order of population at the 1971-Census.

2. Furthermore, the towns have been classified into the following six classes according to the population :—

Class I	.. 100,000 and over
Class II	.. 50,000 to 99,999
Class III	.. 20,000 to 49,999
Class IV	.. 10,000 to 19,999
Class V	.. 5,000 to 9,999
Class VI	.. Less than 5,000

3. The changes in the total population of towns falling in each class have also been given in the table.

4. Decadal variation in population has been given both in absolute figures (col. 7) and percentages (col. 8). Sexwise break-up of population in each Census is also given under cols. 9 and 10. The civic status of each town in each Census, if it was recognised as such, has been mentioned under col. 4. Area in Km^2 has also been shown under col. 5 for 1971 and 1961-Censuses only as this information is not available for previous censuses.

5. For the definition of a town, the reader may refer to Introduction.

Urban Agglomeration

6. In 1961-Census, a new concept of Town Groups was devised, whereby two or more towns lying in very close proximity were treated as one Town-Group. It was felt that though such towns were under different civic administrations, they actually constituted one compact unit. As such, it was decided to present the data for the group of such towns as a whole as well as for the constituent towns separately.

7. The concept of Town-Group adopted at the 1961-Census was, however, given up at the 1971-Census on account of the lack of uniformity in defining the town-group in different states. Instead, a new concept of Urban Agglomerations made up of a main town together with the adjoining areas of urban growth has been introduced. Each such agglomeration may be made up of more than one statutory town adjoining one another such as a municipality and the adjoining Cantonment and also other adjoining urban out-growths such as a Railway Colony or University Campus, etc. Such out growths which did not qualify to be treated as individual towns in their own right were to be attached to the urban units to which they are adjacent and their population being categorised as urban. In the past censuses, however, the population residing in the urban out-growths i.e. in the areas outside the statutory limits of a town, if any though adjacent thereto was treated as rural. Such population was not included in the town-groups adopted at the 1961-Census either. In Jind district, none of the places satisfied the qualifications for being treated as an Urban Agglomeration and no area was recognised as such in the district.

Appendix-I to Table A-IV

8. This Appendix gives the particulars of new towns added in 1971-Census and towns in 1961 declassified in 1971. In this district, neither any new town has been added nor any town of 1961-Census has been declassified in 1971-Census. Therefore, this appendix has not been presented in the body of the tables.

Appendix-II to Table A-IV

9. This Appendix gives the changes in area of towns (with population) between 1961 and 1971 and reasons for change in area. There are two towns of which the area has undergone change between 1961 and 1971. Of these, one town is reported to have changed is jurisdiction while in the other town the change in area is on account of revised computation.

TABLE B-I PART-A

WORKERS AND NON-WORKERS ACCORDING TO MAIN ACTIVITY CLASSIFIED BY SEX AND AGE- GROUPS

Flyleaf

This is the basic economic table and is similar to its predecessor in 1961 except some minor differences in age-groups composition and classification of industry. It shows distribution of entire population into two broad classes of 'Workers' and 'Non-workers' by broad age-groups. Workers are further classified into following nine broad industrial categories :—

I. Cultivators ;

II. Agricultural Labourers ;

III. Livestock, Forestry, Fishing, Hunting and Plantations, Orchards and Allied activities ;

IV. Mining and Quarrying ;

V. Manufacturing, Processing, Servicing and Repairs :—

(a) Household Industry ;
(b) Other than Household Industry ;

VI. Construction;

VII. Trade and Commerce ;

VIII. Transport, Storage and Communications ; and

IX. Other Service.

2. The minor departures in industrial classification adopted in 1971-Census as compared with 1961-Census are (i) separate classification of mining and quarrying as category IV which was combined in 1961 with Livestock, Forestry, Fishing, Hunting and Plantations, Orchards and Allied activities and (ii) the 1961-Census category IV (Household Industry) is included in category V (Manufacturing, Processing, Servicing and Repairs) which has two sub-categories (a) At Household Industry and (b) Other than Household Industry. An important point to mention here is that the 'Household Industry' at the 1961-Census covered establishments falling under Divisions 'O' and 'I' of the National Industrial Classification e.g. cattle rearing, orchardy, plantations, fishing, forestry and quarrying apart from Division 2 and 3. At the 1971-Census, household industry is confined to Division 2 & 3 only i.e. it covers only manufacturing, processing, servicing or repairing.

3. Further at the 1961-Census, each category of workers and non-workers classified into four broad age-groups 0—14, 15—34, 35—59, and 60 and above, while at the 1971-Census, this classification has been split into eight age-groups viz., 0—14, 15—19, 20—24, 25—29, 30—39, 40—49, 50—59 and 60+. The splitting of two age-groups forming bulk of working force i.e. 15—34 and 35—59 into six in 1971 will be of special significance to administrators, planners and research scholars.

4. The data have been presented separately for the total, rural and urban areas by sex for the district and each tahsil which have been processed on full count basis.

TABLE B-III PART-A

CLASSIFICATION OF WORKERS AND NON-WORKERS ACCORDING TO MAIN ACTIVITY BY EDUCATIONAL LEVELS IN URBAN AREAS ONLY

Flyleaf

This table corresponds to Table B-III Part-A of 1961-Census with the difference that in 1961-Census this table was prepared on full count basis whereas in 1971-Census it has been estimated on the basis of 20 % sample for urban areas.

2. The test adopted for literacy in 1971-Census was the ability to read and write a simple letter with understanding. If a person fulfilled this test then he was treated as literate otherwise illiterate. In case of literate persons classification has been done according to the highest examination passed or the highest educational level attained, if any.

3. In this table entire population is classified into nine industrial categories of workers and non-workers and further cross-tabulated by educational levels.

4. The educational levels adopted for this table are as follows :—

(1) Primary ;

(2) Middle ;

(3) Matriculation or Higher Secondary ;

(4) Non-technical diploma or Certificate not equal to degree ;

(5) Technical diploma or Certificate not equal to degree

(6) Graduate degree other than technical degree ;

(7) Post-graduate degree other than technical degree ; and

(8) Technical degree or Diploma equal to degree or Post-graduate degree :

(i) Engineering and technology ;

(ii) Medicine ;

(iii) Agriculture, veterinary and dairying ;

(iv) Teaching ; and

(v) Others.

5. The data have been presented at the district level only.

TABLE B-IV PART-A

INDUSTRIAL CLASSIFICATION OF PERSONS AT WORK OTHER THAN AT CULTIVATION AS MAIN ACTIVITY BY SEX AND DIVISIONS, MAJOR GROUPS AND MINOR GROUPS

Flyleaf

This table presents the distribution of population at work other than at cultivation by Divisions, Major Groups and Minor Groups of the National Industrial Classification, 1970, (N.I.C. 1970) which has been adopted at the 1971-Census with suitable modifications. Data at the District level have been presented for 'All Areas' and 'Urban Areas'. The number of workers for 'Rural Areas' can be derived by subtracting the urban figures from the total.

2. This table is supplemented with an Appendix which gives the distribution of workers in manufacturing, processing, servicing and repairs by household industry and non-household industry. The appendix presents the same type of information as Table B-IV Part-C of 1961-Census insofar as it relates to the workers engaged in manufacturing, processing, servicing and repairs. Both the table and its appendix are based on 20 % sample for urban areas and 10 % sample for rural areas.

3. This table is very important economic table as it gives a detailed picture of employment position in various sectors of economy.

