PREFACE

District Census Handbooks were presented for the first time in 1951. Since then such documents are being brought out as parts of Census publications everytime. Though District Census Handbooks are State Government publications they are processed and compiled by the Directorate of Census. District Census Handbooks are compiled in three parts, viz., Parts A, B and C. Parts A and B in respect of all the 17 districts in Bihar have already been published. While Part A contains Town and Village Directory, Part B consists of Village and Townwise Primary Census Abstracts. For 1971 Census the Analytical Report, Administrative Statistics and Census Tables were to be presented in Part C. This volume should also have been brought out along with Parts A and B but due to various reasons the entire material for this book could not be compiled in time and this caused inordinate delay in its publication. In order to avoid further delay it was decided to reduce the coverage of D C.H. Part C. The present volume, therefore, now comprises 3 sets of tables, viz., (i) Census tables, (ii) Secondary tables on Village Directory and Primary Census Abstracts and (iii) Tables on Administrative, Welfare and Developmental Statistics.

There are 65 Census tables, 10 Secondary tables on Village Directory and Primary Census Abstracts generated on computer and 52 tables relating to the Administrative, Welfare and Developmental Statistics. The Census tables have been drawn from the main Census Publications of 1971 while the secondary tables have been prepared on the basis of the material compiled for Village Directory and Primary Census Abstracts. Tables on Administrative, Welfare and Developmental Statistics have been compiled in the Census Office on the basis of the statistical data supplied to us by different departments of the State Government. The tables give an idea of the progress achieved in various welfare and developmental sectors by the State Government over the decade.

The work on District Census Handbook Part C was initiated just after the presentation of the data of 1971 Census. But as mentioned earlier the entire material required could not be compiled and this held up the progress. Work was resumed in 1978 when it was decided that the present volume should be made available as soon as possible even if it involved reduction in coverage and trimming of material. Consequently the work gained momentum thereafter and the job was completed in 18 months' time, thanks to the concerted efforts made by the officers and staff of the Directorate and the Cooperation extended to us by various State Government agencies.

I am grateful to the State Government for their cooperation in the finalisation of this volume. In my office Shri J.C. Kalra, former Deputy Director of Census Operations assisted by Shri S C. Saxena, the then Assistant Director of Census Operations, organised the work of compilation of the figures and prepared the necessary write-up. These two officers were subsequently succeeded S/Shri R.D. Aggarwal and N.M. Alvi respectively. In this voluminous job valuable assistance was rendered to them by Shri S.K. Sinha, Tabulation Officer who was responsible for supervision and scrutinising the entire job. Shri Sinha was ably assisted by Shri T.N. Singh, Statistical Assistant and other technical staff of the section who worked with devotion to complete the job. Sri A.L. Das, Investigator also supervised the work in its initial stage assisted by Sri Ramanuj Sharma, Statistical Assistant and others. Sri Mohd. Hassan Azad and Sri Sohrai Rajak, who have done the typing work in a very short time also deserve thanks. I should like to commend particularly the efforts of Shri Sheo Prasad and his team of devoted workers who pored over the proofs diligently and made the final printing possible. They received necessary guidance in this regard from Shri R.B. Singh, Dy. Director.

I shall, however, be failing in my duty, if I do not record my appreciation and gratitude to all those who have been associated with preparation of this volume at one stage or other. It is not the extent of contribution that we prize most, but the spirit of dedication which metamorphoses items of individual contribution into crystals of knowledge capable of coherent presentation. Such has been the tradition of the Census machinery and I have every hope that individual talents shall continue to sustain it and enrich it further.

I am very much indebted to Shri P. Padamanabha, Registrar General, India for his valuable guidance and instructions at different stages of work. I am grateful to Shri N.G. Nag, Assistant Registrar General (S.S.) for providing necessary guidelines and giving suggestions for this publication. A word of sincere gratitude is due to Shri Tirath Das, Deputy Director, Office of the Registrar General of India who has taken a very keen interest in expediting the printing of this volume.

I owe my thanks to M/S Akashdeep Printers, 20, Daryaganj, New Delhi-110002 who have undertaken the work of printing of this volume and accomplished with promptness.

