PREFACE

Census in India has all along been a scientific and systematic survey. Gradually through the decades it has also aimed at providing besides a statistical account of the population surveyed, a picture of the Socio-Economic condition of the people. With this end in view, the Census authorities in India have always interested themselves, side by side with the counting of the people, at making several special studies relating to the life of the people.

One of these special features of the Census of India at present is the preparation and publication of the District Census Handbooks. These were first published in the 1951 Census. Upto 1951, after each Census, only the list of villages along with population was published, But for the first time in 1951, general population tables, literacy tables and social and economic tables were published in the District Census Handbooks.

When preliminary work on the 1961 Census started in 1959, the question of enlarging the coverage of subjects included in the District Handbooks was also examined. A broadsheet indicating the items on which information had to be gathered from the various Departments was circulated by the Registrar General, India, and at the First Conference of Superintendents of Census Operations held at Delhi towards the end of 1959 the delegates agreed that it was quite within the bounds of possibility to gather information on all the topics suggested by the Registrar General. It was agreed that the contents of the District Census Handbook, on matters of general information should not compete with the District Gazetteers.

The scope of the Village Directory included in each District Handbook has been enlarged. In addition to giving the Primary Census Abstract of the village concerned, the Directory gives information about the various amenities available in the village. It is thus possible to get from the Village Directory not only information about the population and the economic activities of the people but also about the level of development attained by the village in regard to the provision of the various amenities. Many of the Census Tables published in the District Handbook furnish information down to the level of a Taluk and they may prove useful in drawing up Taluk Development Plans. Besides the Census Tables and Village Directory, some administrative statistics pertaining to the District concerned, have also been furnished. It was also thought that the usefulness of these volumes would be enhanced by inclusion of District maps and Taluk maps set in suitable squares to facilitate easy location of the villages in the Taluk maps. In order that the readers may get a bird's eye-view of the cultural heritage of the State, a note on it has also been included, which though not exhaustive, should give a glimpse of our rich heritage.

These handbooks have been compiled by the Census Organisation under the general instructions of the Registrar General. They are being printed and published by the State Government who have also approved the list of items to be included and the mode of presentation.

In the course of the Census operations, I have received assistance and co-operation from several institutions and individuals. It is impossible for me to express my gratitude to each of them individually. However, I will be failing in my duty if I do not express my deep sense of gratitude to Sri A. Mitra, I.C.S., Registrar General, India, who has been a source of constant help, inspiration and guidance all through the Census operations of 1961. I am also grateful to the Government of Mysore and its staff at all levels, for the unstinted co-operation extended to me in this work.

MYSORE STATE, 1961

Area in Square Miles

(As furnished by the Surveyor General of India)

MYSORE STATE, 1961

Population

INTRODUCTION

BIDAR DISTRICT forms the northern most territory of the Mysore State, lying between the north latitude 17°45' and 18°5' and between east longitude 76°45' and 77°30'. It covers an area of about 2,077 square miles and has a population of 663,172 according to the 1961 Census. The population works out to 319.00 per square mile.

In terms of area and population the District is 2.86% and 2.81% of the State respectively as would be clear from the diagram on the facing page.

It is bounded on the north and west by Maharashtra State, on the east by Andhra Pradesh and in the south lies Gulbarga District of Mysore State.

The District consisting of four Taluks namely, Bidar, Bhalki, Aurad and Humnabad falls within the northern maidanbelt, characterised by expanses of level treeless surface punctuated here and there by flat and undulating hillocks, black soil proceeding from compact, hard, black basaltic rocks and some lower belts, following the main rivers. Compact villages, dry cultivation, large holdings and many landless labourers are features of the rural life.

The geological formation and the topography of the District is more or less similar to that of Gulbarga. The entire District forms almost part of the Deccan trap and is made up of solidified lava. The disingration and decomposition of the Deccan Trap has resulted in the formation of black cotton soil and laterite. If the northern Taluks of Aurad and Bhalki consist of Black cotton soil, the southern Taluks of Humnabad and Bidar consist predominantly of laterite. Laterite occurs widely in the District. Laterite is a porous-pitted clay-like rock with red, yellow, browngrey, and mottled colours. It has a hard protected crust and the exposed portion is generally irregular and rough. When dug up, the fresh material is comparatively soft and easily cut by a spade or saw and becomes hard on exposure to air.

The black cotton soil is generally porous and swells considerably on addition of water and dries up with conspicuous cracks on losing moisture. The swelling quality is largely due to the presence of montrimonilbite and beidellite groups of clay materials.

From Khanapur, 8 miles west of Bidar, a range of low laterite hills extend due east forming a plateau which terminates towards the north. Otherwise the country is almost flat with a gentle slope towards the east.

Owing to the absence of forests, no large game is found, but in the hills, leopards, bears, hyenas, and wolves are met with occasionally. At times we come across four horned antelopes also.

Ochre of red colour suitable for pigments occur in various parts of the District, chiefly in Bidar Taluk. A fairly rich deposit of Kaolin is found under the cover of laterite cap of 16 feet thickness to the north of Kamthana village of Bidar District. This material of good quality, is useful for the ceramic and paper industries. The granites, and gneisses and the trap rocks of the area are of exceptional quality and are of high decorative value owing to their pleasing colour. They form an excellent material for any type of structure. Several other minerals of economic importance like soapstone, Kankar, etc., are also found in the District.

The manjra river, a tributary of Godavari, flows through the District traversing a distance of about 60 miles. It has a catchment area of about 500 square miles.

Naranja, Nagarnala, Hudgi and Halikhed Nala are other rivulets running in the District. None of the rivers or rivulets have been put to irrigational use.

The District is noted for its healthy and comparatively (as compared with Gulbarga and Raichur) cool climate. The southern half of the District is a high plateau, about 2,350 feet above the sealevel and is well drained. The climate is dry and equable. The temperature is much lower in this area than in the north and the west. The temperature however, rises up to 35° to 37° (centigrade) from April to May and falls to 23°C in December.

Bidar District gets more rainfall than the other two districts (Gulbarga and Raichur) of Gulbarga Division. The rainy season generally sets in June and lasts till October but in August the precipitation is usually the heaviest. The average annual rainfall of the District is 857.00 mms.

History

The District which was a part of the Hyderabad State till recently has a hoary past. Legends mention about Rama's visit to Kishkinda, identified with the modern Vijayanagar and Anegundi. The history of Bidar is traced as far back as the Nala-Damayanti period and the present name 'Bidar' is said to be a corrupted word for 'Vidura Nagar'. The dominions of the Buddhist king Ashoka (272-231 B.C.) are said to have covered the whole of Berar and a considerable portion of the north-western and eastern tracts of the old Hyderabad State. From about 220 B.C. the Andhras rose to power and held their sway from the Krishna Delta to Nasik. About 100 years later this dynasty came to an end.

The next dynasty of importance is that of the Chalukyas, who rose to power in Bijapur District about 550 A.D. with their capital at Kalyani. Pulikesi II (608—642 A.D.) ruled practically the whole of India South of Narmada. Throughout this period they were at war with the Pallavas and their fortunes and dominions varied. In the midddle of the 8th century (AD.) they were displaced by the Rashtrakutas of Malkhed in Gulbarga District; but in 973 A.D. the Chalukyan dynasty was restored, their rule extending for about 200 years more. The Chalukyan power fell about 1189 A.D. to the Hoysalas and Yadavas. The Yadavas of Devgiri (Daulatabad) were the last great Hindu rulers of the Deccan, for the Vijayanagar empire which was founded half a century after the advent of the Mahammedans, never acquired much sway in the Deccan proper.

Allauddin Khilji led the first muhammedan expedition into the Deccan, in 1294. A.D. against the Yadavas and coerced them into submission. In 1303 A.D. he sent an unsuccessful expedition against the Kakatiyas of Warangal, but the second expedition in 1309 A.D. under Malikkhafer was successful. In 1310, Malikkafer put an end to the Hoysala rule and in 1318 A.D. the Yadava rule came to an end. In 1321 A.D. Muhammad-bin-Tughlak broke the Kakatiya power, with the result that in 1325 A.D. the Muhammadans were masters of the Deccan. Muhammad-bin-Tughlak changed the name of Devagiri to Daulatabad and made it his capital. A few years later the imperial Governors of the Deccan revolted and this resulted in the establishment of the Bahmani dynasty, founded by Zafar Khan who styled himself as Allauddin Hasan Shah Gangu Bahmani. He commenced his rule in 1347 A.D. with Gulbarga as his capital.

The Bahmani kingdom extended from Berar in the north to the left bank of Tungabhadra in the south and from Dabhol on the west to the Telangana tracts in the east.

Allauddin's successor Muhammad Shah waged wars against Vijayanagar (1336) and Warangal (1371) and acquired great booty. In 1398 A.D. king Firoz marched against the Vijayanagar king who had made inroads into Raichur Doab and inflicted a defect on him. However in 1417 A.D. Firoz had to suffer a heavy defeat at the hands of the Vijayanagar and Warangal kings and in 1422 A.D. he abdicated the throne in favour of his brother Ahmed Shah, who founded the city of Bidar in 1430 A.D. In 1527 A.D. the great Bahamani dynasty came to an end. They reigned first at Gulbarga and then at Bidar for more than 180 years.

Then started the Barid-shahikingdom. In 1565, Ali-Barid with the other Deccan kings marched against Ramaraya of Vijayanagar and the memorable battle of Talikota sealed the fate of the Vijayanagar empire. In about 1609 A.D. this dynasty ended. Kutb-ul-mulk, a turk of noble family, who was the Governor of Golconda under the Bahmanis declared his independence and established the kutubshahi dynasty which reigned from 1512 to 1687 A.D.

When the Mogals invaded the Deccan, the local rulers formed an alliance against them; but after defeating them they fell out among themselves, thus enabling the imperial troops to gradually subdue the country.

Then started the house of the Nizams, founded by Asaf Jah, a distinguished General of Aurangzeb. He was first appointed Subedar or Viceroy of the Deccan in 1713 A.D. with the title of Nizam-ul-mulk, which has since become the hereditary title of the family. The Mogul power was then on the decline and so Asaf Jah had little difficulty in asserting his independence. But he had to repel the inroads of the Marathas. The battle at Shakarkhelda (Fathkhelda) in the Buldana District in 1724 with Mubariz Khan of Khandesh established the independence of Asaf Jah. On Asaf Jah's death, the French and the English tried to extend their respective influence in the state by siding with the rival contenders to the throne vacated by Asaf Jah. But ultimately the English succeeded in their attempts and they entered into several treaties of offensive and defensive alliances with the Nizams. On the fall of Seringpatam and the death of Tipu Sultan, the Nizam participated largely under the Treaty of Mysore (1799 A.D.) in the division of territory, and his share was increased because of the Peshwa's withdrawal from the treaty. In 1800 A.D. a fresh treaty was concluded between the Nizam and the British.

About 1803 A.D. the British crushed the Marathas in the memorable battles of Assaye and Argaon and secured the Nizam's territories which the marathas had taken previously.

On the death of Sikandar Jah in 1829, his son Nasir-uddaulah succeeded. In 1839 A.D. a wahhabi conspiracy was discovered in Hyderabad is in other parts of the country ; but this was quelled in time. In 1847 A.D. a serious riot took place between the shiahs and the sunnis. As the pay of the contingent troops had fallen in arrears, a treaty was signed with the British in 1853 A.D. by which, besides Berar, the districts of Osmanabad and Raichur Doab were also ceded to the British. But pleased with the attitude of the Nizam during the rising of 1857 (first war of Independence) the British, restored Osmanabad and Raichur Doab to the Nizam in 1861 A.D.

Mir Mahbub Ali Khan Bahadur, succeeded to the Nizam's Gadi in 1869 A.D. Being only three years old then, a regency was constituted for the administration of the State, with Salar Jang I as regent and Nawab-shams-ul-umara as coregent, the Resident being consulted on all important matters. In 1884 the Nizam having attained majority was installed by Lord Ripon. In 1902 the assigned Districts of Berar were leased in perpetuity to the British Government, at an annual rental of Rs. 25 lakhs.

In 1911 or so mir-mahbub Alikhan was succeeded by the Nizam, Oosman Alikhan.

In 1948 Government of India were forced to take police action against the State and curb the Razakar movement which directly impaired the security of the country. From 26th January 1950 Hyderabad became a part B State with the Nizam as Rajapramukh.

Until about the commencement of this century the whole state of Hyderabad, excluding sarf-e-khas or crown districts of Atraf-e-balda was divided for administrative purposes into four Subahs or Divisions and there were fifteen Districts and one Amaldan or Sub-District. In 1905, the Districts were reconstituted, the Districts of Lingsugur being broken up and the Amaldan being converted into a District. Gulbraga Division was constituted with an area of 19,825 square miles. But in 1922, this Division was abolished and the District from this Division came under the direct control of the Revenue Secretariat. However in 1929 the Division was revised and continued till Police Action in 1948, when again it was done away with. It was only after reorganisation of the States i.e., from 1st November 1956 that a Revenue Division with the entire area coming over from former Hyderabad State to the new State of Mysore came into existence.

As a result of the States reorganisation, nine Taluks of Raichur District, ten Taluks of Gulbarga District, and four Taluks of Bidar District were transferred to the new Mysore State from the old Hyderabad area. These three Districts now constitute the Gulbarga Division.

The People and their Social Condition

The district has a total population of 663,172 of whom 581,951 reside in the rural areas and 81,221 reside in Urban areas. But many of the so called Urban areas are really overgrown rural villages.

The district faces scarcity and famine conditions intermittently and so the economic condition of the people cannot be said to be always secure.

The people are hardy and good husbandmen. They are simple and have a religious bent of mind. They regularly attend the fairs held annually at several places in the vicinity.

The ordinary Hindu festivals are the Holi, the Divali, the Dasara, the Nagapanchami, the Ramanavami, the Pitrapaksha and the Shivaratri. The Pola festival is celebrated at several places when the cattle are garlanded and decorated, and led through the village accompanied by their owners. The Mahammedans observe the Mohurrum, the Bakrid, the Id of Ramzan, the Sha-I-barat, the Duazdahum-i-sharif and the Yazdatum.

There are very few amusements in which the cultivators indulge. In the evenings they gather at the village chavdi and join in gossip or pass the time with their families, discussing topics of the season and the crops. Occasionally they go to neighbouring markets or visit places of pilgrimage and fairs in the neighbourhood. Sometime they enjoy the performance of strolling actors, and the recitation of religious poems is very popular.

The staple food consists chiefly of cakes of Jowar and Bajra. Along with cakes are eaten curries made of vegetables and pulses, onion, oil or ghee seasoned with tamarind or chillies or both.

The ordinary form of dress for a villager is a dhoti or waistcloth, a short jacket or coat of cotton, a turban of red, white or yellow colour and a 'kambli' or blanket, which he almost always carries. The women wear a saree which is a piece of cloth five or six yards long and about four feet broad, one end being fastened round the waist, while the other is carried over the head and shoulders covering the rest of the body. In addition to the sari, the women wear a choli or short bodies. The Muhammedan women sometimes wear a lahnga or petticoat, with a choli and dupatta, the last covering the head and the body. Waddar females discard the choli altogether, but wrap the end of the sari round the upper part of the body.

In each village, there will be one or more elderly persons, whose advise is sought when taking decisions on important issues like holding of fairs, settling local disputes, settling marriages, etc.

The women, particularly the Muhammedans observe Burqua system.

Medical, Public Health and Animal Husbandry

The rainfall in the District is scanty and capricious and as such the district is often subject to draught, which is generally followed by diseases. Many villages face scarcity of drinking water too. No other town except Bidar has a protected water supply with the result that cholera makes its frequent appearance. Guinea worm trouble is also present in a few villages.

The medical facilities provided during the first two five year plan periods are :—

	1956-57	1960-61
No. of Medical Institutions—

The district is famous for what are known as "Deoni" bulls. They are a sure and quick-footed type, found all over the district. A number of cattle fairs are held in the District where ponies, horses, bullocks, etc., are sold. Malegaon is a famous centre for horses and ponies. Sheep and goats of ordinary breed are reared all over the District.

The foot and mouth disease, Anthrax and Rinderpest are the common cattle diseases.

The achievements in Animal Husbandry during the first two Five Year-Plan periods are :—

	1956-57	1960-61
No. of Veterinary Hospitals and Dispensaries.	4	10
No. of breeding bulls distributed	5	10

Education and Literacy

The achievements in the field of Education in the first two Five-Year Plan periods are :—

	1956-57	1960-61
No. of Educational Institutions—
(a) Colleges ..	..	1
(b) High Schools (including Higher Secondary and Multi-purpose).	6	15
(c) Middle Schools ..	2	2

Total number of teachers ..	1,015	1,443
Literacy percentage ..	7%	14.3%
No. of students given Educational concessions like scholarships, freeships, etc.	1,314	5,796

In 1962, there were twenty High Schools in the District, giving a ratio of one to 32,800 population. The area served by each High School comes to 102.85.

