PREFACE.

The Census Reports in olden times were printed one for the whole Province of Rajputana and another for Ajmer Merwara. Some of the Principal States now merged in Rajasthan published their own reports. This time the State Census Reports have been published in the following volumes :—

1. Part I-A Report.

2. Part I-B Subsidiary Tables and District Index of Non-Agricultural Occupations.

3. Part I-C Appendices.

4. Part II-A General Population Tables, Household and Age (Sample) Tables, Social and Cultural Tables, Table E Summary Figures by Administrative Units, and local 'KA' infirmities.

5. Part II-B Economic Tables.

They contain statistics down to the district level.

The idea of preparing the District Census Handbook separately for each district was put forward by Shri R. A. Gopalaswami, I. C. S., Registrar General, India, and ex-Officio Census Commissioner of India, as part of a plan intended to secure an effective method of preserving the census records prepared for areas below the district level. He proposed that all the district census tables and census abstracts prepared during the process of sorting and compilation should be bound together in a single manuscript volume, called the District Census Handbook, and suggested to the State Governments that the handbook (with or without the addition of other useful information relating to the district) should be printed and published, at their own cost, in the same manner as the village statistics in the past. In accepting this suggestion, the Government of Rajasthan decided to print and publish the more important portion of statistical data relating to the district and to preserve the rest of the records in a manuscript volume for any future use, to which they may be put.

This Handbook contains five General Population Tables of A Series, three Economic Tables of B Series, five Household and Age Tables of C Series, seven Social and Cultural Tables of D Series, one table E giving summary for the district and tehsils, a local table 'KA' showing infirmities by age groups and an Index of Non-agricultural Occupations. Each table contains an explanatory note necessary for the proper understanding of the figures. The numbers given to the tables in this Handbook correspond to those given in State Census Reports.

Village Directories were published for the first time in 1931 by a few States of Rajputana. The example was followed by all the States in 1941. They contained for each village the population figures by religion and also some other useful information. They were bound in a volume one for each State. This time the Village Directories are also incorporated in this Handbook under the name of "Primary Census Abstract and Village Directory" which show the basic population figures separately for each village or town-ward classified by livelihood classes instead of religion and also some information of general nature.

Opportunity has been taken to put in a short introductory note detailing the salient points connected with the district, such as the physical features, climate, rainfall, irrigation and drainage facilities, roads and other communications, agriculture, education, industries and other matters of general interest. The information contained in the introductory note is based on the material furnished by Collectors of districts and Departments of Government.

In addition to the above, some figures of general interest and a review of population figures have also been incorporated.

The scheduled date for the publication of the Handbooks as prescribed by the Registrar General, India, was, " Not later than March, 1952 " but practical experience showed its publication by that time an impracticability. Even the compilation of the tables together with its final touch could not be completed by that time. Then came the question of printing which proved to be a huge task. There are 25 districts in Rajasthan and 1 in Ajmer. The total number of printed pages turned out to be nearly 9000. The Government Presses were already over burdoned with the printing work of other departments and in the printing of census publications priority was given to Central Government Publications i.e. the State Census Reports. The result was that till March, 1954, for 14 out of 26 districts the P. C. A. and Village Directory could not be printed specially because the press had no stock of small type which was essential for their printing. It was, therefore, decided to publish the handbooks in two volumes. Part I, consists of introduction, a brief review of population figures and,

(1) General population Tables (A-I to A-V.)

(2) Economic Tables (B-I to B-III)

(3) Household and Age (Sample) Tables (C-I to C-V)

(4) Social and Cultural Tables (D-I to D-VII)

(5) E-Summary figures by Administrative Units.

(6) Local Table ' K.A ' infirmities, and

(7) District Index of Non-Agricultural Occupations.

Part II contains only Primary Census Abstracts and Village Directory.

The Handbooks of the Ajmer, Sirohi and Jhalawar Districts are, however, being published in one volume because they have heen completed by this time.

While every care has been taken to ensure the correctness of figures and village names, certain mistakes might have crept in. I shall be grateful if they are brought to my notice.

BUNDI DISTRICT.

INTRODUCTION.

I - Physical Aspects.

(a) Position, area and boundary.

1. The District of Bundi lies in the south-east of Rajasthan between latitudes 25° and 26° North and longitudes 75-15" and 76-9". East. It is bounded on the north by Tonk, and Bhilwara Districts ; on the south and east by the Chambal river and Kotah District and on the west again by Bhilwara District. The area of the District is 2,138·9 square miles as supplied by the Surveyor General of India.

(b) Configuration. Hills and Rivers.

2. The district may be roughly described as an irregular rhombus. It is intersected by the Aravali Hills, which divide Rajasthan into two parts. This range runs from north-east to south-west and consists of a series of hills and ridges which rise to a height varying from 800 to 1,800 feet above sea level. The highest peak of the range is at Satur, 1,793 feet above the sea, 10 miles west of Bundi town. The largest river in the district is the Chambal, which runs from north-east to south-west forming a border line between the Bundi and Kotah Districts. Mez is the another smaller river which flows due north into the Chambal. The Chambal, the largest river in the whole of Rajasthan affords many opportunities for the construction of canals, bunds and other similar irrigation projects. Other rivers flow only during rainy season and cannot provide irrigation facilities throughout the year, bunds have, however, been constructed which irrigate a few hundred acres of land.

(c) Botany.

3. The hills of this district are thickly wooded except in Lakheri area of Patan Tehsil, with the following species of trees :—

Babul, (Acacia, Arabica) Khair, (Acacia, Catechu,) Arinja, Siris, Garia Dhokra, Mahuwa, Jhinja, Salar, Palas, Bans, Khejra, Ber etc. By far the most important species is Dhokra which besides supplying props, rafters, etc., for the houses of local people, provides the bulk of fuel and charcoal required by the district.

(d) Fauna.

4. In the hilly tracts of the district wild animals are found in abundance, particularly tigers, panthers bears, chitals, Sambhars, deer and wild pigs.

(e) Climate, Temperature and rainfall.