INTRODUCTION

The tradition of presenting District Census Handbooks has been maintained since 1951 Census. Though these Handbooks are State Government publications, they are compiled in the Census office. Since all the material required for presentation of District Census Handbook was not available at the same time, it was decided to split up this publication into two volumes. The first volume which has already been brought out contains Part A and Part B dealing with Village and Town Directories and Town and Village Primary Census Abstract respectively. District Census Handbook Part C which is now being published embodies information pertaining to the district grouped under three broad heads :

(1) Abstract of Census Tables

These Census Tables have been reproduced from different 1971 Census publlications of Bihar and contain a number of tables under the following series :

(i) A-Series (General Population Tables) : Tables A-I, Annexure to Table A-I, Appendix II to Table A-I, Appendix III to Table A-I, AII, Appendix to Table A-II, A-III, A-IV and Special Appendix to Table A-IV.

(ii) B-Series (General Economic Tables): Tables B-I Part A, B-II, B-III Part A, B-IV Part A, B-IV Part D, B-VI Part A (i), B-VI Part A (ii), B-VI Part B (i), B-VI Part B (ii), B-VII and B-VIII.

(iii) C-Series (Social and Cultural Tables) : Tables C-I Part A, C-III Part A, C-III Part B, C-V Part A (i), C-V Part A (ii), C-V Part B (i), C-V Part B (ii), C-VII, Annex. III to Table C-VI, Append. to Table C-VII, C-VIII Part A, Appendix to Table C-VIII Part A, C-VIII Part B and Appendix to Table C-VIII Part B.

(iv) D-Series (Migration Tables) : Tables D-I, Appendix I to Table D-I, Appendix II to Table D-I, D-V and D-VI.

(v) E-Series (Establishment Tables) : Tables E-I, E-II Part A, E-II Part B, E-II Part C, E-III and E-IV.

(vi) H-Series (Housing Tables) : Tables H-I, H-II and H-III.

(vii) SC/ST-Series (Special Tables on Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes) : Tables SC-I Part A, SC-I Part B, SC-II, SC-III Part A, SC-III Part B, SC-IV, ST-I Part A, ST-I Part B, ST-II, ST-III Part A, ST-III Part B, ST-IV and ST-V.

These tables mainly deal with population classified according to its demographic, economic, social and cultural and migratory characteristics besides showing housing pattern and different types of establishments located in the District.

(2) Secondary Tables on Village Directory and Primary Census Abstract

For the first time an attempt has been made to introduce a set of tables in the District Census Handbooks showing pattern of distribution of various amenities and infrastructural elements at the village level. The villages distributed with reference to their different attributes like area, density of population, land use, select demographic characteristics, average size etc. cross-classified further according to distance from nearest town and also with reference to level of literacy and preponderance of scheduled castes and scheduled tribes have been indicated here. These statements have been generated on computer on the basis of villagewise data reflected in the Village Directory (District Census Handbook Part A) & Primary Census Abstract (District Census Handbook Part B). In order to facilitate readers to recapitulate the contents of the District Census Handbooks Part A and Part B which have already been published, a brief introduction of these publications is given below :

The District Census Handbook Part A gives Village Directory and Town Directory. The Village Directory gives the list of villages arranged thanawise and development blockwise. It provides for each inhabited village information about various amenities available in the village e.g. electrification, existence of communications, transport facilities, educational facilities, drinking water facilities, name of staple food, area under forest irrigated area, unirrigated area, culturable waste, area not available for cultivation, nearest town, market day copies of newspaper coming in the village, motor cycle, scooter, car, jeep and/or tractor available in the village. For uninhabited villages, information about area under forest, irrigated area, unirrigated area, culturable waste and area not available for cultivation has been presented. These data have been compiled at the time of Houselisting operations of 1971 Census undertaken in May—June, 1970. Similarly, Town Directory gives data pertaining to cities and twons in the district elaborating their history, growth, status, finances, civic, medical educational, recreational and cultural facilities available. Some data regarding trade, commerce and industry of the towns are also presented. Town Directory also gives population of towns and cities by religion and scheduled castes/scheduled tribes as per 1971 Census.

The District Census Handbook Part B contains Town and Village Primary Census Abstract. It is subdivided into two parts. The first Part is the District Abstract of Census Data giving figure for the total, rural & ubarn areas of the district, subdivisions and development blocks and also for each town of the district. The other Part is the village/urban blockwise Primary Census Abstract, which gives figure upto urban block level for urban areas. Primary Census Abstract gives area figures, number of occupied residential houses and number of households, total population by sex, population by sex of scheduled castes and scheduled tribes of literate and educated persons and of workers classified into nine industrial categories and non-workers. For uninhabited villages, however, the names, thana numbers and area figures have only been presented.

