PREFACE.

The Census Reports in olden times were printed one for the whole Province of Rajputana and another for Ajmer Merwara. Some of the Principal States now merged in Rajasthan published their own reports. This time the State Census Reports have been published in the following volumes;—

1. Part I-A Report.
2. Part I-B Subsidiary Tables and District Index of Non-Agricultural Occupations.
3. Part I-C Appendices.
4. Part II-A General Population Tables, Household and Age (Sample) Tables, Social and Cultural Tables, Table E Summary Figures by Administrative Units, and local 'KA' infirmities.
5. Part II-B Economic Tables.

They contain statistics down to the district level.

The idea of preparing the District Census Handbook separately for each district was put forward by Shri R. A. Gopalaswami, I. C. S., Registrar General, India, and ex-Officio Census Commissioner of India, as part of a plan intended to secure an effective method of preserving the census records prepared for areas below the district level. He proposed that all the district census tables and census abstracts prepared during the process of sorting and compilation should be bound together in a single manuscript volume, called the District Census Handbook, and suggested to the State Governments that the handbook (with or without the addition of other useful information relating to the district) should be printed and published, at their own cost, in the same manner as the village statistics in the past. In accepting this suggestion, the Government of Rajasthan decided to print and publish the more important portion of statistical data relating to the district and to preserve the rest of the records in a manuscript volume for any future use, to which they may be put.

This Handbook contains five General Population Tables of A Series, three Economic Tables of B Series, five Household and Age Tables of C Series, seven Social and Cultural Tables of D Series, one table E giving summary for the district and tehsils, a local table 'KA' showing infirmities by age groups and an Index of Non-agricultural Occupations. Each table contains an explanatory note necessary for the proper understanding of the figures. The numbers given to the tables in this Handbook correspond to those given in State Census Reports.

Village Directories were published for the first time in 1931 by a few States of Rajputana. The example was followed by all the States in 1941. They contained for each village the population figures by religion and also some other useful information. They were bound in a volume one for each State. This time the Village Directories are also incorporated in this Handbook under the name of "Primary Census Abstract and Village Directory" which show the basic population figures separately for each village or town-ward classified by livelihood classes instead of religion and also some information of general nature.

Opportunity has been taken to put in a short introductory note detailing the salient points connected with the district, such as the physical features, climate, rainfall, irrigation and drainage facilities, roads and other communications, agriculture, education, industries and other matters of general interest. The information contained in the introductory note is based on the material furnished by Collectors of districts and Departments of Government.

In addition to the above, some figures of general interest and a review of population figures have also been incorporated.

The scheduled date for the publication of the Handbooks as prescribed by the Registrar General, India, was, " Not later than March, 1952 " but practical experience showed its publication by that time an impracticability. Even the compilation of the tables together with its final touch could not be completed by that time. Then came the question of printing which proved to be a huge task. There are 25 districts in Rajasthan and 1 in Ajmer. The total number of printed pages turned out to be nearly 9000. The Government Presses were already over burdoned with the printing work of other departments and in the printing of census publications priority was given to Central Government Publications i.e the State Census Reports. The result was that till March, 1954, for 14 out of 26 districts the P. C. A. and Village Directory could not be printed specially because the press had no stock of small type which was essential for their printing. It was, therefore, decided to publish the handbooks in two volumes. Part I, consists of introduction, a brief review of population figures and,

(1) General population Tables (A-I to A-V.)

(2) Economic Tables (B-I to B-III)

(3) Household and Age (Sample) Tables (C-I to C-V)

(4) Social and Cultural Tables (D-I to D-VII)

(5) E-Summary figures by Administrative Units.

(6) Local Table ' K.A ' infirmities, and

(7) District Index of Non-Agricultural Occupations.

Part II contains only Primary Census Abstracts and Village Directory.

The Handbooks of the Ajmer, Sirohi and Jhalawar Districts are, however, being published in one volume because they have been completed by this time.

While every care has been taken to ensure the correctness of figures and village names, certain mistakes might have crept in. I shall be grateful if they are brought to my notice.

JAIPUR DISTRICT.

INTRODUCTION.

I.—Physical Aspects.

(a) Position, area and boundary.

1. The District of Jaipur is situated in the eastern part of Rajasthan and lies between 25° 45′ and 27° 45′ North latitudes and between 74° 41′ and 76° 50′ East longitudes. Its area is 6,295·4 square miles, as supplied by the Surveyor General of India. It is bounded on the North by Sikar and Jhunjhunu districts on the South by Tonk District, on the East by Sawaimadhopur District and on the West by the Ajmer State.

(b) Configuration.