The percentage of literates has increased from seven in 1951 to 14.3 in 1961. Bidar Taluk has the highest percentage of literates with 17.7 and Aurad (Santpur) Taluk has the lowest with 11.6. In the Urban areas only, the percentage of literacy has increased from 19.8 in 1951 to 33.1 in 1961. Amongst the Urban areas, Bidar with 44.5 has the highest percentage of literates and Kalyani has the lowest with 22.1.

Land Tenures and Land Reforms

Broadly speaking the district had two types of land tenures (1) Khalsa or Diwani lands under the direct management of Government and (2) Non-khalsa lands, the revenue of which had been wholly or partly assigned for some special purpose. The latter comprised Sarf-e-khas lands and the Jahgir or Inams. The sarf-e-khas lands were merged in Diwani in 1949. Diwani lands as well as most of sarf-e-khas lands are generally held on purely ryotwari tenure, where the ryot holds the lands directly from the state. There are not therefore many intermediaries between the Government and the actual tiller of the soil as in the Zamindari estates. The occupant in such cases is called the Pattadar, the right of occupancy depending on the regular payment of the assessment by the Pattadar, and in case of failure to meet the demand, he forefeits his rights. Still, as the recognised occupants were not obliged to cultivate the lands personally, certain inferior tenures developed which are known as Potpattidari, shikmidari and Asami-shikmi (tenants at will). In non-khalsa area, however, which covered the Jahgirs and Inams, there were several other problems especially when dealing with the tenants. The Jahgirdars did not concede occupancy rights to their cultivators, with the result that they could enhance rents at their pleasure. The Jahgirs consisting of free grants of one or more villages, could be classed under four heads viz. (1) Al-tamgha which are grants of an hereditary and permanent nature (2) " Zat-Jahgirs " or personal grants for the maintenance of the grantees (3) Paigah Jahgirs or grants to the nobles of the state for maintaining troops for the Nizam and (4) " Tankhwah-i-mahallat " or grants in lieu of certain local payments that were binding on the state. The inam lands consisted of grants for service or charitable purposes, either free of revenue or subject to a quit-rent.

In fact, Paigah villages constituted one of the important estates in the state. The history of the Paigah nobles who held these grants, dated back to the reign of Akbar. Another important estate in the Hyderabad state was the salarjung estate.

Land Revenue assessment in the Ex-Paigah villages was very high as compared with the adjoining Diwani villages. By way of relief, eversince the abolition of the Paigahs, the Government is granting every year suspension of 25% in the land revenue of the villages, where the average rate of assessment does not exceed 100 % or more of the average rate of the adjoining Diwani villages and when it exceeds by 100%, the suspension given is 50%. Steps are afoot to bring in uniformity in the rate of assessment.

Till 1945, when the Hyderabad Asami Shikmi Act was passed, there were two kinds of tenants (1) Shikmidars and (2) Asamishikmidars. Shikmidars were permanent tenants and possessed rights similar to the Pattadars. Asamishikmidars were tenants responsible to the holders for payment of rent. After 12 years of continuous tenancy, they could be deemed to be Shikmidars, but in practice no tenant could prove such a period of continuous possession.

The Hyderabad Government appointed a tenancy committee and as a result of their recommendations, the Hyderabad Asamishikmis Act of 1945 was enacted. This Act gave fixity of tenure to all new tenants for 10 years and empowered Government to fix maximum rates of rent. A class of tenants was declared as protected and granted permanency of tenure subject only to the payment of lawful rent.

The appointment of the Hyderabad Agrarian Reforms Committee in 1949 was a landmark in the history of land reforms. On its recommendations, the Hyderabad Tenancy and Agricultural Lands Act of 1950 was enacted, the main objects of which were to improve the status of tenants, to impose a limit on the size of holdings, to abolish absentee landlordism and to encourage preservation of lands in the hands of genuine agriculturists. The Act largely followed the Bombay Act, with the result that there is similarity among several of the provisions of these two Acts. This Act recognised two categories of tenants, viz., (1) protected tenants and (2) Asamishikmis, prohibited any lease of land after three years of the commencement of the Act excepting under certain circumstances introduced the concept of "economic holding", limited the maximum rent to 1/3 of the crop or its value in the case of irrigated lands except under wells and 1/4 in the case of unirrigated land or irrigated land under wells. One important feature of the Act was the use of compulsion for the formation of Co-operative farming Societies. If an application was made to the Registrar of Co-operative Societies by any ten or more persons of a village or two or more contiguous villages holding between them fifty acres or more for the formation of a Co-operative Farming Society, the Registrar has to grant a certificate of registration after enquiry. Provision had also been made for the formation of a Co-operative farm of uneconomic holdings.

As a result of this Act, the land-holders started indulging in the large scale eviction of tenants and to put an end to this, the Hyderabad Prevention of Evictions Ordinance of 1952 was passed. During 1951-52 and 1952-53, tenancy records also were prepared to consolidate the position of protected and ordinary tenants. In order to further improve the status of tenants and to provide for the implementation of the recommendations of the Planning Commission, the Hyderabad Tenancy and Agricultural Lands Amending Act of 1954 was passed. According to this Act, instead of "the economic holding", the unit of a "family holding" was devised. The maximum limits to rent were fixed in terms of multiples of land revenue, restrictions were put to claims being made to the possession of land for personal cultivation, ceilings were put to further acquisitions of land, provisions were made to the purchase of land by tenants at reasonable rates, standards for efficient cultivation were prescribed besides introducing several other progressive features.

On the reorganisation of State and after inclusion of these territories in the Mysore State an Ordinance was issued on 11th March 1957, suspending the provisions relating to the landholder's right to terminate protected tenancy and also staying all proceedings whether for termination of tenancy or for resumption of land which were pending on 11th March 1957. Surrenders of lands were required to be verified by Tahsildars and verified in his office. The Ordinance also contained a provision that all the lands surrendered by a tenant, in excess over the extent which, along with the extent already in the holding of the landlord would make up three family holdings should be taken over by Government and leased out to Co-operative Farming Societies, Agricultural labourers, landless persons and other Agriculturists in that order. This Ordinance has been suspended by the Hyderabad and Madras Areas Tenancy (Suspension of Provisions and Amendment) Act, 1957.

In 1957, a Committee called the Mysore Tenancy Agricultural Land Laws Committee, was set up to consider the feasibility of having a common law for the new State of Mysore. The Committee made several recommendations including conferment of ownership on tenants in certain cases, restricting the powers of resumption of land by landlords, putting a ceiling on the possession of land, etc.

A land reforms bill drafted generally on the basis of the recommendations of this Committee was introduced in the Legislature in November 1958. The bill as modified by the Select Committee was passed by both the Houses of the State Legislature in 1961 and has received the President's assent also. The State Government has not yet notified the date from which this Act comes into force.

Agriculture and Irrigation

The soil of the District consist of regar or black cotton soil and masab or red soil. The regar is generally met with in the basins, valleys and hollows. While the masab is met with in the northern Taluks of Aurad and Bhalki, in the southern Taluks of Humnabad and Bidar, there is a large extent of laterite soil. The regar is derived from schistose and gneissose rock (trap) and the red soil from laterite. But both are very fertile.

The principal crops grown in the District are :

Crop	Area
Jowar Kharif ..	1,71,085 acres
Jowar Rabi ..	1,51,429 acres
Bajri ..	1,32,078 acres
Groundnut ..	34,065 acres
Gram ..	69,906 acres
Tur ..	36,089 acres
Udid (black gram) ..	89,424 acres
Wheat ..	18,836 acres
Paddy ..	35,694 acres
Sugarcane ..	11,500 acres
Cotton ..	17,163 acres

The District grows both kharif and Rabi crops. The sowing season of kharif and Rabi ranges from June to the middle of October and continues to the middle of November. There is considerable area under sugarcane mainly under well irrigation, the major portion being in Humnabad and Bidar Taluk.

For paddy and other wet crops Humnabad Taluk is the best cultivated region. For the dry crops Aurad (Santpur) and Bhalki are the best.

The agricultural department has undertaken several extension schemes to promote agriculture, chief of which are distribution of improved seeds, fertilisers, insecticides and fungisides, running of demonstration farms, holding of crop competitions oilseed development scheme, etc.

The achievements in the field of Agriculture during the first two Five Year Plan periods are :

	1956-57	1960-61
Area brought under cultivation ..	8,52,924 acres	9,46,000 acres
Improved seeds distributed ..	444 mds.	996 mds.

Area protected against pests and diseases ..	50 acres	14,625 acres
Tacavi loans advanced ..	Rs. 1,95,904	N.A.
Number of landless and other poor people granted lands ..	165	N.A.
Area of land thus granted	N.A.	8,226 acres

Note:—NA=Not available.

Most of the District being Paigah, Jahagiri, Sarf-e-khas, etc., statistics on the irrigation works are not available. The same is being worked out by the minor Irrigation Project Division.

Lift Irrigation is quite common, the water table being high. Most of the tanks are breached and their beds are under cultivation. Out of 26 tanks, 16 have been restored and the work on 7 is in progress. Construction of 8 anicuts was taken up, four of which have been completed, thereby bringing about 2,478 acres of land under irrigation. A project known as Karanja project capable of irrigating about 40,000 acres is under investigation.

There are about 7,223 irrigational wells and 25 irrigational tanks in the District. The total area under irrigation is about 19,215 acres of which nearly 18,771 acres are by wells. There are no major irrigation projects in the District.

The achievements in the field of irrigation during the first two Five Year Plans are :—

	1956-57	1960-61
Minor irrigation works—
(a) Tanks constructed and restored. ..		17
(b) Irrigation wells sunk ..		283
Loans advanced for sinking irrigation wells. ..		Rs. 1,88,429
Area brought under irrigation ..		1,543 acres.

Occupation, Manufacture and Trade

Agriculture is the main occupation of the people in the District. Due to undulated nature of the country, there is considerable difficulty in transport and as a result the District is rather backward and occupations, other than agriculture can thrive with difficulty.

There are no large scale industries in the District. There are several small scale and cottage industries. This district is famous for Bidriware. It is a style of work, which may be called "damascening" in silver. The articles commonly made are ash trays, salvers, Hukka Bowls, spittoons, cups, plates, boxes, etc. The alloy used for preparing these articles is generally Zinc and Copper, though occasionally tin is also used. Bidri work is of two kinds namely the "Teh-Nishan" in which the design is deeply cut, and the "Zar Nishan" or "Zar Buland" which rather resembles the encrusted ware of Tanjore.

About 4,000 cotton handlooms and 700 woollen handlooms are spread over in the District, the cotton handlooms being chiefly in Humnabad Taluk. More than 75 % of the handlooms have been brought under the Co-operative fold.

To overcome the difficulties faced by the small scale industries two industrial estates—one at Bidar and the other at Kalyani—have been sanctioned for the District.

The principal exports are Jowar, Cotton, Oilseeds, Chillies, etc. Weekly markets are held in different parts of District. So also there is a lot of activity in the cattle markets. The cattle and Horse fair of Malegaon is quite famous.

The diagrams on the facing page show the distribution of population among workers in 9 categories and non-worker both for the state and the district.

Communications

Bidar and Taluk town Bhalki are served by a branch line of the Central Railways running from Vikarabad to Purli Varijnath. Its length is about 40 miles within the District.

The District is lacking in good communications. There is no direct road even to connect it with the Divisional Headquarters at Gulbarga. Inter communications between the various Taluks also is not convenient. The picture of communications would fairly imprint the means of transport in vogue camels, bullocks and horses still present reminiscences of the olden days.

The total length of the roads in the District is only $239\frac{1}{4}$ miles of which, $237\frac{1}{4}$ miles in charge of the Forest Department.

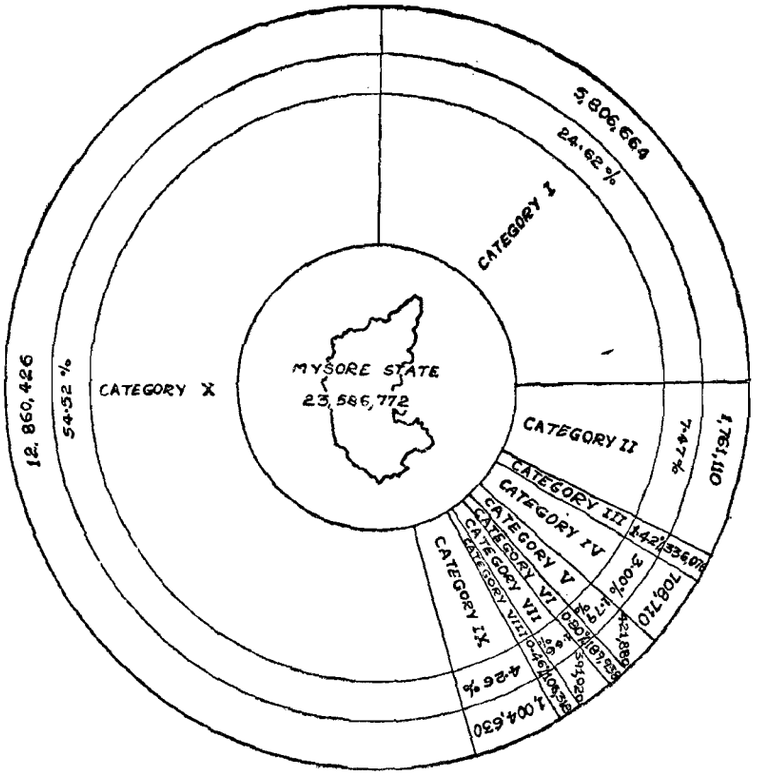

Of the total length of $237\frac{1}{4}$ miles in charge of the Public Works Department, $98\frac{3}{4}$ miles are black topped, $63\frac{1}{4}$ miles are covered with water bound mukadam and $75\frac{1}{4}$ miles consist of natural soil. Thus, hardly 174 miles length of roads can be said to be all weather roads.

$46\frac{1}{2}$ miles of the roads form the National Highways, $51\frac{3}{8}$ miles form the State Highways $130\frac{1}{4}$ miles form major District roads and $9\frac{1}{4}$ miles form other District roads.

The Poona—Sholapur—Hyderabad—Vijayawada—road (N.H. No. 9) is the only National Highway running through the District. The State Highways consist of the Zaherabad—Nanded road covering a length of $43\frac{3}{8}$ miles and the Humnabad—Gulbarga road covering 8 miles.

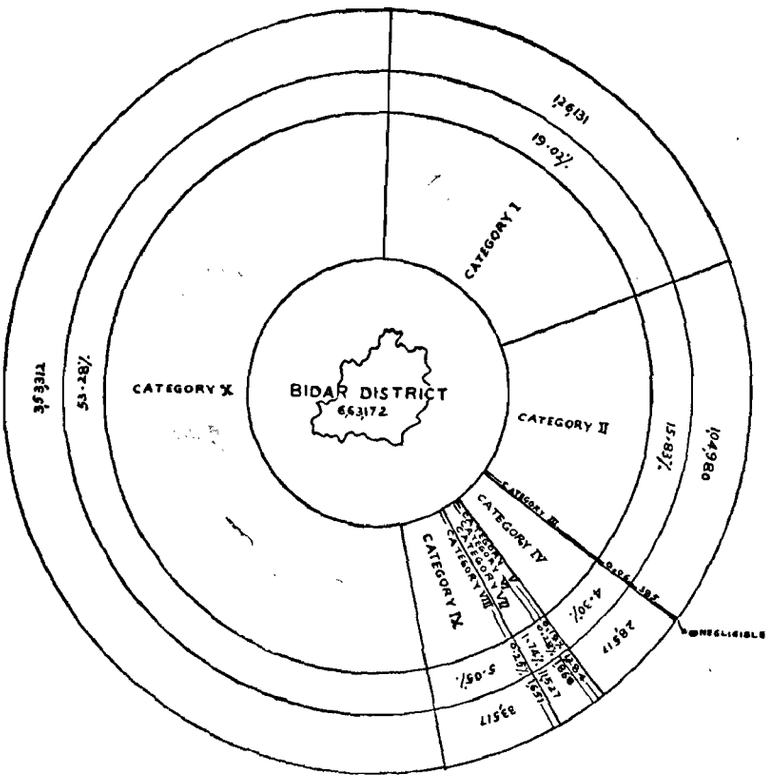

The achievements during the first two Five-Year Plan periods are :—

	1956-57	1960-61
Length of National and State Highways.	97 miles	97 miles
Tarred roads ..	60 miles	99 miles
Metalled roads ..	61 miles	52 miles

MYSORE STATE, 1961

Population classified by nature of work

BIDAR DISTRICT, 1961

Population classified by nature of work

Local Bodies

There are two city Municipalities at Bidar and Kaylani and three Town Municipalities at Humnabad, Chitaguppa and Bhalki. The total membership of all the five Municipalities is 86.