TABLE B-VI PART-A(i)

OCCUPATIONAL CLASSIFICATION OF PERSONS AT WORK ACCORDING TO MAIN ACTIVITY OTHER THAN CULTIVATION CLASSIFIED BY SEX AND AGE-GROUPS IN URBAN AREAS ONLY

Flyleaf

Table B-VI has two parts i.e. Part-A and Part-B. Each part has been further divided into two sub-parts. Sub-Parts A(i) and A(ii) give data for urban areas and sub parts B(i) and B(ii) for rural areas only.

2. This part gives data for persons at work other than those engaged in cultivation classified by sex and age-groups for each division and group of National Classification of Occupations, 1968. Age-groups adopted for this table are the same as for Table B-I Part-A i. e. 0—14, 15—19, 20—24, 25—29, 30—39, 40—49, 50—59, 60+ and Age not stated. There are marginal differences in some age -groups figures as appearing in this table and those obtained by adding categories III to IX in Table B-I Part-A.These differences are bound to exist as this table has been processed by raising results of 20% sample tabulation while Table B-I Part-A is based on full count.

3. In 1961-Census Table B-VI gave similar data for urban areas only. Information in this table was limited to occupational divisions and that too for broad age-groups.

TABLE B-VI PART-A (ii)

OCCUPATIONAL CLASSIFICATION OF PERSONS AT WORK ACCORDING TO MAIN ACTIVITY OTHER THAN CULTIVATION CLASSIFIED BY SEX AND EDUCATIONAL LEVELS IN URBAN AREAS ONLY

Flyleaf

This part furnishes data for workers other than those engaged in cultivation by sex and divisions and groups of National Classification of Occupations, 1968. The data for each group and division has been further classified into educational levels. The number of illiterate persons has not been shown separately but can be derived by subtracting the figures of literate workers from the total workers. On account of different procedures of estimation adopted for Table B-III Part-A and B-VI Part-A (ii)—educational levels figures for total literate workers other than cultivation vary to a negligible extent.

2. In 1961-Census similar statistics were presented for urban areas only in Table B-VI but it was limited to occupational division level only.

3. The educational levels adopted for this table are as under :—

(1) Primary ;

(2) Middle ;

(3) Matriculation or Higher Secondary ;

(4) Non-technical diploma or Certificate not equal to degree;

(5) Technical diploma or Certificate not equal to degree ;

(6) Graduate degree other than technical degree ;

(7) Post-graduate degree other than technical degree ; and

(8) Professional degree or Diploma equal to degree or Post-graduate degree in :—

(i) Engineering and technology.

(ii) Medicine.

(iii) Agriculture, veterinary or dairying.

(iv) Teaching.

(v) Others.

TABLE B-VI PART-B(i)

OCCUPATIONAL CLASSIFICATION OF PERSONS AT WORK ACCORDING TO MAIN ACTIVITY OTHER THAN CULTIVATION CLASSIFIED BY SEX AND AGE-GROUPS IN RURAL AREAS ONLY

Flyleaf

This table is a new addition and furnishes data for rural areas only. The type of information presented in this table is similar to Table B-VI Part-A(i). The figures against various age-groups appearing in this table also do not tally with totals of categories III to IX appearing in Table B-I Part-A for rural areas. These differences are bound to exist as this table has also been processed by raising results of 10% sample tabulation while Table B-I Part-A is based on full count.

TABLE B-VI PART-B(ii)

OCCUPATIONAL CLASSIFICATION OF PERSONS AT WORK ACCORDING TO MAIN ACTIVITY OTHER THAN CULTIVATION CLASSIFIED BY SEX AND EDUCATIONAL LEVELS IN RURAL AREA ONLY

Flyleaf

This table is also a new addition and furnishes data for rural areas only. It furnishes similar data as given in Table B-VI Part-A(ii). On account of lower educational standards prevailing in rural areas a precise educational level classification as given below was adopted for rural areas:—

(1) Primary

(2) Middle

(3) Matriculation or Higher Secondary

(4) Graduate and above

2. Educational levels viz., Non-technical diploma or certificate not equal to degree and technical diploma or certificate not equal to degree has been combined with Matriculation or Higher Secondary in this table. On account of different procedures of estimation adopted for Table B-III Part-B and this table educational level figures for total literate workers other than cultivators vary to negligible extent.

TABLE B-VII

SECONDARY WORK i. e. PERSONS HAVING MAIN ACTIVITY (i) CULTIVATORS (ii) AGRICULTURAL LABOURERS (iii) HOUSEHOLD INDUSTRY (iv) NON-HOUSEHOLD INDUSTRY, TRADE, BUSINESS OR SERVICE AND (v) NON-WORKERS CLASSIFIED BY SEX AND BY SECONDARY WORK (i) CULTIVATORS (ii) AGRICULTURAL LABOURERS (iii) HOUSEHOLD INDUSTRY (iv) NON-HOUSEHOLD INDUSTRY, TRADE, BUSINESS OR SERVICE

Flyleaf

Table B-VII provides comprehensive statistics about the secondary work done by both workers and non-workers. Persons having main activity as cultivators, agricultural labourers working at household industry and non-household industry, business, trade, or service and non-workers have been further classified in the case of persons whose secondary work is either (i) Cultivator or (ii) Agricultural Labourer or (iii) Household Industry or (iv) Non-Household industry, trade, business or service, etc.

2. In 1961-Census participation in secondary activity was not given for non-workers and in case of workers it was presented in two parts. Presentation in Part-A was limited to such workers who were having main activity as cultivators, agricultural labourers or household industry and were having secondary activity amongst any of these very categories but other than their main activity. Workers having secondary activity as non-household industry, trade, business, profession or service were omitted. In Part-B workers having their main activity as non-household industry, trade, business, profession or service only such of the workers were classified for secondary work who had their secondary activity as household industry only.

3. The table gives information for the total, rural and urban areas of the district for males and females separately.

4. This table is based on 20% sample for urban areas and 10% sample for rural areas. The sample results have been blown up for obtaining estimates for full count.

TABLE B-VIII

PERSONS CLASSIFIED AS NON-WORKERS ACCORDING TO MAIN ACTIVITY CROSS-CLASSIFIED BY SEX, AGE-GROUPS AND TYPE OF ACTIVITY

Flyleaf

This table shows the classification of non-workers by sex and according to the activity pursued by them. Such activities are, however, not treated as economically productive activities for Census purposes and the persons engaged therein are, therefore, treated as non-workers. Activities of all non-workers have been classified into the following seven categories :—

(1) Students.

(2) Household duties.

(3) Dependents and infants.

(4) Retired, rentiers and persons of independent means.

(5) Beggars, vagrants, etc.

(6) Inmates of penal, mental and charitable institutions.

(7) Others

2. This table has been prepared for total, rural and urban areas for the District only. The non-workers in each activity are further cross-tabulated by age-groups 0—14, 15—19, 20—24, 25—29, 30—39, 40—49, 50—59, 60+ and Age not stated. The last activity of non-workers i.e. 'Others' largely comprises of the 'unemployed'.

3. This table corresponds to Table B-IX of 1961-Census wherein the non-workers were classified into eight activities as against seven activities at the 1971-Census. The two categories of 1961-Census i.e 'persons seeking employment for the first time' and 'Persons employed before but now out of employment and seeking work' have not been adopted at the 1971-Census. As such these persons do not fall in any of the first six above listed activities. These automatically fall in the residual activity i.e. 'others'. First six categories are almost the same as at the 1961-Census.

4. This table is based on 20% sample for urban areas and 10% sample for rural areas. Sample results have been blown up to obtain estimates for full count.