5. As Bundi District is situated in the south-eastern part of Rajasthan, where rainfall is comparatively high, the climate is moderately hot and dry and after the rainy season, it becomes somewhat malarial. The annual rainfall varies between 8 and 60 inches. The average of the last 10 years is 25 inches. The average total rainfall this year (1950-51) was 28·84." The maximum temperature ever recorded in Bundi City in Mid-Summer is 120°F. and the minimum temperature recorded in Mid-Winter is 36°F.

(f) Underground water level.

6. As the district is mostly rocky, it is very difficult to dig wells. The underground water level varies in different parts of the district from 20 to 90 feet.

II - History.

(a) Early History.

7. The Ruler of Bundi belongs to the Hara sept of the clan of Chauhan Rajputs one of the four fire-born races created on Mount Abu as described by Lieut. Col. James Tod. About the beginning of eighth century, the ancestors of Chauhans came from Northern India to Sambhar and after ruling there and at Ajmer, ruled over the Kingdom of Delhi. The last Chauhan King of Delhi was Prithvi Raj, from whom the Kingdom of Delhi passed into the hands of Mohammad Ghori in 1192. From Sambhar, towards the end of the 10th century, one Lachhman Raj alias Manik Rai I set out to found a kingdom for himself and settled in Nadoli. His descendants ruled at Nadoli for about two centuries, when Manik Rai II migrated with some of his clansmen and settled down in the south-eastern corner of Mewar. The sixth in descent from Manik Rai II was Rao Hada or Har Raj, from whom the sept took the name of Hara. About 1242 Rao Dewa or Deo Raj, the second chief after Har Raj, captured the Banda valley now called Bundi from the Minas, forced them to acknowledge him as their lord and named the country Haroti or Harauati. He may, therefore, be considered the founder of the State. Since his time there have been 24 rulers of Bundi State.

8. Between Rao Dewa, the founder of Bundi and Rao Surjan who came to the Gaddi in 1544 A. D. and during whose reign, Bundi entered into a treaty with Moghul Emperor Akbar, there were ten rulers of Haroti. The most prominent of them were :—

(a) Rao Bar Singh.—He built the famous fort of Taragarh in Bundi about 1354 A. D.

(b) Rao Bhanda—"He has left a deathless name in Rajwara for his boundless charities, more especially during the famine which desolated that country in Samvat 1542—"Tod". But all this pity and charity could not shield him from adversity. He was forced to abdicate the throne by his two younger brothers, who were converted to Islam and adopted the name of Samarkand and Amarkand."

(c) Rao Narain Das.—He slew single handed his two usurping uncles, and regained his rightful throne.

(d) Rao Arjun.—He ended the feud between Bundi and Mewar, and lost his life while helping to defend Chittor against the Mohammedans.

9. In 1544 A. D. Rao Surjan while defending the famous fort of Ranthambhor entered into an honourable alliance with the Moghul Emperor, Akbar. The treaty presents a good picture of Hindu feeling and casts a light on the policy of the Moghul King towards Hindus.

By this transaction, the Bundi rulers threw in their lot with the Mohammedan Emperors and from 1569, the title of Rao Raja was conferred upon them.

10. In the beginning of the seventeenth century occurred the partition of Haroti and the formation of Kotah as a separate State. Rao Raja Ratan Singh, Chief of Bundi, gave his son Madho Sing, the town of Kotah and its dependencies. They joined the imperial army at Burhanpur, when Jahangir's son, Khurram, was threatening rebellion against his father; and for services then rendered, Ratan Singh obtained the governorship of Burhanpur and Madho Singh received Kotah and its dependencies, to be held by him and his heirs direct from the crown. After Ratan Singh, came Rao Raja Chhatar Sal, who built the greater part of the palace or Garh of Bundi, distinguished himself over and over again in the service of Shah Jehan, and was eventually slain at the battle of Dholpur, fighting for the Emperor and his rightful successor Dara Shikoh against the usurper Aurangzeb. The title of Maharao Raja was conferred upon the Rulers of Bundi by the Moghul Emperor, Bahadur Shah in the reign of Buddh Singh for his courage and service at the battle of Jajau on June 10th, 1707, which is borne by his successors to this day. Shortly afterwards occurred a bitter feud with Jaipur, in which Buddh Singh was driven out of his country and died in exile.

(b) Later History from 1743 to 1947.

11. Maharao Raja Umed Singh was only 13 years of age when he attempted to regain Bundi from the armies of Jaipur, which had captured the City and the fort, but was defeated. He, after many a gallant effort, succeeded with the assistance of Malhar Rao Holkar, in recovering his patrimony in 1748; but he had to make over to the Maratha leader, as payment for his services, the town and district of Patan. Maharao Raja Umed Singh ruled upto 1770, when he abdicated in favour of his son Ajit Singh and went on a pilgrimage to the holy places of India. Maharao Raja Ajit Singh, three years after succeeding to the Gaddi, killed Rana Ari Singh of Udaipur when out shooting with him. Centuries ago, a dying Sati is said to have prophesied that "the Rao and the Rana should never meet at the Ahaira or spring hunt without death ensuing" and the prophecy did indeed prove true; for in 1531, Rao Surajmal and Rana Ratan Singh were shooting together in the Bundi Jungles and killed each other. Ajit Singh was succeeded by Maharao Raja Vishnu Singh, who gave great assistance to the British troops under Colonel Monson in his disastrous retreat from Holkar in 1804 and thus brought on himself the special vengeance of the Maratha leader. From that time upto 1817, the Marathas and Pindaris constantly ravaged the State, exacted tribute and assumed supermacy. On February 10, 1818, a treaty was concluded by Bishan Singh with the British by which the State of Bundi was taken under British protection. Bishan Singh died in 1821, and was succeeded by his son Ram Singh, then 10 years of age.