Before the enactment of the Mysore Village Panchayats and Local Bodies Act, 1959, there were 152 village Panchayats. They were constituted under the Hyderabad Village Panchayats Act, 1951 and the Hyderabad Gram Panchayats Act, 1956. With the passing of the Mysore Act of 1959, 234 Village Panchayats and one Town Panchayat have been constituted. The solitary town panchayat in the District is constituted for Dubalgundi in Humnabad Taluk. The total membership of the Panchayats in the District is 5,041 of which 474 and 536 seats are reserved for women and the Scheduled Castes respectively.

There are four Taluk Boards constituted under the Mysore Act of 1949, with a total membership of 72 of which seven and eleven seats are reserved for the women and the Scheduled Castes respectively.

Co-operation

The following figures indicate the progress achieved in the field of Co-operation during the first two Five Year Plan periods.

	1956-57	1960-61
Number of Co-operative Societies	270	365
Total Membership	15,129	35,601
Deposits hold by Societies	5,000	4,31000
Loans Issued in Rupees	1,85,000	91,50,000
Percentage of Rural Families covered.	20%	53%

As in 1962, there are 375 societies of different types classified below :

1.	District Central Co-operative Bank ..	1
2.	Agricultural Credit Societies ..	289
3.	Non-agricultural Credit Societies ..	23
4.	Land Mortgage Banks ..	4
5.	Weaver's Societies ..	7
6.	Industrial Societies ..	40
7.	Others ..	11
	Total ..	375

The District Central Co-operative Bank Limited, Bidar is the pivot for the short and medium term loans in the District. It has a membership of 380 with a share capital of Rs. 20,14,820 and reserve fund of Rs. 2,47,051. Its deposits amount to Rs. 21,15 849 and the working capital is Rs. 1,06,93,550.

From the above statement it will be seen that the bulk of the societies in the district fall under the Agricultural credit class. So it would be usfeul to know a few details about them. The particulars are :

Number of Societies ..		289
Number of Members ..		27,628
Share capital ..	Rs.	18,99,113
Loans advanced ..	Rs.	59,27,885
Loans recovered ..	Rs.	64,59,231
Loans outstanding ..	Rs.	80,13,533
Working capital ..	Rs.	1,05,39,918

Administration, Law and Order

Bidar being a small District under a Deputy Commissioner, with only four Taluks namely Humnabad, Bidar, Aurad and Bhalki, has only one revenue subdivision with Bidar as Headquarters. Each Taluk is incharge of a Tahsildar. There are 617 villages in the District, the talukwise distribution being as follows :

Name of Taluk	No. of Villages
Humnabad ..	141
Bidar ..	169
Bhalki ..	158
Aurad (Santpur) ..	149
Total ..	617

The Taluks have been further sub-divided into circles (Revenue) with a Revenue Inspector in charge of each circle. There are in all 15 such circles, 4 each in Humnabad, Bidar and Bhalki and three in Aurad.

For enforcement of Law and Order, the District is placed under one Superintendent of Police, with a Deputy Superintendent under him. The District is divided into 5 circles. The strength of the police force in other ranks is 23 Sub-Inspectors 95 Head Constables, and 544 Police Constables. There is 1 Police Constable for every 817 people or 1 Police Constable for every 3 square miles. There are 15 Police Stations and 4 outposts.

There is a central recruiting school engaged in the training of Police constables which can handle 1,000 recruits at a time. One company of the Mysore State Reserve Police is sanctioned at Bidar in the C.R.S. Camp.

Houses and Households

The villages in the district consist of either (1) linear cluster or assemblage with a regular open space or straight street provided between parallel rows of houses or (2) square or rectangular cluster or agglomerate with straight streets running parallel or at right angles to one another. The houses have generally a rectangular ground plan with flat roof. The home of the common cultivator consists of three or four small rooms, the walls being of mud and the roof thatched or mudplastered and the rooms being built round a courtyard.

According to the Census of India, 1961, the total number of houses and households is 1,16,397 and 1,18,486 respectively. This gives an average of 56 houses and 57 households per square mile. The average number of inmates comes to 5.69 per house.

The following table gives the Talukwise distribution of houses, households and population.

PART II

CENSUS TABLES AND VILLAGE DIRECTORY

EXPLANATORY NOTE TO CENSUS TABLES

The information collected at the time of house-listing and enumeration for the 1961 census, has been extensively analysed and the data has been reduced to nine series of tables as follows :

(i) A Series	..	General Population tables
(ii) B(i) Series	..	General Economic tables
(iii) B(ii) Series	..	Household Economic tables
(iv) C Series	..	Social and Cultural tables
(v) D Series	..	Migration tables
(vi) E Series	..	Housing and Establishment tables.
(vii) S.C.T. Series		Special tables for the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled tribes.
(viii) S.C. Series	..	Special tables for the Scheduled Castes only.

2. The total number of tables found in all the above Series excluding D series is 55 and they are presented in the various volumes of the Mysore Census Tables. This information being voluminous, it has not been possible to incorporate it in toto in the District Census Handbook. However, some of this data which has been presented up to the District level in the state volumes has been reproduced here by further breaking it down to the taluk level. This has been possible in the case of rural areas only as the urban figures have been compiled for the District as a whole. The D series tables have not been presented in the District census hand book.

3. The material presented here excepting in E series of tables relates to the 1st of March 1961, which was the reference date for the 1961 Census. The information in E series tables refers to the August-September 1960 period.

4. Before giving brief notes on the tables in this part, so as to facilitate their study, it is necessary to know the concepts and definitions of some of the general terms used. Concepts and definitions of other particular terms will appear at the beginning of each series where those terms first appear.

5. For census purposes :

(i) A ' Census House ' is defined to be a structure or a part of a structure inhabited or vacant, or used for non-residential purposes such as place of business workshop, school, etc., having a separate entrance.

(ii) A ' Census Household ' is defined to be a group of persons who commonly live together in the same census house and who would take their meals from a common kitchen unless exigencies of work prevented any of them from doing so.

(iii) ' Houseless Persons ', as the name itself indicates are those persons who at the time of enumeration were not found residing in houses. Persons like pavement dwellers, beggers without any house to live in were grouped under the category of Houseless Persons.

(iv) 'Institutional Population': Hospitals, Boarding Homes, Hostels, Jails and such other agencies which provide boarding, lodging and similar facilities have been termed " Institutions". All people who were enumerated in these institutions are brought under Institutional Population.

(v) ' Literacy and Education ' ; All persons who were able to read and understand, any simple letter in any language either in print or in manuscript and to write simple letter are considered ' Literate ' for census purposes. If any addition to being able to read and write, any person has passed an examination or examinations as proof of an educational level attained, the highest examination passed was recorded in the enumeration slip.

(vi) " Non-workers " are persons who do not work in the sense explained in para 5 (xii) infra and include

(a) a full time student or child attending school who does no other work, such as making articles at home for sale, nor even helps part-time in his own family cultivation, industry, trade or business ;

(b) a person solely engaged in unpaid home duties like housewives, etc. ;

(c) a dependant including an infant or child not attending school, a person permanently disabled from work because of illness or old age ;

(d) a retired person who is not employed again, renter, person living on agricultural or non-agricultural royalty, rent or dividend or any other person of independent means for securing which he does not have to work or who does no other work ;

(e) a beggar, vagrant or independent woman without indication of source of income and others of unspecified source of existence ;

(f) a convict in jail (an undertrial prisoner has been shown as a worker if he used to work before he was apprehended) or an inmate of a penal, mental or charitable institution ;

(g) a person who was not employed before but was seeking employment for the first time ;

(h) a person who was employed before but was out of employment at the time of enumeration and was then seeking employment.

(vii) " Occupied Residential House " is a dwelling house and also includes a house used partly as a dwelling and partly for some other purpose like shop, workshop, factory etc., but does not include a vacant residential house where no person was found to be residing at the time of the Census.

(viii) " Scheduled Castes " are such castes, races or tribes or parts of groups within such castes, races or tribes as are declared to be Scheduled castes, by the President's orders issued under article 341 of the Constitution of India.

(ix) " Scheduled tribes " are such tribes or tribal communities or parts of groups within such tribes or tribal communities as are declared to be scheduled tribes by the President's orders issued under article 342 of the Constitution of India.

(x) "Town or an 'Urban Area'". For the first time in the 1961 Census, uniform and somewhat rigid tests were sought to be applied throughout the country for an area to be recognised as an urban unit. The criteria prescribed are :

(A) All Municipalities, Cantonments, notified areas and other places enjoying recognised local administration like Civil lines have been treated automatically as towns.

(B) For other areas, the eligibility yardsticks applied are :

(a) a population of not less than 5,000,

(b) a density of not less than 1,000 persons per square mile and

(c) at least three fourths of the adult male population should be employed in pursuits other than agriculture.

The Superintendents of Census Operations were empowered to treat as towns any other places, which while not fulfilling any of the above conditions, possessed pronounced urban characterstics and amenities.

(xi) A " Town Group " covers an area which actually forms one demographic unit though it may be administered by more than one civic body and has been treated as a single unit for presenting the census statistics on account of demographic, economic, industrial or geographical unity.

(xii) " Worker " : A person who is gainfully employed in any economic or social activity is taken as a worker. But he has to satisfy a minimum criterion if he is to be called a " Worker " for census purposes. In the case of regular employment in any trade, profession, service, business or commerce, the basis of work will be satisfied if the person was employed during any of the fifteen days preceding the person's enumeration. However, a person who is working, but was absent from the work during the fifteen days preceding the day on which enumerated or even exceeding the period of fifteen days due to illness or other causes was treated as " worker ". The basis of work in the seasonal occupations such as cultivation, livestock, dairying, Household industry, etc., is that the person should have had some regular work of more than an hour a day, throughout the greater part of the working season. " Work " includes in either case, not only actual work but effective supervision and direction of work. Persons under training as apprentices with or without stipend or wages have been regarded as working. A public or social worker who is actively engaged in public service activity or a political worker who is also actively engaged in furthering the political activity of his party has been regarded as working.

(xiii) A " Village " has been defined as the area included within the jurisdiction of a revenue village and as such is inclusive of even scattered hamlets and isolated home-steads coming within the boundaries of a revenue village.

A Series

GENERAL POPULATION TABLES

6. In this series, there are four tables with three appendices. They comprise the basic population tables being useful in the study of the variation of population, sex ratios, distribution by size of villages or towns and trends of urbanisation in the District.

Table A-I

7. This table presents area, density of population, number of inhabited and uninhabited villages, number of towns, number of occupied residential houses, sex-wise population totals, etc., for the rural and urban areas separately.

Appendix I

8. This indicates the territorial changes which have taken place during the decade 1951-1961.

Appendix II

9. This shows the number of villages which have not been treated as towns inspite of a population of 5,000 or over and the number of towns which have been classed as towns inspite of a population of less than 5,000. Columns (4) and (7) show the percentage of population of such areas to the respective rural or urban population of the state.

Appendix III

10. This gives the houseless and institutional population in the rural and urban areas separately. The houseless persons were enumerated on the night of 28th February 1961.

Table A-II

11. This table presents the variation in the population of the District and the Taluk from 1901 for each decade. The figures for the earlier censuses have been adjusted to the boundaries of the District and the Taluks as obtained in 1961.

Table A-III

12. This table pertaining to rural areas only gives for the district and each Taluk the distribution of villages classified by the following six population size groups, viz., (i) less than 200, (ii) 200-499, (iii) 500-999, (iv) 1,000-1,999, (v) 2,000-4,999, (vi) 5,000-9,999. All places with a population of 10,000 or more have come under towns.

Table A-IV

13. Like the villages in table A-III towns have been classified here into six categories according to the population as follows :

(i) Class I	..	Population of 100,000 and over
(ii) Class II	..	Population of 50,000—99,999
(iii) Class III	..	Population of 20,000—49,999
(iv) Class IV	..	Population of 10,000—19,999
(v) Class V	..	Population of 5,000—9,999
(vi) Class VI	..	Population less than 5,000

14. Town groups have been treated as a single town in obtaining the class totals. The class totals give the total population of the towns/town-groups in that class in that census, The population of such of the places as are treated as towns in one or more of the earlier censuses but are treated as rural for the 1961 census has also been taken into account when obtaining the class totals, even though such places are not brought in the body of the table. This table dealing exclusively with urban areas gives a true picture of the urbanisation in the District.

PRIMARY CENSUS ABSTRACT

15. This table, as the name itself denotes, provides an abstract of primary information relating to the census, covering a wide range of data such as the area, number of houses and households, sex-wise totals of population, population of Scheduled castes and Scheduled tribes, number of literates, number of workers and non-workers, workers being further classified under nine categories of economic activity. The information given here is for the District and Taluks each for total, rural and urban areas separately. Details for each village and town are presented elsewhere.

16. The workers are classified in the following nine categories of economic activity

I. As Cultivator
II. As Agricultural Labourer
III. In mining, quarrying, Livestock, Forestry, Fishing, Hunting, Plantations, Orchards and allied activities.
IV. At Household industry
V. In manufacturing other than Household Industry.
VI. In construction

VII. In Trade and Commerce
VIII. In Transport, storage and Communications
IX. In other services.

Category I

17. " A Cultivator " is a person who is engaged either as employer, single worker or family worker in (a) cultivation of land or supervision or direction of cultivation of land owned or held from Government or (b) cultivation of land or supervision or direction of cultivation of land held from private persons or institutions for payment in money, kind or share.

Category II

18. " An Agricultural Labourers " is a person who works in another person's land only as a labourer without exercising any supervision or direction in cultivation.

Category III

19. Workers engaged in mining, quarrying, livestock, forestry, fishing, hunting, plantations, orchards and allied activities.

Category IV

20. A " Household Industry " is defined as an industry conducted by the Head of the household himself and/or mainly members of the household at home or within the village in rural areas and only at home in urban areas. The industry should not be run on the scale of a registered factory

21. Household Industries relate to production, processing, servicing, repairing or making and selling of goods. They do not cover such professions as Pleader, Doctor, Barber, Washerman or Astrologer, etc. All persons engaged in household industries have been brought under this category.

Category V

22. Workers in " manufacturing other than household Industry " are persons who are working as Employers, Employees, single workers or family workers in activities connected with the production, processing, servicing or repairing of goods in factories, workshops or other similar establishments, which do not qualify to be included under Household industries as defined in the previous paragraph have been brought under this category.

Category VI

23. Workers in Construction : Persons who are engaged in Construction, maintenance, upkeep, repairs and similar occupations of buildings, roads, bridges, dams, Canals and construction of electrical, water supply and sanitary installations, etc., are brought under this category.

Category VII

24. Workers in Trade and Commerce : Persons engaged in wholesale or retail trade in goods, or dealing with Insurance, Stocks, Shares or employed in Banking and Financial Institutions have been classified as workers in trade and commerce.

Category VIII

25. Workers in Transport, storage and communication activities : Persons employed in Railway, Road Transport, Post and Telegraph and other agencies have been brought under this category.

Category IX

26. Workers in " Other services ". This is the last category of workers which comprises employees of Central and State Governments, local bodies, Quasi-governmental bodies and those engaged in educational and scientific services, medical and health services, Religious and welfare services, legal services, business services, community services and trade and labour associations, Recreation services, personal services, and other miscellaneous activities not covered by any of the categories listed above.

B SERIES

(i) GENERAL ECONOMIC TABLES

27. These tables give the distribution of population by economic activity correllated with sex, age and educational levels. Based on Economic activity the entire population is first classified into two broad groups, viz., workers and non-workers and the workers are then classified in nine broad categories of economic activity. An elaborate classification by industry under the standard industrial classification scheme is presented in tables B-IV A, B and C and by occupation under the National Occupational Classification in table B-V. Classification of workers by secondary work is also presented in tables B-VII A and B-VII B.

28. The 1951 Census reports were prepared on the concept of dependency by first classifying the population into eight livelihood classes and then by further dividing each class with reference to economic status into (i) self supporting persons, (ii) earning dependents and (iii) non-earning dependents.

