PREFACE

The compilation and publication of District Handbooks was introduced for the first time during 1951 Census in almost all other States except Jammu & Kashmir where due to unsettled conditions prevailing then, no Census could be held at that time. In earlier years also, some States used to Publish District Census Statistics and Gazeteers from time to time. However, in the case of Jammu and Kashmir, the only compilation of this kind was brought out by Mr. Bates in about 1874.

The work of compiling and publishing District Handbooks as a regular feature of Census was taken up in our State earnestly during 1961 Census. As a result seven Handbooks pertaining to Anantnag, Srinagar, Baramulla, Ladakh, Doda, Udhampur and Jammu districts where completed and published as part of the 1961 Census publication programme. The handbooks of two remaining districts namely Kathua and Poonch, however, remained in arrears. These have been completed now. Owing to our pre-occupations with the current Census Operations and the inordinate delay in their timely publication, the portions dealing with physical features, past history etc. which will be found in other Handbooks have been dispensed with. Instead we have confined ourselves to compiling the books on data on administrative statistics supplied by various departments. However, no important Census table such as relating to population sex-ratio, economic structure, literacy, languages and rural crafts will be found missing in these compilations.

The most valuable data contained in these Handbooks is given in the Village Directory printed at the end. The Directory gives in respect of each village the size of its area, number of households, sex-wise strength of population, literacy figures, number of male and female Scheduled Castes as well as classification of population in the recognised industrial categories. Further, educational, medical and public health institutions, if any, set up in a village have been also indicated. Similarly, the Directory contains data regarding roads, drinking water facility and supply of electricity in every village listed.

In addition to the above, the Handbooks have been provided with maps showing boundaries of each tehsil along with the Census code number of each village. Other details given in the maps show the location of tehsil headquarters, roads, post and telegraph offices, dak bungalows etc.

I am thankful to the various departments of the State Government for having made available information of diverse types relating to their respective spheres of work. I would also like to mention that the entire cost on paper, printing and binding of the Handbooks has been borne by the State Government.

I would like to commend the work of S/Shri C. L. Chehra, B. L. Tikoo, Tabulation Officers and Abdul Jabar, Statistical Assistant, who did not spare any pains to enrich the publications with valuable material. Shri Masood Ahmed Statistical Assistant (Map), also put in hard work in preparing the District & Tehsil maps. Proof reading was done by S/Shri Khursheed Ahmed, Abdul Aziz, Vijay Kumar and Tej Krishen.

Srinagar,
November, 1970.

CENSUS TABLES

CENSUS TABLES

The 1961 Census was designed to collect more comprehensive data than that attempted at any previous Indian Census in view of the Five Year Plans undertaken by the Government as also because of the growing need for basic data by the different administrative departments.

The Census data relating to Jammu and Kashmir has been incorporated in Volume VI of the series of publications designated Census of India, 1961. The volume has been divided into 10 parts, some of which have been further sub-divided, depending upon the quantum of material relating to each.

The tabulation Plan of the 1961 Census envisaged the compilation of 5 sets of tables known as A—General Population Tables, B—Economic Tables, C—Social and Cultural Tables, D—Migration Tables and E—Housing Tables series. The B-Series Tables were split up into two parts, one giving the general economic data and the other in which the data has been tabulated with household and not the individual as the unit. In addition to these five sets, special tables relating to scheduled castes and scheduled tribes were to be prepared and printed as a separate part. As there are no scheduled tribes in Jammu and Kashmir, tables giving the data of scheduled tribes were not prepared for this State. Another set of tables regarding rural arts and crafts found in different parts of the State was also compiled and printed as a separate part of Volume VI.

The District Census Handbook does not include D-Series (Migration Tables) and E-Series (Tables on Housing). These have been separately printed and constitute Part II-C and Part IV of Volume VI.

So far as other series are concerned, the following tables only have been omitted :—

Name of series	Tables omitted
A—Series General Population Tables	Union Primary Census Abstract. Sub-Appendix to Appendix I of Table A-I
B—Series (Tables I to IX) General Economic Tables	B-II. Workers and non-workers in cities, town groups and towns arranged territorially classified by sex and broad-age group.
B—Series (Tables X to XVII) Household Economic Tables	Nil
C—Series Social and Cultural Tables	C-IV—Single Year Age Returns. C-VI—Bilingualism
SCT—Series (Special tables for Scheduled Castes)	Nil
Rural Craft Tables	Table III—Distribution of articles of rural crafts by material used. Table IV—Designs. Table V—Consumption and sale. Table VI—Cost of production, sale price and earnings.

GENERAL POPULATION TABLES

GENERAL POPULATION TABLES

The General Population Tables, more commonly know as A-Series, consist of four main tables and Union Primary Census Abstract. In addition, Table A-I has been supplemented by three appendices and one sub-appendix. Tables A-II and A-IV are also accompanied by one appendix each. Besides these, explanatory notes have been furnished to appendix II to A-I and A-IV tables.

Table A—I

The table gives data regarding area, density, number of villages and towns, occupied residential houses and the total and sex-wise population. The information has been separately tabulated for the district and each of its constituent tehsils as also for each urban area falling in a tehsil.

The area figures of the State territory on this side of the Cease-fire Line were neither available with the Directorate of Land Records of the State Government nor with the Survey of India. These have, therefore, been provisionally worked out by fresh planimetering on the basis of the boundary alignments supplied by the Census Department to the Directorate of Map Publications, Dehra Dun. In the case of urban areas, the area figures have been supplied by Deputy Commissioners, Tehsildars and the Administrators of Municipal Corporations and authorities of Local Bodies concerned.

It will be seen from the table that two sets of area figures, one in square miles and the other in square kilometres, have been shown in columns 3a and 3b against each territorial unit. The rural figures have been arrived at by deducting from the total area, as worked out by the Survey of India, the figures of urban areas supplied by Deputy Commissioners, Tehsildars etc.

The density of population has, in all cases, been indicated in terms of square miles.

Every village with well-defined boundaries for revenue assessment having residential houses densely or sparsely populated has been treated as a village irrespective of the number of hamlets of which it may be constituted. A village with no habitations at all has been classed as an uninhabited village.

The definition of an urban area, as adopted at the Census of 1961, was that it should not have a population of less than 5,000 persons and at least 75% of these should consist of non-agriculturists. Another indispensable criterion which an area was to satisfy so as to qualify it for being classed as urban was that it should have a density of not less than 1,000 persons per square mile.

Notwithstanding these three tests, it was agreed upon that all Corporations, Municipalities and Cantonment Boards should, irrespective of the size of their population, be treated as towns. An exception was also made for areas which though having a population of less than 5,000 possessed definite urban characteristics like places of tourist importance where all civic amenities have been provided.

An occupied residential house was defined as a building or a part of a building used for residential purposes and having a separate entrance of its own and independent of the entrances of other parts, giving on the road or a common staircase or a common courtyard which lead to main gate.

Areas which have been declared as towns for the first time have been printed in italics so as to distinguish them from others.

As will be seen from the figures given in columns 3a and 3b of the table, Kathua is the smallest district of the State extending to an area of 1,023.6 sq. miles or 2,651.2 kilometres. The population of the district as returned at the 1961 Census dose not also exceed 207,430 and is the smallest among all the districts of the State except Ladakh.

Judged by the number of its inhabited villages which stands at 542 only, the district-ranks last but one, the smallest number of 237 being claimed by Ladakh. The tehsil-wise figures however, reveal that the villages are not uniformly distributed among the 3 constituent tehsils of the district and while 240 or about 44% of the aggregate number of 542 villages are concentrated in Hiranagar tehsil alone, Kathua includes 163 villages only and Bashohli which is biggest tehsil in so far as the geographical area is concerned, ranks last and does not include more than 139 villages.

The district has the distinction of including in its jurisdiction the largest number of un-inhabited villages. This is borne out by the relevant statistics which stand that of the total number of 167 un-inhabited villages in the State as many 43 or about 26% belong to Kathua District.