12. Maharao Raja Ram Singh ruled from 1821 to 1889 and was succeeded by his son Raghubir Singh in 1889. In the Great War of 1914 to 1918 and later in the Afghan campaign of 1919, Raghubir Singh placed his personal services and the entire resources of the State at the disposal of the British Government and contributed to its full capacity in money, men and material. He died on the 26th July 1927, after a rule of 38 years and was succeeded by Maharao Raja Ishwari Singh who died in 1945 and was succeeded by Maharao Raja Shri Bahadur Singh, the ruler of Bundi State at the time of its merger.

(c) The present position.

13. In the year 1947, the State acceded to the Indian Union. In May 1948, the States of Udaipur, Dungarpur, Banswara, Partapgarh, Shahpura Kotah, Bundi, Jhalawar, Kishangarh and Tonk, got integrated and formed the United State of Rajasthan now referred to as the former Rajasthan State. Later on in 1949, the remaining States of Jodhpur, Bikaner, Jaisalmer and Sirohi also decided to merge themselves together and along with Matsya Union formed the present State of Rajasthan.

Historical and Archaeological places.

14. Keshavrai Patan Shri Keshavraiji's temple stands just above the Chambal and is a magnificent structure. It was constructed by Rao Raja Shatrusal of Bundi in the year 1698 and is regarded as a sacred place by Hindus. Mecca Masjid and Jain Temple are other old historical places, so are Nainwa, Talwas and Khatkar.

III – The People.

Towns and villages.

15. There are 6 towns and 723 villages in this district, according to the Census of 1951. The principal language spoken is Harauti which is a dialect of Rajasthani. Another common language is "Mewari Khairari".

Food and dress.

16. Daily food is as simple and cheap as possible. Two meals are taken in a day which consist of unleavened cakes called "Chapatis or Rotis", made of the flour of wheat, jowar, maize or barley according to the means and standard of the individual consumer. Vegetables and pulses are also used along with chapatis. Among Hindus the use of meat is generally prohibited, except in the Rajput community and other so called inferior classes who often use it on the occasion of important functions. Muslims in general are accustomed to eat meat. The males generally wear Dhoti or Payjama and Angarkhi or shirt with turbans or caps as their head dress. The villagers wear very simple and rough clothes and use fine clothes only on social and religious functions. There is very little difference in the dress of Hindus and Mohammedans. The European dress is also being used by the educated classes. The dress of Hindu females consists of a coloured skirt or peti-coat (Ghagra) a half sleeved bodice (Kanchli) and a long coloured cloth known as Lugra or Sari over their head and round the body. Muslim women wear payjamas instead of Ghagras.

Dwellings.

17. The houses of the masses are built of mud or of unburnt bricks, having sloping roof of ill backed tiles (Kelus). In towns pucca houses built of lime and stones are also found. Most of the houses are low and ill ventilated and usually of the same pattern

Rituals.

18. Hindus cremate their dead bodies as a rule. Mohammedans and younger children of Hindus are, however, burried. At the time of marriages, great dinner parties were given before the introduction of control measures and huge amounts of money were spent.

Festivals.

19. The chief festivals among the Hindus are Holi, Dewali, Dashehra, Teej, Raksha Bandhan etc, and among Mohammedans Idulfitar, Idul-zuha and Muharram.

Nomenclature.

20. Among Hindus, the name to be given to the infant is announced by the family priest or astrologers after some God or Goddess, town or important hero.

IV. Economic.

(a) Agriculture.

21. The people of this district mostly depend upon agriculture for earning their livelihood. Nearly one-third of the area of this district is hilly and consequently not easily cultivable, while the rest consists of a very fertile land. The district as a whole is reckoned as a surplus area in respect of food-stuffs unless at the time of a famine which usually occurs every fourth or fifth year. The total area cultivated during 1949-50 was 1,046,743 bighas. The cultivators generally use the old and simple tools and are not so progressive as to use the modern scientific agricultural methods and implements. Two harvests are grown which are known as Rabi and Kharif i.e., "Unhalu" and "Syalu". Area under Rabi and Kharif crops was 612,041 bighas and 434,702 bighas respectively in 1949-50. Every year, some damage is done to the crop on account of pests, e.g. locusts, Katra, rats, white ants and rust and the cultivators being illiterate make no effort to protect their crops from these evils. The Government through its Agricultural Department is, however, trying to bring home to the cultivators the method of protecting their crops.

Rural Indebtedness.

22. The agriculturists are, generally speaking in debt, a position due partly to their own extravagance and improvidence, and partly to the grasping habits of bohras (money lenders) who usually charge exhorbitant rates of interest from the needy and ignorant villagers. Now the Government have also managed to advance loans to agriculturists for agricultural and other similar purposes but due to their ignorance, they have not been benefited to a considerable extent.

Banking facilities.

No banking facilities are available to the people except at Bundi and there are no Co-operative banks or Societies.

Irrigations.

23. The irrigated area, mainly from wells and small tanks is only 16 per cent of the total cultivated area. The Government has started a huge irrigation project known as the Chambal Hydro Electric Project which when completed would provide irrigation facilities to a considerable area of the district There are good many tanks situated at various places in the hilly parts of the district which are used for the cultivation of Singharas.

Crop.

24. The important staple foodgrains grown in the district are :– (i) Wheat probably covers the largest area among all the major crops. It is sown at the end of October or beginning of November and is usually harvested in March. The total area under wheat cultivation was 311,396 bighas in 1949-50, yielding approximately 622,790 maunds of wheat. The average yield of wheat is 5 maunds per acre. (ii) Gram is another Rabi crop grown usually alone but sometimes mixed with wheat or barley. The average yield of gram is 5 maunds per acre. (iii) Barley is another Rabi crop which is grown only where irrigation facilities can be had and is usually watered at least twice before it is harvested in March. The average yield of barley is 10 maunds per acre. (iv) Rice is cultivated to a small extent in the land where sufficient water supply is available. The average yield of rice is 12½ maunds per acre. (v) Jowar is a high growing millet, sown after the first heavy showers and cut at the end of November. The total area under Jowar cultivation is 252,358 bighas producing approximately 302,829 maunds. It is the chief food of the masses. The average yield of Jowar is three maunds per acre. (vi) Maize is one of the earliest rain crops sown. The average yield of maize is four maunds per acre. In addition to these food crops, Til, linseed and Dhania are grown in large quantity and are exported from the district.