But now this concept has been abandoned and instead the population is classified into workers and non-workers, the emphasis being on work and not on income or economic dependence. These two terms, viz., workers and non-workers, have been defined in paras 5 (xii) and 5 (vi) respectively.

29. Classification of workers doing two or more different types of work has been done on the basis of this principal work that is, the work which consumes larger portion of their time and not necessarily the work which earns larger portion of their income.

Table B-I and B-II

30. This combined table gives the composition of workers in the nine industrial categories and non-workers by four broad age groups and also according to sex. The material is presented for the District, Taluks and towns.

Table B-III

31. This table is presented in two parts, B-III A and B-III B, the former presenting the data for the urban areas of the District as a whole and the latter for the rural areas of each Taluk. These tables give the distribution of workers in 9 industrial categories and non-workers by educational levels, the educational levels being presented in an abridged form when dealing with rural areas.

Industrial classification

32. Before we proceed further, it is quite necessary to know the implications of certain terms and codes used in describing each group of industry in the tables.

33. In these tables, the economic activity of workers other than cultivators, and Agricultural labourers has been coded according to the pattern available in the Standard Industrial Classification issued by the Ministry of Labour and Employment, Government of India. According to this classification all economic activities have been grouped under 9 divisions which are divided into 45 major groups and further subdivided into 343 minor groups. The actual description of the divisions, the major groups and the minor groups of the industrial classification is given in annexure A. The minor groups refer to the industry of the workers which signifies that sector of the economic activity in which the worker is engaged, such as textile industry, automobile industry, etc.

The term " industry " should not be confused with the word " occupation ". The latter describes the exact function that an individual performs within the industry such as fitter in automobile workshop, clerk in the Railway Department, etc.

34. An " Employer " is a person who has to employ other persons in order to perform his work 'that is, he is not only responsible for his own personal work but also for giving work to others in his industry. But a person who employs domestic servant solely for household duties is not an employer. So also a person who has subordinates under him in his office where he is employed by others, is not an employer, even if he has the power to employ others in his office on behalf of his own employers.

35. An " Employee " is a person who usually works under some other person for salary or wages in cash or kind.

36. A " single worker " is a person who works by himself but not as Head of Household in a Household Industry. He is not employed by anyone else and in his turn does not employ anybody else not even members of his household except casually. This difinition of a single worker also includes a person who works in joint partnership with one or several persons hiring no employees and also a member of a producers' co-operative. Each one of the partners or members of such co-operatives has been deemed to be a single worker.

37. A " family worker " is a member who works without receiving wages in cash or kind in an industry, business or trade conducted mainly by the members of the family and ordinarily does at least one hour of work every day during the working season.

Table B-IV

38. Table B IV is presented in three parts. Part A relates to workers engaged in Household Industries, Part B relates to workers engaged in non-household industry, trade, business, profession or service and part C is the combination of the earlier two parts giving the total number of workers engaged in household as well as non-household industry, trade, business, profession or service. While Part A and B deal with the employment status of workers by major groups of standard Industrial classification (Annexure A) Part C deals with the total number of workers by minor groups of standard industrial classification (Annexure A). It is worth noting that in all these three parts, cultivators and Agricultural labourers are not included.

39. Tables B-V and B-VI show the distribution of workers by occupation (vide para 33 above) according to the National Occupational Classification scheme which is reproduced as Annexure B to this note.

Table B-V

40. In this table the occupational classification of workers in each of the categories III to IX has been presented. For the District as a whole and for the urban areas of the District, the information is given for all the occupational families and for rural areas which are presented at the District and Taluk levels, the figures are given for each occupational Division only.

Table B-VI

41. This table, restricted to urban areas only, gives the distribution of workers by occupational Divisions and Broad age groups.

Table B-VII

42. This table is presented in two parts. Part A deals with persons working principally (i) as cultivators, (ii) as agricultural labourers or (iii) at Household industry classified by sex and with secondary work, (i) at Household industry, (ii) as cultivators and (iii) as agricultural labourers. Part B gives the classification of persons working principally in non-household industry, trade, business, profession or service and secondarily in household industry. In the case of a worker engaged in two or more kinds of work, the one which consumes larger portion of his time (not necessarily earning a larger portion of his income) is treated as his principal work, and another consuming second larger portion of his time is shown as his secondary work. As in many of the earlier tables, the figures for the rural areas are presented for each Taluk and each Industrial Division while those given at the District level are presented separately for rural and urban areas, and also for the District as a whole, for each Industrial Division and major group.

Table B-VIII

43. This table is presented in two parts. Part A deals with urban areas and Part B with rural areas. Part A which gives figures for all the urban areas of the District gives the classification of the unemployed aged 15 and over by broad age groups and educational levels. Part B which presents information at the District and Taluk levels gives the classification of the unemployed aged 15 or over, by educational levels (in an abridged form).

Table B-IX

44. This table deals with the distribution of non-workers by broad age groups and the eight types of activity mentioned in sub-para (vi) of para 5 above. At the District level, figures are given for the whole District under total separately for Rural and also urban areas. At the Taluk level the figures are given for rural areas only.

(ii) HOUSEHOLD ECONOMIC TABLES

45. The tables presented in this series, have been prepared from a twenty per cent sample of Households. Unlike the Economic tables BI to B IX the information contained in this series has been compiled with the household and not the individual as the unit.

Table B-X

46. This table presents distribution of sample households under the following heads :

(i) Households engaged neither in cultivation nor in household industry.

(ii) Households engaged in cultivation only.

(iii) Households engaged in Household industry only and

(iv) Households engaged both in cultivation and Household industry.

In this table also at the District level, figures are given for the whole District under total, separately for Rural and also Urban areas. At the Taluk level the figures are given for rural areas only.

Table B-XI

47. This presents the distribution of sample Households, engaged in cultivation classified by size of land and interest in land cultivated. The interests in land have been exhibited under the following three broad categories :

(i) Entirely owned or held from Government.

(ii) Entirely held from private persons or institutions for payment in money, kind or share.

(iii) Partly held from Government and partly from private persons for payment in money, kind or share.

For urban areas the material is presented up to the District level and for rural areas up to the District and Taluk levels.

Table B-XII

48. This is prepared in respect of sample households engaged in cultivation only. The size of land held by the households is cross-tabulated against the number of hired and family workers. The material is presented for the District for total, rural, and urban areas separately and only for the rural areas of each Taluk.

Table B-XIII

49. This table has been prepared in respect of sample households engaged both in cultivation and Household industry. The details of the Household Industry have been presented by the Divisions and major groups of the Standard Industrial Classification (Annexure A). The material is presented in this table for rural and urban areas of the District separately.

Table B-XIV

50. This table presented in two parts, deals with the sample households engaged in Household Industries only. In Part A, tabulation of households classified by major groups (Annexure A) of principal household Industries and the number of persons engaged is made and Part B gives the number of Households engaged in Household Industry classified by minor groups (Annexure C) of principal Household Industry. The information is given for the district as a whole.

Table B-XV

51. This table shows the distribution of sample households engaged both in cultivation and Household Industry calssified by size of land, number of family workers and hired workers engaged in these activities. As usual, the District figures presented here are for total, rural and urban areas separeatly, while the Taluk figures relate to rural areas only.

Table B-XVI

52. This table deals with sample Households engaged in Household Industry. The principal industry conducted by the Household by division and major group (Annexure A) has been tabulated against the period of working and the total number of workers engaged in the household industry. This is up to the District level only.

Table B-XVII

53. In this table the sample households have been classified by size and participation of the members of the household in household cultivation or industry. In the case of households engaged in cultivation, the size of land under cultivation has also been tabulated against the size of sample households.

C Series

SOCIAL AND CULTURAL TABLES

54. These tables deal with social or cultural aspects like sizes and composition of households, age, marital status, literacy and education, language, religion, Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribes. Table C-I has been prepared from a 20 per cent sample of households and as such relates to households. The other tables in this series are prepared on a cent per cent check and they relate to individuals and not households.

Table C-I

55. This table gives the family composition of households and has been presented at the District level only.

Table C-II

56. This table presents distribution of population by age, sex and marital status. Classification of age between 10 and 70 years is by five year age groups. The entire population in 0-9 years age group has been treated as never married. At the District level, figures are given for the District under total, separately for Rural and also Urban areas. At the Taluk level the figures are given for rural areas only.

Table C-III

57. This table presented in three parts, gives a picture of literacy in the total population as well as in the different age groups. Part A which is presented for the total population of the District and Part C which is presented for the rural population of the District and Taluks have only 4 educational levels. Part B which relates to urban population of the District, however, has 14 educational levels.

Table C-V

58. This table is on mother tongue. At the District level figures are given for the whole District under Total separately for Rural and also Urban areas. At the Taluk level the figures are given for rural areas only.

Table C-VII

59. This table presents distributions of population by Religion. At the District level figures are given for the whole District under total separately for Rural and also Urban areas. At the Taluk level the figures are given for rural areas only.

Table C-VIII

60. This table is presented in 2 parts. Part A gives the total population of Scheduled Castes classified by literacy and by economic activity. Part B gives similar information in respect of Scheduled Tribes. At the District level figures are given for the District under total separately for Rural and also Urban areas. At the Taluk level the figures are given for rural areas only.

Special Tables for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes.

SCT.—Series

SPECIAL TABLES FOR SCHEDULED CASTES AND TRIBES

61. These special tables have been prepared to furnish data on the present socio-economic conditions of these people to be studied not only as a combined group as in 1951 but also for each scheduled caste and Scheduled tribe separately. Classification by caste and Tribes is on the basis of returns recorded in response to the questions in the census questionaire at the time of enumeration. Table SCT. V has been prepared for the households of Scheduled castes and Scheduled tribes occuring in the 20 per cent sample drawn for preparing the Household Economic tables (B series).

Table SCT-I

62. This table consists of two parts. Part A which relates to Scheduled castes gives the distribution of persons belonging to each of the Scheduled castes according to their economic activity. It also gives the number of workers engaged in special occupations such as tanning and currying of hides and skins, scavenging, etc. Part B gives similar information for the Scheduled tribes but does not include information on special occupations. This table is prepared separately for the urban and rural areas.

Table SCT-II

63. This table presented in two parts—Part A for Scheduled castes and Part B for Scheduled tribes—gives the marital status under three broad Age groups. This is presented for the District as a whole.

Table SCT-III

64. This table is presented in two parts, each part having in turn two sub parts. Parts A(i) and B(i) give the figures on the educational levels of persons belonging to each of the Schedule castes in the urban and rural areas respectively. Similar information for the Scheduled tribes is presented in tables A (ii) and B (ii). The classification by educational levels is somewhat reduced in the case of rural areas.

Table SCT-IV

65. This table presented in two Parts-Part A for Scheduled castes and Part B for Scheduled tribes-gives the classification of persons according to religion.

Table SCT-V

66. This table prepared from the Scheduled castes and Scheduled tribe households found in the 20 per cent sample is in two Parts. Part A relates to Scheduled Castes and Part B to Scheduled tribes. This table gives the formation regarding the sampled households engaged in cultivation classified by the interest in land and size of the land cultivated. This table has been prepared for the rural areas of the District only.

Table SC-I

67. In this table the total non-working population of all the Scheduled castes as a group is distributed among the following four groups based on the activity :

(i) Full time Students.

(ii) Persons seeking employment for the first time.

(iii) Persons employed before but now out of employment and seeking work ; and

(iv) Others.

Each group is further classified by educational levels. At the District level the figures are given for the District under total separately for Rural and also Urban areas. At the Taluk level the figures are given for rural areas only.

ST. SERIES—Special tabler for Scheduled Tribes only.

68. There are two tabler in this series. At the District level figure are given only for total. At the Taluk level the figures are given for Rural Areas only.

Table ST-I

69. This table presents the distribution of population of each Scheduled tribe by mother tongue and the subsidiary languages spoken.

Table ST-II

70. In this table, the total non-working population of each Scheduled tribe has been distributed among the following four groups, based on activity :

(i) Full-time students ;

(ii) Persons seeking employment for the first time ;

(iii) Persons employed before but now out of employment and seeking work ; and

(iv) Others.

E.—Series

HOUSING TABLES

71. There are five tables in this series, compiled from the information recorded in the Houselists prepared in 1960. Tables E-I and E-III have been done on full count and the other three tables namely E-II, E-IV and E-V have been for a systematic sample containing 20 per cent of the households.

Table E-I

72. This table presents the distribution of houses classified by uses to which they are put to in the rural and urban areas of the District and Taluk separately. (The figures for towns with a population of 50,000 and over have also been presented separately under the taluk concerned).

Table E-II

73. This table presents the distribution of sample Households by the tenure of houses occupied by them. Tenure here is of only two kinds, owned or rented. Thus only houses over which the occupant has got full and absolute rights of ownership, disposal either as an individual or as a coparcener, have been treated as owned houses. All other houses have been treated as rented. The houses occupied under each tenure are further classified by the nature of uses. Tenure of occupation of non-residential houses such as schools, hospitals etc., is not shown.

Table E-III

74. In this important table, all industrial activities coming under workshops and factories have been shown, giving details of the products manufactured or serviced, Kind of fuel or power used, number of persons employed etc. This table is presented for the District only, giving the figures separately for Rural and Urban areas and also for towns with a population of 50,000 or more. The industrial activity is classified by Division, Major Group and Minor Group as per I.S.I.C.

Table E-IV

75. This table presents distribution of sample houses used wholly or partly as dwellings by material of wall and material of roof. The material of the wall is the material out of which most of the walls of the house are constructed. Similarly the material of roof is one of which most of the roof exposed to weather is constructed. The figures presented here relate to rural and urban areas of the district and Taluk separately and also for towns with a population of 50,000 and more.

Table E-V

76. This table compiled on a 20 per cent Sample Count gives an idea of the degree of congestion in households and rooms. A " room " has four walls with a door and a roof overhead and is not less than 6'X6' unenclosed verandah, Kitchen, store, garage, cattleshed, etc., though used for residential purposes are not treated as rooms.

B IV PART-C—INDUSTRIAL CLASSIFICATION BY SEX AND DIVISIONS, MAJOR GROUPS AND MINOR GROUPS OF PERSONS AT WORK OTHER THAN CULTIVATION

Note :—Minor groups having less than 1% of workers the respective (Less than 0·5% in case of Divisions 2 & 3) have not been shown in the Table. The divisions thus affected are marked with an asterisk (*). Such minor groups are shown run-on in Appendix to this Table. It may be further noted that lines with nil entries have been omitted from this Table.

B-V—OCCUPATIONAL CLASSIFICATION BY SEX OF PERSONS AT WORK OTHER THAN CULTIVATION

Note:—Occupational Families having less than 1 per cent of workers in the respective occupational Division in the case of Divisions other than 7 & 8, and less than 0.5 per cent in the case of Division 7 & 8 are not exhibited in this Table. Figures for such Families have been shown in run-on lines in the Appendix to this table. The Divisions thus affected are marked with an asterisk (*).

VILLAGE DIRECTORY

VILLAGE DIRECTORY

Explanatory Note

The Village Directory prepared Talukwise, for the whole District besides giving the population figures recorded in the 1961 Census for each village and place treated as a town, incorporates much other useful information like the area, number of occupied houses, number of households, break up of the population by sex, scheduled castes, scheduled tribes, literacy, workers in the 9 categories, non-workers, etc. In column 2, the amenities found in each village have also been indicated by using abbreviations.

2. Expressions like ' Village ', ' Town ', ' Literate ', ' Scheduled Caste ', ' Scheduled Tribe', ' Worker', and ' Non Worker ', etc., have been defined and a detailed description of the industrial categories, given in the explanatory note to the census tables, particularly paras 5, and 16 to 26 of that note.

3. The figures for towns are presented below the rural areas of the Taluk concerned, the information being given blockwise. The blocks are grouped by Municipal Wards or Divisions wherever possible.

4. The villages are presented in the order in which location code numbers were assigned to them for the 1961 Census. However, to facilitate easy location of the villages, an alphabetically arranged list of villages giving the location code number is given before the Village Directory for each Taluk. Total, Rural, Urban and List of industrial establishments for each taluk, is also presented with the abstract for the District at the end of this Section. Figures given in the brackets indicate the numbers of Establishments under the minor group, the code number of which precedes the brackets.

5. In the Taluk map, the villages are denoted by their 1961 Census location code numbers. The map is also divided into convenient squares such as A—1, B—1, A—2, B—2, etc., and the location of any village can be traced in the map, by reference to the alphabetical index to the villages, wherein its location code number and the particular square in which it lies in the map have also been indicated.

6. Information regarding the amenities in each village and the area of each village has been obtained from the Revenue authorities.