(3) Administrative, Welfare and Developmental Statistics

This part of the Handbook also contains official statistics collected from various departments of the State Government, statutory bodies and corporations giving basic data of the district on Agricultural statistics, Livestock, Industry, Education, Public Health, Communication and other administrative branches, description of which have been made in the relevant flyleaves of the tables. Similar nature of information was presented in the 1951 Census as well as 1961 Census also.

The present volume of the District Census Handbook supplemented with the Part A and Part B published earlier thus provides ample scope for various institutions, data users and other interested readers to study and analyse in depth the changes in the socio-economic, demographic structure and various other important aspects of the district during the last decade. A brief description about Santal Parganas District regarding its composition and salient demographic features as revealed during 1971 Census has been discussed in the following paragraphs.

Santal Parganas District is one of the constituent districts of Bhagalpur Division lying in the eastern part of Bihar State. It consists of six subdivisions. The 41 Development Blocks in the District are distributed in the above six subdivisions as indicated below :

Subdivisions		Number of Development Blocks
1. Dumka	...	10
2. Jamtara	...	4
3. Deoghar	...	7
4. Godda	...	7
5. Rajmahal	...	7
6. Pakaur	...	6

There has, in fact, been no change in the status of Santal Parganas District even after reorganisation of the districts during the year 1972-73.

The population of Santal Parganas District at the 1971 Census was 3,186,908 which accounts for 5.66% of 56 million population of Bihar State. The geographical area of the district is 14,129 Km^2. Thus the district of Santal Parganas occupies 10th rank in population and 3rd rank so far the area is concerned within the State. The density of the district is on lower side than the State having 226 persons per square kilometre as against 324 for the State. The sex ratio (No. of females per 1,000 males) for the district is 959. The district appears to be less urbanised in the sense that only 5.76% of the total population resides in urban areas as compared to 10% for the State.

The percentage of literate and educated persons in the district is 15.9% which is also less than the percentage of literacy in the State (19·9%). However, if the effective literacy rate (excluding population in the age-group 0-4) is considered the percentage comes out to be 18.6% for the district. The literacy differential between males and females is quite high being 25.0% for males and only 6.4% for females.

Workers in the district of Santal Parganas account for 32.69 per cent of the population and non-workers for 67.31 per cent. For Bihar State the corresponding figures are 31.03% and 68.97% respectively. The highest percentage of workers are engaged in agricultural activities, i.e., either as cultivator (60.48 per cent) or agricultural labourers (25.38 per cent).

The scheduled castes and scheduled tribes comprise 7.19 per cent and 36.22 per cent respectively of the district's total population.

The total number of occupied residential houses and households at the 1971 Census comes to be 540,335 and 591,002 for the district. The total urban population of the district is contained in 11 towns whereas total rural population lives in 10,025 inhabited villages out of total 12,175 villages in the district.

The actual figures on area, houses and different characteristics of population as discussed above are displayed in the appropriate tables presented in this part of the handbook.

Concepts and Definitions

Village—A village or a revenue mauza is a parcel of land which as a rule is partly built over but mostly cultivated and waste with a definite position and area, the boundaries of which were defined either at the time of the cultural survey or at the time of revenue survey. It may contain no houses at all or, on the other hand, several hamlets each bearing a different name.

Town—For Census purposes all municipalities, notified area, civil lines and cantonments are treated as towns irrespective of their population, size, density of population or livelihood pattern. Places were to be treated as towns also if (a) they had a population of 5,000 or more (b) density of population was not less than 400 persons per square kilometer and (c) at least three-fourths of the male working population was engaged in non-agricultural livelihood. In few exceptional cases of tourist interest or administrative significance or their having urban characteristics were also treated as towns.

Urban agglomeration—An 'urban agglomeration' has been defined as "a continuous urban spread constituted of a town and its adjoining urban outgrowths or two or more physical contiguous towns together with a continuous well recognised urban outgrowths, if any, of such towns".

City—A city is a town with a population of one lakh and above.

House—A "house" has been defined as "a building or part of a building having a separate main entrance from the road or common courtyard or stair-case etc., used or recognised as a separate unit. It may be inhabited or vacant. It may be used for a residential, non-residential purpose or both".

Occupied residential house—'Occupied residential house' refer to such houses as were occupied and were used for dwelling purposes or where the residence was combined with other uses such as shop-cum-residence, workshop-cum-residence, school-cum-residence etc.