25. Owing to great increase in the prices of food-stuffs the wages of the agricultural and other labourers have risen to a considerable extent. But as customs and traditions play a great roll in the rural conditions, rise in the wages of agricultural labourers has not been proportionate.

(b)Rent, Wages and prices.

26. The district seems to be rich in minerals and metals, but so far only a few mines have been worked out. Iron is the chief metal so far discovered in Loharpura and Bherupura Anteri. Building stone is found in abundance. The quarries near Talera and Bundi provide masonary and slab stone. Superior quality of silica sand is also found in large quantity near Bundi and is exported outside Rajasthan for manufacturing glass. Mica is also found in the State. A special variety of stone which is best suited for the manufacture of Cement is found in huge quantity near Lakheri town where a large Cement Factory, the Lakheri Cement Works, has been established.

(c) Mines and Minerals.

27. A considerable portion of the district is covered with forests. The Aravalli range which forms a watershed runs from north-east to south-west and consists of a series of hills and ridges which are thickly wooded except in Lakheri area.

(d) Forests.

The forest area of the district is not fully settled and surveyed. Strict supervision is being kept over the forests by declaring them "Reserved Forests" in order to prevent indiscriminate cutting of timber. The principal species of trees found have been mentioned in para 3 above.

28. The only large scale industry in the district is the Cement Factory at Lakheri which is one of the largest cement manufacturing concerns in India. Besides, there are a few oil factories and cotton pressing machines. The resources of this district have not been properly tapped and exploited. There is a vast scope for all round industrial development. Coarse and fine cotton cloth known as 'khadi' is woven throughout the District and is mostly used by the peasantry. Other important industries are Charkha-spinning, dyeing, shoe-making, pottery, cloth stamping, carpentry etc., which are generally carried on by hereditary artisans.

(e) Industries, Arts & Manufactures.

29. Internal trade is carried on through motor trucks, lorries, bullock-carts, bullocks, buffaloes and donkeys. Weekly markets or Hats are held at convenient local centres attended by the people of the neighbouring villages for making purchases. The articles of trade consist mostly of agricultural produce and other necessities of life. Important weekly Hats are held at Nainwa, Dei, Patan, Hindoli, Khatkar, Talera, Kapren, Namana and Lakheri. The chief 'mandis' of the district are Bundi, Nainwa, Patan and Kapren where agricultural products are brought for sale.

(f) Trade and Commerce.

30. The bulk of the external trade is conducted through trucks and railways to the important commercial centres and mandis of India. Bombay and Delhi are the main centres to and from which goods are sent and brought by the dealers. The chief commodities which are exported from the district are Linseed, dhania, Zira, Cement, Sillica, Sands, Oil, Hides, and Skins; Goats, Sheep and Buffaloes are also exported. The main commodities imported to this district are cotton, woollen and silk cloth, sugar, gur, kerosene oil, iron manufactures, other metals, salt, cutlery, grocery and prepared tobacco (Zarda).

31. There is no Air Service running through this district. The Western Railway (Broad Gauge) runs through the eastern part of the district joining Bombay to Delhi. The following railway stations are in the district—Bundi Road, Kapren, Arnetha, Laban and Lakheri. There are two main railway projects. The broad gauge or metre gauge connection Kotah and Ajmer passing through Talera, Bundi, Hindoli, Deoli and Nasirabad. This line when completed will traverse about 47 miles of this district and will no doubt open a large tract of its interior. There is another project between Chittor and Kotah passing through Bundi Road, Talera, Bundi, Khinia and Mandalgarh. With the advent of the projected railways and the Chambal Hydro-Electric Scheme, a great impetus will be given to industrialisation on a large scale which is sure to add to the prosperity of the people.

(g) Means of Communication.

Bus Service.

32. The Bundi Electrict Supply Company Limited runs the following bus services in the district:—

1. Deoli to Kotah through Bundi.
2. Bundi to Patan.
3. Bundi to Nainwa.
4. Bundi to Lakheri through Patan and Kapren.
5. Bundi to Bijolia.
6. Dei to Indergarh.
7. Bundi to Jahazpur.

Roads.

33. The length of metalled and tar roads in this district is nearly 150 miles and that of unmetalled roads comes to about 200 miles. There is a well furnished II class Circuit House (Guest House) at Bundi. There are a few Dharamshalas at Bundi, Patan and Nainwa. In the country side, two wheeled springless bullock carts are used for goods as well as passenger traffic. Horses and ponies can also be had on hire. In Bundi town tongas are available for the conveyance of passengers.

(h) Post and Telegraphs.

34. At Bundi and Lakheri combined Post and Telegraph Offices have been established. Bundi Post and Telegraph Office is also linked with trunk call. There are Post Offices at Nainwa, Patan, Kapren, Talera, Dei, Hindoli, Gondoli and Khatkar. Local telephone connections are available at the following places:—Bundi, Nainwa, Hindoli, Basni, Talera, Bundi Road, Patan, Kapren, Khatkar, Govindpur Baori and Dei.

(i) Important Fairs in the District.

35. The following are the important commercial fairs held in this district:—

S. No.	Name of Tehsil	Name and place of fair	Date of the fair
1	Patan	1. Kartik Fair on the bank of Chambal river at Keshavrai Patan.	Kartik Shukla 15.
2	Hindoli	1. Fair of Teja Dashmi at Hindoli	Bhadva Shukla 10.
		2. Fair of Shivratri at Hindoli	Falgun Krishna 14.
		3. Fair of Deoji at village Thana ...	Bhadva Shukla 7 and Magh Shukla 7.

		3. Fair of Bakhtawarji at village Dei .	Bhadva Shukla 5.
4	Bundi	1. Fair of Bari Teej at Bundi City	Bhadva Krishna 3.

(j) Famines.