TABLE C-I PART-A

MEMBERS OF HOUSEHOLD BY RELATIONSHIP TO HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD CLASSIFIED BY AGE-GROUPS

Flyleaf

This table has been prepared for total, rural and urban population of the district only and is based on two stages of 20% sample. The results obtained from sample have been inflated to obtain estimates for full count. Details of sampling and estimation procedure have been discussed in technical note appearing in Annexure II. The data in this table furnish information about the composition of households by relationship to the head of the household classified by three broad age-groups viz., less than 30, 30—49 and 50+. The figures for age not stated have been included in all ages. Data have been presented separately for related and unrelated members of the households and single member households. The relationship to the head of the household has been shown for son, brother, father, mother and other male or female members separately for married relations and for relation other than married relations (never married, widowed and divorced or separated persons). For later relations in addition to above mentioned relations information for daughter and sister has also been furnished. Unrelated persons and single member households have not been classified according to marital status. Among the married relations, the data for the spouses of the heads of the households have been given separately.

2. The table also presents total number of household and total household population by sex which is less than appearing in General Population Tables as this is based on estimation obtained from a sample of population records and excludes institutional and houseless households while General Population Tables have been generated from individual slip on full count.

3. This table broadly corresponds to Table C-I of 1961-Census which had been prepared on 20% sample basis for total, rural and urban population separately. The members of the households were grouped under (a) family members ; heads of household who could be either male or female ; their spouses ; married sons and other male and female married relations and relations other than married persons, and (b) non-family members. No information by relationship was given for relations other than married persons nor any information was given for single member households. Classification by broad age-groups was also not attempted. The information for rural areas was then classified by households (i) engaged neither in cultivation nor in household industry (ii) engaged in household industry and (iii) engaged in cultivation by size of holding group while combined figures were given for urban and total areas. This additional information was processed from household schedules canvassed in 1961-Census only.

4. This table indicates the extent of the joint family system which is a topic of sociological interest. The age distribution of the heads of the households and their relations classified by marital status will further help to study the future trend of the joint family system.

TABLE C-III

AGE, SEX AND EDUCATION

Flyleaf

This table has been prepared in two parts, Part-A relates to all areas and Part-B to urban areas.

2. The table corresponds to Tables C-III Part-A and B of last Census with slightly different educational levels and age-groups. In 1961 it was prepared on full count basis and in 1951 on 10% sample basis. This time it has been prepared on 10% sample for rural areas and 20% sample for urban areas. Thereafter the sample has been raised to full count.

3. The test adopted for literacy in 1971-Census was the ability to read and write with understanding. If a person fulfilled this test then he was treated as literate otherwise illiterate. In case of literate persons the highest examination passed or the highest educational level attained, if any, was also recorded.

4. The educational levels adopted for Part-A i. e. all areas of this table are as follows :—

(1) Primary ;
(2) Middle ;
(3) Matriculation or Higher Secondary ;
(4) Non-technical diploma or Certificate not equal to degree;
(5) Technical diploma or Certificate not equal to degree ; and
(6) Graduate and above.

5. The educational levels of Part-B i. e. urban areas are as follows :—

(1) Primary ;
(2) Middle ;
(3) Matriculation or Higher Secondary ;
(4) Non-technical diploma or Certificate not equal to degree ;
(5) Technical diploma or Certificate not equal to degree ;
(6) Graduate degree other than technical degree ;
(7) Post-graduate degree other than technical degree ; and
(8) Technical degree or Diploma equal to degree or Post-graduate degree :—

(i) Engineering and Technology ;
(ii) Medicine ;
(iii) Agriculture, Veterinary and Dairying ;
(iv) Teaching ; and
(v) Others.

6. This table enables us to assess progress in literacy in different age-groups and educational levels.

TABLE C-V-MOTHER-TONGUES OF THE 1971-CENSUS

DISTRIBUTION OF LANGUAGES (INCLUSIVE OF MOTHER-TONGUES GROUPED UNDER EACH) SPECIFIED IN SCHEDULE VIII TO THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

PART-B

SPEAKERS OF LANGUAGES/MOTHER-TONGUES (INCLUSIVE OF MOTHER-TONGUES WHERE GROUPED) OTHER THAN THOSE SPECIFIED IN SCHEDULE VIII TO THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

Flyleaf

These tables correspond to the all-India language tables of the Census of India, 1951 published in Census of India Paper-I of 1954 and the language tables C-V of the Census of India, 1961 published in Volume I Part II-C (ii)-Language Tables and Volume XIII Punjab, Part II-C—Social and Cultural Tables.

2. The question on mother-tongues at the 1971-Census and instructions to enumerators were as follows.

Question 14 : Mother-Tongue

3. Definition.—Mother-tongue is the language spoken in childhood by the person's mother to the person. If the mother died in infancy, the language mainly spoken in the person's home in childhood will be the mother-tongue. In the case of infants and deaf mutes the language usually spoken by the mother shall be recorded.

4. Record mother-tongue in full whatever be the name of the language as returned and avoid use of abbreviations. You are not expected to determine if the language returned by a person is the dialect of another major language and so on. You should not try to establish any relationship between religion and mother-tongue. You are bound to record the language as returned by the person as his mother-tongue and you should not enter into any argument with him and try to record anything other than what is returned. If you have reason to suspect that in any area due to any organised movement, mother-tongue was not being truthfully returned, you should record the mother-tongue as actually returned by the respondent and make a report to your superior Census Officers for verification. You are not authorised to make any correction on your own.

5. TABLE-C-V PART-A is in two sections: (i) showing the distribution of speakers of languages (inclusive of mother-tongues grouped under each) specified in Schedule VIII to the Constitution of India for the district for total, rural, and urban areas cross-classified by sex and (ii) showing the distribution of speakers of these languages for the district, three tahsils and five towns in the district for total areas only cross-classified by sex. The data for the rural areas of the tahsil are not presented but they can be derived by subtracting data in respect of towns within the tahsil from the total tahsil figures.

6. TABLE C-V- PART-B presents speakers of languages/mother tongues (inclusive of mother-tongues where grouped) other than those shown under Part-A for the district, tahsils and towns. This table is also being presented in two sections: (i) showing the speakers of these languages/mother tongues for the district for total, rural and urban areas cross-classified by sex and (ii) showing the distribution of these languages/mother-tongues for total areas of the district, tahsils and towns cross-classified by sex.

7. We have, however, presented Tables C-V Part-A (ii) and C-V Part-B (ii) only in this volume.

8. In both Parts A and B, mother-tongues have been grouped in some cases under the relevant language(s). This has been done on the basis of information readily available or in the light of studies already made. Those 'identifiable' mother-tongues which returned 10,000 or more speakers each at the all-India level have been grouped in Parts A and B as shown below :

PART-A

Hindi .. Banjari, Bhadrawahi, Bhojpuri, Braj Bhasha; Bundelkhandi; Chhattisgarhi; Garhwali; Haryanvi; Kangri; Kumauni; Magadhi/Magahi; Maithili; Malvi; Mandeali; Marwari; Mewati; Nimadi; Pahari*; Rajasthani.

Punjabi .. Bagri

PART-B

Bhili / Bhilodi .. Bhilali; Kokna/Kokni/Kukna

Lahnda .. Multani

9. All other mother-tongues falling under Part-B and which returned less than 10,000 speakers each at the all-India level or were not 'identifiable' on the basis of information available as of data, are included in the category 'Others' occurring as the last entry in Part-B.

*Pahari is combination of various speeches spoken over long stretches of areas where the speakers preferred to give a general name as Pahari.