The following abbreviations have been used in the Village Directory :—

CULTURAL HERITAGE OF KARNATAKA

CULTURAL HERITAGE OF KARNATAKA

KARNATAKA has had a long and glorious past. Its antiquity is traced even to the Vedas and other scriptures. A Kannada alphabet has been read even into the pictographic representations of Mohenjodaro. The excavations at Chandravalli, Maski, Brahmagiri, Konnur and several other places have proved that Karnataka is rich in prehistory of thousands of years having attained a high status even then. Being an integral part of India, Karnataka has contributed to the moving pageant of Indian culture as a whole, and, as such it has a significant place in the annals of India, both historical and cultural. So a peep into the cultural heritage of Karnataka is worth taking. However, it should never be imagined that the culture of Karnataka is in any way distinct from that of the other parts of India. It only forms a part of it and contributes towards the richness of the Indian culture as a whole.

The scope of the survey now undertaken being limited, it is not possible to fully touch upon all the ancient glories of this land. However, an attempt has been made to take a broad survey in the fields of Religion and Philosophy; Art,- Architecture and Music; Painting and allied arts, Literature and Journalism.

By no stretch of imagination can this attempt claim to have any originality as the material has been collected from the works of several scholars and research workers. The only idea of presenting this with the Census Report is to keep the common man apprised of his and his country's heritage and also to give him a stimulus to engage himself in the field of research and study of the unexplored sources of the cultural and historical background.

1. Religion and Philosophy

Karnataka is predominantly a land of Religion and Philosophy. Its religious history is varied, the remarkable feature being that from even prechristian era, the doors of Karnataka have been kept open not only to all the great religions of India but also other parts of the world, besides the religions which sprang up on its own soil.

When the Aryans came to settle down in South India, they followed the Vedic religion of sacrifice, modified by the later school of devotion to God Siva or Vishnu. Side by side, the Dravidian form of worship of the Cobra, Spirits and trees were also prevalent. The worship of 'Shakti' in the form of several female deities with their animal sacrifices also appears to have been prevalent then.

Under the above conditions Jainism and Buddhism with the gospel of 'Ahimsa' came to Karnataka. Of the two, Jainism appears to have been the first to come (some scholars hold the view that Buddhism was the first to come) with the Mauryan Emperor Chandragupta and his spiritual guide Bhadra Bahu in about 300 B.C. and it has lasted longer. Jainism spread from its spiritual centres at Sravan Belagola, Karkala, Koppala, etc. Its principles of Ahimsa and of spiritual self-reliance had a special appeal.

Buddhism had its influence during the days of King Ashoka when it secured a large number of converts mostly in Banavasi and round about areas. But Jainism had already struck deep roots and so it could not be supplanted by a religion which to the common man, was not very much different.

The rise of Shankaracharya in the 8th century was a good augury for Brahminism and Vedic culture. He established 4 principal Mutts, perhaps the earliest and most famous being the Matha of Sringeri. The philosophy propounded by Shankara is styled as Advaita, the philosophy of absolute Monism. By him interpretation of Brahman Shankara opposed the 'Negative void' doctrine of heterodox philosopher.

Second of the triad of "three great Acharyas" was Ramanujacharya (11th century) who though hailing from Tamil Nad spent his years of enlightenment in Karnataka. His system goes by the name of Visishtadvaita or qualified Monism. The doctrine of Ramanuja gave great prominence to the Bhakti cult.

The third Acharya was Madhwa born in 1238 near Udipi. He taught the Dvaita doctrine, the doctrine characterised by unqualified dualism and devotion to Vishnu. He founded eight pontifical seats at Udipi for the worship of Krishna, whose temple also he erected.

About the middle of the 12th century a great revolution took place in North Karnataka when Basava of Bagewadi revived the Veerasaiva faith. Though Basava is considered to be the main founder of this faith by some, some believe that Ekanta Ramayya was the founder. Some others believe the pancha-charyas, viz., Ekorama, Panditaradhya, Revana and Marula and Vishvaradhya founded this system. Doing away with the sacredotal side of religion, Basava, reduced it to simple rules of conduct. The religious climate of those days was surcharged with devotion and mysticism. He gave stimulus to the school of devotion to Shiva and built up the Veerasaiva institution of Anubhava Mantapa in Kalyana, the capital of King Bijjala of the Kalachurya house.

Like the Veerasaiva mysticism, the 'Dasakuta' established by Naraharithirtha and Shripadaraya and which held sway for about 200 years, is indigenous to the soil of Karnataka. The famous Dasas like Purandharadasa and Kanakadasa spread the message of Dasakuta, which is based on the impermanence of this worldly existence, devotion and complete dedication to Vishnu, and sound moral principles in human dealings. Both these schools of mysticism though employing different modes, have preached the same principles of ethics through the path of devotion or 'Bhakti'.

Islam was introduced into Karnataka in the 14th century, though it had entered the western coast earlier. In South India, it was only in Karnataka that this religion had first taken some root and flourished.

Christianity started to exert its real influence from 17th century onwards, gathering a momentum in 19th century, even though the earliest Christian settlement appears to have been at Kalyanpur near Udipi, where it is said a Christian Bishop used to reside much earlier.

This brief survey shows that Karnataka has been either the birth place or a nursery for several faiths. All the faiths of Karnataka had their royal patronage from time to time. But there is ample evidence to show that wide and sympathetic toleration for the various faiths was the general characteristic of all times. Even to this day, there are several shrines worshipped both by Hindus and Muslims, e.g., Yamanur in Dharwar District and Baba Budangiri in Chikmagalur.

2. Art, Architecture and Engineering

Karnataka has created a unique position for itself in the field of art and architecture. The aesthetic traditions and culture of Historical Karnataka have been brilliant. Their love of the beautiful has found expression in many forms of art. One peculiarity of the art of Kannadigas has been that generally it has been made to subserve the highest ends of life, as found in their philosophy and religion.

Considering architecture and sculpture, Karnataka has made a great contribution not only to Indian art but to the art of the world. Its styles of architecture and sculpture have been original and also present a variety. As historically Karnataka was ruled both by Hindu and Muslim dynasties, we find architecture of both the styles. Geographically too, Karnataka is situated between the Northern and extreme Southern parts of India. If we find in the North, Indo-Aryan style of architecture, in the South we have the Dravidian school of architecture. Karnataka has imbibed the best of these two styles of architecture and has introduced an architectural style of its own.

The Karnataka architecture can be divided into the following groups, i.e., Kadamba, Chalukya, Hoysala Vijayanagara, Buddhist, Ganga and Mahommedan respectively. Though in the very early period there might have been a few temples like that of Banavasi, it appears that the architecture of Karnataka really began with the Buddhist Chaityas, Viharas and rock-cut caves of the Asokan and Satavahana periods followed by the Shiva and Vishnu temples during the early Kadamba and Chalukya periods. Jaina architecture spread during the reign of Kadamba and Ganga kings. But the highest originality and grandeur of Karnataka architecture was manifested during the Chalukyan and Hoysala periods between the 8th and 13th century. During the reign of Vijayanagara kings, there was further augmentation of the traditions influenced by the Dravidian art. Mahommedan architectures mainly consisting of mosques and tombs, Gulbarga, Bijapur and Bidar, have a style of their own. It is impossible in architecture in general and particularly in Indian architecture to strictly define each group of architecture, correct to the letter. This is due to imperceptible fusion or intermixture of different styles of Indian architecture and also different methods of classification and nomenclature adopted at different times. Karnataka architecture too is not an exception to this rule. In fact Hoysala style is an evolution of the Nagar, Kadamba and Chalukya styles, while still remaining distinct.

The Kadamba style.—Kadambas had constructed a number of temples in their capital at Banavasi in North Kanara District and also at Halsi in Belgaum District. Kadambas were the first to introduce two different parts, viz., Garbhagudi and Sukanasi as till then there used to be only one hall for the temple.

The Saiva temple at Talgunda, the temples at Kadoli, Hattikesvara temple at Halsi where we find Kadamba's, innovation of perforated screens or pierced window on either side of the main door, the Kallesvara temple and the famous Kamalanarayana temple at Degamve are fine examples of Kadamba architecture. In the Varahanarasimha temple of Halsi, they introduced four panels each crowned by a Kirtimukha. At Yalwatti, we can see the Kadamba style tower of the temple. The image of Lakshminarayan at Halsi is elegant in carving and majestic in pose. The images of this period are both in dynamic and static poses e.g., the image of Durga in Sorab Taluk and dancing girls sculptured in Degamve temple.

The Chalukya style.—Here we notice a lot of influence of the Dravidian style. The temple consists of five parts called Vimana which includes both the Garbhagudi and Sukanasi, Mukhamantapa, Gopura on the Mahadwara, Hajara and Dwaramantapa. Built of granite (kaggallu) the ground plan is generally four cornered, though some temples with more corners are also to be found. The top structure above the Vimana has a close resemblance to a Buddhist stupa. However, the chief distinguishing feature is that prominence is given to the tower on the main gate rather than tower on the main shrine. Chalukyan architecture is a perfect blending of the two then prevalent schools of architecture, viz., the northern Indo-Aryan or Vaishnava style and the Southern Dravidian or Saiva style. The characteristic feature of the Dravidian style is the existence of more than one storey with an horizontal arrangement in the tower whereas the tower of the northern temple has a perpendicular arrangement with the towers getting smaller with the increase in height. The Chalukyan artists followed the Dravidian style in the matter of general outlines, adding to the number of storeys and reducing the size of each higher storey but they adopted the radial symmetry of the tower from the northern style. To this fusion of the northern and southern styles they added a variety of ornamental details. In fact it is difficult to find any part that is not decorated.

Aihole, with about 70 temples, Pattadkal with about 10 temples (one of them being Jaina) and Badami with the fine cave temples are the very important places where we can see this style of architecture. They are all in Bijapur District. Other notable places in the State are Lakkundi, Haveri, Niralgi, Galagnath, Hanagal, Bankapur, Kundgol, Laxmeshwar, Tilawalli, Anavatti, Itgi, Kuravatti, Gadag, Dambal, Unakal all in Dharwar District.

The caves at Ajanta and Badami and the temples at Pattadkal and Aihole form the main structures of the period. The caves at Badami, the Kameswara cave at Ellora, the facade and the capitals of the pillars in Cave I and XXIV at Ajanta, the Durga and Virupaksha temple at Aihole contain marvellous specimens of sculpture. Special mention has to be made of the marvellous cave temple of Kailas at Ellora. It was the work of Rashtrakuta king Krishna.

The Hoysala style.—This is richly represented by the temples of Belur, Halebidu and Somanathapura. They are the most exquisite specimens of the epic grandeur, variety and massiveness of Karnataka architecture more so because of the fine blending of architecture and sculpture. They immortalise in stone, religion, history and contemporary life in the form of dance, dress, manners, etc. Fergusson has compared the Hoysalesvara and Kedareswara temples of Halebidu with the Parthenon of Athens.

The Hoysala architecture is free from Dravidian influence to a large extent and so it is the most original contribution of Karnataka to Indian architecture and sculpture. The chief distinguishing feature of this style is that unlike the Kadamba and Chalukyan temples, the temples are star shaped. Then in Hoysala temples we have a conglomeration of shrines in the same temple. Again no two pillars of the Hoysala temple are similar to each other. The five parts of a Hoysala temple are Vimana, Navaranga, Mukhamantapa, Dwaramantapa, and Sabhamantapa. But unlike the Chalukyan temples, the Gopura is on the main shrine.

The Hoysala sculpture is known for its Bhuwaneshwaris, Madankai or Bracket figures, the Dwarapalas, the images of the shrines and the figures on the walls The Hoysala images are generally static in pose.

The temples are constructed of chloritic schist.

The Vijayanagar style.—The ancient city of Vijayanagara, once the capital of a fabulous kingdom has now fallen into obscurity. In spite of the desolation, every building, temple, palace has its own story of grandeur and also sorrow. The Virupaksha or Pampapathi temple with its unique seven storeys Gopura is a marvellous piece of engineering. The Gopura which is a hollow pyramid, 120 feet high has a staircase within its thick walls.

The incomplete and unconsecrated Vithala temple has inside its courtyard, a stone 'Rath' or the vehicle of God. On either side of the courtyard stand two Mantapas which are exquisite for their fine design and workmanship. But the wonder of the ruins is the great Mantapa in front of the shrine. The roof of this Mantapa is supported by huge granite ornamented slabs consisting of a central slab surrounded by detached shafts and each of these shafts emits a separate note when struck.

The King's balance, a huge stone trough measuring nearly 42 feet in length and three feet square hollowed to the thickness of 5 inches, the Hazararama temple, the Narasimha Monolith about 22 feet high are but a few examples of the Vijayanagara architecture and sculpture.

It is doubtful if there could have been any equals to the sculpture of Vijayanagara craftsmen in providing variety and for their caricaturistic touch pregnant with realism, vitality and power.

The social history of this age has been unravelled in stone at Srisailam, Mudabidri and Bhatkal besides at Hampi.

The Lotus Mahal which combines Hindu style roof and cornices with Mahommedan style arches, shows the influence of the latter style on the constructional works during this period.

The Ganga style.—The contribution of Jainism to the art of Karnataka is chiefly noteworthy in the field of iconography. The chief achievement in this respect is found in the three well-known colossi of Karnataka, viz., the statues of Gommateswara or Bahubali at Shravanbelgola, Karkala and Venoor which are 56½ feet, 41 feet and 35 feet respectively. The statues are carved from Granite Tor. The colossal images, standing under an open sky are symbols of peace in stone, of the triumph of human personality over sorrow and strife. Whereas at Sravana Belagola and Venoor, we discern a smile on those wonderful lips of the statues, at Karkala we find a complete absorption in meditation.

The Jain buildings consist mainly of Bettas, Basadis, and monasteries. Other contributions of this period are the "Thousand pillar Basti" of Mudabidri, the "Free standing pillar" or the Manastamba, rock-cut caves as in Ellora. The Ellora caves cut in the reign of Rashtrakuta King Krishna I can be claimed as a contribution of Karnataka architecture. The Jain temples at Mudabidri have a peculiar feature of their own being characterised by its sloping roofs of flat overlapping slabs.

The Mahommedan architecture.—The various mosques and tombs at Gulbarga, Golkonda and Bijapur have attracted the attention of several tourists. Most of these buildings are devoid of sculpture but are specimens of great technical and engineering skill. The 'Golgumbaz' of Bijapur is one of the most remarkable buildings in the world. It is a huge square building surmounted by an immense dome forming wonderful whispering gallery and measuring 198 feet outside and 175 feet inside.

If Golgumbaz is remarkable for its size and simplicity, Ibrahim Roza at the other end of Bijapur is so for its lightness and ornament. Other historical buildings in the city are the picturesque 'Sat Mazli', 'Jod Gumat', 'Jummamasjid' and several other monuments. The building art at Bijapur is structurally the most competent phase of architecture in the Deccan. The hemispherical dome and the arch are the chief features of this form.

The best examples of Saracenic architecture are to be found at Sira. The domes here are not large, but of a very light and elegant design, being raised on a sort of floral cup.

The palaces of Hyder and Tippu at Srirangapatna and Bangalore, the mosque at Srirangapatna, the Gumbaz of Hyder and Tippu and the summer palace are other examples of Islamic architecture.

This brief survey, which cannot claim to be complete by any standards, will show how much Karnataka has contributed to Indian architecture and sculpture.

Engineering in ancient Karnataka was moulded by the needs of the age which were comparatively few and simple.

The first need of man is food and so naturally the first concern was to conserve water flowing in the valleys during the rains, for irrigational purposes. The ancient Karnataka Engineers formed small reservoirs and tanks by throwing barriers of earth or 'bunds' across the valleys. This water used to be taken out, by channels. The Engineers were also adept at the selection of sites for these tanks. 'Arasikere' tank at Halebid was built by the Hoysalas in the 11th century. 'Moti Talav' of Pandavapura Taluk and 'Vishnusamudra' at Belur were constructed in the 12th century. Madagtank' and 'Ayyankere' near Sakrepatna are reported to have been built by King Rukmangada of Mahabharatha fame. A number of 'Anicuts' were also built centuries back. Sri Rama Devaru Anicut across the Hemavati near Holenarasipur was built in 1533 A.D. Chikka Devaraja Wodeyar built a series of anicuts across the Cauveri in the 17th century; so also

'Rayanala' and 'Basavanala' are described as the premoghul channels from the Tungabhadra.