2. The district for the most part is level and fertile though its surface is crossed and diversified by groups and ranges of hills and numerous isolated peaks which are parts of the Aravalli Hills spreading practically all over the district is given different names at different places. In Tehsil Jaipur the range is known Puranaghat and Nahargarh; in Kotputli, Bairath and Jamwa Ramgarh Tehsils it is named as Ada Doongar, Chapa, Khan Rahori, Khan Dagota Jaroonda, Khan Raipur and Khan Badri. On the west of river Sabi and Banganga, the ranges are known as Torawati hills. Lalsot Toda Bhim Range' is the name given in Sikrai, Baswa and Lalsot Tehsils. The biggest range of these hills starts from Sambhar Lake in Jaipur District to Singhana in Jhunjhunu District. The soil is generally sandy but in the west and also towards the side of Kishangarh it is rocky. The height from the sea level is 400 to 600 feet in almost all parts of the district except in the Sub-division Kishangarh where it is 200 to 500 feet. The surface is flat and plain with sandy earth and rocky tracts.

(c) Rivers and streams.

3. The principal rivers and streams flowing in the district are the Banganga, the Bandi, the Dhund, the Morel, the Sabi, the Sota, the Mashi, the Roopan, and the Dai. The Banganga flows in the Eastern part and joins the river Jamuna. The river Bandi flows in the Tehsils of Phagi, Phulera, Jaipur and Jamwa Ramgarh, and it forms a Bund at Kalekh in Phulera Tehsil. The Dhund flows in the Tehsils of Jaipur and Jamwa Ramgarh and it has got famous Bunds of Jamwaramgarh and Saintha. The Morel runs through Lalsot Tehsil and forms the famous Bund of Morel which is used for irrigation. Sabi and Sota flow in Kotputli Tehsil. The Mashi flows from west to east in Phagi Tehsil. The Roopan and Dai flow in the heart of Roopangarh and Sarwar Tehsils respectively and fall in the Banas river. The Mashi rises from Gundoland tank. (Kishangarh City). It is divided into famous strems of Rewari-ka-Bahala, Almas-ka- Bahala and Sandohiya-ka-Bahala on which are situated the villages of Ganguda and Bhogaditth.

(d) Lakes.

4. The only natural lake worth mentioning is the Salt Lake of Sambhar in Phulera Tehsil. It is nearly 20 miles long and 2 to 5 miles wide covering a total area of 90 square miles. It produces salt which is distributed and supplied throughout Northern India. Its management is directly under the Central Government.

(e) Geology.

5. The district possesses considerable wealth in minerals such as soap stone, glass and calcite, manganese, Berylore Iron ore, mica Graplates and kyanites. Several types of stones for masonary purposes are found at Bhankri Amar, Amagarh, Jaipur, Dausa and at Silora, Lime stone deposits occur at Naila and Rohori.

(f) Botany.

6. Bambool (Acacia Arabica), Khejra (Prosopis slicigera), Bar (Ziziphus Jabubay), Dhak (Butea frondosa), Shokra (Anogcisses pendula) Shisham (Dalvergona Sissoo) Sal (Shorea robrista) Pipal (Ficus raligiosa), Jamun (Engenia Jambolana) and Saras (Albissia labbek), Kikar, Khair (Acacia catechu) are, found in all parts of the district. Bamboos and thorny bushes having pink and yellow flowers are also found.

(g) Fauna.

7. In addition to the usual small game, tigers, panthers, hyenas, sambhars, pigs, and black bear abound in the jungles of Jamwa Ramgarh and other parts of the district.

8. The climate is dry and healthy and is subject to extremes of cold and heat at various places in the district. In summer the mean temperature at Jaipur is between 77° to 106° F while in winter it is between 47° to 77°F. Temperatures as low as 28° and as high as 116° have been recorded in Jaipur. The average rainfall in the district is 25 inches. The monsoon usually lasts from 15 June to 15 October. The heaviest rainfall in the district takes place in Phagi and Mozamabad

(h) Climate, temperature and rainfall.

9. The average depth at which water is found under ground is about 45 feet in the Sub-division of Jaipur and about 55 feet in the Sub-Division of Kishangarh.

(i) Underground water level.

II. History.

The District of Jaipur is composed of a portion of the former Jaipur State and whole of the former Kishangarh State. The histories of these States are given below :—

Jaipur.

