INTRODUCTORY NOTE

In all previous Censuses, data on the economic activity of individuals have been collected. A beginning in this direction was made in the all-India Census of 1872 in which data about occupation were recorded. There were seven broad classes of occupations in that census. In the census of 1881, economic data were collected in a greater detail. The occupation of such persons who actually did work and who contributed to the family income was alone recorded in that census. In the next census, in 1891, the economic data were collected both for workers and their dependents. In respect of workers their occupation or 'means of subsistence' was recorded. In the 1901 Census the population was divided into 'actual workers' and 'dependents'. Principal and subsidiary occupation or means of subsistence of actual workers was recorded in this census. In the case of dependents the occupations of persons on whom they were dependent were collected. More or less the same concept was followed till 1921 Census. In the 1931 Census the classification was different. The population was divided into three classes namely 'earner', 'working dependent' and 'non-working dependent'. The 'principal' and 'subsidiary' occupations of actual workers were also ascertained. In respect of managers, clerks, operatives or workmen employed in a factory the name of the industry was also recorded. In the 1941 Census 'means of livelihood in order of importance' was recorded in respect of each worker. Each person was classified into 'wholly dependent', 'partly dependent' and 'independent worker'. It was also ascertained whether the particular 'means of livelihood' had existed 'throughout the year' or 'part of the year'. In addition to this information particulars of persons employed as 'paid assistant' or 'members of household' regularly assisting in the person's occupation was also collected. The question 'Are you in employment now?' was also asked in regard, to those persons who reported their means of livelihood as 'partly dependent'. In respect of persons who were employed by others and who received cash remuneration, the nature of the employer's business was also noted. This question was not asked to persons engaged in domestic service or in agriculture. Eventhough the economic questions were elaborate in nature, the tabulation had to be curtailed due to the World War II. Some states have prepared detailed tables while some states have to satisfy themselves with the sample tables. So far as the present Kerala State is concerned detailed data for the 1941 Census were available only for the area falling in the princely states of Travancore and Cochin.

2. The questions on economic status and means of livelihood have undergone considerable changes in the 1951 Census. The term 'means of livelihood' adopted in the 1951 Census referred to the 'gainful occupation' of the individual, which formed the source from which that income which was utilised for his maintenance was normally derived, but it was more comprehensive, inasmuch as in exceptional cases, income might have secured without gainful occupation. The means of livelihood have been classified under two broad groups viz. agricultural and non-agricultural. Each of these had been again subdivided into four as given below :

(i) AGRICULTURAL CLASSES

1 Cultivators of land wholly or mainly owned

2 Cultivators of land wholly or mainly unowned

3 Cultivating labourers and

4 Non-cultivating owners of land

(ii) NON-AGRICULTURAL CLASSES

5 Production other than cultivation

6 Commerce

7 Transport and

8 Other services and miscellaneous sources.

Person under each livelihood class was classified as 'self-supporting person', 'non-earning dependent', or 'earning dependent'. A person was treated as 'self-supporting' when he or she was in receipt of an income (in cash or kind) and that income was sufficient atleast for his (or her) own maintenance. Anyone who was not a 'self-supporting person' in this sense was considered as a 'dependent'. A person who did not secure any income either in cash or in kind and was wholly dependent on the earning of some one else was treated as a 'non-earning dependent' while earning dependent was a person who secured a regular income but not sufficient to support him/her. Self-supporting persons were classified as employers, employees and independent workers. In the case of self-supporting persons, if he had more than one source of income, the means of livelihood which gave him the largest part of his income was treated as his principal means of livelihood and his next important source of income as his secondary means of livelihood. In the case of earning dependent there were two means of livelihood which were combined in order to support him. One was the principal means of livelihood of the person on whom he was dependent and the other was the source where from he secured his own income. In this case the former was treated as his principal means of livelihood while the latter as his secondary means of livelihood. In the case of a non-earning dependent, the principal means of livelihood alone was recorded which was obviously the principal means of livelihood of the person on whom he was dependent.