The talents of the people were also directed towards cultural pursuits and artistic productions, among which architecture and sculpture were the main branches covering Engineering. But with the fall of the Vijayanagara Kingdom, and the advent of the British, the popular expression of the natural talent in Engineering, Sculpture and architecture started disappearing. Engineering skill started being used for only utilitarian purposes and that too, to the minimum extent necessary. The pace of progress in all the parts of Karnataka was not uniform, the advance being relatively more in Mysore. This was mainly due to the three great rulers of Mysore—Sri Chamaraja Wodeyar, Sri Krishnaraja Wodeyar and Sri Jayachamaraja Wodeyar and to the three eminent ministers—Sir K. Seshadri Iyer, Sir M. Visvesvaraya and Sir Mirza Ismail.

Mysore adopted the discoveries of science and the advances of modern engineering before the other parts of India. The Cauveri falls at Sivasamudram were harnesed in the beginning of the present century and electric power was generated. The streets of Mysore and Bangalore were the first to be electrically lit in India. The electrical transmission lines from Sivasamudram to Bangalore and Kolar were the longest open lines then attempted in the world. Mysore was also the first to adopt the technique of damming up rivers by high masonry dams for irrigational purposes. The Boranakanive Dam and the Marikanive Dam were the first to be constructed. The Krishnarajasagara, started in 1912, is a combined Hydro-Electric and Irrigation Project with a capacity to irrigate about 1,38,000 acres of land. The bigger Mahatma Gandhi Hydro-Electric Scheme on the Sharavathi at Jog, supplies power to several parts in the Northern Karnataka too. The Pampasagara across Tungabhadra at Hospet, Ghataprabha canals in Belgaum District, the Bhadra Reservoir at Lakkavally, the Tunga Anicut near Shimoga, the Nugu Reservoir at Heggadadevanakote Taluk are some of the other big works.

Under architecture, the recent buildings are varied in style. The palace in Bangalore is a happy blend of the Hindu and the Indosaracenic styles. The Central College at Bangalore is in the Gothic style. Vidhana Soudha at Bangalore is a monumental structure which combines the Dravidian style with the modern style.

The Mysore Iron and Steel Works at Bhadravati, the Hindustan Aircraft Factory, the Indian Telephone Industries, Bharat Electronics, Hindustan Machine Tools, the Government Electric Factory, the Government Porcelain Factory, Electrical Lamps Factory, the Government Soap Factory and a host of other factories at Bangalore and elsewhere in Karnataka, only prove how the talent of the people on the engineering front can be utilised if properly harnessed.

3. Handicrafts

Along with the other parts of the country, Karnataka too has a glorious past and has been known for its traditional crafts. We can be proud of it all the more because the village communities of craftsmen have generally been the centres of those crafts. This art has never been employed just for its own sake ; it has always been an art with purpose. They are the material symbols of India's unique cultural ethos. These are not the products of the mindless machines, but have been entirely the outcome of the admirable skill of the individual craftsmen in the arrangement of form and colour. The products have always been inimitably Indian. Due to the encouragement of the powerful and even petty Indian rulers of the past, the art had reached almost a state of perfection, having survived several vicissitudes to which they were subjected. But during the years of bondage under foreign rulers, the art was slowly disappearing and had reached almost a dormant stage ; but now, thanks to the national government, it is showing a promise of recapturing all its ancien glory

Karnataka too has ancient artists who have displayed their skill in metal sculpture ; Jewellery ; woodcrafts and wood carving ; stone carving ; Ivory carving and in laying pottery, ceramics and glassware ; clay figures and folktoys ; Handwoven textiles ; Hand embroidery ; Carpets and rugs ; Baskets and mats ; and several other crafts.

Metal sculpture.—The most important phase of this Indian art developed and flourished in the South, down from the river Tungabhadra to Cape Comorin. The art saw its greatest development in the 9th century and was always on the rise till the 16th century. It reached its zenith in the reign of Krishna Devaraya of Vijayanagar, a famous specimen in copper showing this great king with his two consorts standing side by side in the shrine of Venkatesha at Tirupati, is known for its artistic skill.

Most of the ancient metal figures have been made of copper or brass and not bronze which was considered to be an impure alloy for divine purpose. The alloy that was considered ideal was 'Pancha loha' consisting of gold, silver, copper, brass and lead. The technique of casting is known as the 'Lost wax' process, in which only one piece can be obtained at a time and duplicates are not possible.

The finest examples of metal sculpture of the past represent the divinities in their various aspects, particularly Siva and Parvathi. There are rules and regulations laid in the 'Silpa Shastras' which codified the characteristics, poses, Mudras, etc., and which the craftsmen had to follow when representing divine figures. They could express their own creative genius when representing semi-religious figures like nymphs, Gandharvas, Apsaras, animal forms, etc.

South Indian bronzes are supreme examples of the metal sculptor's genius. Their dynamic symmetry in poses, absorbing serenity of expression and rhythmic sways are but some of the aspects for which they are admired. The most important and dramatically conceived of all the divine images are representations of 'Nataraja' in which Siva personifies the kinetic aspect of his divinity. The image of Sharada made of Panchaloha at Sringeri is a fine specimen of art. Along with divine representations, figures of important persons of those days were also being made. The deepas or deepams are beautiful figures of human beings holding lamps, as a symbol of burning devotion of the donors.

There are very few pieces of bronzes of the Chalukyan period. The art during Hoysala period was florid and highly decorative. During the Vijayanagara period, a simple style came into force. With the post-Vijayanagar period came decadence and poverty of the creative urge.

However, even to this day we find several hereditary craftsmen in South Kanara, North Kanara, Mysore, Belgaum and some other districts.

Jewellery and metal crafts in Gold and Silver.—The Indian's innate love of personal adornment is well-known. It is this love that has kept alive the art of jewellery making through the centuries. Generally made of the purest and finest materials, it is known for its delicacy, artistic designs and varied nature. The art of jewellers of Bangalore, Mysore, South and North Kanaras has become famous. They produce ornaments from the smallest possible amount of the precious metal, the gold being often beaten to the thinness of paper but at the same time maintaining its strength and effect of solidity. They do so in spite of their poor equipment, relying more on their own skill than on a large number of tools or machinery.

The 'Bidri-ware' taking its name from Bidar, whose Muslim craftsmen have always been famous for this work, consists of a special style of work which may be called "Damascening" in silver. The alloy used for these wares differs from place to place, but generally consists of copper, zinc and lead or tin. The work is of two kinds the "Teh Nishan" in which the design is deeply cut and "Zar Nishan" which rather resembles the encrusted ware of Tanjore. The articles commonly made are ash trays, salvers, hukka bowls, spittoons, cups, plates, tumblers, flower vases, surahis, plaques, boxes, etc. Bidriware has special significance in the Hyderabad Karnataka due to the custom of presenting a complete set of Bidriware utensils, etc., to the bridegroom at marriages.

Wood crafts and wood carving.—This is really an ancient craft in Karnataka. The skilled carpenters of the land were especially prominent in the use of rosewood (blackwood) and teakwood. The furniture, as we see to-day is apparently a foreign importation but they were not unknown in the past as thrones for our kings and emperors. In the past, and to a certain extent even to-day, our craftsmen have shown their skill at veneering. Not only wood veneers but sandalwood, ivory, horn and tortoise shell have been veneered on surfaces made of inferior wood.

In wood carving Karnataka was and is one of the best known for rich ornamentation, skilful execution and characteristic designs. It is a mixed form of indigenous and Chalukyan art. It is a decorative art mostly using celestial or divine forms. In fact the State has achieved a fame for its sandalwood carving. A variety of the most beautiful and artistic articles are prepared from sandalwood by engraving, inlaying, veneering, etc. Shimoga, North Kanara, Mysore are the most important districts known for this work.

Stone carving.—Even a casual visit to any historical place of Karnataka is sure to convince any person, how adept our craftsmen were in this art. The details have been discussed when dealing with architecture and sculpture.

Ivory carving and Inlaying.—This too is an ancient art. The Portuguese traveller Paes has described a chamber in the Vijayanagar palace as "all of ivory as well as the chamber as the walls from top to bottom and the pillars of the cross timbers had roses and flowers of lotuses, all of ivory, and all well executed, so that, there could not be better". Even to-day Mysore is a place of importance in ivory works. The objects generally produced are elephants cows, peacocks, tigers, idolls, human figures, etc. Articles like combs, caskets, cigarette boxes, necklaces, bangles, chessmen, toys, paper cutters, and the like have foreign market. Jungle and sport scenes also abound in the ivory carving in bas-relief produced in Mysore, and sometimes the articles are further enriched with black lac. In fact Mysore craftsmen excel in ivory inlaying in wood, in spite of the fact that his tools are crude. They produce excellent pieces of furniture in ebony inlaid with ivory, the finest example being the ivory inlaid doors of 'Tippu Sultan's Mausoleum'. Another peculiar feature of the Mysore work is that it has a simple chaste dignity, the surface of the article being decorated and not overloaded with ornamentation.

Pottery, Ceramics and Glassware.—The unglazed earthenware, red, brown, yellow or grey made in every village, represents the simplest and purest form of art. The origin of this art can be traced to prehistoric times. So varied are the shapes and so beautiful the workmanship! There is a special pot for almost evry special purpose. Now ornamental designs are painted or etched on the prepared surface, and sometimes the pots are also glazed.

The tools used are generally simple. Chief of them being a flywheel revolving horizontally, weighted round the rim with lumps of clay and set into motion with the hand. As the wheel merrily revolves the craftsman's skillful hands shape the mass of clay, gently into the required shape and form. Then the vessel is taken out for drying and baking, polish being given to the baked vessels.

Like pottery, artistic glassware, mostly bangles were also made in very remote times. These bangles of different colours are sometimes ornamented also.

Clay figures and Folk Toys.—The excavations at Chandrawalli have proved that clay figures and toys were being made even in prehistoric times in Karnataka. Our ancient craftsmen spared no pains to supply their children with toys representing domestic and wild animals, and deities of the Hindu Pantheon. They also produced pots and pans in miniature. The toys whether of clay, wood or metal form the very essence of folk art. The discoveries at 'Gombigudda' near Jamkhandi have also revealed that this art was in a high state of development in the past. Even to-day places like Gokak, Honavar, Kumta, Channapatna, Mysore and Bangalore are famous for their toys. In Channapatna and Gokak several articles of wood are made and then lacquered. Folk toys in a way are the autobiography of the people of this land.

Handwoven textiles.—Of all the art manufacture of India, her beautiful textiles are the oldest. The products of our weavers have been compared to "exquisite poetry in colourful fabrics". Celebrated among them were the Dacca Muslins, now a thing of the past. But even to-day Karnataka does produce a lot of quality Muslin. Almost every district of Mysore has its centres for producing handwoven cottons, though in this machine age, they face several vicissitudes. However, it is in silks more than cottons that Mysore is now famous. The Mysore silks with shots of Gold lending to them an enchanting beauty are in great demand even outside our own country.

Hand embroidery.—Hand embroidery has been widely practised in Karnataka since very early times. 'Kasuti' is a beautiful form of embroidery, done in those places which were ruled at one time or the other by the Chalukyan and Vijayanagar rulers. This type of embroidery still exists in Belgaum and Dharwar districts, though it has been generally a handicraft and a pastime for the female folk meant more for their personal use. The designs of the Kasuti are generally related to temple architecture. The famous 'Ilkal' saries made in Bijapur district, are charming with their borders in green, red or purple, the embroidery covering the whole material. In fact, in every district and in several households we will find women folk doing embroidery work for their own use, if not for commercial purposes.

Carpets and Rugs.—The art of manufacture of carpets is not an indigenous one but seems to have been introduced by the Saracens. Bijapur, Dharwar, Belgaum, Bangalore and several other places in he State produce carpets. Almost every district in the 'Maidan' area produces 'Kambalis'. Mention has also to be made of 'druggets' made in Bangalore. Made from waste wool clipping and often of wool from dead sheep, they are naturally much cheaper.

Baskets and Mats.—In the bamboo growing areas of Karnatak it is a common sight to find men and women from particular classes weaving baskets, as they move from place to place. In the coastal districts of South and North Kanaras, where cocoanut is grown in abundance, delightful and richly coloured coir floor-coverings are prepared. The coir fibre is spun into yarn and woven into beautiful floor coverings. Sometimes, the decoration motif is inlaid or stencilled on the mat and sometimes the design is woven as in textiles. These mats are known for durability, sound deadening and soil and damp resisting qualities.

Besides this there are several other crafts like making of incense-sticks, soaps, etc., which are very popular in Karnataka even to this day.

4. Painting and Allied Art

With regard to painting, though Kannada poetry revels in describing old portraits and pictures, very few specimens have come down to us excepting those at Ajanta and Badami. Considering the extent of the Karnataka territory, the then Kannada artists may have contributed to the amazing frescoes of Ajanta, between 1st century, B.C. and 7th century A.D. Pulakesi II, a Chalukyan king from Badami, has been represented in one of the frescoes. We can also see some blurred paintings on the ceilings of one of the Badami caves, and some paintings of the Vijayanagara period in the Virupaksha temple at Hampi.

Kannada poets Rudrabhatta and Ponna mention a famous painter by name Cirghatti.

The linear carvings and drawings of animals and human figures belonging to the period of pre-history discovered in 'Gombigudda' hill near Jamkhandi also indicate that some more treasures of the type may see the light of the day, if further research work is undertaken.

Even now, there is ample talent in cradle painting, claymodelling, making of dolls, wooden flora and fauna, sandalwood and ivory carvings, etc., as is borne out by the skilled craftsmen and painters of Channapatna, Mysore, Sagar, Shimoga, Kumta, Gokak, Kankeri and other places.

5. Dance, Drama and Music

These three allied arts were in a well developed state for several centuries in Karnataka. A Tamil work of the 2nd century by name 'Silappadikaram' mentions of Kannada actresses and dancers who entertained King Senguttavan in the Nilgiri Hills. Pattadkal inscriptions refer to a well known actor by name Natasevya. Several inscriptions of old reveal a rich variety of dance poses. Dance was almost the exclusive monopoly of temple girls but appears to have been regularly practised by ladies of upper classes also, during the Hoysala and Vijayanagar periods. 'Bharat Natya and Kathakali' are the famous modes of Indian dances in which many Karnataka artists have earned a name. Special mention needs to be made of Jatti Thayamma of Mysore.

The Kannada thea re was represented by folk plays based mostly on epic and historical themes known as Bylata and Yakshagana. It is true, the word Yakshagana would mean 'a style of music'; but the word is now understood to mean a form of musical dance-drama played in the open air. Its traditional form is a very rich one, though corrupted to a certain exten these days due to the influence of the modern cinema or drama forms.

Its songs are written literature, set to a separate style of music, also called 'Yakshagana' which is virile and operatic in nature. The themes are mostly from Mahabharata, Ramayana, Puranas and Bhagwata. Powerful extempore prose dialogues, rhythmic style of dancing, colourful and demonstrative costumes and the songs of the 'Bhagwata' in a high pitch to the accompaniment of an elongated drum or maddale and a pair of cymbals, keep the audience spellbound through the night. Its 'Gamak and Tan' are different and portray the various aspects of dramatic emotions. The contents of the songs are translated or developed in dialogue by the characters.

The earliest reference to Yakshagana was in Kannada works of 1105 A.D. and 1185 A.D. During the 17th century, there were three eminent composers, viz., Devidasa of Udipi (1640 A.D.), Nagappayya of Koteshwar (1640 A.D.) and Subba of Brahmavara (1680 A.D.). In the 18th century Rama of Karur, Ramabhatta of Hattiangadi and Venkata of Pandeshwar were prominent.

We have at least 150 themes chosen for those plays and over 100 plays are available in print to-day. The 17th century plays mention over 100 Ragas as belonging to Yakshagana. The themes chosen are mainly heroic in content. As such there are no dramas without a battle, there being very few exceptions to this rule.

The "Maddale" or drum work is such as to lend itself to exquisite footwork. Another drum called "Chande" is used when depicting valour or battle. But rhythm is the essence of every action. Simple settings, lighted only by dim oil-fed lamps, create a sense of illusion and impress the personality of the various characters.

There are now about a dozen troupes attached to various temples in the North and South Kanaras and the hinterland of these districts. Most of the actors are farmers by profession and so the plays are taged generally between December and May when they get respite.

However, this ancient indigenous art of Karnataka is facing its darker days now. Already two other adjuncts of this type of drama namely the doll play and the leather doll play have died on account of their attempts to imitate other arts. Sivarama Karanth, who is an authority on 'Yakshagana' and his associates have been striving to keep this ancient art not only alive but also pure. Beside this indigenous form of open air plays, there are several professional troupes and amateurs who regale the audience by staging modern dramas.