The Maharaja of Jaipur is the head of theKachwaha clan of Rajputs, which claims descent from Kusa, the son of Rama, king of Ajodhya, and the hero of the famous epic poem the Ramayana. The early history of the family is obscure; but they are said to have settled at Rohtas on the Son River, whence, towards the end of the third century, they migrated to Gwalior and Narwar. Here the Kachwahas ruled for about 800 years, but they were not always independent, nor was their rule unbroken. The first Kachwaha chief of Gwalior of whom there is any record was Vajradaman, who, according to an inscription at Gwalior dated A. D. 977, took the town about that time from the rulers of Kanauj, and became independent. The eighth in descent from Vajradaman was Tej Karan, otherwise known as Dulha Rai (the bridegroom prince) who left Gwalior adout 1128. There are different stories as to the cause of his departure Some say that he was expelled by his uncle, and others that he left in order to marry Maroni, the daughter of the Bargujar Rajput Chief of Daosa, leaving Gwalior in charge of his sister's son, who was either a Perihar or a Paramara Rajput, and who repaid the confidence thus placed in him by usurping that principality. Both accounts, however, agree that Dhula Rai received from his father-in-law (who had no sons) the district of Daosa, and the Kachwaha dynasty in Eastern Rajputana may be said to date from about 1128, with the town of Daosa as its first capital. The country was at this time called Dhundhar, a name variously derived from a once celebrated sacrificial mound (DHUNDH) on the western frontier near Kalakh and Jobner, or from a demon-king called Dhundhu, whose cave is still pointed out on the hill at Galta, a little to the east of Jaipur city, or from the river Dhund, and it was parcelled out among petty Rajput and Mina chief, all owing allegiance to the Rajput kings of Delhi. About 1150 one of Dhula Rai's successors wrested Amber from the Susawat Minas and made it his capital. It remained such for nearly six centuries, and gave its name to the State. Pajun, fourth (or as some say, fifth) in descent from Dhula Rai, is said to have married the sister of Prithwi Raj Chauhan, the last Hindu King of Delhi, and was killed with the latter in 1192 in a battle with Mohammed Ghori. Towards the end of the fourteenth century Udai Karan was chief of Amber, and about this time the region now called SHEKHAWATI came into the possession of the Kachwahas.

On the irruption of the Mughals into Hindustan the Amber State as once succumbed to their supremacy. Bhar Mal, who was chief from about 1548 to 1574, was the first to pay homage to the Mohammadan power. He received from Humayun the command of 5,000 and gave his daughter in marriage to Akbar. Bahar Mal's son Bhagwandas was the friend of Akbar, whose life he is said to have saved at the battle of Sarnal. He was also a commander of 5,000 horses, and subsequently governor of the Punjab; in 1585 or 1586 he gave his daughter in marriage to Salim, who afterwards mounted the throne of Delhi as Jahangir. Man Singh, the adopted son of Bhagwandas, succeeded about 1590, and died about 1614. He was one of the most conspicuous of the imperial generals and, though a Hindu was raised to a higher rank (commander of 7,000) than any other officer in the realm. He fought in Orrisa, Bengal and Assam, and at different periods was governor of Kabul, Bengal, Bihar and the Deccan. The next chief of note was Jai Singh I, commonly known by his imperial title of Mirza Raja. His name appears in all the wars of Aurangzeb in the Deccan. He was the commander of 6,000 horses, and he captured Sivaji, the celebrated founder of the Maratha power. Eventually, it is said, Aurangzeb, becoming jealous of Jai Singh, caused his death by poison in 1667 or 1668. Passing over two chiefs, we come to Jai Singh II, commonly known as Sawai Jai Singh. Sawai was a title given by the Mughal emperor, and his borne by his descendants to this day, the word means 'one and a quarter, and is supposed to measure the superiority of the bearer to all his contemporaries whom the unit signifies. He succeeded to the Gaddi of Amber in 1699, and died in 1743. He was chiefly remarkable for his scientific knowledge and skill. He caused many mathematical works to be translated into Sanskrit and erected observatories at Jaipur, Delhi, Banaras, Mathura and Ujjain, by which he was able to correct the astronomical tables of De La Hire and to leave, as a monument of his skill, lists of stars collated by himself known as the ZIJ MOHAMMED SHAHI, or astronomical tables of Mohammad Shah, then king of Delhi, in whose favour he stood high. Removing his capital from Amber, he laid out and built the present city of Jaipur in 1728, Jai Singh was one of the most remarkable man of his age and nation. Amid revolution, the destruction of the empire, and the meteoric rise of the Marathas, he not only steered through the danger, but put his State above all the principalities around. He made, however, one great mistake. The Jaipur and Jodhpur chiefs had renewed with Udaipur the treaty for common defence against the mohammadan power; but to obtain the privilege of remarrying with the Udaipur family, which they had forfeited by giving daughters to the emperors, they agreed that the son of an Udaipur princes should succeed in preference to an elder son by other wives.