There are in all four urban areas in the district, namely the towns of Bashohli, Kathua, Lakhenpur and Hiranagar. The aggregate area to which the urban sector extends being limited to 3.2 sq. miles or 8.4 sq. kilometres only. The urban density is very high and stand at 4,795 per sq. mile which is slightly smaller than the State average of 5,031. Like Jammu, the district has also absorbed large number of immigrants from outside the State with the result that the rural and over-all densities are also fairly high and work out to 188 and 203 respectively.

Appendix I to Table A-I gives the 1941 territorial units constituting the present set up of the district. The statement given in the appendix is, however, provisional and subject to incorporation, adjustment and correction when the actual surveys are made.

Of all the districts of the State, Kathua alone has remained immune from any jurisdictional change during the last 20 years. The area occupied by it in 1961 which is estimated at 1,023.56 sq. miles, discloses a slight increase of 0.56 sq. miles when compared with 1941. This is due to fresh planimetering.

Appendix II to Table A-I relates exclusively to villages inhabited by 5,000 or more persons and towns with a population of less than 5,000. It gives the number and aggregate population of all such villages and towns upto tehsil level as also the percentages claimed by their respective populations in the rural and urban population of the district.

Like Anantnag, Ladakh, Doda, Udhampur and Jammu there is not a single village in Kathua district with a population of 5,000 and over. The urban areas of the district, however, include 3 towns one each in its three tehsils with a population of less than 5,000.

The Census Report for 1941 shows that there was no village in the district with population of more than 5,000. As is clear from the appendix, this position has remained unchanged during the following two decades also. In the urban sector however one of the towns, namely, Parole was de-urbanised during the inter-Censal period. For this reason and because the area did not satisfy even one of the three tests prescribed for the determination of urban areas for the Census of 1961, it continued to be retained on the rural list. On the other hand, Lakhenpur which was a small village in 1941 was declared an urban area in 1961 because of its being an important station on National Highway and possessing all the urban characteristics.

Appendix III to Table A-I gives the sex-wise and total population down to tehsil level of houseless persons and those enumerated in institutions. The figures have been given for each territorial unit as a whole as also its rural and urban sectors.

An 'institution as defined at the Census of 1961 represents a Census household occupied by un-related persons who live together and take their meals from a common kichen unless the exigencies of work prevent any of them from doing so. The subjoined statement gives the types of institutions found in Kathua district as also the number of institutions of each category : —

1.	Boarding House	1
2.	Dak Bungalows, Rest Houses, etc.	3
3.	Dharamsala	1
4.	Factories and workshops	3
5.	Hospitals	2
6.	Hotels	2
7.	Jail	1
8.	Police Station	1
9.	Miscellaneous	3

Compared to the contiguous districts of Jammu, Udhampur and Doda, the proportion of houseless population in Kathua district is relatively small. The tehsil-wise data shows that the houseless population is mostly concentrated in the rural areas of Bashohli tehsil where a large number of labourers belonging to adjoining areas were engaged in 1961 on the construction of Dhar—Udhampur road and felling operations in the adjoining forest areas. Many of these had no living accommodation and had to sleep in the open.

This shows that the number of institutions is fairly small and limited to 17 only. As a result, the institutional population when compared with most other districts of the State, is also small.

Table A-II

This table furnished the total and sex-wise population of the district for the six Censuses from 1901 to 1961 as also the percentage variation in each decade. In the absence of reliable vital statistics data, the table, as it gives the growth of population from decade to decade, is the main source for estimating the population.

As there had been no jurisdictional change in Kathua district at any time during the last sixty years, the adjusted population of the district for previous decades is the same as given in the relevant Census Reports.

Appendix to Table A-II is an extract of the main appendix to this table (published in Part II-A, Volume VI) which gives the disposition of the various districts of the State in 1941 and 1961. It is designed to indicate separately the 1941 population of the district, the number of its towns and villages, wholly and partly, in Pak or Chinese occupation, the area of these villages and towns and their 1941 population. The appendix also shows the administrative localities now on this side of the Cease-fire Line as also their 1941 and 1961 area and population.

Kathua is one of the districts which did not suffer any territorial loss as a result of the splitting up of the State by the Cease-fire Line. No area of the district, which fell in its jurisdiction in 1941 came under Pak or Chinese occupation. Columns 3 and 4 of the appendix have accordingly been left blank.

Column 6 of the appendix gives the details of the territorial units of which the district was constituted in 1941 and also lists the changes, in the jurisdiction of its constituent tehsils, during the decade. As there has been no jurisdictional change in the district, the entry in col. 6 of the appendix has also remained unchanged.

Table III

State Table A-III, as distinguished from the Union table gives down to the tehsil level, the number of inhabited villages, the total and sex-wise rural population classified by 7 size classes, viz., (1) less than 200, (2) 200—499, (3) 500—999, (4) 1,000—1,999, (5) 2,000—4,999, (6) 5,000—9,999, (7) 10,000 and above.

The following statement gives the percentages of villages and of the population claimed by each category of villages classified by size classes of population in 1921, 1941 and 1961. For working out these percentages, villages with population of less 200 and 200—499 have been merged together.

District	Year	Less than 500		500—999		1,000—1,999		2,000—4,999		5,000—9,999		10,000+		Unclassified population

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15
Kathua	1921	85	56	13	35	2	9	..	..	..	..	..	..	..
	1941	83	52	14	32	3	15	N	1	..	..	..	..	..
	1961	74	39	19	36	7	24	N	1	..	..	..	..	..

As will be seen from the above statement, there has been a steady decline in the proportion of villages with a population of less than 500 which has declined from 85% of 1921 to 74% in 1961. The corresponding fall in the percentage of the total rural population claimed by the size class which has come down from 56% to 39% in four decades has been proportionately even large. These decreases have, however, been set off by corresponding increases in the population groups 500—999 and 1,000—1,999. Villages of the size class 2,000—4,999 did not exist till 1921 but have come into being during the subsequent decades though their number is negligible and they continue to be inhabited as in 1941, by only 1% of the rural population.

Table A-IV

Table A-IV gives the towns and town-groups classified by population in 1961 with variations since 1941. It has been prepared at district level and gives the name of each town/town-group together with the area of each as also the status it holds, viz., municipality, town area, notified area, etc.

For purposes of the Census of 1961, urban areas have been classified into 6 categories in descending order of their population, as indicated below :—

Class	Population
I	100,000 and above
II	50,000—99,999
III	20,000—49,999
IV	10,000—19,999
V	5,000— 9,999
VI	Less than 5,000

There is no town of classes I, II, III and IV in the district. One of the four towns belongs to class V and the remaining three to class VI.

The appendix to Table A-IV indicates the names of new towns which have been added to the urban list of the district in 1961, as also of those which were treated as towns in 1941 but were declassified as rural in 1961. It gives the status, area and the 1941 and 1961 populations of all such towns. Towns which have been declared urban for the first time have been printed in italics.

Note :— 1. *The total area shown against District/Tehsil under columns (3a) and (3b) represents the area as supplied by the Surveyor General of India. The urban areas are based on the area of individual towns furnished by the local authorities. The rural area of district and tehsil is obtained by subtracting the urban area from the Surveyor General's area figures.

2. The square kilometres and density figures of urban areas of Tehsil and District are worked out using the area figures corrected upto two places of decimales obtained by adding the areas of the towns in the respective units and not using the area figures given in the table. In addition to this, the figures relating to Sq. kilometres are further adjusted to make the Tehsil/District totals tally.

3. Towns treated as such for the first time in 1961 are printed in italics.

4. (a) (T. A.)—Town Area.

(b) (N. A.)—Notified Area.

GENERAL ECONOMIC TABLES

GENERAL ECONOMIC TABLES

Economic data collected at the Census of 1961 has been presented in 17 tables known as B-Series and published in Part II-B and Part III of Volume VI, Census of India, 1961. The first 9 tables have been incorporated in Part II-B under the title "General Economic Tables". The remaining 8 tables in which the data has been presented with household as the unit are known as Household Economic Tables and constitute Part III of Volume VI.