Household—A 'household' has been defined as "a group of persons who commonly live together and would take their meals from a common kitchen unless the exigencies of work prevented any of them from doing so. There may be 'one-member household, two member household or multi-member household'. For Census purposes each one of these types is regarded as a 'household'.

Institutional household—There may be household of unrelated persons such as Boarding Houses, Hostels, Residential Hotels, Orphanages, Rescue Homes, Ashrams, etc. These are called 'Institutional Households'.

Houseless Population—Houseless population refers to that section of population which have no 'house' to live in such as pavement dwellers or beggars living in the open.

Institutional population—Institutional population refers to persons living in institutions such as jails, hospitals, asylums, hostels, etc.

Worker—At the 1971 Census a person has been categorised as a worker or a non-worker on the basis of his main activity. If the persons were primarily engaged in some economic activity as full-time workers then only they were treated as workers.

'Worker' defined—A 'worker' is a person whose main activity is participation in any economically productive work by his physical or mental activity. Work involves not only actual work but effective supervision and direction of work.

The reference period had been one week prior to the date of enumeration in case of regular work in activities like trade, profession, service or business. For certain types of other works such as cultivation, livestock keeping, plantation work and some typical household industry, the person's main activity was ascertained with reference to such work in the last one year even if he was not economically active in the week prior to enumeration.

There has been a change in definition of worker in the 1971 Census in comparison with that of 1961 Census. In the 1961 Census if a person has had some regular work for more than one hour a day during a great part of the season, he was treated as a worker. Thus, if a person helped in the family economic activity even part time he was treated as a worker, e.g. a person who was engaged primarily in household duties or a boy or a girl who was primarily a student helped in the economic activity of the family even in spare time was treated as a worker as per definition of 1961 Census. In the 1971 Census, however, stress was given on the main activity in which a person engaged himself mostly. Even if he was not engaged in that activity during the reference period, if he had engaged himself in the main activity reported by him in course of last year that was entered as his main activity. That section of unpaid family workers who do only marginal work but who were basically not economically active, their marginal contribution towards economic participation was recorded as their secondary work. This category also includes workers who have dual works such as students, housewives, retired persons etc.

The workers have further been classified into nine Census Industrial Categories according to the sector of economic activity in which the persons are engaged. The details of the nine fold classification of workers have been discussed in the introductory note to Table B-I Part A.

Establishment—An 'Establishment' is a place where goods are produced or manufactured not solely for domestic consumption or whose servicing and/or repairing is done such as factory, workshop or household industry or servicing and or repair workshop or a place where retail or wholesale business is carried on or commercial services are rendered or an office, public or private or a place of entertainment or where educational, religious, social or entertainment services are rendered. It is necessary that in all these places one or more persons should be actually working. Thus, an establishment will cover manufacturing, trade and other establishments where people work.

Government or Quasi-Government—An establishment is treated as a Govt./Quasi-Govt. institution if the Central or State Govt. or a Local Authority such as Zilla Parishad, City Corporation or Municipality etc. completely owns or has a majority of shares as to control the management of the establishment.

Private—Establishments owned and managed by private individuals or corporate bodies not being co-operative institution or Government or Quasi-Govt. institutions are treated as Private Establishments.

Co-operative—Establishments registered under Co-operative Societies Registration Law of the State, alone fall in the category of 'Co-operative'.

Registered factory—A factory which is registered under the Indian Factories Act is treated as a 'Registered Factory'. Thus workshops using power (electric or other power) and employing 10 or more persons or those without power employing 20 or more persons are treated as Registered Factories.

Unregistered workshop—A workshop like a factory is a place where manufacturing or servicing or processing activity is going on. A workshop which is not registered under the Indian Factories Act is treated as unregistered workshop. Workshops which are run as household industry are treated as Household Industry.

Household Industry—A 'Household Industry' is an industry conducted by the Head of the household himself/herself and/or mainly by the members of the household.

In the rural area it is necessary that the household industry is located within the same village where the household is and in the urban area within the same house where the household resides. Another restricted is that the industry should not run on the scale of a registered factory.

(1) The density figures of urban areas of Development Block/Sub-division/District have been worked out using the area figures corrected upto 2 places of decimal obtained by adding the areas of the towns in the respective units and not using the area figures given in the Table for Total and Rural the density is worked out on area figures corrected upto one place of decimal.