3. It was felt that the concept of dependency adopted in 1951 Census had a tendency to suppress those who worked in family economic activities but did not actually earn an income, like men other than the head of the household, women of the family and children working at cultivation or cottage industries of the household. There was every likelihood of omitting such persons. Therefore, in 1961 Census it was decided to change the definition by stressing more importance on work. All people who work including family workers who were not in receipt of any income or working children who could not earn enough work for their maintenance were treated as workers. Work, by this definition, included not only actual work but also effective supervision and direction of work.

4. The economic characteristics of the population were collected through the Individual Slips. The economic questions included in the Individual Slip of the 1961 Census are reproduced below :

8 Working as cultivator

9 Working as agricultural labourer

10 Working at household industry

(a) Nature of work

(b) Nature of household industry

(c) If employee

11 Doing work other than 8, 9 or 10

(a) Nature of work

(b) Nature of industry, profession, trade or service

(c) Class of worker

(d) Name of establishment

12 Activity, if not working

Of the above, questions 8 to 11 related to workers while question 12 covered non-workers. According to the instructions, a person may be 'doing work as a cultivator, as an agricultural labourer, at a household industry or may be doing other work'. He might have engaged in one of the above four categories or in more than one. All relevant answers were recorded against these questions. The principal work was defined as one in which a person spent most of his working time and not the one from which he got the maximum income. Instructions were also issued to enumerators to put a ring round the number of question for which the principal work was recorded. The subsidiary work was indicated by a tick mark on the side of the appropriate question. In the case of cultivators and agricultural labourers, the question of 'class of workers' was not ascertained. In the case of persons employed in the household industry they were classified as employee, single worker and family worker. The assumption in this regard was that in the household industry there was no question of earmarking anyone as employer because the industry belonged to the household and not to any particular person, and any person employed from outside would be an employee of the household enterprise and not of any particular person in the household. In the case of non-household industry a person was classified either as employer, employee, single worker or family worker. These classifications were applicable both for principal and secondary work.

5. The population was divided broadly into workers and non-workers. Workers were further grouped into nine industrial categories as given below:

Cultivator

II Agricultural labourer

III Mining, quarrying, livestock, forestry, fishing, hunting and plantations, orchards and allied activities

IV Household industry

V Manufacturing other than household industry

VI Construction

VII Trade and commerce

VIII Transport, storage and communications and

IX Other services

The basis of work was satisfied, in the case of seasonal work like cultivation, live stock, dairying, household industry etc., if a person had some regular work of more than one hour a day throughout the greater part of the working season. In the case of regular employment in any trade, profession, service, business or commerce the basis of work would be satisfied if the person was employed during any of the fifteen days preceding the day on which the enumerator visited the household. The non-workers were subdivided into eight considering their types of activity at the time of enumeration as given below :

(i) Full-time student or child attending school who does no other work, such as make articles at home for sale, nor even help part-time in his own family cultivation, industry, trade or business

(ii) Person engaged in unpaid home duties (like house-wife or other adult female) who does no other work such as make articles at home for sale or wages nor help regularly even part-time in family cultivation, industry, trade or business

(iii) Dependent including an infant or child not attending school, a person permanently disabled from work because of illness or old age

(iv) Retired person who is not employed again, rentier, person living on agricultural or non-agricultural royalty, rent or dividend or any other person of independent means for securing which he does not have to work and who does no other work

(v) Beggar, vagrant or independent woman without indication of source of income and others of unspecified source of existence

(vi) Convict in jail (an under trial prisoner is shown as a worker if he used to work before he was apprehended) or an inmate of a penal, mental or charitable institution

(vii) Person who has not been employed before but is seeking employment for the first time

(viii) Person employed before but now out of employment and seeking work.