The General Economic Tables have been compiled from the data collected as replaced to the economic questions canvassed in the Individual Slip. In all five questions listed below were asked to elicit information on the economic characteristics of the person enumerated :—

Question 8 ... Working as cultivator

Question 9 ... Working as agricultural labourer

Question 10 ... Working at household industry

a) nature of work
b) nature of household industry
c) if employee

Question 11 ... Doing work other than questions 8, 9 or 10

a) nature of work
b) nature of industry, profession, trade or service
c) class of worker
d) name of establishment

Question 12 ... Activity, if not working

In order to facilitate a correct appraisal of the data given in the tables, the definition of a worker as adopted for the 1961 Census is reproduced below :—

"The basis of work will be satisfied in the case of seasonal work like cultivation, livestock, dairying, household industry etc., if the person has had some regular work of more than one hour a day throughout the greater part of the working season. In the case of regular employment in any trade, profession, service, business or commerce, the basis of work will be satisfied if a person was employed during any of the fifteen days preceding the day on which his household was visited for enumeration".

An adult woman who was engaged in household duties but doing no other productive work to augment the family resources was not treated as a worker. If, however, in addition to her household work, she was engaged in work such as rice pounding for sale or wages or in domestic service for wages for others or minding cattle or selling firewood or making and selling cowdung cakes, etc., she was treated as a worker.

This change in the definition of a worker has had the advantage of persons working in family economic activities who were heretofore treated as non-workers or partly dependents being now classified as workers.

A distinguishing feature of 1961 Census has been the classification of workers into 9 industrial categories according to Standard Industrial Classification. Following is a further description of these categories together with the nature of activity represented by each :—

Category I—Working as cultivator

A person was treated as a cultivator if he or she was engaged either as employer, single worker or family worker in (a) cultivation of land or supervision or direction of cultivation of land owned or held from Government and (b) cultivation of land or supervision or direction of cultivation of land held from private persons or institutions for payment in money, kind or share. A person who had given out his land to others for cultivation for money, kind or share of crop and who did not even supervise or direct cultivation of land was not deemed to be a cultivator. Similarly, a person who worked in another person's land for wages in cash, kind or share was not also treated as cultivator.

Category II—Working as agricultural labourer

A person who worked as agricultural labourer on the lands of other person or persons for wages in money, kind or share of the produce was treated as agricultural labourer.

Category III—Working in mining, quarrying, livsetock, forestry, fishing, hunting, plantation or orchards and allied activities.

This category represent workers employed in afforestation or plantation of such other crops as tea etc. or those engaged in fishing or extraction of stone, lignite, coal, clay or employed in the production and rearing of livestock.

Category IV—Working at household industry

A Household Industry was defined as an industry conducted by the Head of the household himself and/or mainly members of the household at home or within the village in rural areas and only at home in urban areas. An industry which was being run on the scale of a registered factory was not treated as a household industry, Professions, such as those of a pleader, doctor, barber, water-man or an astrologer, were not also treated as household industry.

Category V—Working in manufacturing other than household industry

This category represents workers engaged in manufacturing of products outside the scope of household industry. It relates to production, processing, servicing, repairing and manufacturing etc.

Category VI—Working in construction

The category includes workers engaged in all types of constructions including construction and maintenance of telegraph and telephone lines, water ways and water reservoirs, such as bunds, canals, tanks, tube wells, embankments etc.

Category VII—Working in trade and commerce

Workers engaged wholly or mainly in retail and wholesale trading have been included in this category. It also represents workers in commercial activities, like banking, money lending, insurance etc.

Category VIII—Working in transport, storage and communications

The category represents workers in transport, storage and communications and includes aircraft pilots, bus drivers, conductors, telephone operators, signallors, wireless operators, postmen etc.

Category IX—Other services

Other services include workers in :—

a) Public services
b) educational and scientific services
c) religious and welfare services
d) legal services
e) business services
f) community services and trade and labour associations
g) recreation services
h) personal services
i) services not elsewhere classified
j) medical and health services
k) electricity, gas, water and sanitary services

Non-workers have been divided into 8 categories. These have been discussed in the Fly-leaf to Table B—IX.

Table B—I

The table has been prepared for the district as a whole and for its rural and urban sectors. It gives the sex wise population of each of these units as also of workers and non-workers by four broad age-groups 0-14, 15-34, 35-59, 60+ and age not stated. As these age-groups correspond to the different stages of life which have special persons, significance for capacity of work, viz. children, young middle aged persons and elderly persons, it may well be regarded as a summary economic table of the district.

Table B—III

Table B-III has been split up into two parts, one dealing with the urban and the other with the rural areas. The first part has been presented upto district level and the second part down to the tehsils. Both give the distribution of workers and non-workers by educational levels and by industrial categories. It is hoped that the information given in the table will be of great help in assessing the size of available educated man-power in the district.

The proportions of workers in the State as a whole as also in its rural sector are more or less the same as the corresponding proportions in India, which stand at 42.9% and 45.1% respectively as against 42.8% and 45.3% in the state. In the urban areas of the state, however, only 30.2% persons are workers, whereas the corresponding proportion for the entire country stands at 33.5%. This shows that the incidence of non-workers in the urban sector of Jammu and Kashmir is more pronounced than that obtaining in the urban areas of all the States put together.

The proportion of workers in Kathua district as a whole is slightly lower than that of the State and stands at 40.8%. In the rural and urban sectors of the district also the corresponding proportions which stand at 41.9% and 27.2% are slightly smaller than the state averages of 45.3% and 30.2% respectively.

The main object of the table is to give the incidence of literacy in each of the 9 industrial categories of workers and among non-workers. It was with this object in view that question No. 6, viz. Literacy and Education, was included in the Enumeration Slip.

A literate person was defined as one who could both read and write and not one who could only read or only write in any language. With a view to ensuring effective application of this definition, instructions were issued to the field staff to verify, in each case, whether the person claiming to be literate was able to read a simple letter either in print or manuscript and whether further he could write a simple letter. In the case of literate persons, further enquiry was to be made, whether the person enumerated had passed any recognised examination as proof of an educational standard attained. In such cases the name of the highest examination passed was to be recorded against question 6 of the Enumeration Slip.

It may be remarked here that the first part of the table relating to urban areas is designed to collect more detailed information about the educational levels of the workers and non-workers. Part-B of the table, in which data relating to rural areas has been presented, provides only three broad categories of literate persons, namely, literate without educational qualifications, those who have passed primary or junior basic examination and those possessing matriculation and higher qualifications.

Part-A of the table shows that there are 4,221 workers in a total population of 15,535 inhabiting the urban areas of the district. The workers include 2,327 illiterate persons or 55.1% of the total working population. Literate without educational levels comprise 18.1% and those whose educational qualifications are limited to Primary or Junior basic examinations constitute another 12.2% of the total working force in the district. This shows that literates with higher educational qualifications claim 14.6% of the working population. Even as it is, large majority of these consist of workers who have passed matriculation or higher secondary examination only and who comprise 12% reducing the proportion of degree holders and others to 2.6%.

The preceding paragraph gives an analysis of the distribution of all urban workers by different levels of education. An examination of the sex-wise data reveals that the proportions of female literate workers of all educational levels are very low than that of males.

Table B—IV

The table has been split up into three parts so as to indicate separately the industrial classification by sex and (i) class of worker of persons at work at household industry, (ii) class of worker of persons at work in non-household industry, trade, business, profession or service and (iii) divisions, major groups and minor groups of persons at work other than cultivation. All the three parts have been prepared down to tehsil level, but the branch of industry has been given upto major groups in the case of district in parts (a) and (b) and upto minor groups in part (c) of the table. So far as the data relating to tehsils is concerned, the figures have been presented upto divisions only in all the three parts.