TABLE C-VII

RELIGION

Flyleaf

This table gives us distribution of total, rural and urban population by religion and is based on full count. This table gives us information upto tahsil level for total and rural areas and upto town level for urban areas. It corresponds to Table C-VII of the 1961-Census and Table D-II of the 1951-Census.

2. The table gives data for 'males' and 'females' separately for each of the six numerically important religions of India viz., Buddhism, Christianity, Hinduism, Islam, Jainism, and Sikhism. Figures of other religions which are numerically less important have been grouped together and shown in columns 18 and 19 i.e. 'Other religions and persuasions'.

3. Columns 20 and 21 are self-explanatory and give the number of males and females, respectively, who did not report their religion at the 1971-Census. The number of such persons is 74 (42 males and 32 females.).

4. It may be mentioned here that some persons returned their religions by sect names instead of the main religion to which the sects belong. All such sects were recorded as reported without any mention about the religion to which they belong, at the time of enumeration. After the sorting of individual slips the population returning such sects was clubbed with the respective religion to which these sects belong.

SCHEDULED CASTES AND SCHEDULED TRIBES

Flyleaf

Part-A :—Classification by literacy and industrial category of workers and non-workers according to main activity among Scheduled Castes.

Part-B :—Classification by literacy and industrial category of workers and non-workers according to main activity among Scheduled Tribes.

This table, according to the pattern adopted for all States and Union Territories, has two parts: Part-A for Scheduled Castes; and Part-B for Scheduled Tribes. Since there are no Scheduled Tribes in Haryana State according to the Presidential Order, only Part-A of this table appears in the Report. This table gives us distribution of Scheduled Castes population for total, rural and urban areas on full count. Scheduled Castes population has been distributed by literacy, workers and non-workers and workers have been further distributed in broad industrial categories. This is a general table for Scheduled Castes and gives us data down to tahsil level. This table corresponds to Table C-VIII of 1961-Census.

TABLE D-I

POPULATION CLASSIFIED BY PLACE OF BIRTH

Flyleaf

This table corresponds to Table D-II of 1961-Census. This is the only table of 1971-Census which gives classification of population according to place of birth, while all the migration tables at the 1961-Census were prepared with reference to place of birth, the migration tables of 1971-Census except Table D-I are based on place of last residence.

2. The data in this table are presented for total, rural and urban areas separately for the district only. The place of birth has been broadly classified in column 1 of the table under the following main groups :—

A. Born in India ;

B. Born in countries in Asia beyond India (including U.S.S.R) ;

C. Born in countries in Europe (excluding U.S.S.R);

D. Born in countries in Africa.

E. Born in countries in two Americas ;

F. Born in countries in Oceania ; and

G. Unclassifiable.

3. In the case of persons born in India, the birth place has been further classified as to whether it was "rural" or "urban" or "unclassifiable" which gives an indication of rural/urban migration based on the place of birth. Under this Group (Born in India), there are two sub-groups, viz., (I) Born within the State of enumeration; and (II) Born in States in India beyond the State of enumeration. Sub-group-I has been further divided into (a) Born in place of enumeration (b) Born elsewhere in district of enumeration and (c) Born in other districts of the State. Under sub-group II, figures have been given separately for each State and Union Territory. The States and/or Union Territories for which the figures are nil, have been omitted from this table.

4. Under Groups B, C, D, E and F, however, the data have been given separately for some selected countries only. The total of the remaining countries in a continent is given against 'elsewhere' under each continent in the table.

5. There are two Appendices to this table giving information of inter-district migration.

TABLE D-V

MIGRANT WORKERS AND NON-WORKERS ACCORDING TO MAIN ACTIVITIES CLASSIFIED BY PLACE OF LAST RESIDENCE

Flyleaf

This table gives the distribution of migrant population by Workers and Non-workers according to place of last residence in rural and urban areas. The workers are further classified into the following nine industrial categories :—

I. Cultivators ;

II. Agricultural Labourers ;

III. Livestock, Forestry, Fishing, Hunting & Plantations, Orchards and Allied Activities ;

IV. Mining and Quarrying ;

V. Manufacturing, Processing, Servicing and Repairs :—

(a) Household Industry ;

(b) Other than Household Industry ;

VI. Construction ;

VII. Trade and Commerce ;

VIII. Transport, Storage & Communications ; and

IX. Other Services.

2. It will indicate the industrial categories attracting migrants and whether in the different industrial categories the flow of migrants is from rural to urban areas or vice-versa. At the 1961-Census, Table D-VI gave similar information but it was prepared with reference to the "Place of birth". The 1961-Census Table showed this information for persons born locally (non-migrants) also but this time data are given for persons whose place of last residence was other than the place of enumeration i.e., for migrants only. The place of last residence adopted in 1971-Census instead of "Birth place" is definitely more relevant for studying migration.

3. The information is presented separately for total and urban areas of the district only. Figures for 'Rural' areas of the district can be worked out by subtracting the 'Urban' figures from 'Total'. Classification according to the place of last residence (column 1) is the same as in the case of Table D-II. In the case of persons whose place of last residence was within the country, separate figures have been given according to the character of the place of last residence i.e., rural or urban. For persons in whose case the character of the place of last residence could not be ascertained, the figures are given as 'Unclassifiable'.

TABLE D-VI

MIGRANTS CLASSIFIED BY PLACE OF LAST RESIDENCE, AGE-GROUP, DURATION OF RESIDENCE AND MARITAL STATUS

Flyleaf

This is a new table introduced for the first time in 1971-Census giving the distribution of migrants based on the place of last residence by sex, age-group, duration of residence and marital status.

2. Data relating to 'place of last residence' have been classified under the following heads and sub-heads under column 1 :—

Total

A. Resided in India.

I. Within the State of enumeration but outside the place of enumeration.

(a) Elsewhere in district of enumeration.

(b) In other districts of State of enumeration.

II. States in India beyond the State of enumeration.

B. Outside India.

3. The duration of residence of the migrants in the place of enumeration has been classified into three ranges viz., less than 1 year, 1—9 years, and 10 years and above. The figures for migrants in whose case the duration of residence was not known are included in the totals i.e. under "All durations" which thus do not tally with the total of figures under less than 1 year, 1—9 years and 10 years and above.

4. The age-groups adopted for this table are 0—14, 15—19, 20—24, 25—49, 50+ and Age not stated. The migrants under each age-group have been cross-tabulated into Never Married (NM), Married (M) and Widowed & Divorced or Separated (W & D). Those, who did not return their marital status, have been included in 'total'.

5. Table D-VI has been prepared for the district only. The table gives separate figures for rural and urban areas according to place of enumeration and does not show the rural /urban classification of the last place of residence.

6. This table enables us to study migration on account of a most important sociological factor viz. marriage. There is a good proportion of migration specially amongst females which can be attributed to this factor. In the past on account of problems due to distance, people used to prefer marriages in nearby places. The problem of distance having been solved to a great extent and in the wake of advancement in our society due to literacy, inter-district and inter-state marriages are on the increase.

Notes :—1. Figures of 'unspecified marital status' are included in 'Total.'

2. All durations include figures for "period not stated" and as such will not tally with the 'Total" of figures under 'less than 1 year', '1—9 years' and '10 years and above.'

3. Figures for unclassifiable last place of residence are included in 'Total' in rural areas. There are no unclassifiable last place of residence from urban areas of Haryana.

4. NM stands for Never Married

M stands for Married

W&D stands for Widowed & Divorced or Separated and A.N.S. stands for Age Not Stated

5. Due to different estimation procedure adopted, in a few cases the estimated figures of Table D-VI do not tally with those appearing in other tables.