6. In the 1971 Census the economic questions underwent radical changes. There were two questions on the economic activity of the individual, the first question (Q. 16) being on the 'main activity' and the second (Q. 17) on 'secondary work'. The details of these questions are reproduced below :

16 Main Activity	17 Secondary Work
(a) Broad category	(a) Broad category
(i) Worker (C, AL, HHI, OW)	(C, AL, HHI, OW)
(ii) Non-worker (H, ST, R, D, B, I, O)
(b) Place of work (Name of village/town)	(b) Place of work (Name of village/town)
(c) Name of establishment	(c) Name of establishment
(d) Nature of industry, trade, profession or service	(d) Nature of industry, trade, profession or service
(e) Description of work	(e) Description of work
(f) Class of worker	(f) Class of worker

Considering the main activity a person was categorised broadly as 'worker' and 'non-worker'. For all workers, except cultivators and agricultural labourers further details were collected through questions 16(b) to 16(f) viz. place of work, name of establishment, nature of industry, trade, profession or service, description of work and class of worker (employer, employee, single worker and family worker). Details of secondary work were recorded for all workers and also for the non-workers with type of activity mainly as 'household duties', 'students' and 'retired persons or rentiers'.

7. The 'main activity' of a person was ascertained according to the time he spent i.e. how he engaged himself mostly. A 'worker' was defined as a person whose main activity was participation in any economically productive work by his physical or mental activity. Work involved not only actual work but also effective supervision and direction of work. The reference period was one week prior to the date of enumeration in the case of regular work in trade, profession, service or business. In respect of seasonal work a person's main activity was ascertained with reference to such work in the last one year even if he was not economically active in the week prior to the enumeration. A man or woman who was engaged primarily in household duties or a boy or girl who was primarily a student attending institution, even if such a person helped in the family economic activity but not as a full-time worker, he or she was not treated as a worker for the main activity. On the other hand, if a person was primarily engaged in some economic activity but at the same time did also attend to some household chores or attended a night school etc. he or she was treated as a worker for the main activity and categorised accordingly.

8. The workers are broadly classified in this census under nine industrial categories as given below :

I Cultivator

II Agricultural labourer

III Live stock, forestry, fishing, hunting and plantations, orchards and allied activities

IV Mining and quarrying

V Manufacturing, processing, servicing and repairs

(a) Household industry

(b) Other than household industry

VI Construction

VII Trade and commerce

VIII Transport, storage and communications

IX Other services

There are certain differences in the classifications of industrial categories of 1961 and 1971. The important departure is in respect of assigning a separate category to 'mining and quarrying' i.e. Category IV, as against the combined category of 'mining, quarrying, live-stock, forestry, fishing, hunting and plantations, orchards and allied activities (category III)' of 1961. Category IV (household industry) of 1961 is grouped under category V of 1971 treating it as a sub-category. Moreover in the 1961 Census household industry covered certain establishments falling under Division 0 & 1 apart from Divisions 2 & 3. At the 1971 Census, household industry is confined to Divisions 2 & 3 only covering manufacturing, processing, servicing and repairs.

9. As against the eight types of non-working population in 1961, there are seven types of non-workers in the 1971 Census. These types are (i) persons engaged in household duties, (ii) students, (iii) retired persons or rentiers, (iv) dependents, (v) beggars etc. (vi) inmates of penal, mental or charitable institutions and (vii) other non-workers. The first six types are almost similar to those adopted in the 1961 Census. The last item viz. other non-workers, covered all the non-workers not coming in the above six items but are seeking work. A boy or girl who had completed education or had stopped studying and was seeking work was recorded under this item. A person irrespective of age, educated or not, if he reported that he was not engaged in any other work but was seeking work was also classified under this type of activity.

10. The instructions for filling up the economic questions of the Individual Slip for 1971 are given as Appendix I.

11. The following tables are presented in this volume.

B-I PART-A

B-I PART-A WORKERS AND NON-WORKERS ACCORDING TO MAIN ACTIVITY CLASSIFIED BY SEX AND AGE-GROUPS

FLY-LEAF

Table B-I Part-A, prepared on full-count basis for the total, rural and urban areas separately down to the district level, is the basic economic table showing the total population classified by the industrial categories of workers and non-workers and also by age-groups. The definition of workers in the 1971 Census is slightly different from that of the 1961 Census. The details of the change in the definition have been dealt with in the Introductory Note of this volume. According to the 1971 Census the workers are divided into the following industrial categories:

I Cultivators

II Agricultural labourers

III Live-stock, forestry, fishing, hunting and plantations, orchards and allied activities

IV Mining and quarrying

V Manufacturing, processing, servicing and repairs

(a) Household industry

(b) Other than household industry

VI Construction

VII Trade and commerce

VIII Transport, storage and communications

IX Other services

The non-workers are given as Category X in this table. The break-up of non-workers by type of activity, sex and age-groups is given in table B-VIII of Part II B (ii) Economic Tables which is published separately.