Part—A of the table shows that the household industries returned from the rural and urban sectors of Kathua district fall under two major groups of Division 0 and eleven major groups of Division 2 and 3. Full description of the industries represented by these divisions and major groups is given below :—

Division	0	Agriculture, livestock, forestry, fishing and hunting
Major Group	02	Forestry and logging
,, ,,	04	Livestock and hunting
Division	2 & 3	Manufacturing
Major Group	20	Foodstuffs
,, ,,	23	Textile-cotton
,, ,,	24	Textile-Jute
,, ,,	25	Textile-wool
,, ,,	27	Textile-miscellaneous
,, ,,	28	Manufacture of wood and wood products
,, ,,	31	Leather and leather products
,, ,,	34-35	Non-metallic Mineral products other than petroleum and coal
,, ,,	36	Basic metals and their products except machinery and transport equipment

Major Group	37	Machinery (All kinds other than Transport and Electrical equipments)
,,	,, 39	Miscellaneous manufacturing industries

As the participation of the members of the household in an industry carried on at home is an indispensable condition for its classification as a household industry, it was not deemed necessary to ascertain the status of such workers except in case of those among them who worked as employees in the household industry of some other households. It is therefore that the distribution of workers in part—A of the table has been given by two categories only, namely, employees and others.

An employee was defined as a person who usually works under some other person for salary or wages in cash or kind. Managers, Superintendents etc. who might in their capacity as such be employing or controlling other workers on behalf of their own employers were also treated as employees and not as employers.

The figures given in Part—B of the table relate to workers engaged in Categories III and V to IX of Industrial Classification, namely those engaged in :—

III	Mining, Quarrying, Livestock, Forestry, Fishing, Hunting and Plantations, Orchards and Allied activities
V	Manufacturing other than Household Industry.
VI	Construction
VII	Trade and Commerce
VIII	Transport, Storage and Communications
IX	Other Services

These workers have further been sub-divided into the following classes :—

1. Employer

An employer was defined as a person who had to employ other persons in order to perform the work (other than cultivation, agricultural labour and household industry) in which he was engaged. In order to properly identify an employer, care was taken to ensure that he was not only responsible for his own personal work but also for giving work to others in connection with the business in which he was engaged.

2. Employee

A person who usually worked under some other person for salary or wages in cash or kind was treated as an employee.

3. Single worker

A single worker was defined as a person who worked by himself but not as Head of household in a Household Industry. The test applied for verifying whether a person could be classed as a single worker was that he should neither have been employed by any one nor himself employed anybody else, not even members of his household except casually.

4. Family worker

A person who worked without receiving wages in cash or kind in an industry, business or trade conducted mainly by the members of the family was treated as a family worker provided that he worked at least one hour every day during the working season. Such of the members of the household who helped solely in the household duties were not treated as family workers.

Part—C of the table gives the distribution of workers by three digit industrial classification in respect of workers engaged in household industry and in non-household industry and does not include cultivators and agricultural labourers. A copy of the Standard Industrial Classification giving the description of each division, major group and minor group has been appended as an annexure to Table B-IV, Part—C. It may be remarked here that :—

(a) Minor Groups 000 to 004 and 005 (partly) relating to Category I (Cultivators) and Category II (Agricultural labourers) and

(b) Minor Group 999 (fresh entrants to labour market) relating to non-workers being outside the scope of this table do not find place in it.

Further, the table does not include such of the minor groups in which the number of workers is less than 1% of the total number of workers given against the concerned division. In case, however, of division 2 & 3, only such minor groups which claim less than 0.5% workers of the division have been omitted. All these minor groups have been listed in the appendix to this table.

Table B-V

The table gives the occupational classification of Categories III to IX, viz. all workers except these employed in agricultural sector.

The term occupation used in the previous Census Reports implied means of subsistence or livelihood or the supporting sector of economy. In 1961, however, a precise connotation has been assigned to this term by making the 'function', or 'exact work' which a person performs in any branch of economic activity as the basis of occupational classification.

The occupational classification is based on the National Classification of Occupations adopted by the Government of India, a copy of which will be found at the end of the table. By this classification, the occupations have been divided into 11 Divisions, 75 Groups and 331 Families.

Following are the limitations of 'National Classification of Occupations' as adopted for the Census of 1961 :—

(i) Occupational family '0x4' has been deleted from the N. C. O.

(ii) Occupational families 400—401 relating to category I (Cultivators) and 414 relating to Category II (Agricultural labourers) do not find place in Table B—V.

(iii) Similarly occupational Group x0 and its families x00, x08 and x09 relating to Non-workers (workers without occupations) also do not find place in Table B—V.

(iv) Occupational family '063' has been changed as '069'.

(v) Occupational family '673'—'Teleprinter 'Operators' is a new addition in the family of occupations.

(vi) There have been changes in the description of some occupational families. Correct description of all such cases are listed below :—

010 Chemists except Pharmaceutical Chemists

047 Optometrists and Opticians

072 Statisticians and Actuaries

073 Geographers

202 Ticket Sellers and Ticket Inspectors including Ushers and Ticket Collectors (excluding those on moving transport).

211 Typists

280 General and other Ministerial Assistants and Clerks

290 Office Attendants, Ushers, Hall Porters etc. not elsewhere classified

660 Inspectors, Supervisors, Station Masters and Permanent Way Inspectors

690 Ticket Sellers, Ticket Inspectors including Ushers and Ticket Collectors on moving transport

771 Shipwrights and Body Builders (wood)

Like Table B-IV Part-C, families against which the number of workers is less than 1% of the total number of workers in the concerned Division and less than 0.5% in the case of Division 7-8 have been omitted from the table. These have, however, been listed separately in the appendix to the table.

The data has been presented for all such families of National Classification of Occupations as are found in Kathua district separately for the district and its urban sector as also for the total and sex-wise populations. So far, however, as the tehsils are concerned, the presentation of the data has been restricted to divisions only.

Table B—VI

The table gives the distribution of urban workers of categories III to IX by broad age-groups, sex and educational levels, classified by occupational divisions. The age-groups adopted are the same as those given in Table B—I.

So far as the educational levels are concerned, the workers have been classified by the standards mentioned in Table B-III Part-A with the difference that no separate column has been provided for illiterate workers.

The table exhibits figures only for occupational divisions but even so it shows the pattern of educational level of working force and the principal occupations which attract qualified persons.

As the table gives the distribution of urban workers other than those engaged in Cultivation (Category I) or employed, as Agricultural labourers (Category II), Division 4 excludes families 400 (Cultivators owners), 401 (Cultivators Tenants) and 414 (Agricultural labourers). Similarly, group x0 of Division x which represents workers without occupations has also been excluded as the table relates to workers only.

Figures of individual occuptional divisions are not available by age-groups and have not, been presented in columns 3 to 5 of the table.

Table B—VII

Table B—VII is designed to indicate the principal and subsidiary work of such of the workers who are engaged in more than one activity.

It has already been indicated in the general note on B—Series tables that four questions were canvassed in the Enumeration Slip to ascertain the type of activity in which the person enumerated, if working, was engaged. In the case of a person engaged in more than one activity, the name of the particular activity in which he spent most of the time was also ascertained. This was treated as his principal work and the other activity in which he spent lesser time was regarded as his secondary work.

The table has been split up into two parts. Part—A gives the cross-tabulated data of persons whose principal and secondary work consist of any two of the following :—

I Cultivation

II Agricultural labour

III Household Industry

It presents the data sex-wise in respect of the district and its rural and urban sectors as also for the rural areas of its constituent tehsils. The data for the district has been presented in respect of household industry, whether it appears as a principal or subsidiary work, by Divisions and Major Groups. So far, however, as the tehsils are concerned, the presentation of the data has been limited to divisions only.

Major groups of household industry in which the proportion of persons doing also some secondary work is less than 5% of the number of persons whose principal work is household industry have been omitted from the table. These have, however, been listed separately in the appendix to the table.