This attempt to set aside the rights of primoganiture brought great disasters on both Jaipur and Jodhpur. Soon after Jai Singh's death the Jats of Bharatpur after several successful encounters with the Jaipur chief, annexed a Portion of this State, the defection of the chief of Macheri (now Alwar), abont 1790, further reduced the limits of the territory. By the end of the century Jaipur had fallen into great confusion, being distracted by internal broils and impoverished by the exactions of the Marathas. In 1803, in the time of Jagat Singh, the most dissolute prince of his race or age, a treaty was concluded with Jaipur by the British Government, the object being to form a league against the Marathas; but the alliance was dissolved in 1805, on the ground that State had violated its engagements by not co-operating against Holkar. Subsequently the disputes between Jaipur and Jodhpur for the hand of the daughter of the Udaipur chief brought both States to the verge of ruin, while Amir Khan, with his Pindari mercenaries, was exhausting the country. In 1817 negotiations began again; and in 1818 a treaty was signed, by which the protection of the British Government was extended to Jaipur and an annual tribute fixed. Jagat Singh died in 1818, and was succeeded by the posthemous son, Jai Singh III, during whose minority the State was scene of corruption and misgovernment. A rebellion in the city in the later part of 1820 led to the deputation for the first time of a British officer to reside at the capital. In 1815 on the succession of Maharaja Ram Singh a serious disturbance in the city took place, in which colonel Alves, the Governor-General's Agent in Rajputana, was wounded, and his Assistant, Mr. Martin Blake, murdered. After this, the British Government took measures to maintain order. A Council of Regency, consisting of five of the principal nobles, was formed under the superintendence of the Political Agent, to whose decision all measures of importance were submitted. The army was reduced and every branch of the administration reformed. The tribute, fixed by the treaty of 1818 at 8 lakhs was subsequently considered excessive; and in 1842 a remission was made of over 46 lakhs of arrears, and the annual tribute was reduced to only 4 lakhs. Maharaja Ram Singh received full powers in 1851; during the Mutiny he placed the whole of his available military power at the disposal of the Political Agent, and in every way assisted the British Government and he was rewarded with the grant of the PARAGNA of Kot Kasim.

Maharaja Ram Singh was an intelligent ruler, and took great interest in opening up roads through his State and also in education. Moreover, he much extended irrigation, and gave his capital the benefits of gas and water-work. On his death-bed he nominated as his successor Kaim Singh, the younger brother of the Thakur of Isarda and a descendant of the second son of Maharaja Jagat Singh. The Government confirming the selection, Kaim Singh succeeded in 1880 under the name of Swai Madho Singh II. He was invested with full powers in 1882, and worthily followed in the footsteps of his adoptive father Among important events of His Highness's rule may be mentioned the raising of the Imperial Service Transport Corps in 1889-90; the construction of numerous irrigation works, hospitals, and dispensaries; the gift of 20 lakhs as an endowment to the Indian People's Famine Relief Trust; construction of Jaipur State Railway from Sawai Madhopur to Sikar, and contributing, both by men and money in the Great War of 1914-18.

Maharaja Madho Singh adopted a son from the Isarda family from which he had also been adopted. On Madho Singh's death, his adopted son succeeded on 7th September 1922 under the name of Man Singh II,. who is at present the Raj Pramukh of Rajasthan. He was born on 21st August 1911. After receiving his early education in the Mayo College, Ajmer and Passing the Diploma Examination of the Chief's College, His Highness proceeded to England where he underwent training at Royal Academy Woolwich. During his minority, the administration of the State was carried on by a Council. On his return from England in October 1930, he gained a practical insight into the working of the administration and assumed full ruling powers on 14th March 1931. On the 25th April 1931 he was appointed Honorary Lieutenant in the Indian Army and was promoted to the rank of Honorary Captain on the 1st January 1934 and to the rank of Honorary Major on the 24th September 1940. On 3rd June 1935 he was created a Knight Grand Commander of the Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire. Since his accession, His Highness made many improvements in administration, inaugurated reforms in many spheres and sought to modernise the State on progressive and up-to-date lines.

When the British Government in India, was about to terminate His Highness was one of the first rulers to sign the Instrument of Accession which he did on the 12th of August 1947, whereby the Jaipur State acceded to the Dominion of India in respect of External Affairs, Defence and Communications On 7th April 1949, the Jaipur State merged into the Rajasthan State which was formed of (1) the Former Rajasthan comprising the Former States of Udaipur, Dungarpur, Banswara, Pratapgarh, Shahpura, Kotah, Bundi, Jhalawar, Kishangarh, and Tonk and the chiefship of Kushalgarh and (2) the new Covenanting States of Jaipur, Jodhpur, Bikaner and Jaisalmer. His Highness Maharaja Sawai Man Singh II was appointed as Rajpramukh of this newly formed State. The Matsya Union comprising of the former States of Alwar, Bharatpur, Dholpur and Karauli merged into the Rajasthan State on 15th May 1949, and the part of the former Sirohi State also merged into it in the same year.

The former Jaipur State was split up for administrative purposes into four districts viz Jaipur, Sawaimadhopur, Sikar and Junjhunu. The former State of Kishangarh was made a Sub-Division of Jaipur District.

KISHANGARH STATE.

The chiefs of Kishangarh belong to the Rathor clan of Rajputs, and are descended from Raja Udai Singh of Jodhpur. The latter's second son, Kishan Singh, was born in in 1575, and remained in the country of his birth till 1596, when, in consequence of some disagreement with his elder brother, Sur Singh, then Raja of Jodhpur, he took up his abode at Ajmer. Obtaining an introduction to Akbar, he received from him the district of Hindaun, now in Sawai Madhopur District, and subsequently, for services rendered in recovering imperial treasure carried off by the Mers, he received a grant of Setholao and certain other districts. In 1611 he founded the town of Kishangarh close to Setholao, which is now in ruins, and from this time the State began to be called by its present name.