DISTRIBUTION OF ESTABLISHMENTS BY BROAD TYPES

Flyleaf

This is a new table for the 1971-Census and has been prepared for (i) total, (ii) rural, and (iii) urban areas of the district only. It furnishes the distribution of all establishments by three broad types viz; manufacturing, processing, servicing or repairing establishments; trade or business and other establishments in each of the government or quasi-Government, private and cooperative sectors of the economy. The manufacturing, processing, servicing or repairing establishments have been further classified as (i) registered factories (ii) unregistered workshops and (iii) household industries in columns 4, 5 & 6, respectively. The trade or business establishments have been classified as (i) wholesale, (ii) retail, and (iii) others in columns 7, 8 and 9, respectively. Lastly the "other establishments" have been classified as (i) educational institutions, (ii) public health institutions, and (iii) others in columns 10,11, and 12, respectively. The total number of establishments have been given in column 3. The concepts involved in the schedule have been mentioned below :—

2. Establishment.—Establishment is a place where goods are produced or manufactured not solely for domestic consumption or where servicing and/or repairing is done such as factory, workshop or household industry or servicing and/or repair workshop or a place where retail or wholesale business is carried on or commercial services are rendered or an office, public or private or a place of entertainment or where educational, religious, social or entertainment services are rendered. It is necessary that in all these places one or more persons should be actually working. Thus an establishment will cover manufacturing, trade and other establishments where people work.

3. Government/Quasi-Government.—Government and Quasi-Government estabishment is an institution where the Central or State Government or a Local Authority such as the Municipality, Cantonment Board, Notified Area Committee, Zila Parishad, Village Statutory, Panchayat etc., completely owns or has a majority of shares as to control the management of the establishment.

4. Private.—Private establishments are those owned and managed by private individuals or corporate bodies not being Co-operative Institution or Government or Quasi-Government Institutions.

5. Co-operative.—Co-operative establishments refer to those enterprises which are registered under the Co-operative Societies Registration Act of the State.

6. Registered Factory.—Registered Factory is that which is registered under the Indian Factories Act.

7. Un-registered Workshop.—Un-registered Workshop is a place where some kind of production, processing, servicing or making of goods for sale is going on and which is neither a household industry nor registered under the Indian Factories Act.

8. Household Industry.—Household Industry is defined as an industry conducted by the head of the household himself/herself and or mainly by the members of the household at home or within the village in rural areas, and only within the premises of the house where the household lives in urban areas. The industry should not be run on the scale of a registered factory.

9. Other Trade.—Other Trade covers those establishments which render commercial services e.g., banks, money lending firms, pawn shops, etc. and those which could not be distinctly classified under wholesale or retail trade.

10. Public Health.—Public Health Institutions also include medical institutions such as hospitals, health centres, doctor's clinics, dispensaries etc.

11. Others.—'Other establishments' cover a large variety of establishments which are neither manufacturing nor trading establishments and which also do not fall under the categories of educational or public health institutions e.g. government or private offices, railway stations, barber's saloon, cinema houses, hotels, tea shops, etc.

TABLE E-II PART-A

DISTRIBUTION OF MANUFACTURING, PROCESSING OR SERVICING ESTABLISHMENTS OTHER THAN HOUSEHOLD INDUSTRIES CLASSIFIED BY REGISTERED FACTORIES, UNREGISTERED WORKSHOPS AND SIZE OF EMPLOYMENT

Flyleaf

The table presents distribution of manufacturing, processing, servicing and repairing establishments other than household industries for total, rural and urban areas of the district only. The table gives a two-fold classification. Firstly, registered factories and unregistered workshops are classified by industry according to the Divisions and Major Groups adopted in the National Industrial Classification, 1970. The digits given under column 1 of the Table are explained in the Annexure IV. Secondly registered factories and unregistered workshops have been distributed according to the size of employment i.e. 1 person, 2—4 persons, 5—9 persons, 10—19 persons, 20—49 persons, 50—99 persons, 100—299 persons, 300—499 persons, 500 + persons and persons unspecified. It gives valuable information about (i) number of units and (ii) number of persons employed in registered factories and unregistered workshops separately in each Division/Major Group of National Industrial Classification, 1970 in each size group of employment.

2. The terms registered factories and un-registered workshops have already been explained in fly-leaf to Table E-I.

TABLE E-II PART-B

DISTRIBUTION OF MANUFACTURING, PROCESSING OR SERVICING ESTABLISHMENTS OTHER THAN HOUSEHOLD INDUSTRIES CLASSIFIED BY INDUSTRY, FUEL/POWER OR MANUAL USED AND SIZE OF EMPLOYMENT

Flyleaf

In this table also, the number of registered factories and un-registered workshops have been presented for total, rural and urban areas of the district and by Division/Major Group of National Industrial Classification, 1970 and by size of employment as in Table E-II Part-A. This table furnishes additional information about the kind of fuel or power used in the industries.

2. The power or fuel has been classified into four categories as under in case the machinery is employed:—

(a) Electricity ;

(b) Liquid Fuel ;

(c) Coal, Wood and Bagasse;

(d) Other Power.

3. All such factories and workshops where no machinery is employed or where the machinery is propelled manually have been classified separately under "Manual" power.

TABLE E-II PART-C

DISTRIBUTION OF HOUSEHOLD INDUSTRY ESTABLISHMENTS CLASSIFIED BY INDUSTRY, FUEL/POWER USED AND SIZE OF EMPLOYMENT

Flyleaf

This table furnishes similar information about Household Industry Establishments as in the case of Factories and Workshops in Table E-II Part-B. The presentation according to area units is also the same.

2. This table gives a three-fold classification. Firstly, Household Industry Establishments have been classified by Division and Major Group of National Industrial Classification, 1970. Secondly, such Establishments are distributed according to the power or fuel used viz., electricity; liquid fuel; coal, wood and bagasse; other power; and manual. Thirdly, these Establishments have been distributed according to the size of employment i.e. 1 person, 2—4 persons, 5—9 persons; 10—19 persons and persons unspecified.

TABLE H-I

CENSUS HOUSES AND THE USES TO WHICH THEY ARE PUT

Flyleaf

The table furnishes the distribution of Census houses by usage for all areas and separately for rural and urban areas of the district. Figures have been given for the total number of Census houses, houses lying vacant and houses used as (i) Residence; (ii) Shop-cum-residence; (iii) Workshop-cum-residence including household industry; (iv) Hotels, sarais, dharmshalas, tourist houses and inspection houses; (v) Shops excluding eating houses; (vi) Business houses and offices; (vii) Factories, workshops and worksheds; (viii) Restaurants, sweetmeat shops and eating places ; (ix) places of entertainments and community gathering (panchayatghar) excluding places of worship ; (x) Places of worship: (e.g. Temple, Church, Mosque; Gurudwara etc.) and (xi) Others.

2. The figures given in this table are unbiased estimates of the various characteristics based on 20 per cent sample of Census houses. These estimates have been obtained by multiplying the sample figures by 5.

3. The concepts and definitions of the terms used in this table are as follows :—

(i) Residence:—A residence is a Census House which is used wholly for human habitation.

(ii) Shop.—A shop is a place where articles are bought and/or sold for cash or for credit.

(iii) Shop-cum-Residence.—A shop-cum-residence is a Census house used for the combined purposes of residence and running a shop.

(iv) Workshop.—A workshop is a place where any kind of production, processing, repairing or servicing goes on or where goods and articles are made and sold, but is not large enough to be a factory. It is not necessary that some machinery should exist. Even a place where some household industry such as say handloom weaving, biri rolling, baskets, broom sticks, paper kites, toys making, tailoring etc. is carried on has been treated as a workshop.