Full description of the divisions and major groups has already been given at the end of Table B—IV, Part—C.

Part—B of the table gives cross-tabulated data in respect of principal and secondary work of persons engaged in any of the activities represented by categories III and V to IX (non-household industry). The figures have been presented sex-wise down to the major groups in the case of the district and upto divisions in respect of the tehsils.

Table B—VIII

The table indicates the incidence of unemployment among persons of either sex aged 15 and above. It has been split up into two parts, one relating to the urban areas and the other to the rural sector. Part-A of the table gives the total and sex-wise number by broad age-groups and educational levels of unemployed persons in the urban areas and their distribution among those seeking employment for the first time and those who were employed before but are now out of employment and seeking work. The educational levels adopted for this table are the same as those given in Table B—III, Part-A.

Part—B of the table deals with the rural sector of the district and of its constituent tehsils. It gives similar educational levels of unemployed person of both sexes, aged 15 and above, as those of Table B-III, Part—B.

Table B—IX

The table gives the total and sex-wise distribution of Non-workers by broad age-groups and the type of activity. The data has been presented separately for the district and its rural and urban sectors as also for each tehsil.

Non-workers have been classified into the following 8 categories :—

1. Full time students or children attending school who do no other work, such as making of articles at home for sale, nor even help their own family cultivation, industry, trade or business on part-time basis.

2. Persons engaged in unpaid household duties (like a house-wife or other adult females) who do no other work, such as making of articles at home for sale or wages, nor help regularly even on part-time basis in family cultivation, industry, trade or bussiness.

3. Dependents including infants or children not attending school and persons permanently disabled from work because of illness or old age.

4. Retired persons other than those re-employed, rentiers, persons living on agricultural or non-agricultural royalty, rent or dividend as also persons of independent means for securing which they do not have to work nor they do any other work.

5. Beggars, vagrants or independent women without indication of source of income and others of un-specified source of existence.

6. Convicts in jails (other than under trial prisoners) who used to work before being apprehended and inmates of penal, mental or charitable institutions.

7. Persons not employed before but seeking employement for the first time.

8. Persons employed before but now out of employment and seeking employment.

Persons who did not work and could not be readily classified in any of the above categories were included in category V, viz. beggars, vagrants etc. Similarly, persons who were not working at the time of Census but who had been offered work which they had not joined, were classed as dependents and included in category 3.

ANNEXURE TO TABLE B—IV PARTS A, B, & C

STANDARD INDUSTRIAL CLASSIFICATION

This Classification groups the industries into

9 Divisons

45 Major Groups

343 Minor Groups

The divisions and major groups with their Code numbers are listed below :—

DIVISIONS

0 Agriculture, Livestock, Forestry, Fishing and Hunting

1 Mining and Quarrying

2 & 3 Manufacturing

4 Construction

5 Electricity, Gas, Water and Sanitary services

6 Trade and Commerce

7 Transport, Storage and Communication

8 Services

9 Activities not adequately described

CONOMIC TABLES

HOUSEHOLD ECONOMIC TABLES

One of the distinguishing features of the 1961 Census has been the introduction of household schedule through which economic data has been collected for the household as a whole and not in respect of each individual as has been the past tradition. This departure has been deemed necessary as in countries of such economic status as ours, where not all the goods produced enter the money market and where a good proportion of the products is consumed by the family itself, collection of information on the basis of individuals is likely to be misleading unless it is supplemented by the data for the entire household.

In India, where the bulk of the population lives in rural areas and agriculture is the occupation of 70% of the population and cultivation is conducted by members of a household, with, in many cases, household industry as a compulsive adjunct, the household itself and not the individual, acts as an integral economic unit of production. This was felt to be particularly valid for those households which produce mainly for self consumption and additionally for the market. This sector of the economy, is for various obvious reasons, the most resistant to displacement or transfer of population from what they are engaged in, because the population engaged in such activity finds that all of its effort, however, seasonal, is really wanted, and it is difficult to leave it in preference to any other. On the other hand, it is not easy to bring work from elsewhere to this population to fill its period of unemployment or under-employment. Before one makes facile assumptions about marginal productivity of labour being negative, it was thought worthwhile to investigate this sector with the help of such a schedule. A Household Schedule was, therefore, framed for this purpose which provided for area of land cultivated by a household on ownership, or on tenancy basis or on both and household industry, if any, conducted by the household and the number of family workers and hired workers employed in these activities.

It is necessary to reproduce here the definitions of some of the terms used in the tables.

A household industry was defined as an industry conducted by the head of the household himself and / or mainly members of the household at home or within the village in rural areas and at home in urban areas. The following three-fold test was prescribed to justify the classification of an industry as a household industry.

(a) Household Industry should embrace manufacture, processing or servicing and may include sale but should not be confined simply to buying and selling. At least part of the goods offered for sale from the household should be manufactured or processed by members of the household.

(b) Household Industy should be on the household scale where the workers mainly will be the Head of the household himself and / or members of the household, the role of hired workers from outside being of secondary importance. Thus, in any Household Industry, members of the household should be in a position to lend a hand in the industry whenever they find time in the course of their daily chores. Household Industry cannot, therefore, be on the scale of a registered factory but can use machinery and employ power like steam engine or oil engine or electricity to drive the machinery.

(c) Location also is important, for proximity decides participation by members of the household. In a village, this participation is possible if the Household Industry is located at home or within the village, because, village organization is such as makes it possible for members of the household to move about freely in the village to look after their work. In urban areas, such a free movement is not possible and, therefore, in urban areas only those industries which are located at home can be considered for being classified as Household Industries. Where, however, part of the work is done outside the house, e. g., preparing and dyeing the yarn for weaving and winding into warp and woof or cleaning metal surfaces before electroplating in baths, it should still be considered a Household Industry even in urban areas, as the main operation of weaving or of electroplating is conducted within the house and only one or two operations are conducted outside.

A cultivator was defined as a person engaged either as employer, single worker or family worker in cultivation of land or supervision or direction of cultivation of land (a) owned or hired from Government and (b) held from private persons or institutions for payment in money, kind or share. A person who had given out his land to others for cultivation for payment in money, kind or share of crop and who did not even supervise or direct cultivation of land was not treated as a cultivator. Similarly, a person working in another person's land for wages in cash, kind or share was not also treated as a cultivator.

A person who worked without receiving wages in cash or kind in his own family in an industry, business or trade conducted mainly by members of family was treated as a family worker. Such of the members of the household as attended to household duties only were deemed as non-workers and were not included among family workers.

A person who was employed by a household other than his own to work in any of the activities connected with cultivation or household industry for payment in cash, kind or share of the produce was treated as a hired worker. An important condition for the classification of a person as a hired worker was that he/she should have been in whole time employment during the last working season or in whole time employment during the current season.

For the purpose of Census, the head of the household was defined as a person on whom fell the chief responsibility for the maintenance of the household. It was made clear that the head of the household need not necessarily be the eldest male member but may even be a female or a younger member of either sex, provided he or she was actually acknowledged as such. In the case of institutions, the manager or superintendent or the person who was regarded by common consent as the head was to be treated as the head of the household.

As single workers and employers do not figure anywhere in Household Economic Tables, it is not necessary to reproduce the definitions of such workers.

All the Household Economic Tables have been prepared on the basis of 20% sample of households excluding those classified as institutional. The definition of an institutional household has already been given in Fly-leaf to appendix III to Table A—I of the General Population Tables.

Table B-X

The table has been prepared from the data extracted from 20% sample household schedules. The figures have been tabulated for (a) all areas upto the district level, (b) urban sector of the district and (c) the rural area of each tehsil. It gives the distribution of the households according as they are engaged in cultivation only, household industry only or both or neither.

Table B-XI

The table consists of two parts, one dealing with the rural sector and the other pertaining to urban areas only. The former has been prepared down to tehsil level and the latter upto the district. In either case, the data is based on 20% sample household schedules.