36. Though the district enjoys a fairly regular rainfall and is traversed by many rivers, famines occur after every 4 or 5 years. In the famine of 1899-1900 the population of the district was almost reduced to half. Due to lack of efficient means of transport and communication the people had to face great hardships. Even after the lapse of 50 years, it has not returned to normal. In 1938 39 some parts of the district were again affected by famine and every possible help was provided to the sufferers.

V. Administration.

37. The District of Bundi is a part of Kotah Division. It is divided into the two Sub-Divisions of Bundi and Nainwa consisting of the following 5 Tehsils :—

(1) Nainwa. (2) Hindoli. (3) Bundi. (4) Talera. (5) Patan.

The Collector is the Head of the Administration and under him are two Sub-Divisional Officers one in each Sub-Division and 5 Tehsildars.

38. There is a Civil Judge and a Munsiff stationed at Bundi and a Munsiff at Nainwa. The Civil Judge can hear cases upto the value of Rs. 20,000 and Munsiffs can hear cases upto the value of Rs. 2,000. The Collector is the District Magistrate and there are two Sub-Divisional Magistrates at Bundi and Nainwa Sub-Divisions. There are two First Class Magistrates – One City Magistrate, Bundi and the other Extra Magistsate 1st class, Patan. There is a treasury at the headquarter and four sub-treasuries at the headquarters of tehsils. There are two Banks – The Rajasthan Bank and the Bundi State Bank.

39. The land revenue of this district was nearly Rs. 1,167,932 in Samvat year 2005 in round figures. The system of land tenure prevalent in this district is Ryotwari. The cultivators have Khatedari rights which are acquired in the following manner :—

(a) If uncultivated land is reclaimed, the cultivator can immediately acquire these rights.

(b) If cultivated land is taken over from the Government or any person who holds Khatedari rights, the cultivator is expected to pay as Nazrana, the cost of bringing the land under cultivation before he can acquire these rights. The rights of Khatedar are both hereditary and transferable, but in order to prevent fraud and to save the tenants from getting into the hands of the money-lenders, it is provided by law that all transfers must have the previous permission of the Revenue Commissioner.

Revenue Administration.

It is about 22 miles from Kotah, the Divisional Head quarters on the Kotah-Ajmer Road. The nearest railway station from Bundi is either Kotah Junction or Bundi Road at a distance of 24 miles, from where there is a regular bus service. The city is entirely enclosed within walls pierced by magnificent gateways. At present its population is 22,697 a large majority of which consists of Hindus. The main bazar is paved with stone blocks and the shop fronts are several feet above the road level owing to the fact that this bazar is the only over flow for the Nawal Sagar tank. Facing each other across the street below the palace are the statues of a stone horse and of the elephant named Shiv Prasad, granted by Shah Jehan to Rao Chhatarsal in recognition of his loyalty to the Moghul throne.

Taragarh Fort.

54. On the north above the town is situated the famous fort of Taragarh. It crowns the hill 600 feet above the town and was built by Rao Bar Singh in 1354 A. D. The outer walls of the Fort were added by Dalil, the Jaipur Governor, during the time when Jaipur held Bundi in the first half of the eighteenth century.

The Palace or Garh.

55. In tier upon tier of terraces, over hanging balconies, and battlemented walls, the magnificent Palace of the Hara Kings rises above the town just below the Fort. Kipling describes it as "such a palace as man built for themselves in uneasy dreams, the work of goblins rather than of men". Tod says "Throughout Rajwara, which boasts many fine palaces, the Bundi-ka Mahal is allowed to possess the first rank, for which it is indebted to situation not less than to the splendid additions which it has continually received".

56. The Palace is approached by a steep ramp leading under two gateways. The second which is decorated by two great stone elephants, was built in the beginning of the 17th century in the reign of Rao Raja Ratan Singh. Opposite this gateway and above the stables which face it, which were also built by Ratan Singh, is the Diwan-i-Am, known as Ratan Daulat Darikhana and the throne upon which Colonel Tod installed the the youthful Ram Singh. Beyond the Diwan-i-Am is that part of the Palace which was built by Rao Chhatra Sal. Off the Chhatar Mahal Chowk, in which stand the astronomical instruments of Maharao Raja Ram Singh, and from which a magnificent view of the City is obtained, is the Hatiasal, opposite which is a room containing two huge silver bedsteads and beyond this again a small room with beautiful mural paintings. Returning across the Diwan-i-Am and ascending a flight of steps, one comes to the Rang Bilas, a lovely little floral garden, over which towers the Chitrashala, surmounted by the Anirudh Mahal. The Chitrashala, a pavilin whose walls are covered with religious, historical and hunting scenes in soft blues and greens, surmounting a red and black freeze of elephants fighting, was built in the first-half of the 18th century.

57. Phool Sagar, Shikar Burj, Raniji-ki-Baori, Guest House, Raghvendra Hospital and Hadendra College are some of the important magnificent buildings in the City which are worth seeing.

E SUMMARY FIGURES BY ADMINISTRATIVE UNITS

There is only one local table:—

(क) INFIRMITIES.

DEFINITIONS AND KEY TO SYMBOLS.

Definitions.

Tract:—In past censuses the census figures were tabulated by administrative units i e., districts, tehsils etc. This time in almost all tables the figures have been represented by units which have been technically called "TRACTS". Tracts are of three kinds, (1) all villages of a sub-division taken together form one rural tract; (2) all towns (which are not cities) in a district taken together form an "urban non-city tract" and (3) every city is an "urban city tract" or in short "city tract". A list of tracts comprised in each district has been given in the handbook of the district.

Town:—A "Town" has been defined as every municipality, every cantonment or every village which had a population of 5,000 or over in 1941 or any other village which wss treated as a town for special reasons by the State Census Superintendent.

City:—A "City" is normally defined as a town with a population of one lac or over, but this definition has been relaxed in Rajasthan, and towns with a population of 50,000 or over have also been treated as cities, to bring the definition in uniformity with the one adopted in the Municipal Act.

Village:—A "Village" means a revenue mauza whose revenue is realised under a separate name. It includes all hamlets attached to it.