(2) Total area figures given in column 3 against District represent Geographical area figures supplied by the Surveyor General, India. The Urban Areas are based on the area figures of individual towns supplied by the Local Officers. The rural area for a district has been arrived at by subtracting the urban area from the 'Geographical Area' supplied by the Surveyor General, India.

(3) The rural area figures of units lower than the District do not add up to the area figure of the District because the rural areas of units lower than the District have been computed from the Thana Jurisdiction Lists maintained by the State Survey Office while rural area of the District has been derived by subtracting the urban area of the District as supplied by the Local Officers from the total area of the Districts as supplied by the Surveyor General, India.

(4) The following abbreviations have been used for the Status of Town.

M—Municipality, N—Notified Area.

(5) Towns and outgrowth of Towns which are constituents of urban agglomerations are shown with double asterisks () on their right. The names of the urban agglomerations and their constituents are given in the Annexure. The figures for the urban agglomerations are also given in the Annexure.

SECONDARY TABLES ON VILLAGE DIRECTORY AND PRIMARY CENSUS ABSTRACT DATA

FLY-LEAF

This series consists of 10 tables. As already mentioned in the introductory part of this handbook, the tables have been derived on the basis of village-wise data presented in Village Directory and Primary Census Abstract of the 1971 Census. These tables have been presented at District/Dev. Block levels. The number and titles of the tables are given below :

1. Table 1—Distribution of villages with reference to area (in Hectares).
2. Table 2—Distribution of villages by select amenities, infra-structure and land use data with reference to distance from nearest town.
3. Table 3—Distribution of villages by select-demographic characteristics and distance range from nearest town.
4. Table 4—Average size of village by distance range from the nearest town by size class.
5. Table 5—Distribution of villages by size class of population having select servicing institutions and demographic characteristics.
6. Table 6—Distribution of villages by number of hamlets and percentage of scheduled caste and scheduled tribe population.
7. Table 7—Distribution of villages by density of population per hectare.
8. Table 8—Distribution of villages by proportions of scheduled castes and scheduled tribes population.
9. Table 9—Villages by percentage of irrigated area to total cultivated area and density of population per hectare.
10. Table 10—Villages by percentage of literacy having and not having telephone with reference to nearest town.

A brief description of the contents of the tables and their presentation can be seen from the following paragraphs :

Table 1—Distribution of villages with reference to area (in Hectare).

This table provides information regarding distribution of villages according to their jurisdictional area classified in various groups. The total area and the rural area shown under each class tally with each other since there is no area classified as 'partially urban' in the whole of the State of Bihar.

Table 2—Distribution of villages by select amenities, infra-structure and land use data with rejrence to distance from nearest town.

This table gives classification of villages according to various facilities available in the villages cross-tabulated by distance of these villages from nearest town. The different amenities include availability of Primary and Middle Schools, High or Higher Secondary Schools. Colleges and electric supply facilities in the villages. It further contains information regarding number of villages connected by pucca road, kutcha road, navigable river/canal etc. together with land use statistics showing area under forest, irrigated and un-irrigated area, cultivable waste and area not available for cultivation of these villages.

Table 3—Distribution of villages by select demographic characteristics and distance range from nearest town.

The information embodied in this table deals with the distribution of villages according to the population by sex with reference to distance ranges from the nearest town (in k. m.) The different ranges are the same as specified in table 2. It further indicates average population per village, average households per census house, sex-ratio (no. of females per 1,000 males) and average literacy of these villages along with involvement of the total workers and female workers of these villages in different sectors of economy viz., primary, secondary and tertiary.

Table 4—Average size of village by distance range from the nearest town by size class.

This table has been presented to give distribution of villages according to their distance range from nearest town. The distance ranges adopted in this table are in conformity with tables 2 & 3 which have further been classified by size class of such towns. The different size classes of towns are indicated below.

Size class VI—Less than 5,000 population
" V—5,000—9,999
" IV—10,000—19,999
" III—20,000—49,999
" II—50,000—99,999
" I—1,00,000 & above

Table 5—Distribution of villages by size class of population having select servicing institutions and demographic characteristics.

This table broadly classifies the villages in different size classes of population. This also pin points number of villages having facility of post offices, post and telegraph offices, telephone connections and medical institutions. It further provides for each group of villages, their average distance from nearest town, sex-ratio (no. of females per 1,000 males), per cent literacy and percentage of workers.

Table 6—Distribution of villages by number of hamlets and percentage of Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe population.