As is clear from column 1 of the table, the data relates only to such of the households which cultivate lands (i) owned or held from Government, (ii) held from private persons or institutions for payment in money, kind or share or (iii) partly held from Government and partly from private persons for payment in money, kind or share. The table does not include households which give their lands to private persons for cultivation for payment in money, kind or share.

Cultivating households referred to in column 2 of the table represent both such of the households as are engaged in cultivation only as also those which besides cultivating lands also run some household industry. In other words, the figures given in column 2 of this table are the sum total of the corresponding figures of columns 5 and 7 of the previous table for rural and urban sectors.

The household schedule from which the data has been compiled consists of three parts, viz., cultivation, household industry and workers at cultivation and / or household industry.

The portion of the household schedule relating to cultivation was to be filled in only in respect of households which actually cultivated land or gave the land to private persons for cultivation for payment in cash, kind or share. For this purpose, the households were divided into three categories, namely (a) those who cultivated lands owned or held from Government (b) those who held lands from private persons or institutions for payment in money, kind or share and (c) those who had given their lands to private persons for cultivation for payment in money, kind or share. In each of the three cases, the total of separate plots or parcels of land in different places owned or held or taken or given have been lumped together.

It may, however, be stated here that in the case of households falling in categories (a) and (b) referred to above, only those plots and parcels of land which were cultivated by the household, itself, such as, lands which lie within the village or in adjacent village or within such a distance as would enable the households to work on the land or actively supervise the cultivation, were regarded as areas cultivated by them. Lands owned or held in distant places where distance itself was a bar to active cultivation or its supervision or direction were not included in the lands actually cultivated by these two categories. On the other hand, category (c) included land in any part of the country, whatsoever. In such cases the aggregate area, no matter where such lands were situated, was treated as land given to private persons for cultivation for payment in money, kind or share.

The following table shows, at a glance, the distribution of 100 rural cultivating households in Kathua district by size of land cultivated :—

Less than 1 acre	1.0 to 2.4 acres	2.5 to 4.9 acres	5.0 to 7.4 acres	7.5 to 9.9 acres	10.0 to 12.4 acres	12.5 to 14.9 acres	15.0 to 29.9 acres	30.0 to 49.9 acres	50+ acres	Unspecified

This table has also been prepared separately for the rural areas down to tehsil level and for the urban sector upto districts. The data given in the table relates to households which are engaged in cultivation only and not to those engaged both in cultivation and household industry. As before, the institutional households have not been accounted for while taking out the sample.

The table is designed to give the classification of cultivating households according to the size of land cultivated, each such class being further cross-tabulated with reference to the number of hired workers and sex-wise number of family workers. Ten class ranges of land have been devised varying from less than 1 acre to 50 or more acres. An additional class has been provided to cover households in whose cases the size of land could not be ascertained.

The definitions of family worker and hired worker have already been given in the general note on Household Economic Tables.

Table B-XIII

In this case two separate tables have been prepared upto district level, one for the rural and the other for urban areas. The table gives the code numbers and detailed description of household industries according to Indian Standard Industrial Classification upto major groups except industries under such other major groups which claim less than 10% households in the respectivce divisions. The latter have been listed in an abbreviated form in the appendix accompanying the table. The divisions thus affected are marked with an asterisk (*).

The statistics given in the table relate to households engaged both in cultivation and household industry and not to households which are engaged in cultivation only. These show by cross-tabulation the distribution of households, engaged in a particular household industry, by the size classes of land referred to in Table B-XII.

A comparison of the rural parts of tables B-XII and B-XIII will show that in Kathua district the proportion of households which are engaged both in cultivation and household industry to the aggregate number of households engaged in Cultivation only and engaged both in cultivation and household industry stands at 21.8%.

Table B-XIV

The table consists of two parts. Part A gives the distribution of households for the district as a whole and for its rural and urban sectors by the number of persons employed and the divisions and major groups under which the principal household industries are classifiable according to the Indian Standard Industrial Classification. Part B of the table indicates the names of the industries by minor groups and the distribution of households engaged in these industries for the entire district and its rural and urban areas. It does not, however, give the classification of households by the number of persons employed.

Industries under such major groups which claim less than 10% households of their respective divisions have been omitted from Part A of the table and listed in an abbreviated form in the appendix accompanying the table. The divisions thus affected are marked with an asterisk (*).

A distinguishing feature of the table is that it relates to households engaged in household industry only and excludes all others engaged in cultivation only or in both cultivation and household industry.

Table B-XV

The table has been prepared upto tehsil and district level for rural and urban areas respectively. It indicates the distribution of households by various size classes of land classified by the number of persons employed in both cultivation and household industry. The definitions of family and hired workers have already been given in the general note on Household Economic Tables.

Table B-XVI

The table gives for the district and its rural and urban sectors, the number of households and their family workers by sex and hired workers classified by the number of months in a year for which each household industry is being run by the households concerned. The data has been shown collectively and separately in respect of the households engaged in both cultivation and household industry and households engaged in household industry only. In this case also, the code numbers and names of industries have been given according to the Indian Standard Industrial Classification upto Major groups. Such of the industries which claim less than 10% households of the Division concerned have, however, been omitted from the table and listed in the appendix. The divisions thus affected are marked with an asterisk (*)

Table B-XVII

The table gives the distribution of rural households other than those classed as institutional households according as they are (a) engaged neither in cultivation nor in household industry (b) engaged in household industry only and (c) engaged in cultivation with or without household industry. Category (c) has further been subclassified into 10 holding groups according to the size of land cultivated by the households.

The table also gives the total and sex-wise population of the sample households of each category and their distribution by five size classes of households. In the case of category (c), this classification has also been shown in respect of each size class of land.

Further, the table indicates the distribution of urban households of all categories put together by the number and sex-wise population of each size class of households.

The actual number of all households and their population (except institutional population) as returned at the 1961 Census for the district and its rural and urban sectors has been given in the table at the end of the data relating to the district.

It is clear from column 2 of the table that 80.1% households in the rural sector of the district are engaged in cultivation. These include 40.6% households whose holdings are less than 5 acres in area.

SOCIAL AND CULTURAL TABLES

SOCIAL AND CULTURAL TABLES

The Social and Cultural Tables, also known as C-Series Tables, have been published in Part II-C, Volume VI of Census of India, 1961. The series consists of eight tables, as detailed below :—

C-I	Composition of Sample Households by relationship to head of family classified by size of land cultivated
C-II	Age and Marital Status
C-III Parts A, B & C	Age, Sex and Education
C-IV	Single Year Age Returns
C-V	Mother-Tongue
C-VI	Bilingualism
C-VII	Religion
C-VIII Part A	Classification by literacy and industrial category of workers and non-workers among Scheduled Castes

It has, however, been decided to include Tables C-I to C-III, C-V, C-VII and C-VIII Part A only in the District Handbooks. Further, the appendix to Table C-III in which the particulars of employed and un - employed scientific and technical personnel have been tabulated, has also been omitted as the appendix gives the figures for the State as a whole and not for individual districts.

Except for Table C-I, which alone is based on the data extracted from 20% sample Household Schedules, all other tables have been prepared on full count. In the case of C-II, C-V and C-VII, figures have been given down to the tehsil level, but in C-I and C-III, the presentation of the data has been restricted to the district only.

Table C-I

The data given in the table is the first of its kind and has not been collected at any previous census held in the State. The table is of sociological interest and presents a broad economic picture in the joint family system.

The data presented in the table has been compiled on 20% sample basis and gives the number of sample households, their total and sex-wise population, the numbers of male and female heads of households and of their spouses, as also the sex-wise numbers of married, never married, widowed and divorced or separated relations and unrelated persons.

In the case of urban areas, the data only indicates the structure and the composition of households and does not portray their economic activities. So far, however, as the rural areas are concerned, the households have been classified into three categories, viz. (a) those engaged neither in cultivation nor household industry, (b) those engaged in houeshold industry only and (c) those engaged in cultivation. The last named category has further been classified by size of holding groups besides those whose size class is not known.