The thirteenth chief was Kalyan Singh (1797-1832) and in his time (1818) Kishangarh was brought under British protection His successors wise Mohkam Singh, (1832-1840) Prithwi Singh, (1840-1879) Sardul Singh, (1879-1900) Madan Singh, (1900-1928) Dixit Yagyanarayan Singh, (1928-1939) and Shri Sumer Singh, who was the ruler at the time of the merger of the State into Rajasthan.

The Kishangarh State merged on 1st May, 1948 into the former Rajasthan State, which itself merged into the present Rajasthan State in April, 1949. It now forms a Sub-Division of Jaipur District.

DEFINITIONS AND KEY TO SYMBOLS.

Definitions.

Tract:—In past censuses the census figures were tabulated by administrative units i e., districts, tehsils etc. This time in almost all tables the figures have been represented by units which have been technically called "TRACTS". Tracts are of three kinds, (1) all villages of a sub-division taken together form one rural tract; (2) all towns (which are not cities) in a district taken together form an "urban non-city tract" and (3) every city is an "urban city tract" or in short "city tract". A list of tracts comprised in each district has been given in the handbook of the district.

Town:—A "Town" has been defined as every municipality, every cantonment or every village which had a population of 5,000 or over in 1941 or any other village which wss treated as a town for special reasons by the State Census Superintendent.

City:—A "City" is normally defined as a town with a population of one lac or over, but this definition has been relaxed in Rajasthan, and towns with a population of 50,000 or over have also been treated as cities, to bring the definition in uniformity with the one adopted in the Municipal Act.

Village:—A "Village" means a revenue mauza whose revenue is realised under a separate name. It includes all hamlets attached to it.

House:—A "House" has been defined as every structure made of any material which is actually used as human habitation or if not so used, is capable of being so used, which has separate main entrance from the street, lane, by-lane' etc. It includes structures of all kinds such as residential houses, temples, mosques, offices, etc. The minimum, which was necessary for qualifying a structure to be classed as a house, was at least two walls and a roof made of any material.

Occupied House:—"Occupied houses" were those which were used actually for the residence of human beings.

Household:—A "Houeshold" has been defined to mean and include all persons living in one and the same house and dining at a common mess irrespective of their blood relationship e.g. servants residing with their masters and taking meals in their kitchen were treated as members of the master's household. On the contrary even nearest relatives as husband or wife were treated as separate families if for any reason they happened to live in separate buildings and dine at separate kitchens.

Household Population:—"Household Population" means persons living in numbered houses as members of a commensal family including guests and servants. It does not include (a) houseless persons or (b) inmates of institutions like jails, hospitals, hostels, dak bungalows, boarding houses, orphanages, sarais, dharmashalas, police lines, military lines, asylums, etc.

Displaced person:—A "Displaced person" was defined "as a person who migrated from Western Pakistan after 1st March 1947 or from Eastern Pakistan after 15th October 1946 due to communal disturbances or fear of disturbances or due to partition of India and Pakistan. Children born to such persons after their migration to India were not to be treated as displaced persons.

Ward:—A "Ward" was defined as municipal ward in case of municipal towns. In non-municipal towns wards have been made arbitrarily by the Census Department.

Means of Livelihood:—In former censuses it was customary to represent the basic population data by community or religion. This time an innovation has been made and in most of the tables the figures are published by Means of Livelihood groups. All occupations have been classified under eight broad classes and given code numbers which are as follows:—

I . . Cultivators of land wholly or mainly owned and their dependants.

II Cultivators or land wholly or mainly unowned and their dependants.

III Cultivating labourers and their dependants.

IV Non-cultivating owners of land, agricultural rent receivers and their dependants.

Persons (including dependants) who derive their principal means of livelihood from :—

V Production other than cultivation.

VI Commerce.

VII Transport.

VIII Other services and miscellaneous sources.

N. B.—In most of the Tables, the m/l class number s only given instead of describing the class.

Code No.:—In the enumeration stage a set of location code numbers was prescribed to identify each inhabited spot, whereby the districts were numbered serially within the State, tehsils within a district and cities, towns or villages within a tehsil. Similarly houses were numbered within a village and households within each house. Hamlets were given sub-numbers under the number of the parent village.

A. V—Towns Arranged Territorially with Population by Livelihood Classes.

EXPLANATORY NOTE:—

This table gives the number of persons (including dependants) in each town according to principal means of livelihood instead of religion as in past censuses, but means of livelihood classes I to III have been clubbed together and they have been shown in columns No. 15 and 16 after the non-agricultural classes.

(a) The towns have been arranged according to population. The nature of local body functioning in each town is shown in brackets after the name of the town wherever such body is functioning.

B. ECONOMIC TABLES.

1. In the 1951 Census, the Economic classification was substituted for the classification based on Religion.

2. The people have been divided into two broad livelihood categories, viz, the Agricultural Classes and the Non-Agricultural Classes.