(v) Factory.—A factory is a large workshop which is registered under the Indian Factories Act. A workshop merely licenced by the municipal or any other authority or registered for any other purpose was not recorded as a factory unless it was registered under the Indian Factories Act.

(vi) Workshop-cum-Residence.—Workshop-cum-residence is a factory, workshop or workshed which is also used as a residence.

(vii) Others:—

(a) Office, business house, bank, etc. (Business house is that where transactions in money or other articles take place)

(b) Hospital, dispensary, health centre, doctor's clinic, etc.

(c) School and other educational institution.

(d) Hotel, sarai, dharmshala, tourist house, inspection house, etc.

(e) Restaurant, sweetmeat shop and eating place (A sweetmeat shop where sweetmeat is being made and sold was, however, recorded as a workshop).

(f) Place of entertainment such as cinema house, theatre, community gathering (Panchayatghar), etc.

(g) Place of worship e.g., temple, church, mosque, gurudwara, etc.

(h) Institution such as ophanage, rescue home, jail, reformatory, children home, etc.

(i) Cattle shed, garage, godown, laundry, petrol pump, passenger shelter, etc.

Flyleaf

This table gives the distribution of Census houses by predominant material of wall and predominant material of roof. Data have been presented for the total, rural and urban areas of the district separately.

2. The figures given in this Table are unbiased estimates of the characteristics based on 20% sample of Census houses. These estimates have been obtained by multiplying the sample figures by 5.

3. The table has been supplemented with an Appendix (Appendix to Table H-II) which cross-classifies material of wall with material of roof.

HOUSEHOLDS CLASSIFIED BY NUMBER OF MEMBERS AND BY NUMBER OF ROOMS OCCUPIED

Flyleaf

This table gives figures relating to households occupying one room, 2, 3, 4 and 5 rooms and with unspecified number of rooms as also the number of members involved. The data have been presented for the total, rural and urban areas of the district separately. The data are helpful in the measurement of congestion and over-crowding in households.

2. The figures given in this table are unbiased estimates of the characteristics based on 20% sample of Census houses. These estimates have been obtained after multiplying the sample figures by 5.

TABLE SC-I

INDUSTRIAL CLASSIFICATION OF PERSONS AT WORK AND NON-WORKERS BY SEX FOR SCHEDULED CASTES

Flyleaf

This table has been prepared in two parts—Part-A for rural areas; and Part-B for urban areas. The table gives the population of each Scheduled Caste by sex alongwith their classification into workers and non-workers. Workers of each scheduled caste are further classified into the following nine industrial categories of workers:—

I. As Cultivators;

II. As Agricultural Labourers;

III. In Livestock, Forestry, Fishing, Hunting and Plantations, Orchards and Allied activities;

IV. In Mining and Quarrying ;

V. In Manufacturing, Processing, Servicing and Repairs:—

(a) Household Industry;
(b) Other than Household Industry;

VI. In Construction;

VII. In Trade and Commerce;

VIII. In Transport, Storage and Communications; and

IX. In Other Services.

2. Data in this table have been presented for the district only. The castes for which there are no figures have been deleted from the table. This table corresponds to Table SCT-I Part-A of 1961-Census. Table SCT-I Part-A of 1961-Census, however, presented additional data for the workers engaged in special occupations i.e., 'Tanning and currying of hides and skins' and 'Scavenging' but no such classification has been attemted at the 1971-Census.

TABLE SC-II

AGE AND MARITAL STATUS FOR SCHEDULED CASTES (CASTE-WISE)

Flyleaf

This table corresponds to Table SCT-II Part-A of 1961-Census and gives the distribution of male and female population of each caste separately by the three broad age-groups i.e. 0—14, 15—44, 45+and Age not stated. The population under each age-group is further classified according to the marital status viz., 'Never Married', 'Married,' 'Widowed', Divorced or Separated and 'Unspecified Marital Status'. Persons who did not report their marital status have been grouped under 'unspecified marital status' for each group separately. The number of such persons in Jind District was 16 (10 males and 6 females). A majority of persons having unspecified marital status were in the age-group 15—44, viz. 9 (7 males and 2 females) followed by age-group 0—14 with 6(3 males and 3 females) and age-group 45+had just only one person (1 female).

2. This table is presented for the district only without any rural or urban break-up. The castes for which there are no figures have been omitted from the Table. Castes have been arranged in alphabetic order.

TABLE SC-III

Part-A—Education in Urban Areas only for Scheduled Castes

Part-B—Education in Rural Areas only for Scheduled Castes

Flyleaf

This table presents statistics about the educational levels of the population belonging to each scheduled caste and has been prepared in two parts—Part-A for urban areas and Part-B for rural areas. Part-A is similar to Table SCT-III Part A(i) and Part-B to Table SCT-III Part B(i) of 1961-Census except for a little elaboration of educational levels for rural areas in 1971.

2. For urban areas, the literates have been classified into the following seven educational levels:—

(1) Literate (without educational level);

(2) Primary or Junior Basic;

(3) Matriculation or Higher Secondary;

(4) Non-technical Diploma not equal to Degree;

(5) Technical Diploma not equal to Degree;

(6) University Degree or Post-graduate Degree other than Technical Degree; and

(7) Technical Degree or Diploma equal to Degree or Post-graduate Degree.

3. In case of rural areas, however, the classification of educational levels have been confined to four only:—

(1) Literate (without educational level):

(2) Primary or Junior Basic ;

(3) Matriculation and above but below graduate; and

(4) Graduate and above.

4. The test for literacy was the ability of a person to read and write with understanding in any language. In case he had attained any educational standard, the highest examination passed was recorded against Q. 13 of the Individual Slip canvassed at 1971-Census. For a person who was studying in a particular class the highest educational level attained by him was the one he had actually passed and not the one in which he was studying . In case, a person held both general and technical qualifications, both of equivalent level, the technical qualification was given preference in recording the highest educational level attained.

5. Data in this table are presented for the district only. The castes which were not returned have been omitted from the table.

TABLE SC-IV

PERSONS NOT AT WORK CLASSIFIED BY SEX, TYPE OF ACTIVITY AND EDUCATIONAL LEVELS FOR SCHEDULED CASTES

Flyleaf

Entire population has been divided into two broad streams of main activity, namely, workers and non-workers according to type of main activity a person engages himself/herself mostly. A non-worker is a person who as his main activity, is not engaged in any economically productive work, but is basically non-working. In this table, non-workers among the scheduled castes have been classified as under:—

(1) Students;

(2) Household Duties;

(3) Dependents and Infants;

(4) Retired, Rentiers and Persons of Independent Means ;

(5) Beggars, Vagrants, etc;

(6) Inmates of Penal, Mental and Charitable Institutions; and

(7) Others.

2. This table also gives the educational levels of all the non-workers i.e. whether 'Illiterate', 'Literate (without educational level),' 'Primary or Junior Basic', 'Matriculation and above but below Graduate' and 'Graduate and above'. The term 'Literacy' has already been explained in the fly-leaf to Table SC-III.

3. The table, however, presents data for the total scheduled caste population and not for each caste separately. The data are given for the total, rural and urban areas of the district only. To some extent the table corresponds to Table SC-I of 1961-Census. In 1961, the non-workers were categorised into four broad heads only i.e.

(a) Full time students;

(b) Persons seeking employment for the first time;

(c) Persons employed before but now out of employment and seeking work; and

(d) Others.