Table C-II

The table gives valuable demographic data of age structure and marital status separately for total, rural and urban population of the district as a whole and for rural areas of its constituent tehsils. The age-groups conform to international requirements.

The table will prove helpful in ascertaining whether the proportions in the various marital status conditions have increased or decreased since last Census and whether any trend is discernible in the age of marriage. The data of married females by age-group can also be utilised for forecasting future births from age specific birth rates.

Table C-III

The table gives the statistics of literate population by age, sex and educational levels as also the sex-wise number of illiterate persons in each age-group. In all, the following ten age-groups, besides and additional one relating to persons who did not specify any age have been adopted : —

0-4, 5-9, 10-14, 15-19, 20-24, 25-29, 30-34, 35-44, 45-59 and 60 and above.

The table has been split up into three parts, each giving figures upto the district level. Part A relates, to all areas, Part B to the urban sector and Part C to the rural areas.

Parts A and C are designed to give for each age group sex-wise figures of total, literate and illiterate population. The statistics of literates have, however, been tabulated by three educational levels, namely :—

(i) Those who have not passed any examination

(ii) Those who have passed Primary or Junior Basic Examination and

(iii) Those who have passed Matriculation and higher examinations.

In the case of urban areas where the incidence of literacy is comparatively high and larger facilities for higher education are available, a more elaborate and comprehensive description of the educational levels has been attempted. Part B of the table therefore gives the distribution of literate persons by the following seven major categories :—

1. Literates without educational standards
2. Those who have passed primary or Junior Basic Examination
3. Those who have passed Matriculation or Higher Secondary Examination
4. Persons possessing technical diploma not equal to degree
5. Persons possessing non-technical diploma not equal to degree
6. Those possessing University degree or post-graduate degree other than technical degree
7. Those possessing technical degree or diploma equal to degree or Post-graduate degree.

The last category has further been sub-divided into 7 divisons, viz., Engineering, Medicine, Agriculture, Veterinary and Dairying, Technology, teaching and others. It is hoped that these statistics will prove of great use for making an assessment of the man power available for the implementation of various developmental schemes.

Table C-V

The table gives the total and the sex-wise population of the speakers of each mother-tongue for the district as a whole and for its rural and urban areas as also in respect of the rural sector of each tehsil. The mother-tonges have been arranged in alphabetic order to facilitate the tracing of number of speakers of a particular language.

The definition of mother-tongue as adopted at the Census of 1961 is a language spoken in childhood by a person's mother to the person or mainly spoken in the household. If the mother of the person had died in his infancy, the language mostly spoken in the person's home in childhood was treated as his mother-tongue. In the case of infants and deaf mutes, the language usually spoken by the mother was regarded as the mother-tongue of the infant etc.

Table C-VII

This is an important sociological table giving the community-wise population of the district and of each of its constituent tehsils. The data relating to the district has been exhibited separately in respect of its rural and ruban areas, but that pertaining to the tehsils has been given in respect of rural areas only.

Before 1951, religion was treated as the unit of tabulation and most of the demographic data, such as marital status, literacy and other characteristics was tabulated by the communities. Further, the classification of the population was being presented by religion down to the village level. In 1951, no data regarding race, caste etc. was collected and instead livelihood classes were adopted as the unit of tabulation. At the present Census the industrial classification has been given greater emphasis and most of the data has been presented on this basis. Another distinguishing feature of the 1961 table is that the figures have this time been tabulated separately for rural and urban areas of each district.

Table C-VIII Part A

According to tabulation plan prescribed for 1961 Census, Table C-VIII is to consist of two parts, one dealing with Scheduled Castes and the other with Scheduled Tribes. As there are no Scheduled Tribes in Jammu and Kashmir, only Part-A of the table has been compiled.

The table gives population of scheduled Castes for the district as a whole and for its rural and urban sectors together with the distribution of this population by literacy and industrial classifiation of workers as also the number of non-workers. In addition, similar data has also been presented at tehsil level with the difference that it relates to rural sector only.

A distinguishing feature of this table when compared with earlier Censuses is that the classification of workers by industrial categories has been confined to Scheduled Castes only and the tabulation of similar data for important communities, as was done in the past, has been dispensed with. The table is important as it will constitute the basis for the allocation of reserved seats in Parliament and State Legislatures.

SPECIAL TABLES FOR SCHEDULED CASTES

SPECIAL TABLES FOR SCHEDULED CASTES

The SCT series comprise five main tables (SCT-I to SCT-V) and three special tables (SC-I, ST-I, ST-II) which are designed to give broad demographic and economic data of Scheduled Tribes. Each of the four tables, namely, SCT-I, SCT-II, SCT-IV and SCT-V, have been further sub-divided into two parts each, one dealing with Scheduled Castes and the other with Scheduled Tribes. SCT-III which relates to education of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes has, however, been split up into four parts, to indicate separately the rural and urban statistics of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes. Table SC-I pertains to Scheduled Castes only and ST-I and ST-II to Scheduled Tribes only.

Since, there are no Scheduled Tribes in Jammu and Kashmir and the entire Scheduled Caste population is concentrated in Jammu province, the following tables only have been prepared and included in the present publication :—

1. SCT-I Part A : Industrial Classification of persons at work and non-workers by sex for Scheduled Castes.
2. SCT-II Part A : Age and Marital Status for Scheduled Castes.
3. SCT-III Part A (i) : Education in urban areas only for Scheduled Castes.
4. SCT-1II Part B (i) : Education in rural areas only for Scheduled Castes.
5. SCT-IV Part A : Religion for Scheduled Castes.
6. SCT-V Part A : Sample households engaged in cultivation classified by interest in land and size of land cultivated in rural areas only for members of Scheduled Castes (Households of members of Scheduled Castes in a 20% Sample of all households).
7. SC-I : Persons not at work classified by sex, type of activity and educational level for Scheduled Castes.

Table SCT-I Part A has further been supplemented by an appendix indicating the absolute figures and the percentages of Scheduled Castes to the total population in each of the district and its rural and urban areas.

Except for Table SC-I which presents the data for tehsils also, all other tables have been prepared upto district level only.

The data incorporated in the above tables is based on the replies given by the Scheduled Castes to the questions canvassed in the Enumeration Slip and Household Schedule at the Census of 1961.

All the SCT Tables, except table SCT-V Part A which alone is based on the data extracted from 20% Sample Household Schedules, have been prepared on full count.

The following definition of Scheduled Castes has been laid in Article 49 (1) of the Constitution of Jammu and Kashmir.

"Scheduled Castes means the castes, races or tribes or parts of, or groups within castes, races or tribes which are for the purposes of the Constitution of India deemed to be Scheduled Castes in relation to the State under the provisions of Article 341 of that Constitution".

Article 341 of the Constitution of India empowers the President to specify, by public notification, with respect to States specified in Part A or Part B of the First Schedule, after consultation with the Governor or Rajpramukh thereof the castes, races or tribes or parts of, or groups within castes, races or tribes which shall, for the purpose of the Constitution of India, be deemed to be Scheduled Castes in relation to that State. Further according to para 6 of Fifth Schedule of the Constitution of India, scheduled areas are defined as areas which the President may, by order declare to be scheduled areas.

In pursuance of these stipulations, the President made the Constitution (Scheduled Castes) Order of 1950 specifying the castes, races or tribes which shall be deemed to be the Scheduled Castes in a State. Since, however, the Constitution of Jammu and Kashmir came into force on the 26th January, 1957, the Presidential Order of 1950 which excluded the State of Jammu and Kashmir was amended and the following Castes were declared as Scheduled Castes for the State of Jammu and Kashmir : —

1. Barwala
2. Basith
3. Batwal
4. Chamar or Ramdasia
5. Chura
6. Dhyar
7. Doom or Mahasha
8. Gardi
9. Jolaha
10. Megh or Kabir Panthi
11. Ratal
12. Saryara
13. Watal

Table SCT-I—Part A

The table has been presented in two parts, one indicating the data for the rural and the other for the urban sector of the district. Each part gives the total and sex-wise population of individual castes and their distribution among workers and non-workers as also the industrial classification of the workers. The table also indicates the number of worker engaged in special occupations such as tanning and currying of hides and skins and scavenging in which members of the castes may be engaged.