House:—A "House" has been defined as every structure made of any material which is actually used as human habitation or if not so used, is capable of being so used, which has separate main entrance from the street, lane, by-lane, etc. It includes structures of all kinds such as residential houses, temples, mosques, offices, etc. The minimum, which was necessary for qualifying a structure to be classed as a house, was at least two walls and a roof made of any material.

Occupied House:—"Occupied houses" were those which were used actually for the residence of human beings.

Household:—A "Household" has been defined to mean and include all persons living in one and the same house and dining at a common mess irrespective of their blood relationship e.g. servants residing with their masters and taking meals in their kitchen were treated as members of the master's household. On the contrary even nearest relatives as husband or wife were treated as separate families if for any reason they happened to live in separate buildings and dine at separate kitchens.

Household Population:—"Household Population" means persons living in numbered houses as members of a commensal family including guests and servants. It does not include (a) houseless persons or (b) inmates of institutions like jails, hospitals, hostels, dak bungalows, boarding houses, orphanages, sarais, dharmashalas, police lines, military lines, asylums, etc.

Displaced person:—A "Displaced person" was defined "as a person who migrated from Western Pakistan after 1st March 1947 or from Eastern Pakistan after 15th October 1946" due to communal disturbances or fear of disturbances or due to partition of India and Pakistan. Children born to such persons after their migration to India were not to be treated as displaced persons.

Ward:—A "Ward" was defined as municipal ward in case of municipal towns. In non-municipal towns wards have been made arbitrarily by the Census Department.

Means of Livelihood:—In former censuses it was customary to represent the basic population data by community or religion. This time an innovation has been made and in most of the tables the figures are published by Means of Livelihood groups. All occupations have been classified under eight broad classes and given code numbers which are as follows:—

I Cultivators of land wholly or mainly owned and their dependants.

II Cultivators of land wholly or mainly unowned and their dependants.

III Cultivating labourers and their dependants.

IV Non-cultivating owners of land, agricultural rent receivers and their dependants.

Persons (including dependants) who derive their principal means of livelihood from :—

V Production other than cultivation.

VI Commerce.

VII Transport.

VIII Other services and miscellaneous sources.

N. B.—In most of the Tables, the m/l class number is only given instead of describing the class.

Code No.:—In the enumeration stage a set of location code numbers was prescribed to identify each inhabited spot, whereby the districts were numbered serially within the State, tehsils within a district and cities, towns or villages within a tehsil. Similarly houses were numbered within a village and households within each house. Hamlets were given sub-numbers under the number of the parent village.

The class in which the individual town falls is shown under the name of the town

The nature of the local body functioning in each town is shown in the brackets after the name of the town wherever such body is functioning.

In this district two fresh towns have been added in this census namely,

1. Lakheri Cement Works 2 Kapren.

A. V—Towns Arranged Territorially with Population by Livelihood Classes.

EXPLANATORY NOTE:—

This table gives the number of persons (including dependants) in each town according to principal means of livelihood instead of religion as in past censuses, but means of livelihood classes I to III have been clubbed together and they have been shown in columns Nos. 15 and 16 after the non-agricultural classes.

(a) The towns have been arranged according to population. The nature of local body functioning in each town is shown in brackets after the name of the town wherever such body is functioning.

B. ECONOMIC TABLES.

1. In the 1951 Census, the Economic classification was substituted for the classification based on Religion.

2. The people have been divided into two broad livelihood categories, viz, the Agricultural Classes and the Non-Agricultural Classes.

3. There are four Agricultural Classes, defined as below:—

I Cultivators of land, wholly or mainly owned, and their dependants.

II Cultivators of land, wholly or mainly unowned, and their dependants.

III Cultivating labourers and their dependants, and

IV Non cultivating owners of land; agricultural rent receivers, and their dependants.

4. There are four Non-Agricultural Classes, defined as comprising all persons (including dependants) who derive their principal means of livelihood from:—

V Production other than cultivation.

VI Commerce.

VII Transport.

VIII Other services, and miscellaneous sources.

5. All these classes have been referred to as Means of Livelihood Classes or in brief M/L Classes.

NOTE.—(a) Land is deemed to be owned "if it is held on any tenure (by whatever name it is known locally) which carries with it the right of permanent occupancy for purposes of cultivation." Such right should be heritable. It may be (but need not necessarily be) also transferable.

(b) A "Cultivator" (Livelihood Class I or II) is distinguished from a "Cultivating Labourer" (Livelihood class III) as the person who takes the responsible decisions which constitutes the direction of the process of cultivation. All cultivating labourers are employees of cultivators.

(c) The classification of a person employed in any non-agricultural enterprise or establishment is based on the nature of his own work, not on the nature of the enterprise or establishment concerned Thus for instance not all railway employees are classifiable under Livelihood Class VII (Transport). Those employed in Railway workshops are classifiable under Livelihood Class V and those employed on constructional services under Livelihood Class VIII

6. Livelihood Sub-Classes :—Each of the eight M/L Classes has been divided into three sub-classes, with reference to their economic status as below :—

(i) Self-supporting persons ;

(ii) Non-earning dependants ; and

(iii) Earning dependants.

Economically active, semi-active and passive persons:—

7. All non-earning dependants are economically passive. They include persons performing house-work or other domestic or personal services for other members of the same family household. But they do not include "unpaid family workers or persons who take part along with the members of the family household in carrying on cultivation or a home industry as a family enterprise".

8. All earning departments are economically semi-active only. Though they contribute to the carrying on of economic activities, the magnitude of their individual contribution is deemed to be too small to justify their description as economically active.

9. All self- supporting persons are, ordinarily, enconomically active. But, there are certain classes and groups which constitute an exception to this rule. These are mentioned below:—

(i) The self-supporting persons of agricultural class IV.

(ii) The following groups of self-supporting persons who are included in non-agricultural class VIII and derive their principal means of livelihood from miscellaneous sources (otherwise than through economic activity):—

(a) Non-working owners of non-agricultural property,

(b) Pensioners and remittance holders,

(c) Persons living on charity and other persons with unproductive occupations, and

(d) inmates of penal institutions and asylums.

