C-VII RELIGION

FLY-LEAF

This table gives the distribution of population by sex under different religions. It corresponds to Table C-VII of 1961. The table is presented in two parts. The Union table C-VII giving figures upto district level and State table C-VII giving figures down to taluk and town levels. All these tables are based on full-count.

2. The question on religion was asked in all the earlier censuses. The details of questions are given below.

Census year	Question	Details
1872	Religion	The religion of each person was recorded e.g., Hindu, Mohammedan, Jain, Buddhist, Christian, Parsi, Jew, etc. In case of those who believed in the divinity of Christ, the name of the particular sect or Church to which they belonged was recorded such as Armenian, Baptist, Greek, Presbyterian, Roman Catholic, Wesleyon etc. Native converts to Christianity were shown as native Christians. The general term 'Protestant' was not used. The sect of Mohammedans, e.g., 'Sunnis' and 'Shias' was also ascertained along with the main religion. Brahmos, Buddhists, Chinese, Jains, Jews, Parsees, Sikhs etc. were recorded without any further sub-divisions.
1881	Religion	The main religion to which each person belonged as Hindu, Mohammedan, Christian, Sikh, Jain, Brahmo or other religious divisions of Hindu, Buddhist, Jew, Parsi was recorded. If a person belonged to some aboriginal or non-Hindu tribe the name of his tribe as Garo, Khasia etc. was recorded.
1891	Sect or Religion	The Religion which each person returned Buddhist, Hindu, Musalman, Christian, Mat-Worshipper, etc. was recorded.
1901	Religion	The religion as returned by the person was recorded. In the case of Christians the sect was also recorded. It was left optional to local Government to decide whether the sect of other religions was to be recorded. In Provinces where sect was recorded, the instructions were as follows:— For Hindus the sect may be added in the case of the larger sect. In respect of Jains, it may be enquired whether he or she belongs to 'Swetambari', 'Digambari' or 'Dhondia'. For Sikhs it may be clarified what sort of Sikh is he or she, for Parsis whether 'Shahenshahi', or 'Kadmi' and for Musalmans whether 'Sunni' or 'Shia' or any other sect of Musalman. In the case of persons who claimed to belong to special non-Christian religions such as the Brahmo Samaj or the Arya Samaj and who wished their denomination to be separately recorded the religions to which they said they belonged was recorded. In case of forest tribes who said that they were not Hindus but could not name their religion, the name of the tribe was recorded.
1911	Religion (and Sect of Christians)	The religion which each person returned was recorded. If a person belonged to an aboriginal tribe and had no recognized religion (e.g., was not a Hindu, Musalman, Christian, Buddhist, Sikh,

Census year	Question	Details
		Jain, Parsi, etc.) the name of the tribe was entered. All persons whose tribal name was entered in the schedules were taken to the Animists. It was specifically laid down that answer which each person gave about his religion was to be accepted.
1921	Religion	The religion which each person returned, as Hindu, Musalman, Sikh, Jain, Christian, Parsi etc., was recorded. In the case of Christians sect was entered below the the religion. In the case of aboriginal tribes who are not Hindus, Musalmans, Christians and etc. the name of the tribe was entered against this item. These instructions were adopted, expanded and explained according to the local requirements of each Province. It was for example generally thought desirable to obtain statistics for the two main divisions of the Mohammedans, viz., the 'Sunnis' and the 'Shias' and in some provinces certain sects of Hindus and Jains were also asked for.
1931	Religion and sect	Each person's religion as given by the person e.g., Hindu, Muslim, Jain, Buddhist, Sikh, Zoroastrain, Jew etc., was recorded. In the case of Tribals who did not belong to any recognized religion, the name of their Tribe was recorded as the name of their religion.
1941	Religion	The individual religion professed by each person for example being Hindu, Muslim, Sikh, Jain, Buddhist, Christian, Brahmo, Agnostic, Confucian etc. was recorded in respect of each individual. If the tribal name was given, it was also recorded.
	Religion and Community	A word of explanation for use of caption 'Community' instead of 'Religion' of past censuses will not be out of place. Quite truly it has been observed that 'Religion' is entirely the individual concern. And once the enumeration stage is over, the census is concerned not with the individual but groups of individuals having common, social and economic institutions towards the community.
1951	Religion	The actual religion as given by the respondent e.g., Hindu Muslim, Sikh, Jain, Buddhist, etc. was recorded for each and every person. Information was also collected for Tribals and for those who did not profess any religion.
1961	Religion	The actual religion viz., Hindu, Muslim, Christian, Jain, Buddhist, Sikh, etc. was recorded in respect of each persons as stated by him.
1971	Religion	The actual religion viz., Hinduism, Islam, Christianity, Sikhism, Buddhism, Jainism, and other, etc. was recorded as returned by each person. If a person said that he had no religion, it was recorded accordingly.