In regard to music also Karnataka has an outstanding achievement to its credit. It has developed a school of music which is called "Karnataka Music," in which fusion, to a certain extent, of the Aryan and Dravidian modes of music has taken place. It is distinguished from the Northern or Hindusthani music by a scientific correlation of Tala and Raga with greater stress on rhythm. Besides those common to Hindustani music, it has also its own system of Ragas and Alapanas. Another interesting feature is that probably Karnataka is the only State in India where there is patronage for both Hindusthani and Karnataka styles. North of Tungabhdra river, Hindusthani music is more in vogue and south of it there is predominance of Karnataka music.

Viraballa (12th century) also known as 'Sangita-prasangabhangi' was one of the earliest musicians of Karnataka. Gopalnayaka of the Vijayanagara court is reputed to have had a contest in music with Amir Khusru of Allauddin Khilji's court. The mystics of the Dasakuta, the Vachankaras, Sharanas and others built up a tradition for this music by simplifying it when singing devotional songs.

Sarangadeva, Kalinatha, Ramamatya, Somanatha, Venkatamukhi, Telaja Rajendra, Bhavabhatta, Purandardasa, Pundalika are some of the famous authors who have written independent works on music.

Vina, Tal, Maddale, Damaruga, Mahamuraja, Turya Nirghosana, Trivali, Mridanga, Kahala, Shankha, Bheri, Patapa, Ghhante, Kausala are some of the old musical instruments enumerated in many of the epigraphic and literary records.

6. Literature

Kannada literature is one of the oldest literatures of India, in antiquity it being next to only Sanskrit, and Prakrit literatures and perhaps to that of Tamil. It is a rich heritage not only of the Kannada people but also of other Indian people as a whole. Till about the end of the 19th century, the number of Kannada writers recorded is over 1,148 though the number of their works has not been computed.

Though the earliest available work in Kannada is 'Kavirajamarga (9th century) either written by the Rashtrakuta king Nripatunga or by Srivijaya under the patronage of Nripatunga, the earliest Kannada record is the Halmidi lithic inscription ascribed to about 450 A.D. This together with another inscription of 500 A.D. has established that 'Kavirajamrga' is a prominent milestone in the History of Kannada literature and not a starting point. A few Kannada words also are met with in Prakrit work called 'Gathasaptasati' of 200 A.D. which clearly indicates that the establishment of the language and its traditions were being cultivated from a period earlier than that of 'Kaviraja marga'. However, the literature produced up to 850 A.D. has not yet come to light. Kavirajamarga is a work on poetics referring to 'Palagannada', i.e., Old Kannada, Puratanakavis and Purvacharyas. Its importance is more historical than aesthetic.

In 853 A.D. Asaga, a Sanskrit scholar, wrote 'Karnataka Kumara Sambhava' in Kannada, Gunanandi (900 A.D.) and Gunavarma I (900 A.D.) were poets of great reputation of the period.

Between 9th and 12th century classical tradition in Kannada literature flourished magnificently. It can be called the golden age of Old Kannada literature. The excellence of the literary achievements of the writers, particularly the poets, of this period have never been surpassed. Pampa (942 A.D.) who is honoured as the 'Adi Mahakavi' in Kannada was not only the first but also the foremost poet of the era. He was a master of Jaina Philosophy in the court of Arikesari II, a prince of the Chalukya family. When aged only 39 years, he composed the 'Adi Purana' and a few years later 'Vikramarjuna Vijaya' or 'Pampa Bharata'. His style and diction are remarkable for economy and suggestiveness. Ponna (950 A.D.) who wrote 'Bhuvanaika Ramabhyudaya', 'Santipurana', and 'Jinaksarmale' was his contemporary but under more lucrative circumstances. Other famous personages of this era were Chavundaraya I (978 A.D.) author of 'Chavundaraya Purana', Nagavarma I 'author of 'Chhandombudhi' and Karnatak Kadambari', Ranna (993 A.D.) author of 'Parashurama Charita' 'Chakreshwara Charita', 'Gadayuddha', Nagachandra (1100 A.D.) author of 'Ramachandra Purana' or 'Pampa Ramayana' and 'Mallinathapurana', and Nagavarma II (1145 A.D.) author of 'Kavyavalokana' and 'Vashikosha'.

The works during this period were both literary and scientific. Particularly in the 11th century, the writers attached more value to technical and scientific topics. 'Panchatantra' of Durgasimha is a famous work of the 11th century. Nagavarmacharya (1070 A.D.) is the first to give us 'Shatakas' in Kannada literature.

In the middle of the 12th century, there was the rise of a new literary movement. The spoken language of the people was fast changing from old Kannada into middle Kannada. Jain authors like Nayasena started writing popular stories in simple Kannada. Religious reformers among Veerasaivas, like Basava took up the spoken language and gave it a literary status by starting the vast 'Vachana' literature in simple but forceful Kannada. Famous among the 'Vachanakaras' are Basava, Allamaprabhu, and Akkamahadevi. For beauty, for complete expression of the goal towards the higher life and poetic grace, Shri Basaveshwara's Vachanas are unsurpassed. They are valuable for their ethical content also.

In 1200 A.D. Harihara, author of 'Sivasaranara ragalegalu' and Raghavanka author of 'Harischandra Kavya', 'Siddharamapurana' and Kereya Padmarasa, author of 'Dikshabodhe', started works in pure Kannada metres like Ragale and Shatpadi. Eminent poets of this period were Nemichandra (1170 A.D.) Rudrabhatta (1180 A.D.) and Janna (1209 A.D.). Kesiraja wrote a book on Kannada Grammar called 'Sabdamanidarpana'. There were several technical works too. Rajaditya (1191 A.D.) wrote 6 treatises on Mathematics. Kirtivarma (1125 A.D.) wrote 'Govaidya' a treatise on cattle diseases. Jagaddala Somanatha (1150 A.D.) wrote 'Karnata Kalyana Karaka' a work on Ayurvedic medicine. Ratta Kavi (1300 A.D.) wrote 'Ratta Matha' a treatise on Meteorological topics. Mangaraya (1360 A.D.) wrote his 'Khagendramani-Darpana' a treatise on poisons and their antidotes. Sridharacharya (1150 A.D.) wrote his 'Jatal atilaka', a work on Astrology.

The period from 14th century to the 16th century was really the golden age for Kannada literature under the patronage of Vijayanagara Kings. When poets of all faiths added to the treasure of Kannada literature. Kumara Vyasa or Narayanappa (1430 A.D.) as he was known, who wrote the first ten parvas of the Mahabharata in Kannada, and Kumara Valmiki (1500 A.D.) were great literary geniuses of the period. Purandaradasa and Kanakadasa popularised the Bhakti cult by composing devotional songs in Kannada and founding the 'Dasa Kuta'. Lakshmisha (1550 A.D.) wrote his famous 'Jaimini Bharata' Chamarasa wrote his famous 'Prabhulingalile'. There was a revival of Virasaiva literature also due to the efforts of Lakkana Dandesa (1428 A.D.) Chamarasa (1430 A.D.) Tontad Siddeswara (1470 A.D.), Nijaguna Shivayogi (1500 A.D.). Virupaksha Pandita (1584 A.D.). Vachanakaras like Tontad Siddhalinga, and Ghanalinga also came into prominence. Jaina writers like Mangarasa III (1509 A.D.), Salva (1550 A.D.) and Ratnakaravarni (1557 A.D.), also brought forth great literary writings. Particular mention has to be made of Ratnakaravarni's 'Bharatesavaibhava' composed in Sangatya metre, which is considered one among the greatest poems in Kannada. Kumara Vyasa, Chamarasa, Virupaksha Pandita, Lakshmisha, and Kumara Valimiki used 'Shatpadi' group of metres. "Tripadi" the most native of all Kannada metres, which is used even to this day, was also used by several Kannada poets like Nijaguna Shivayogi. But the most popular 'Tripadis' are those of Sarvagna, whose work is a veritable encyclopaedia.

Though the literary productions of this and the previous periods were stimulated by religious movements of the time, the Kannada poets then had amply shown a catholicity of outlook. Adikavi Pampa, Vachanakaras, Dasars, Sharnas and the rest had in one voice developed the attitude that humanity is one. The works were not only classical and popular literature but also on scientific and technical subjects.

Old Kannada (Palakannada) ceased to be a living language by about 1150 A.D., though it was being used by learned writers till about 1400 A.D. After that, more and more books started coming up in medieval Kannada—language of the people of the day—though Old Kannada was making its sporadic appearances now and then.

In the 17th century the Mysore Ruler Chikkadevaraja Wodeyar patronised the development of literature. Poets like Tirumalarya and Chikupadhyaya rendered Srivaishnava legends into Kannada. Sarvagna, the people's poet was the author of a large number of popular Tripadis. Shadakshari was also a famous poet of the century.

The 18th century is noted for the rise of 'Yakshaganas' with as settled technique of their own combining dialogue, music and dance.

However, with the fall of the Vijayanagara kingdom and the advent of the British, the literary movement in Karnataka got a severe setback. Karnataka was cut up into several divisions like Mysore Karnataka, Madras Karnataka, Hyderabad Karnataka, Bombay Karnataka, and Kannada regions in several smaller princely states. There was also a change in the educational system in the various areas, due to the introduction of English. However Mummadi Krishnaraja, Ruler of Mysore (1794 to 1868) was a great patron of arts and was himself a man of letters, credited with several writings mostly in prose. Naturally prose writings started assuming prominence. The researches of Mr. B. L. Rice in Mysore resulted in the publication of Epigraphia Carnatika. In Madras Karnatak, missionary Scholars like Rieve and Rev. Kittel made a scientific study of Kannada language. There was slowly a transition from medieval to modern Kannada, in which Kempu Narayana's 'Mudramanjusha' (1823 A.D.) is a landmark. Basavappa Sastri translated Kalidasa's 'Shakuntala' and Shakespeare's 'Othello'. Other noted works of this period are Mulbagal's translation of 'Uttararamacharita' and Turmarifs version of Bana's 'Kadambari'. But the work that created history towards the end of the 19th century was Muddana's 'Ramashwamedha', a novel epic.

Between 1900 and 1920 A.D. can be seen the dawn of Modern Kannada, in the form of journalism, translation and adaptation. The foundation of the Kannada literary academy in 1914 was a prominent landmark during the period. After 1920, almost all forms of literary expression known to the modern world have been introduced in Kannada.

There has been marked achievements in the output of poetry with new metres and new themes. B. M. Srikantia's 'English Geetegalu' and his sweet rendering of several other English verses into Kannada, D. V. Gundappa's philosophical poem 'Vasanta Kusumanjali' and 'Mankuthimmana kagga'. Masti's (Srinivasa) 'Aruna', 'Binnaha', Panje Mangeshrao's 'South Wind' and the 'Song of Kodagas', Govind Pai's 'Nadadeepa', D. R. Bendre's (Ambikatanayadatta) 'Gari', 'Murthi', 'Nadaleela' and 'Sakhigeeta', Sali's 'Chitrasrashti', K. V. Puttappa's 'Men of Letters', 'Raktakshi', etc., V. Sitaramiah's 'Light and Shadow', 'Grapes and Pomegranates', Rajaratnam's 'Songs of Ratna', P. T. Narasimhachar's 'Mango Foliage', Madhurchanna's 'My Lover', Gokak's 'Kalopasaka', Mugali's 'Basinga', Diwakar's commentaries on the 'Gita' and 'Upanishads' are just a few of several works in the fields of lyrics. The output has also variety. Sri is a master of 'Ode' in Kannada; Masti is known for blank verse; Govind Pai is a neo-classicist in song; Panje Mangeshrao is known by the lyric movement; K. V. Puttappa is known for his derivative poetry; Bendre is famous for his sonnets; Vinayaka for his free verse and Rajaratnam for his colloquial lyric.

In the field of novels, M. S. Puttanna, Galaganath, Kerur with his 'Indira' and 'Yadumaharaja', A. N. Krishna Rao's 'Sandhyaraga', Gokak's 'Ijjodu', Karanth's 'Deva Dutaru', Devudu's 'Antaranga', Mugali's 'Baluri' and 'Karna Purusha', Adya's 'Vishwamitra Srishti', Puttappa's 'Subbamma', Inamdar's 'Murabatte', Kattimani's 'Madi Madidavaru', Masti's 'Channabasava Nayaka', Beechi's 'Dasakuta' and several others have brought forth excellent novels.

Bendre, Kerur, Panje, and Masti have achieved fame in short stories. Among women short story writers, Gaouramma, Kalyanamma, Shyamala, Smt. Karanth, Jayalakshmi Srinivasan and others are noted. Some of the other short story writers are Ananda, Anandkanda, Gorur Ramaswami, Krishnakumara, A. N. Krishna Rao and Tengse.

In the field of dramas, Yakshaganas maintained the dramatic and historic traditions. Then in response to the demands of the popular theatre, legendary plays like Garuda Sadasiva Rao's 'Paduka Pattabhisheka', 'Choutichandra', 'Venkataramiah's 'Mandodari', Kadengodlu's 'Hidimbe', Sitaramiah's 'Sohrab and Rustum', Joshi's 'Rajavallabha', Historical plays like D. V. Gundappa's 'Vidyaranya', Masti's 'Talikote', Samsa's 'Vigada Vikramaraya', Social plays like Kundgol's 'Shikshana Sambhrama', Bendre's 'Tirukara Pidugu' etc., came to be written. But the most famous among the playwrights was T. P. Kailasam, whose plays can be compared with the best in any language. His stay in England, gave his plays a highly modernised technique. In all his writings we find a subtle blending of satire and humour, of realism and idealism, of lyric and dramatic movement. In fact it can be rightly said that the Kannada social play began with him. His plays 'Tollu Gatti', 'Poli Kitti', 'Home Rule',, etc., are real masterpieces. Another leading dramatist is Adya whose social plays 'Harijanwara', 'Daridra Narayana', 'Vaidya Raja', are noted for their satire. There are several other types of plays like verse plays, blank verse plays, song plays, etc., in Kannada.

Essays, Biographies and Autobiographies have also made their mark in modern Kannada literature.

Though it cannot be claimed that modern Kannada literature has carried sensation into the heart of all knowledge, the brief survey clearly shows that Kannada has a long and rich literary heritage and that a new literature is sprouting on the old traditional foundations. In the beginning, Sanskrit and Prakrit literature served as a model for Kannada, but as Kannada literature developed, important innovations started creeping in. Kannada has also to a certain extent contributed towards the development of Sanskrit. Unlike the Sanskrit literature, a mixture of prose and verse known as 'Champu' form of composition prevailed in Kannada and this was later adopted in Sanskrit too. So also the 'Vachana' style is a characteristic prose pattern of Kannada literature. The poetical forms of composition in the various Kannada meters like 'Ragale', 'Shatpadi', 'Sangatya' and 'Tripadi' are peculiar to Kannada only. Even though most of the themes in old Kannada literature have drawn their inspiration from mythology, epic, history, etc., several Kannada writers have impregnated their own ideas in their works.

There is also an abundant variety of Kannada folk songs and ballads, many of them being quite humorous even when conveying a moral. Several of the writings also are rich with patriotic feelings.

7. Journalism

Mysore saw the first printing press in 1850, started by Rev. J. Garret of Wesleyan Mission to propagate his missionary ideals. The first newspaper to be started in the State was 'Kasim-Ul Akbar' in Hindi in 1863 and the first Kannada newspaper was 'Karnataka Prakashika' published in 1865 as a weekly. Then in 1866, the Government of Mysore published an Anglo-Kannada weekly, 'The Mysore Gazette' under the editorship of L. Rickett. In 1874, the Kannada Prakashika was revived as a Kannada-English weekly. The first Kannada monthly to be started was 'Hitabodhini' from Mysore in 1881. The first Kannada daily was 'Suryodaya Prakashika' founded in 1881. In 1900 Yajaman Veerabasappa founded a Kannada weekly by name 'Mysore Star'.

After the transfer of the administration in Mysore by the British to the Hereditary rulers in 1881, the Kannada Press got a new impetus. Public spirited men like 'Vriddhapitamaha' M. Venkatakrishniah started his Kannada weekly 'Vrittanta Chintamani' in 1885, to work for the national and democratic ideals. 'Kannada Nadegannadi' was started by the brothers M. Gopala Iyengar and M. Srinivasa Iyengar in 1895. However the Press Act of 1908 not only put an end to the publication of Nadegannadi but also the editor was deported from the State. In 1910, Venkatakrishnaiah started a weekly 'Sadhvi' at Mysore. The weekly 'Bharati' of Navaratna Krishnaswamy, started in 1907, had also a very short span of life due to the Press Act of 1908.