Classification of Economic activities and Economically active persons:—

10. Economic activities may be defined as including all activities of which the result is the production of useful commodities or the performance of useful services but not including the performance of domestic or personal services by members of a family household to one another.

11. The most important among all economic activities is the cultivation of land (or the production of the field crops). It stands in a category by itself. All other economic activities may be regarded as falling in another category which may be referred to as "Industries and Services". All these activities may be classified with reference to the nature of the commodity produced or service performed. Under the present scheme, all industries and services are classified in 10 divisions; and these divisions are sub-divided into 88 sub- divisions. The scope of activities included in each sub-division is indicated by its title.

12. Economically active persons engaged in cultivation, are either cultivators or cultivating labourers i. e., they are persons of sub-class (i) of agricultural classes I to III.

13. Economically active persons engaged in Industries and Services are classifiable in the divisions and sub-divisions. All persons included in each sub-division are further divisible into three sections viz.,

(i) Employers,

(ii) Employees, and

(iii) Independent Workers

14. In effecting this classification, no account has been taken of whether the classified person was actually employed or unemployed on the date of enumeration. He has been allocated to that particular description of economic activity from which he has been in fact deriving a regular (that is non-casual) income, as his principal means of livelihood.

The Tables.

15. The Economic tables for the State as a whole with break-up for Natural Divisions and districts will be found in Report Part II B of the Census of India 1951. Volume X, Rajasthan and Ajmer. It also contains a full discussion of the Indian Census Economic Classification Scheme and its comparison with International Standard Industrial Classification Scheme evolved by the United Nations Organisation. This Handbook contains the above tables for this district in which they are published down to tract level.

16. The replies recorded in the census slips against census questions 9, 10 and 11 have been used for classifying every enumerated person within the framework of Economic Classification of people described above. The results have been exhibited in the three tables.

(a) Economic Table I .... Livelihood classes and sub-classes.

(b) Economic Table II ... Secondary means of livelihood.

(c) Economic Table III ... Employers, employees, and independent workers in industries and services by divisions and sub-divisions.

Economic Table I.

17. This table is the result of the record of replies to the census question No. 9 (1). It shows the distribution of population in the eight livelihood classes and 8 sub-classes of each livelihood class. A complete picture has been presented of economically active, semi-active and passive persons.

Economic Table II.

18. It specifies the number of self-supporting persons in each of the 8 classes mentioned above, who have more than one means of livelihood and cross classifies them according to the nature of such secondary means of livelihood under the same eight classes. It also displays the number of earning dependants who supplement (with their own activities) the resources provided for their maintenance by the persons on whom they are dependant. The economic activity of the economically semi-active persons whereby they supplement the above resources has been shown in this table. The replies recorded in the slips against census question 11 showing the occupation of semi active persons as also the secondary means of livelihood of self-supporting persons (with more than one occupation) other than the principal means of livelihood, are the basis of this table.

Economic Table III.

19. This table is limited to economically active persons only. Self-supporting persons engaged in Industries and Services have been classified under 10 Divisions and sub-divisions thereof. They have been further divided under each division and sub-division into three categories "Employers" "Employees", and "Independent Workers".

(a) M/L Class V (Production other than cultivation) corresponds to Division 0 to 4 (0) Primary industries not elsewhere specified, 1-Mining and quarrying; 2-Processing and manufacture-foodstuffs, textiles, leather and products thereof; 3-Processing and manufacture metals, chemicals and products thereof; 4-Processing and manufacture not elsewhere specified).

(b) M/L Class VI (Commerce) corresponds to Division 6 (Commerce).

(c) M/L Class VII (Transport) corresponds to sub-divisions 7·1 to 7·4 of division 7 (Transport, storage and communications).

(d) M/L Class VIII (Other services and miscellaneous sources) includes Division 5 (Construction and utilities), Division 7 (Transport storage and Communication) with the exception of sub-division 7·1 to 7·4; Division 8 (Health, education and public administration) and Division 9 (Services not elsewhere specified). It also includes other miscellaneous sources of livelihood e.g. income from investment, pensions and family remittances, proceeds of begging and other unproductive activities. These are not, however, included, in Economic Table III which is limited to industries and services. Hence there is a difference to this extent between the total self-supporting persons of the non-agricultural classes in Economic Table I and the total of this table. The reconciliation has been affected by entries of economically inactive persons with the following further classification at the end of the table (columns No. 798 to 807).

(i) Persons living principally on income from non-agricultural property.

(ii) Persons living principally on pensions, remittances, scholarships and funds

(iii) Inmates of jails, asylums and alms-houses.

(iv) Recipients of doles.

(v) Beggars and vagrants.

(vi) All other persons living principally on income derived from non-productive activities.

20. The Unit of Classification is the organised "Establishment". The commodity produced or the service performed as a result of the work of the organised establishment is the criterion for classifying the establishment. The classification of the establishment is the classification of every member of the establishment.

21. As regards "Employees," all persons, engaged, in production, commerce or transport (and not being domestic servants) have been classified under the appropriate sub-divisions with reference to their own activity, and without reference to that of their employer. Domestic servants have all been classed in one sub-division without reference to the nature of their work. All other employees (including all managerial and supervisory employees, clerks, messengers, watchmen and unskilled labourers of every description) have been classified with reference to the commodity produced or services rendered by their employers.

22. In this table occupational returns under some of the sub-divisions are nil and the columns pertaining to such sub-divisions have been omitted for the sake of economising space, hence there are breaks in the serial number of columns.

C. I Household (size and composition).
C. II Livelihood Classes by Age Groups.
C. III Age and Civil Conditions.

(b) "Medium" if the number of inmates is between 4 and 6.
(c) "Large" if the number of inmates is between 7 and 9,
(d) "Very large" if the number of inmates is 10 or more.

District Index of Non-Agricultural Occupations.

This Table is prepared from the Sorter's Ticket 2. This is a sort of supplement to Economic Table B. III and provides further details of the occupational groups mentioned therein.