In addition to the above, data were also collected by caste or by sects in the previous censuses prior to 1951. They were 'caste or class' in 1872, 'caste if Hindu, sect, if of other religion' in 1881, 'caste of Race—Main Caste & C' and 'subdivision of caste or race' in 1891, 'caste of Hindus and Jains, tribe or race of other' in 1901, 'caste of Hindus and Jains, tribe or race of those of other religions' in 1911, 'caste tribe or race' in 1921 and 'race, tribe or caste' in 1931 and 1941. In 1951 census, data were collected for certain 'special groups' referred to in the Constitution of India. A person was considered to belong to a 'special group' if he was a member of any 'Scheduled Caste', or of any 'Scheduled Tribe' or of any other 'Backward class' or if he was an 'Anglo-Indian'. In 1961 and 1971 particulars of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes alone were collected along with details on religions.

3. In the table under reference, the figures of only the six major religious communities in India viz., Hindus, Muslims, Christians, Sikhs, Buddhists, and Jains have been shown. The remaining beliefs and cases of having no religion at all were clubbed together into "other religions and persuasions" and the figures are given in an Appendix.

4. The following statement shows the main religions arranged in the order of numerical strength in the State.

C-VIII SCHEDULED CASTES AND SCHEDULED TRIBES

FLY-LEAF

This table is prepared in two parts—Part-A dealing with Scheduled Caste population and Part-B dealing with Scheduled Tribe population. Each part is further divided into Union Table and State Table. Union table gives the figures by districts by broad industrial category of workers and non-workers. The appendix to this table gives figures for individual castes and tribes. The State table, on the other hand, gives figures down to taluk and town level by broad industrial category of workers and non-workers. The appendix gives data for each caste and tribe viz., the total population, illiterates, literate and educated persons within each district down to taluk/town level.

2. The instructions issued to Enumerators for filling up the questions on scheduled caste and scheduled tribe are reproduced below:—

> "You have been furnished with a list of scheduled castes and scheduled tribes notified for your State. Ascertain if the person enumerated belongs to a scheduled caste or scheduled tribe and if he does, then record the name of the scheduled caste or scheduled tribe which should find place in the list furnished to you. The answer should be recorded against the correct rectangle provided for the purpose against this question. For a person who is not a member of any scheduled caste or scheduled tribe write 'X' in both the rectangles.
>
> If the person belonging to a scheduled caste or scheduled tribe returns his caste or tribe by synonym or generic name of a caste or a tribe it should be entered only if it finds a place in the list furnished to you. Do not write the names of scheduled castes in general terms as 'Harijan' or 'Achhut'. You should ascertain the name of the caste when it is returned and write it in the rectangle provided for recording the name. Similarly, do not write the names of scheduled tribes in general term as 'Adivasi'. You should ascertain the name of the tribe when it is returned and write it in the rectangle with broken lines provided for recording the same. If a person is negligent and insists on calling himself merely 'Harijan' or 'Achhut' or 'Adivasi' as the case may be, tell him that this description is not adequate for census purpose and persuade him to give out the actual name of the caste or tribe. You should make all efforts to ascertain the correct name of the scheduled caste or scheduled tribe as found in the notified list. If the person merely claims to be a scheduled caste or scheduled tribe but says that he does not belong to any of the notified communities applicable to the area, he will not be entered as a scheduled caste or scheduled tribe.
>
> Scheduled caste can belong only to the Hindu or Sikh religions. Scheduled tribes may belong to any religion".

3. The corresponding table in 1961 was also table C-VIII with the only difference that there was no appendix to this table.