3. There are four Agricultural Classes, defined as below :—

I Cultivators of land, wholly or mainly owned, and their dependants.

II Cultivators of land, wholly or mainly unowned, and their dependants.

III Cultivating labourers and their dependants, and

IV Non-cultivating owners of land; agricultural rent receivers, and their dependants.

4. There are four Non-Agricultural Classes, defined as comprising all persons (including dependants) who derive their principal means of livelihood from :—

V Production other than cultivation.

VI Commerce.

VII Transport.

VIII Other services, and miscellaneous sources.

5. All these classes have been referred to as Means of Livelihood Classes or in brief M/L Classes.

NOTE.—(a) Land is deemed to be owned "if it is held on any tenure (by whatever name it is known locally) which carries with it the right of permanent occupancy for purposes of cultivation." Such right should be heritable. It may be (but need not necessarily be) also transferable.

(b) A "Cultivator" (Livelihood Class I or II) is distinguished from a "Cultivating Labourer" (Livelihood class III) as the person who takes the responsible decisions which constitute the direction of the process of cultivation. All cultivating labourers are employees of cultivators.

(c) The classification of a person employed in any non-agricultural enterprise or establishment is based on the nature of his own work, not on the nature of the enterprise or establishment concerned. Thus for instance not all railway employees are classifiable under Livelihood Class VII (Transport). Those employed in Railway workshops are classifiable under Livelihood Class V and those employed on constructional services under Livelihood Class VIII.

6. Livelihood Sub-Classes :—Each of the eight M/L Classes has been divided into three sub- classes, with reference to their economic status as below :—

(i) Self-supporting persons ;

(ii) Non-earning dependants ; and

(iii) Earning dependants.

Economically active, semi-active and passive persons :—

7. All non-earning dependants are economically passive. They include persons performing house-work or other domestic or personal services for other members of the same family household. But they do not include "unpaid family workers or persons who take part along with the members of the family household in carrying on cultivation or a home industry as a family enterprise ".

8. All earning dependants are economically semi-active only. Though they contribute to the carrying on of economic activities, the magnitude of their individual contribution is deemed to be too small to justify their description as economically active.

9. All self-supporting persons are, ordinarily, economically active. But, there are certain classes and groups which constitute an exception to this rule. These are mentioned below :—

DELHI.

(i) The self-supporting persons of agricultural class IV.

(ii) The following groups of selfsupporting persons who are included in non-agricultural class VIII and derive their principal means of livelihood from miscellaneous sources (otherwise than through economic activity) :—

(a) Non-working owners of non-agricultural property,

(b) Pensioners and remittance holders,

(c) Persons living on charity and other persons with unproductive occupations, and

(d) inmates of penal institutions and asylums.

Classification of Economic activities and Economically active persons :—

10. Economic activities may be defined as including all activities of which the result is the production of useful commodities or the performance of useful services but not including the performance of domestic or personal services by members of a family household to one another.

11. The most important among all economic activities is the cultivation of land (or the production of the field crops). It stands in a category by itself. All other economic activities may be regarded as falling in another category which may be referred to as " Industries and Services ". All these activities may be classified with reference to the nature of the commodity produced or service performed. Under the present scheme, all industries and services are classified in 10 divisions ; and these divisions are sub-divided into 88 sub-divisions. The scope of activities included in each sub-division is indicated by its title.

12. Economically active persons engaged in cultivation, are either cultivators or cultivating labourers i. e., they are persons of sub-class (i) of agricultural classes I to III.

13. Economically active persons engaged in Industries and Services are classifiable in the divisions and sub-divisions. All persons included in each sub-division are further divisible into three sections viz.,

(i) Employers.

(ii) Employees, and

(iii) Independent Workers.

14. In effecting this classification, no account has been taken of whether the classified person was actually employed or unemployed on the date of enumeration. He has been allocated to that particular description of economic activity from which he has been in fact deriving a regular (that is non-casual) income, as his principal means of livelihood.

The Tables.

15. The Economic tables for the State as a whole with break-up for Natural Divisions and districts will be found in Report Part II B of the Census of India 1951, Volume X, Rajasthan and Ajmer. It also contains a full discussion of the Indian Census Economic Classification Scheme and its comparison with International Standard Industrial Classification Scheme evolved by the United Nations Organisation. This Handbook contains the above tables for this district in which they are published down to tract level.

16. The replies recorded in the census slips against census questions 9, 10 and 11 have been used for classifying every enumerated person within the framework of Economic Classification of people described above. The results have been exhibited in the three tables.

(a) Economic Table I .... Livelihood classes and sub-classes.

(b) Economic Table II ... Secondary means of livelihood.

(c) Economic Table III ... Employers, employees, and independent workers in industries and services by divisions and sub-divisions.

Economic Table I.