4. Comparison of data of two censuses except for students is not possible. Moreover, the last two categories of educational levels of 1971-Census were grouped together as 'Above Matriculation or Higher Secondary' at the 1961-Census.

ANNEXURE I

A note on the sampling procedure adopted in the 1971-Census for B, C and D Series Tables except Table C-1

Sample Size :—From the individual slips relating to the rural parts of a tahsil, 10 % sample of the slips was selected linear systematically with a random start. In the urban part of the district a 20% systematic sample of the individual slips was selected with separate random start. The sample sizes were adopted on consideration of required precision, available resources and operational convenience.

Selection Procedure :—The sample design adopted in 1971-Census was stratified systematic sample of individual slips. For the purpose of sample selection, each district was divided into three sub-regions as follows :—

1. Tahsil (Rural).
2. Non-city Urban district.
3. City (urban unit with 100,000 & above population).

These sub-regions were termed as operational units. If, however, any of the operational units was unduly large, it was divided into sub-operational units of at least 20,000 persons. Similarly, small-sized operational units were either clubbed together or tagged on to a contiguous larger unit so as to form an "effective operational unit" of the required minimum size. Adoption of these operational units ensured accuracy in sample selection maintaining at the same time stability in the sampling fraction within the tabulated areas. The procedure adopted has ensured effective control over sample selection within each block, as also in the entire operational units.

For the purpose of the Primary Census Abstract (PCA) the individual slips were sorted out according to ten broad industrial categories and nine broad age-groups for each of the sexes. The ten industrial categories of workers were as follows :—

Category

I Cultivators.

II Agricultural labourers.

III Livestock, forestry, fishing, hunting and plantations, orchards and allied activities.

IV Mining and quarrying.

V(a) Manufacturing, processing, servicing and repairs in household industry.

V(b) Manufacturing, processing, servicing and repairs in other than household industry.

VI Construction.

VII Trade and commerce.

VIII Transport, storage and communications.

IX Other services.

X Non-workers.

The nine age-groups into which the slips belonging to each industrial category were sorted, were 0—14, 15—19, 20—24, 25—29, 30—39, 40—49, 50—59, 60+and 'Age Not Stated'. Thus, the individual slips of a particular operational unit were sorted out in 11X9=99 cells separately for males and females. Sampling was done in each of the operational units independently by taking separate random starts. The slips were then distributed into 10 (or 5) pigeon holes for Rural or (Urban) samples and one pigeon hole was selected at random, the slips falling in the selected pigeon hole constituting the sample.

Estimation Procedure :—The tables prepared for each of the districts from the 10 % rural and 20% urban sample slips have been inflated to give the final estimated tables. Estimates have been obtained by making use of the cell frequencies (usually labelled as 'controls') available from the tables prepared on full count basis, namely, PCA and B-I Part A.

In order to ensure maximum possible inter-table consistency, it became necessary to use the estimated frequencies of a few of the final tables as controls for estimating some cell frequencies of other tables.

This way of estimating the cell frequencies ensured marginal totals of estimated tables tally with that of the full count tables. This is convenient to the user, because after adjustment, the identical marginal totals are found in tables having the same marginal specification. "The adjustment diminishes the sampling variance to some extent ; the more the controls the smaller the sampling variance of the adjusted frequencies"[1]. Further, adjustment to known control totals has at the same time the effect of eliminating biases in the nature of inherent differences between the sample and complete count.

For the purpose of estimation of final tables, a set of multipliers was prepared for each table. A multiplier is the ratio of full count frequency of some characteristics from PCA or Table B-I Part A (or some estimated frequency from some already estimated table) and the corresponding sample frequency of the same characteristics from the sample table.

Since the characteristics of the migrants can be expected to be strikingly different from that of the total population, it was not considered appropriate to apply to the multiplier derived from the total population. In the absence of direct controls for multipliers, sample Tables D-II to D-VI have been multiplied uniformly by 10 in case of rural and by 5 in case of urban to arrive at the final estimated tables.

Reliability of the Estimates :—No exact formula can be given for the precision of the estimates in view of the systematic sampling design adopted. A very rough estimate of the relative standard error on the basis of simple random sample may be estimated as $\sqrt{(1-f)/\frac{1-p}{np}}$ where (f) is the proportion sampled (0.10 in case of rural areas and 0.20 in case of urban areas) and 'p' is the estimated proportion in any cell and 'n' the sample size, having equal to 10 % of individual slips in rural areas and 20 % in urban areas. In the present Census, slips were sorted by sex, industrial category and age-group before sampling. It is expected that the efficiency must be considerably higher than a simple random sample of identical size. Extensive studies conducted have indicated that systematic sampling of individuals is more efficient than random sampling specially when the slips were pre-sorted for most of the socio-economic characteristics covered in a Census[2]. Thus the estimates prepared on the basis of the systematic sampling in the present Census can be expected to be quite reliable.

ANNEXURE II

A Note on the sampling procedure adopted in 1971-Census for C-I Part A

Sample size :—For the preparation of table C-I Part A, on household composition, a sample of residential households was drawn in two stages. In the first stage, a twenty per cent systematic sample of effective enumeration blocks (defined later) was selected systematically. In the second stage, a twenty per cent sample of population records relating to residential household was selected from each of the sample block again systematically.

Selection procedure :—For the purpose of sample selection, the rural and urban parts of each district were treated as separate strata. Within each stratum, a list of blocks was prepared by merging those containing less than 50 households with the neighbouring blocks. Blocks formed in this way were called 'effective enumeration blocks' or simply 'effective blocks'. The list of effective blocks so formed served as a frame for the selection of the first stage unit. A twenty per cent sample of effective blocks was then selected systematically. Having identified the first stage units, the population record books for the selected effective blocks were assembled. Within each selected effective block, the population records relating to 'houseless households or institutional households'. Care was also taken to see that only one serial number was assigned to a population record, whenever the record relating to a household covered more than one page. In cases where 'effective blocks' were formed by merging two or more blocks, the population record books corresponding to all the census enumeration blocks constituting the effective block, were assembled together and then the households were selected. Fresh random numbers were selected for each effective block. The population records corresponding to the selected households were marked 'S' at the right hand top corner with a stamp provided.

Estimation procedure :—The tables prepared for each of the stratum were multiplied uniformly by 25 to give the final estimated table.

ANNEXURE III

Sample design and precision of estimates adopted in preparing the H-Series tables

1. Sample Design:

1.1. Sample Size:—A 20 per cent systematic sample of census houses was selected from the house list with a random start. This sample size was adopted on considerations of required precision, available resources and operational convenience.

1.2. Selection Procedure.—Though the lowest levels (tabulation areas) for which estimates are presented in these tables are rural district, urban district (including cities, if any) and city, the sample was actually drawn, from what are called, 'Operational Units'. These Operational Units comprised (a) Tahsil of a district in the rural area, (b) Non-city urban part of a district, and (c) City. If any of these Operational Units was unduly large, it was divided into Sub-Operational Units of at least 20,000 houses. Similarly small-sized Operational Units were either combined together or tagged on to a contiguous larger unit so as to form an effective Operational Unit of the minimum size mentioned above. Adoption of these Operational Units ensured accuracy in sample selection maintaining at the same time stability in the sampling fraction within the tabulation areas. For houselisting purposes the Tahsil (Rural), Towns and Cities had been divided into compact smaller area units called 'houselisting blocks'. Within each Operational Unit, the houselisting blocks had been so arranged that it was possible to select the sample from the entire Operational Unit in a continuous fashion. The procedure adopted had ensured effective control over sample selection within each block as also in the entire Operational Unit.