This table furnishes distribution of villages according to different groups of hamlets. This also deals with no. of populated and depopulated villages, total population together with population of scheduled castes/scheduled tribes and their percentage to total population.

Table 7—Distribution of villages by density of poppulation per hectare.

This table furnishes data regarding distribution of the total villages in the district and its development blocks by their density of population per hectare. The total distance of each of such group of villages from the nearest towns along with the average distance of each village from them have also been indicated in the table.

Table 8—Distribution of villages by proportion of scheduled castes & scheduled tribes population.

This table contains information regarding distribution of villages under different classes of proportions of scheduled castes/scheduled tribes population to total population. The total no. of villages and villages having area specified under two sub-heads of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes are also provided.

Table 9—Villages by percentage of irrigated area to total cultivated area and density of population per hectare.

This table reflects distribution of villages by percentage classes of irrigated area to total cultivated area further classified according to density of population per hectare. The density of population per hectare has been grouped in a manner presented for Table 7 earlier.

Table 10—Villages by percentage of literacy having and not having telephone with reference to nearest town.

This table has been generated to give information regarding number of villages which are having/not having telephone connections with reference to nearest town at various distances. The information has further been cross-tabulated by the literacy percentages also. The distance ranges of the nearest towns are same as shown for table 7.

TABLES ON ADMINISTRATIVE, WELFARE AND DEVELOPMENTAL STATISTICS

FLY-LEAF

This part of the Handbook gives tables which have been prepared from the data collected from different departments of the State Government, statutory bodies and other agencies outside Census department. These along with the Census Tables attempt to give a complete statistical picture of the district.

The tables on administrative, welfare and developmental statistics included in this series are devised on the pattern adopted for the District Census Handbook of the 1961 Census so as to make the data comparable. Statistics on a few other topics have also been given. All the tables which were actually proposed to be included in the present Handbook could not be prepared on account of non-availability of data on certain topics. As such a good number of tables had to be dropped, the details of which are indicated below :

The salient features of the tables which have been presented in this Handbook are discussed below. Every attempt has been made to adhare to the formats of the tables originally prescribed for the project. In a few cases, however, formats of the tables have been slightly modified to suit the mode of the data collected.

Table 1—Minimum and maximum temperature by month during 1961-71.

This table gives information regarding temperature (inDegrees centigrade) recorded at Dumka station observatory for all the twelve months during 1961-71 as well as for all months combined during the period. The table displays the data for Mean maximum, Highest, Mean minimum and the Lowest temperatures. In the 1961 Census the figures were given in degrees Fahrenheit unlike those given in this table.

Table 2—Rainfall statistics—District average in m.m. by months and years.

This table furnishes monthly rainfall data for the decade 1961-70. For each of the year the data has been presented under two heads, viz; rainy days and rainfall (in m.m.) for all the twelve months separately along with the decadal average of the district.

Table 8—Polymetric table of distances (in k.m.) of towns, markets and other important places on the district road.

This is also a polymetric table similar to Table 7 giving distances of towns, markets and other important places on the district roads. Here also the method of reading distances between any two places is same as discribed in the earlier table. Similar table was presented in the 1961 Census also.

Table 9—Bus routes, 1970.

This table shows the bus routes connecting the district headquarters and other sub-divisional headquarters with the other important places in the district and also a few important places outside district. The distances of each of these routes (in k.ms.) along with the nature of service i.e. whether the route is notified or partly notified or a new route is also mentioned in this table. This table is a new presentation giving road connections of the district. The information embodies in this table pertains to the year 1970.

In the 1961 Census, the above information was presented for each decade from 1911.

Table 14—Gross area (by crops) irrigated (in acres).

This table gives the gross area irrigated under different crops for the district as a whole. The breakup of the irrigated area by total food crops and total nonfood crops has also been shown. Besides the above information it also gives net area irrigated and area irrigated more than once for different years. The data has been presented for the Agricultural years from 1961-62 to 1970-1971. In the 1961 Census also similar information was presented in the handbook, the years coverved, howeer, were 1911, 1921.....1961.

Table 15—Towns and villages connected by Electricity.

This table gives information regarding number of towns and villages connected by electricity in the district for the years 1961 to 1970. For each year the position in this behalf as on 31st March has been indicated.

Table 16—Commercial Banks and their Branches, 1970.

This table is meant to furnish list of scheduled and non-scheduled banks and their branches functioning at different places in the district classified by rural and urban areas. Table 24—Primary, Secondary, Higher Secondary and other non-collegiate Educational Institutions together with the strength of pupils.