The Sorter's Ticket 2 was prepared in accordance with the instructions to the Sorters reproduced below :—

1. Preparation.—You have to prepare Sorter's Ticket 2 only if you have slips relating to any of the livelihood class V, VI, VII or VIII. You are to deal only those slips which relate to self-supporting persons. The slips relating to non-earning dependants or earning dependants would have been separated already and should not be used at this stage.

2. First operation.—You have first to deal the slips with reference to the Principal means of livelihood recorded against question 10. Your Supervisor will give you a list of "M/L (Means of livelihood) sub-groups"* in the order of importance for which you have to sort. Select not more than ten Pigeon-holes and affix labels bearing the names of the "M/L sub-groups" (written out in full) as given to you. The number of M/L sub-groups given to you will generally exceed ten. You should reserve one or two Pigeon-holes for throwing slips which are not covered by the M/L sub-groups shown on the lables. You should then deal the slips with reference to the answer recorded against question 10. In doing so, put together slips containing entries which are written in either identical or very similar terms to each of the labelled "M/L sub-groups." If you are in doubt whether an entry, in any case is very similar or not to the labelled M/L sub-groups, consult the Supervisor. Finish the sorting for one set of M/L sub-groups. Then distribute the slips of one set into individual occupations. Now count the number and "enter" the name and number in columns (2) and (3) of Sorter's Ticket 2. Keep the unsorted slips separate. This completes the first stage of the first operation.

3. First operation (succeeding stages).—You should then take up the slips that remain to be sorted. You should deal them again for the remaining M/L sub-groups given to you in same manner as in the first operation. The operations should be repeated successively until all the slips are sorted for all the M/L sub-groups given to you. You may find slips where the M/L as recorded in question 10 does not fall under any of the sub-groups given to you. You should deal these slips separately in the manner explained above and enter the name and number in the Sorter's Ticket. This completes the first operation. You should keep separate the bundle for each M/L sub-group.

4. Special instructions regarding non-productive means of livelihood.—Livelihood class VIII will contain slips of persons who derive their income otherwise than through Productive activity. They include all self-supporting persons against whom the answer to question 9, Part two, is 'O'. They should be treated as a distinct group, not falling under any of the prescribed divisions and sub-divisions; and sorted under the following sub-groups, viz.—

(i) Persons living principally on income from non-agricultural property.
(ii) Persons living principally on pensions, remittances, scholarships and funds
(iii) Inmates of jails, asylums, alms houses and recipients of doles.
(iv) Beggars and vagrants.
(v) All other persons living principally on income derived from non-productive activities.

5. Second operation.—For this operation the slips mentioned in Paragraph 4 are excluded. You have to deal the remaining slips with reference to the answer recorded in the second compartment of question 9. Affix labels to three Pigeon-holes, the labels being marked "Employer", "Employee" and "Independent worker". Take the bundle

* List of M/L sub-groups.—Separate lists of sub-groups should be prepared for use in sorting each of the four different livelihood classes V to VIII. These lists should be compiled on the basis of (a) scrutinizing of entries found to occur frequently in the National Register of Citizens and (b) results of trial sorting by Supervisor and Compiler-checkers.

for each M/L sub-group and deal them into the three Pigeon-holes. You will find "मा" for "Employer" "नो" for "Employee" and "खुद" for "Independent worker" recorded in the second compartment of question 9. If you find that there is no entry you should take the order of your Supervisor. When you have completed the sorting for a M/L sub-groups you should count the number in each Pigeon-hole and enter in Columns (4) to (6) of the Sorter's Ticket according as the Pigeon-hole relates to "Employer", "Employee" and "Independent worker" respectively.

6. Second operation (succeeding stages).—You should take each of the other bundles for M/L sub-groups and deal them in the same manner as in the second operation; you should enter the result in the relevant columns of the Sorter's Ticket.

7. Conclusion.—You have now completed all operations necessary for Sorter's Ticket 2. Re-combine all the male slips and all the female slips.

If you are sorting sample slips or slips for displaced persons you should proceed to Sorter's Ticket 3.

If you are sorting general slips you should proceed to Sorter's Ticket 6.

After the Sorter completed the ticket and after due check by the Compiler-checker and the Supervisor, the ticket was handed over to the tabulation clerk to fill in the Group Code numbers in column (1) of the form of Sorter's Ticket 2 given below.—

Form of Sorter's Ticket 2.

Group Code Number	Full name of means of livelihood (sub-groups and occupations)	Total	Employer	Employee	Independent worker

The group code numbers were adopted from the Indian Census Economic Classification Scheme given in Part II – B of the Report.

Accuracy of Figures.

A perusal of this index shows incredible figures, against certain occupations. This is due to vague entries in the slips regarding the occupations contrary to instructions in some cases and entries with correct details in others. The result was that in the tabulation stage the only slips which contained correct details of occupations were sorted under the correct sub-group and its details, while those with vague entries were placed in the wider groups.

Another point to be borne in mind is that not all persons following an occupation have been shown against it in the Index, but those who followed it as a Principal means of livelihood. Thus if a Ticket Collector derived a greater part of his income from rent of agricultural or other land or building and some income only from his services as Ticket Collector, he would not be shown as Ticket Collector.

The third point to be kept in mind is that these figures, represent only self-supporting persons and not those who are partly dependants, thus a young boy who sits at a 'Pan shop' and gets some pay from the shop keeper which is not sufficient to support him, he has to depend upon his father's income mostly. Such a man would not appear under the occupation "Service on Betel Shop."

The last but most important defect in the figures is due to difference in the terminology prevalent in the different areas of Rajasthan describing an occupation and also partly due to want of exercise of proper care in the tabulation stage that name showing same and similar occupations have been shown as different occupations for example 'Halwai's shop" and "sweet-meat selling" have been shown as different occupations. In order therefore to find out the actual strength of self-supporting persons following a particular occupation as their principal means of livelihood, figures against all such occupations should be totalled.

On the whole, this index removes the defects pointed out in the Census Tables published in the previous Census that they do not show actual occupations but their group only.

Index of Non-Agricultural Occupations.

Persons deriving their income as Principal means of livelihood from occupations in column 3.