Appendix to Table SCT-I Part A has been specially devised for the District Handbook. As stated above, it gives, by total, rural and urban, the general and the Scheduled Caste population down to tehsil level as also the percentage of the latter to the former.

The data given in the appendix shows that the district has a total Scheduled Caste Population of 47,469 or 22.88% of the entire population inhabiting the district as a whole. Of these, only 2,639 members of Scheduled Castes have been returned from the urban areas of the district, all others being concentrated in the rural sector.

The tehsil-wise figures show that 19,082 Scheduled Caste persons or 40% of the total Scheduled Caste population in the district inhabit Kathua tehsil alone and constitute 29.85% of the tehsil population as against 23.64% and 17.28% the corresponding proportions of Hiranagar and Bashohli tehsils respectively.

Table SCT-II—Part A

This is an important table as it furnishes valuable data in respect of civil conditions for all ages of the entire Scheduled Caste population in the district. The three broad-age groups provided in the table, viz., 0-14, 15-44 and 45+ correspond to principal stages of life, viz, children, young and middle aged men and women and elderly persons. Those who did not specify any age have been categorized separately and classified under the head "Age not stated".

Question 3 of the individual slip relates to the marital status of the person enumerated. Instructions were issued to the enumerators to include every person in one or the following four categories according to the reply given to the question :—

1. Never married
2. Married
3. Widowed
4. Divorced or separated

A person married whether for the first or another time was treated as "Married". Such other persons who are recognised by customs or society as married as also those in stable de facto union were also categorised as "Married". Even if a marriage was disputed in the locality, if the person concerned claimed that he or she was married or was in stable de facto union, their marital status was shown as 'Married'.

A widowed person was defined as one whose husband or wife was dead and who had not married again.

A person divorced in a lawful manner either by decree of a law court or by a regular social or religious custom but who had not married, or a person who had separated from wife or husband and was living apart with no apparent intention of living together again was treated as a separated or divorced person.

Persons in whose individual slip the enumerators had omitted to make any entry against Question 3 were treated as of unspecified status.

Table SCT-III—Part A (i) and SCT-III—Part B (i)

Table SCT-III which gives sex-wise statistics of literate and illiterate population of Scheduled Castes by individual castes and educational levels has been prepared in two parts, namely, SCT-III Part A(i) dealing with the urban areas of the district and SCT-III part B (i) relating to rural sector.

The definition of literacy as adopted at the 1961 Census has already been given in Fly-leaf to Table B-III of the General Economic Tables.

In view of the relatively high incidence of literacy in the urban areas and the poor percentage of literate persons in the rural population, it has not been deemed necessary to adopt the same educational standards for the classification of literate persons in the rural and urban areas. While, therefore the statistics of literates in the rural areas have been tabulated for (i) mere literates, (ii) literates whith Primary or junior basic qualifications and (iii) matriculates and above, in the case of urban areas data relating to literate persons has been given for the following seven major categories : —

1. Literates without educational level
2. Literates with Primary or junior basic qualifications
3. Literates who have passed Matriculation or Higher Secondary examination
4. Holders of technical diploma not equal to degree
5. Holders of non-technical diploma not equal to degree
6. University degree or post-graduate degree holders
7. Holders of technical degree or diploma equal to degree or post-graduate degree.

The table shows that the incidence of literacy among scheduled castes inhabiting the rural sector of the district is very poor, particularly among the females. According to this data, not more than 5.8% male Scheduled Castes are literate. So far as the females are concerned, the corresponding percentage is depressingly low and stands at 0.3% only. These proportions do not, compare favourably even with those of literate males and females of the entire population in the district which though fairly low stand at 16.0% and 3.2% respectively.

In urban areas, however, the incidence of literacy among Scheduled Castes is comparatively more pronounced. According to the data given in the table, 9.3% and 2.9% of the male and female Scheduled population are literate. The corresponding percentages of the entire population inhabiting the urban areas of the district are however very high and stand at 39.9% in the case of males and 21.2% among females.

Table SCT-IV—Part A

This table purports to indicate the religion professed by members of various Scheduled Castes. An important feature of the table is that unlike the Census of 1941 in which members of Scheduled Castes were shown as belonging to Hindu religion only, the 1961 Census figures indicate that some Scheduled Castes also belong to Sikh religion.

It is clear from the table that all the Scheduled Castes inhabiting the rural and urban areas of the district profess Hindu religion only and none of them belongs to Sikh religion.

Table SCT-V—Part A

This table is similar to Household Economic Table B-XI. The data given in the table relates to such of the Scheduled Caste households traced from 20% sample of all households in Kathua district which are engaged in cultivation.

The definition of a cultivator has already been given in the Fly-leafs to Household Economic Tables. Households engaged in cultivation have been divided into three categories according as the land cultivated is : —

1. Owned or held from Government.
2. Held from private persons or institutions from payment in money, kind or share, and
3. Partly held from Government and partly from private persons or institutions for payment in money, kind or share.

The first of these categories represent all pieces of land, owned or held in owner-like possession, such as land held directly from Government under a grant, lease or assignment, (i) with rights of permanent, heritable and transferable possession, (ii) with rights of payment and heritable possession, but without the right of transfer and (iii) temporary or conditional lease of any kind with the Government.

Similarly, category 2 referred to above includes land (i) with rights of permanent, heritable possession but without right of transfer and (ii) held in a variety of tenancies or tenures.

The third category of households consists of those which cultivate land partly held from Government and partly from private persons for payment in money, kind or share. It, therefore, includes not only one or more varieties of lands into which category (i) is classifiable as indicated above, but also those of category (ii).

Table SC-I

The table has been prepared for the total non-working population of all Scheduled Castes collectively. The data has been presented separately for total/ rural/ urban upto district. So far as the rural areas are concerned, the figures have been given down to tehsil level.

The definition of worker and non-worker has already been given at some length in the Fly-leafs to General Economic Tables. It is, however, necessary to point out here that except for (i) full time students, (ii) persons seeking employment for the first time and (iii) persons employed before but now out of employment and seeking work, the educational levels of all other categories of non-workers have been given collectively in columns 11 and 12 of the table.

It will be seen from the data given in the table that the proportion of non-workers among Scheduled Castes in the rural sector of the district which stands at 58.7% is slightly higher than similar proportion of non-workers in the entire rural population. So far as the urban areas are concerned, the proportion of non-workers among Scheduled Castes is less than the Corresponding proportion of non-worker, in the total urban population. The proportion of non-workers in the total Scheduled Castes population is the same as in the entire population of the district as a whole.

The literacy percentage of non-workers belonging to Scheduled Castes which is limited to about 4% is, however, low compared to 11% the corresponding proportion of non-workers in the district.

HANDICRAFT TABLES

HANDICRAFT TABLES

The data relating to Handicrafts is being printed in a separate publication entitled Part—VII of Volume VI of the Census of India 1961. The volume contains seven tables out of which the following three have been incorporated in the District Handbook :—

Table I—List of rural/urban crafts and number of person employed in production:—

The table also indicates the number of villages/urban blocks in which each craft is found.

Table II—Distribution of artisan communities :—

The table gives the names of crafts, name of caste or community to which the workers engaged in the craft belong. In addition, it also gives the number of villages/urban blocks and families as also the number of total adult workers in respect of each craft.

Table VII—List of very skilled craftsmen of each community :—

The table gives for each surveyed village/urban block the name of the craft and of its skilled craftsmen together with the name of the community to which they belong.