This table gives number of different type of educaitonal institutions with regard to their respective strength of boys and girls students in the district. The data for each type of such institutions along with the strength of pupils enrolled at the end of March, 1961, March, 1966 and March, 1971 have been furnished. The institutions are educationally classified as (i) Primary, (ii) Junior Basic, (iii) Junior Secondary (Middle), (iv) Senior Basic, (v) Secondary and (vi) Higher Secondary. Similar information was provided in 1961 Census also.

Table 25—Primary, Secondary Higher Secondary and other non-collegiate Educational Institutions together with strength of teachers.

This table gives similar information as Table 24 of with the difference that here the information regarding educational institutions in the district with the strength teachers (males and females) is provided, Tables 24 and 25 together provide an overall picture of educational pattern in the district at three points of time specified earlier.

Table 28—Library and Reading Room facilities in the district.

This table furnishes the information regarding the number of libraries owned by Government, Local authorities or other agencies in the rural and urban areas of the district. The information has been provided for each of the years 1961 to 1970. Each library is equipped with a reading room.

Table 31—Land use pattern.

This is an important table on Agricultural Statistics giving land utilisation data for the district. The figures relate to agricultural year 1970-71. Land use has been classified under four broad heads, viz. :

(1) Area not available for cultivation

(2) Other uncultivated land excluding fallow lands

(3) Fallow lands

(4) Cultivated area.

Under each of the above head, sub-classification into different categories of use of land along with area (in acres) covered by them have been presented.

The terms and concepts used in this table are explained below :

Forest— All actually forested areas on the lands classed or administered as forest under any legal enactment dealing with forests, whether state owned or private.

Land put to non-agricultural use— All lands occupied by buildings, roads and railways or under water, e.g. rivers and canals and other lands put to uses other than agricultural.

Barren and un-cultivable lands— All barren and uncultivable lands like mountains, deserts, etc. land which cannot be brought under cultivation unless at a high cost is classed as uncultivable, whether such land is in isolated blocks, or within the cultivated holdings.

Permanent pastures and other grazing lands— All grazing lands, whether they are permanent pastures and meadows or not. Village common and grazing lands within forested areas are included under this head.

Land under miscellaneous tree crops and groves not included in area shown— All cultivable lands, which are not included under net area sown, but are put to some agricultural use. Lands under Casuarina trees, thatching grass, bamboo bushes and other grooves for fuel etc. which are not included under 'Orchards' are classed under this category.

Culturable waste— All lands available for cultivation whether or not taken up for cultivation or abandoned after five years for one reason or the other. Such lands may be either follow or covered with shrubs and jungles which are not put to any use. They may be in isolated blocks or within cultivated holdings.

Current fallow— Land which are left fallow during the current year only,

Other fallows—All Lands which were taken up for cultivation but are temporarily out of cultivation for a period of not less than one year and not more than five years.

Cultivated Area— The sum of net areas shown and area under current fallows gives the cultivated area.

Table 32—Single and Double cropped area.

The information regarding total irrigated and unirrigated areas under cultivation and also area under single crop as well as under double crops have been furnished in this table for the district. The information has been provided for the years 1961-62, 1962-63, 1963-64, 1964-65, 1965-66, 1966-67, 1967-68, 1968-69, 1969-70 and 1970-71 and for each of these years percentages of single cropped area and double cropped area to the total area under cultivation are also given to facilitate studying the trend of cultivation in the district.

Table 33—Area and out-turn of principal crops.

This table furnishes details of the area covered by different crops and their out-turn for the periods 1951-52, 1961-62, 1966-67 and 1970-71, highlighting the cropping pattern of the district. The cropped area is divided into three main groups, viz., under basic food crops, other food crops and non-food crops. Basic food crops include rice, wheat, pulses, fruits and vegetables while other food crops contain sugarcane, condiments and others. Non-food crops consist of oilseeds, fibre, tobacco, fodder and other non-food crops.

Tahle 34—Crop and irrigation

This table gives an indication regarding extent of irrigation under different crops for the district as a whole. The irrigated area for the different food and non-food crops is being provided for the periods 1961-62, 1966-67 and 1970-71.

Table 35—Total/Rural population per 100 acres of area under foodgrains and net area sown during last 5 decades.