2. Estimation Procedure:

2.1. Estimates of the characteristics.—Un-biased estimates have been worked out by inflating the sample frequencies in each cell uniformly by 5.

2.2. Reliability of estimates.—The percentage relative standard error on the basis of a Simple Random Sample is estimated as: $100\times \sqrt{\frac{0.8(1-P)}{nP}} = \sqrt{\frac{4\ (1-P)}{NP}} \times 100$ where 'P' is the estimated proportion in any cell, 'N', the total of the table, n, $\left(=\frac{N}{5}\right)$ the sample size and 0.8, the finite population correction. Analysis of Table E-1 of 1961-Census for all the districts of India revealed that 82 per cent of the estimated proportions of the various cells had a relative standard error of less than or equal to 20 per cent with a sampling intensity of 20 per cent. Considering the detailed nature of the census tables, a minimum acceptable level of precision lower than 20 per cent may be too difficult to attain for every cell at the district level.

If the relative standard error in a cell is more than 20 per cent it may, therefore, be necessary to combine such cells suitably with others so as to achieve this minimum precision. Further if the size of a district is so small that the relative standard error is greater than 20 per cent for most of the characteristics, the estimates for the district may have to be combined with those of an adjoining district in order to achieve the required precision in most of the cells. The size of the universe (i.e. district) for the various values of the proportion from 0.0001 to 0.9 by percentage relative standard error shown in the Statement No. 1 given on page 234 will help in deriving quickly the level of precision of any cell. Procedure for using the Statement is indicated as a foot-note to it in the form of an example.

2.3. Efficiency of the estimates.—Since houses with similar characteristics tend to cluster in space, some stratification with regard to almost all the housing characteristics is built into the Census Houselist. This suggests intuitively that the systematic sample should have achieved a more balanced representation of the universe than a Simple Random Sample. Consequently, the standard error of any estimate of moderate size from the systematic sample of census houses will, in all probability, be less than the one provided by the formula given in para 2.2. above.

Further since the sample of households, on which Tables H-III and H-IV are based, consists of all the households residing in the sample of census houses (equivalent to cluster sample) and since the characteristics of households residing in a census house are likely to be similar, the sampling error should normally be expected to be greater than that of a systematic sample of households. In practice, however, there is nearly one to one correspondence between a household and a house in most of the areas particularly, in rural, so that the selected systematic sample is almost equivalent to a systematic sample of household. The formula of para 2.2, therefore, applies to the Household Tables also alongwith Housing Tables.

Note.—Given district size 'N' (i.e. total of table) and the percentage relative standard error (p.r.s.e.) to determine the size of a cell 'NP' where 'P' is the associated proportion.

(i) p.r.s.e.=20 per cent

(ii) N>16567, NP=100

(iii) 4900 N≤16567, NP=99

(iv) 900≤N ≤4900, NP corresponds to that of the nearest tabulated district size e.g., if N=2897, NP=2400 x 0.4=96.

(v) For N≤900, let N_1P_1 and N_2P_2 be the cell size for the immediately larger (N_1) and immediately smaller (N_2) tabulated district sizes. Then

$$NP=\frac{N_1P_1\,(N-N_2)+N_2P_2(N_1-N)}{(N_1-N_2)}$$

e.g., let N=527, then N_1=900, N_2=400, N_1P_1 =90 and N_2P_2=80. By substitution NP=82.54 i.e., 83 approximately.

(vi) Similar rules may be formulated for any other p.r.s.e. desired.

"The figures given in the Table of the 'H' Series are unbiased estimates of the various characteristics based on 20 per cent sample of Census houses. These estimates have been obtained by multiplying the sample figures by 5.

The following Statement No. 2 indicates the broad level of precision of the estimated frequency of any cell directly from the size of the Universe (i.e. District).

STATEMENT No. 2

District Size (N), value of proportion (P) and the related size of cell estimate (NP) at 20 per cent relative standard error (p.r.s.e.)

N	>16567	4900 <N≤16567	4900	3233	2400	1900	1567	1327	1150	1010	900
P	<0·006	0·006 ≤P<0·02	0·02	0·03	0·04	0·05	0·06	0·07	0·08	0·09	0·10
NP	100	99	98	97	96	95	94	93	92	91	90

Note.—1. This Statement has been derived from the detailed Statement No. 1 shown on page 234 setting the acceptable level of precision at 20 per cent. For any 'N' falling between 900 and 4900 read off the value of 'NP' corresponding to the nearest value of 'N' tabulated above. For example if N=1352, NP=93 corresponding to N=1327 in the Statement No. 2. For N<900 and other levels of precision the detailed Statement No. 1 may be consulted.

2. Whatever the universe size there is a maximum value of the estimated cell frequency associated with a specific level of precision as shown below:

p.r.s.e.	1	2.5	5	10	20	30	50
NP	40,000	6,400	1,600	400	100	45	16

These values read alongwith those in the Statement No. 2 will provide a better appreciation of the level of precision of the estimates in any cell of the table. "For example, for a district size N=1352 (vide note 1 above) cell frequencies between 93 and 400 will have a relative standard error of 10—20 per cent while those equal to or greater than 400, will have a relative standard error of 10 per cent or less etc."

TABLES ON VILLAGE DIRECTORY AND PRIMARY CENSUS ABSTRACT DATA

Section—B—Tables on Village Directory and Primary Census Abstract Data

Flyleaf

This section covers ten tables based on Village Directory and Primary Census Abstract data, generated on electronic computor by the Data Processing Division of the Office of the Registrar General, India, New Delhi from the Village Directory and Primary Census Abstract published in District Census Handbook Parts A and B. There are some marginal differences in the figures, in the context of Village Directory and Primary Census Abstract published earlier, owing to the fact that the processing of data now presented was done by the mechanical process while the latter were processed manually much earlier. These tables have been presented first for the district and then for each of its tahsil. These tables give a wide range of information on villages of the district. The list of these tables is furnished below :—

Table 1—Distribution of villages with reference to area.

Table 2—Distribution of villages by select amenities, infrastructure and land-use data with reference to distance from nearest town.

Table 3—Distribution of villages by select demographic characteristics and distance range from nearest town.

Table 4—Average size of village by distance range from the nearest town by size-class.

Table 5—Distribution of villages by size-class of population having select servicing institutions and demographic characteristics.

Table 6—Distribution of villages by number of hamlets and percentage of scheduled caste population.

Table 7—Distribution of villages by density of population per hectare.

Table 8—Distribution of villages by proportion of scheduled caste population.

Table 9—Villages by percentage of irrigated area to total cultivated area and density of population per hectare.

Table 10—Villages by percentage of literacy having and not having telephone with reference to nearest town.

SECTION–C

ADMINISTRATIVE, WELFARE AND DEVELOPMENTAL STATISTICS

SECTION-C—ADMINISTRATIVE, WELFARE AND DEVELOPMENTAL STATISTICS

Flyleaf

In this Section the tables based on administrative, welfare and developmental statistics, have been given. As per the revised coverage of District Census Handbooks Part-C, seventy four such tables were proposed to be included uniformly at all-India pattern. As data for some of these tables were not available it was decided to include in this volume such tables only data for which was available for all the districts in the State. There were only 46 such tables as listed in List-A. Information for these tables has been collected from the concerned Government/ Quasi-Government Departments of Haryana State and Central Government. Data for some of the tables have been extracted from some publications. Source of data has been indicated in a foot-note under each table. The remaining 28 tables appearing in List-B have been dropped since the information on these tables was not readily and uniformly available for all the districts.