17. This table is the result of the record of replies to the census question No. 9 (1). It shows the distribution of population in the eight livelihood classes and 3 sub-classes of each livelihood class. A complete picture has been presented of economically active, semi-active and passive persons.

Economic Table II.

18. It specifies the number of self-supporting persons in each of the 8 classes mentioned above who have more than one means of livelihood and cross classifies them according to the nature of such secondary means of livelihood under the same eight classes. It also displays the number of earning dependants who supplement (with their own activities) the resources provided for their maintenance by the persons on whom they are dependant. The economic activity of the economically semi-active persons whereby they supplement the above resources has been shown in this table. The replies recorded in the slips against census question 11, showing the occupation of semi-active persons as also the secondary means of livelihood of selfsupporting persons (with more than one occupation) otherthan the principal means of livelihood, are the basis of this table.

Economic Table. III.

19. This table is limited to economically active persons only. Self-supporting persons engaged in Industries and Services have been classified under 10 Divisions and sub-divisions thereof. They have been further divided under each division and sub-division into three categories "Employers" "Employees", and "Independent Workers".

(a) M/L Class V (Production other than cultivation) corresponds to Division 0 to 4 (0-Primary industries not elsewhere specified, 1-Mining and quarrying; 2-Processing and manufacture-foodstuffs, textiles leather and products there of; 3-Processing and manufacture metals, chemicals and products there of; 4-Processing and manufacture not elsewhere specified).

(b) M/L class VI (Commerce) corresponds to Division 6 (Commerce).

(c) M/L class VII (Transport) corresponds to sub-divisions 7·1 to 7·4 of division 7 (Transport, storage and communications).

(d) M/L class VIII (Other services and miscellaneous sources) includes Division 5 (Construction and utilities), Division 7 (Transport storage and Communication) with the exception of sub-division 7·1 to 7·4; Division 8 (Health, education and public administration) and Division 9 (Services not elsewhere specified). It also includes other miscellaneous sources of livelihood e.g. income from investment, pensions and family remittances, proceeds of begging and other unproductive activities. These are not, however, included, in Economic Table III which is limited to industries and services. Hence there is a difference to this extent between the total self-supporting persons of the non-agricultural classes in Economic Table I and the total of this table. The reconciliation has been affected by entries of economically inactive persons with the following further classification at the end of the table (columns No. 798 to 807).

(i) Persons living principally on income from non-agricultural property.

(ii) Persons living principally on pensions, remittances, scholarships and funds

(iii) Inmates of jails, asylums and alms-houses.

(iv) Recipients of doles.

(v) Beggars and vagrants.

(vi) All other persons living principally on income derived from non-productive activities.

20. The Unit of Classification is the organised "Establishment". The commodity produced or the service performed as a result of the work of the organised establishment is the criterion for classifying the establishment. The classification of the establishment is the classification of every member of the establishment.

21. As regards "Employees", all persons, engaged, in production, commerce or transport (and not being domestic servants) have been classified under the appropriate sub-divisions with reference to their own activity, and without reference to that of their employer. Domestic servants have all been classed in one sub-division without reference to the nature of their work. All other employees (including all managerial and supervisory employees, clerks, messengers, watchmen and unskilled labourers of every description) have been classified with reference to the commodity produced or services rendered by their employers.

22. In this table occupational returns under some of the sub-divisions are nil and the columns pertaining to such sub-divisions have been omitted for the sake of economising space. Hence there are breaks in the serial number of columns.

C. IV—Age and Literacy

Explanatory Note:—This table shows the literacy by age groups of the sample population. The figures of illiterates include those of partially literates i. e. those who can read a simple letter in any script but cannot write one. Literate means one who can both read and write a simple letter in any script. As the figures in Col. No. 5 & 6 have been taken from National Registers of Citizens they will not tally with those published in table D.—VII which is based on slips.

District Index of Non-Agricultural Occupations.

This Table is prepared from the Sorter's Ticket 2. This is a sort of supplement to Economic Table B. III and provides further details of the occupational groups mentioned therein.

The Sorter's Ticket 2 was prepared in accordance with the instructions to the Sorters reproduced below :—

1. Preparation.—You have to prepare Sorter's Ticket 2 only if you have slips relating to any of the livelihood class V, VI, VII or VIII. You are to deal only those slips which relate to self-supporting persons. The slips relating to non-earning dependants or earning dependants would have been separated already and should not be used at this stage.

2. First operation.—You have first to deal the slips with reference to the Principal means of livelihood recorded against question 10. Your Supervisor will give you a list of "M/L (Means of livelihood) sub-groups"* in the order of importance for which you have to sort. Select not more than ten Pigeon-holes and affix labels bearing the names of the "M/L sub-groups" (written out in full) as given to you. The number of M/L sub-groups given to you will generally exceed ten. You should reserve one or two Pigeon-holes for throwing slips which are not covered by the M/L sub-groups shown on the lables. You should then deal the slips with reference to the answer recorded against question 10. In doing so, put together slips containing entries which are written in either identical or very similar terms to each of the labelled "M/L sub-groups." If you are in doubt whether an entry, in any case is very similar or not to the labelled M/L sub-groups, consult the Supervisor. Finish the sorting for one set of M/L sub-groups. Then distribute the slips of one set into individual occupations. Now count the number and "enter" the name and number in columns (2) and (3) of Sorter's Ticket 2. Keep the unsorted slips separate. This completes the first stage of the first operation.