It shows the density of total and rural population per 100 acres of area under foodgrains, other crops, net area sown and area sown more than once during the last five decades, viz., Census years, 1931, 1941, 1951, 1961 and 1971 for the district. Similar information was presented in 1961 Census also.

Table 36—Density of cultivators and agricultural lobourers per 100 acres of net area sown in 1951, 1961 and 1971.

This table gives the density of cultivators and agricultural labourers per 100 acres of net area sown for the decades 1951, 1961 and 1971 separately for total and rural population of the district. In 1961 Census, a similar data was provided in District Census Handbook.

Table 37—Rainfall, area sown and irrigated, density in 1970.

In this table rainfall statistics, gross area sown and irrigated under different crops and their yield have been presented for the period 1970-71 in respect of the district as a whole. It also provides data on density per hectare of gross cropped area and area under foodgrains. Gross area sown has been for two main agricultural seasons, viz., Kharif and Rabi. In the 1961 Census, however, this information was traced for the periods 1951-52 to 1960-61.

Table 38—Agricultural Tools and Implements.

This table furnishes number of different Agricultural tools and implements used in the district during the years. 1956, 1961, 1966 and 1972. Some of the tools and implements shown are Plough (wooden and iron), Seed driller, Sugarcane crusher (worked by power or bullock), Persian wheels or Rehats, Tractors, Oil Crusher, Oil engines, Electric pump and Carts, etc.

The Census Tables on Housing presented in Census Part of this Handbook give an idea about the housing conditions prevailing in the district based on Houselisting operations conducted during May-June, 1970 as a part of 1971 Census Programme.

A 'Census House' in the 1971 Census was defined as a building or a part of building having a separate main entrance from the road or common courtyard or Stair-case, etc., used or recognised as a separate unit. It may be inhabited or vacant. It may be used for residential or non-residential purposes or both.

According to houselist of 1971 Census, as will appear from Table H-I, there are in all 592,935 hauses in Santal Parganas district-out of which 20,075 houses were found vacant at the time of houselisting operations and the rest were occupied. The Census houses used wholly or partly for residential purposes account for 89.5 per cent while the corresponding figure for the State is 80.3 per cent. The rest 10.5 per cent of the houses are utilised as shops or business houses, factories or workshops, eating places, places of entertainment or worship, schools, dispensaries, etc., including the vacant houses. The percentage of vacant houses in the district is 3.4 which is same as for the state. These vacant houses are not put to any specific use.

In rural areas of the district, as shall be evident from Table H-II, 90.0 per cent of the houses are having walls made of mud followed by houses having walls made of burnt bricks which accounts for 5.6 per cent. Remaining houses in rural areas have walls either of grass, leaves, reeds or bamboo, wood, or unburnt bricks. Similarly 63.0 percent of the houses have the roofs made of grass, leaves, reeds, thatch, wood, mud, unburnt bricks or bamboo and 32.8 per cent of the houses have tiles, slate, shingle as the material of their roofs. The rest of the houses in rural areas have their roofs made of concrete, R.B.C. (Reinforced brick concrete), R.C.C. (Reinforced cement concrete), corrugated iron, zone or other metal sheets, bricks and lime, etc. In urban areas, however, the use of burnt bricks is the most common material used for walls, its percentage being 70.0 followed by walls made of mud (25.0 per cent). Grass, leaves, reeds or bamboo, wood and unburnt bricks are not so preferred materials for wall in these areas. As regards roofs of the houses in urban areas of the district, the most common materials are concrete; R.B.C. (Reinforced brick concrete)/R.C.C. (Reinforced cement concrete) constituting 45.3 per cent and tiles, slate shingle sharing 29.3 per cent followed by grass, leaves, reeds, thatch wood, mud unburnt bricks or bamboo (12.4 per cent). The other materials used are bricks and lime contributing 6.3 per cent corrugated iron, zinc or other metal sheets 5.6 per cent, asbestos cement sheet (0.8 per cent) and stone (0.3 per cent).

As regards intensity of congestion in the houses, it may be seen in Santal Parganas district that the average number of persons per room in rural areas and urban areas is 2.75 and 2.46 respectively. However, a more realistic picture of congestion can be obtained when we look into details about the number of persons per room distributed in various type of households. On this basis it is seen that in one room households. There are more than 4 persons per room (on an average) both in the rural as will as urban areas of the district. Thereafter there is a gradual decline and degree of congestion is comparatively lower in the households having 2 or 3 rooms. Households having 4 rooms and above have no congestion at all in both the rural and urban areas of the district.