But in 1910, the Kannada Press entered a new era when a number of dailies, weeklies and monthlies were started. Tirumale Thathacharya Sharma established 'Vishwa Karnataka', both as a daily and a weekly, to uphold the high traditions of nationalist journalism. However, in 1944, Government banned its publication for an alleged seditious editorial and an open letter to the Viceroy. However, it was restarted in 1947.

A special feature of the Kannada Press is the rise of 'The one man' papers wherein the roles of manager, editor, compositor, etc., are all combined in one person and they are also priced low. They have a mainly local appeal.

Other Kannada dailies of to-day are Janavani, Prajavani, Tainadu, and several others. Among weeklies are Prajamata, Janapragati, Chitragupta and many more.

Special mention has to be made of Sri D. V. Gundappa a linguist and journalist of renown, who has started the "Gokhale Institute of Public Affairs" and to propagate the ideals of the Institute has started a monthly bi-lingual journal by name "Public Affairs" in which both national and international affairs are discussed in both English and Kannada.

In Bombay Karnataka "Hitechhu" was the first newspaper to be started. It was published from Kaladgi in 1870. By 1880, three newspapers, viz., "Vijaya", "Rajahamsa" and "Karnataka" started in Dharwar. So also there were three published from Belgaum. Manadakatte Kalyanappa and Vibhuti Hucchaiah started two monthlies "Chandrodaya" and "Pushpamallika" in Dharwar. In 1884, Desai Sheenappa started "Karnataka Patra", a weekly. In 1885 a number of weeklies were started, chief of which were "Lokashikshana", "Karnatakavritti", "Lokabandhu", "Rajahamsa" and "Dhananjaya". Mention has to be made of Mudaveedu Krishna Rao, and other journalists of those days of national upsurge for their unqualified patriotism. Kerur Vasudevacharya was responsible for two weeklies—"Kannada Kesari" and "Sachitra Bharata" from Hubli and one 'Shubhodaya" from Dharwar.

1922 saw the birth of "Karmaveera" started by Kabbur Madhva Rao, Hukkerikar Ramarao, and Ranganatha Diwakar. Then Samyukta Karnataka was started by them. The People's Education Trust of which Diwakar is the sole trustee, owns both of them. They have started a monthly by name "Kasturi" also.

Alur Venkatarao, Vamanarao Desai, Hanumantharao Moharay, Naik are all associated with these publications.

After independence, several other newspapers have started. " Navayuga " edited by Shri T. R. Neswi and " Vishalakarnataka " edited by H. R. Itgi. " Prapancha ", a weekly and " Vishwawani ", a daily edited by Patil Puttappa are some of them worth mentioning.

From Hyderabad Karnataka area, ' Hyderabad Samachar ' and ' Sadhana ' are among those published. Coorg has ' Kodugu Vrittanta '.

In South Kanara, " Kannada Samachara " a monthly started in 1842, by the Basel Mission was the first work. This was followed by " Kannada Vartika ", in 1857, " Krista Sabhapatra " in 1869, Satya Deepike in 1896, ' Vaidika Mitra ' in 1910, ' Suvarta Prasaraka ' in 1922 and ' Krista Hitavadi ' in 1924. They were generally devoted to discussion of Christianity. In 1887, ' Sudarshana ' a monthly was published from Udipi. The Basel Mission published ' Satya Deepike ' in 1896. Sri Panje Mangeshrao contributed several essays to it. Sri Bolar Vithal Rao published " Suvasini " in 1900. In 1907, Sri V. S. Kamath started " Swadeshabhimani ". In 1919, Sri B. Vithal Rao started ' Kantheerava ' with which Shri Hurali Bhima Rao was associated. Shri A. B. Shetty started ' Navayuga ' at Udipi in 1921. In 1928, a leading weekly ' Rashtra Bandhu ' was started. ' Prabhat ' a weekly was started in 1928 by Shri Sehnoy, K.V.

As a reaction to the evangelistic zeal of the Christian missionaries, several periodicals of other faiths like Krishna Sukti (1905), Jains Bandhu (1913), ' Bhakti Sandesha ' (1918), ' Veda Sandesha ' (1926), ' Sadguru Padaseve ' (1926), ' Sidharama Pracharike ' ' Sri Krishnasandesha ' (1938), ' Viveka-Abhudya ' (1941), and ' Paryaya Prakashini (1942) were started.

Among the magazines mainly devoted to literary subjects ' Ananda ' (1916), ' Kannada Kogile ' (1916), ' Vasantha ' (1923), ' Karnataka Kesari ' (1928), ' Sahitya ' (1929), ' Kalachandra ' (1933), 'Triveni ' and ' Pravasi ' (1936), ' Jayakarnataka ' are some.

Dr. Bharadwaja's ' Tilaka Sandesh ' (1919), Sri H. R. Mallya's ' Satyagrahi ' (1921), ' Swadeshi Pracharika ' (1934) and ' Desha Bhakta ' (1940) dealt mainly with politics.

' Nava Bharata ' a daily started in 1941 by Sri V. S. Kudva is one of the leading dailies.

In 1915, Sri Karanth brought out ' Bodhini ' and this was followed by Panje Mangeshrao's ' Balachandra' (1932) and Mukundarao's ' Vidyodaya '. They were all magazines devoted to education. Shivarama Karantha's ' Bala Prapancha ' an Encyclopeadia in Kannada, in magazine form was being published in parts, was very popular. Molahalli Shiva Rao published a journal ' Sahakari ' (1919) or Co-operation movement.

After the attainment of independence, several newspapers and journals have not only appeared on the scene but also have made a marked progress.

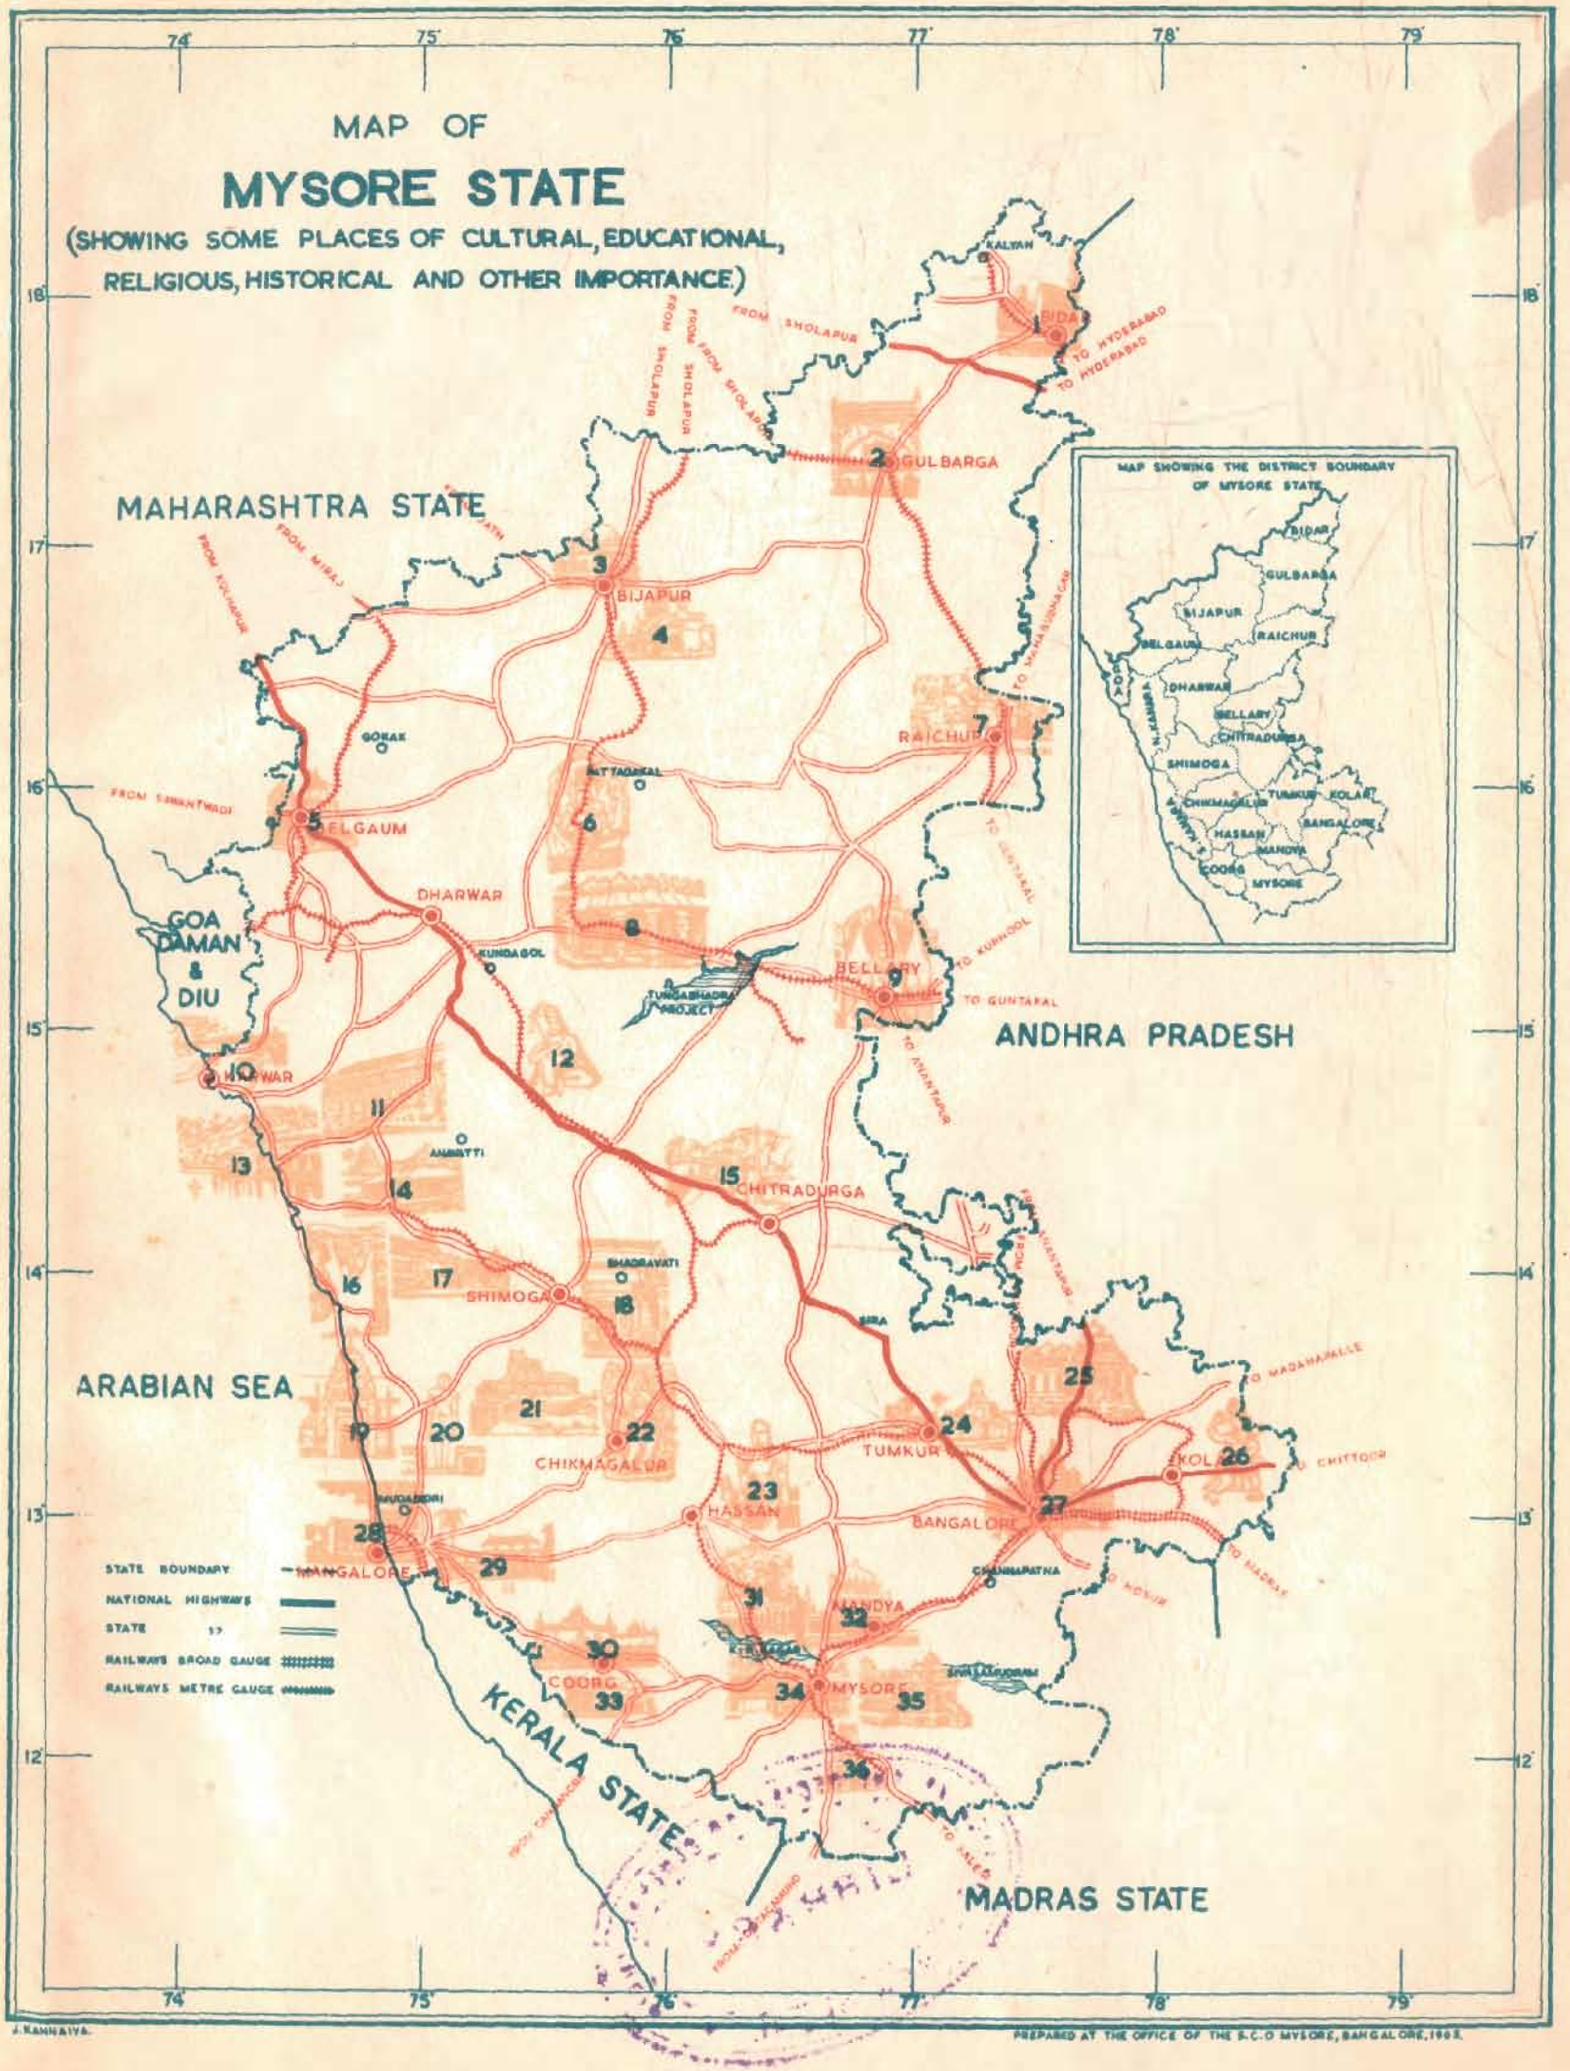

Udayachandra (1947), Sarvodaya (1949), Sangathi (1948), Vicharavani (1950), Shanti-Sandesha (1952), Samachara (1953), Rashtramata (1953), Janapremi (1954), Samajwadi (1955), Dhingaya (1954), Kaliyuga (1954), Prakasha, Raybhari (1952), Sandhyadeepa (1954) are some of those started recently.

There are a number of journals in Konkani and English also. South Kanara has produced a number of able journalists, among whom the name of Sri B. Shiva Rao is worth mentioning.

Though Karnataka started its journalism seven or eight decades after the first newspaper of India was born near Calcutta in 1780, the State's march towards progress in this field is quite noteworthy. It is true that many of the newspapers and journals of old listed above are no more seeing the light of the day. Even then, there are several other current newspapers and journals which have not figured in this survey, brief, it being.