3. First operation (succeeding stages).—You should then take up the slips that remain to be sorted. You should deal them again for the remaining M/L sub-groups given to you in same manner as in the first operation. The operations should be repeated successively until all the slips are sorted for all the M/L sub-groups given to you. You may find slips where the M/L as recorded in question 10 does not fall under any of the sub-groups given to you. You should deal these slips separately in the manner explained above and enter the name and number in the Sorter's Ticket. This completes the first operation. You should keep separate the bundle for each M/L sub-group.

4. Special instructions regarding non-productive means of livelihood.—Livelihood class VIII will contain slips of persons who derive their income otherwise than through Productive activity. They include all self-supporting persons against whom the answer to question 9, Part two, is 'O'. They should be treated as a distinct group, not falling under any of the prescribed divisions and sub-divisions; and sorted under the following sub-groups, viz.—

(i) Persons living principally on income from non-agricultural property.
(ii) Persons living principally on pensions, remittances, scholarships and funds.
(iii) Inmates of jails, asylums, alms houses and recipients of doles.
(iv) Beggars and vagrants.
(v) All other persons living principally on income derived from non-productive activities.

5. Second operation.—For this operation the slips mentioned in Paragraph 4 are excluded. You have to deal the remaining slips with reference to the answer recorded in the second compartment of question 9. Affix labels to three Pigeon-holes, the labels being marked "Employer", "Employee" and "Independent worker". Take the bundle

* List of M/L sub-groups.—Separate lists of sub-groups should be prepared for use in sorting each of the four different livelihood classes V to VIII. These lists should be compiled on the basis of (a) scrutinizing of entries found to occur frequently in the National Register of Citizens and (b) results of trial sorting by Supervisor and Compiler-checkers.

for each M/L sub-group and deal them into the three Pigeon-holes. You will find "मा" for "Employer" "नो" for "Employee" and "स्व" for "Independent worker" recorded in the second compartment of question 9. If you find that there is no entry you should take the order of your Supervisor. When you have completed the sorting for a M/L sub-groups you should count the number in each Pigeon-hole and enter in Columns (4) to (6) of the Sorter's Ticket according as the Pigeon-hole relates to "Employer", "Employee" and "Independent worker" respectively.

6. Second operation (succeeding stages).—You should take each of the other bundles for M/L sub-groups and deal them in the same manner as in the second operation; you should enter the result in the relevant columns of the Sorter's Ticket.

7. Conclusion.—You have now completed all operations necessary for Sorter's Ticket 2. Re-combine all the male slips and all the female slips.

If you are sorting sample slips or slips for displaced persons you should proceed to Sorter's Ticket 3.

If you are sorting general slips you should proceed to Sorter's Ticket 6.

After the Sorter completed the ticket and after due check by the Compiler-checker and the Supervisor, the ticket was handed over to the tabulation clerk to fill in the Group Code numbers in column (1) of the form of Sorter's Ticket 2 given below.—

Form of Sorter's Ticket 2.

The group code numbers were adopted from the Indian Census Economic Classification Scheme given in Part II – B of the Report.

Accuracy of Figures.

A perusal of this index shows incredible figures, against certain occupations. This is due to vague entries in the slips regarding the occupations contrary to instructions in some cases and entries with correct details in others. The result was that in the tabulation stage the only slips which contained correct details of occupations were sorted under the correct sub-group and its details, while those with vague entries were placed in the wider groups.

Another point to be borne in mind is that not all persons following an occupation have been shown against it in the Index, but those who followed it as a Principal means of livelihood. Thus if a Ticket Collector derived a greater part of his income from rent of agricultural or other land or building and some income only from his services as Ticket Collector, he would not be shown as Ticket Collector.

The third point to be kept in mind is that these figures, represent only self-supporting persons and not those who are partly dependants, thus a young boy who sits at a 'Pan shop' and gets some pay from the shop keeper which is not sufficient to support him, he has to depend upon his father's income mostly. Such a man would not appear under the occupation "Service on Betel Shop."

The last but most important defect in the figures is due to difference in the terminology prevalent in the different areas of Rajasthan describing an occupation and also partly due to want of exercise of proper care in the tabulation stage that name showing same and similar occupations have been shown as different occupations for example 'Halwai's shop" and "sweet-meat selling" have been shown as different occupations. In order therefore to find out the actual strength of self-supporting persons following a particular occupation as their principal means of livelihood, figures against all such occupations should be totalled.

On the whole, this index removes the defects pointed out in the Census Tables published in the previous Census that they do not show actual occupations but their group only.