2. The age-groups adopted for the 1971 Census are 0-14, 15-19, 20-24, 25-29, 30-39, 40-49, 50-59, 60+ and 'age not stated' as against the five groups adopted in the 1961 Census viz. 0-14, 15-34, 35-59, 60+ and 'age not stated'.

3. Twenty-nine per cent of the total population in the State are returned as workers. Palghat district has the largest percentage of workers with 35.9 per cent. Cannanore and Kottayam are the other two districts where the percentage of workers are above the State average. Among female workers Palghat district stands unique with 23.4 per cent as against 13.5 for the State. They are mainly agricultural labourers. The following statement gives the distribution of 1,000 persons in each sex by workers and non-workers.

4. The workers are further classified into the nine industrial categories. 31 per cent of the workers are agricultural labourers in the State. In all the districts the same phenomena are seen except in the case of Quilon district where the cultivators are more than the agricultural labourers. The following table illustrates this.

FLY-LEAF

Table B-I Part-B, an innovation of the 1971 Census, relates only to female workers and female non-workers according to main activity classified by marital status and age-groups. The marital status groupings adopted for this table are never married, married, widowed, divorced or separated and unspecified status. The age-groups followed in the table are 0-14, 15-19, 20-24, 25-29, 30-39, 40-49, 50-59, 60+ and age not stated. This table gives estimates for the State based on a sample of 10 per cent in the rural and 20 per cent in the urban areas. This table provides valuable data on the participation of female workers in the economy of the State.

This table, based on full-count data, is prepared on the same lines as in the case of table B-I Part-A. The table corresponds to table-B-II of 1961 with the exception of the changes in the industrial categories and also the age-groups. The present table gives basic economic data for all cities and towns in the State arranged in the order of districts and also by population size classes. According to the 1971 Census there are 88 towns in the State falling in the following population ranges.

TOWNS BY POPULATION RANGES

B-III CLASSIFICATION OF WORKERS AND NON-WORKERS ACCORDING TO MAIN ACTIVITY BY EDUCATIONAL LEVELS

FLY-LEAF

This table is divided into two parts, Part-A dealing with urban areas and Part-B dealing with rural areas of the State down to district level. The figures presented in these tables represent the estimates based on 20 per cent sample in the urban areas and 10 per cent sample in the rural areas. Table B-III gives data relating to the literacy and educational levels of working population under the broad industrial categories and of the non-working population. The classification of literacy and educational levels adopted in these tables are given below:

PART-A (URBAN AREAS)

1 Illiterate

2 Literate (without educational level)

3 Primary

4 Middle

5 Matriculation or higher secondary

6 Non-technical diploma or certificate not equal to degree

7 Technical diploma or certificate not equal to degree

8 Graduate degree other than technical degree

9 Post-graduate degree other than technical degree

10 Technical degree or diploma equal to degree or post-graduate degree

(i) Engineering and technology

(ii) Medicine

(iii) Agriculture, veterinary and dairying

(iv) Teaching

(v) Others

PART-B (RURAL AREAS)

1 Illiterate

2 Literate (without educational level)

3 Primary

4 Middle

5 Matriculation or higher secondary

6 Non-technical diploma or certificate not equal to degree

7 Technical diploma or certificate not equal to degree

8 Graduate and above

2. In the 1971 Census a literate has been defined as a person who can both read and write with understanding in any language. A person who can merely read but cannot write is not a literate. Moreover it is not necessary that a person who is a 'literate' should have received any formal education or should have passed any minimum educational standard. A person's ability to read and write was tested by allowing him to read any printed matter and by asking him to write any simple letter. Ability merely to sign one's name was not adequate to qualify a person as being able to write with understanding. In respect of all persons who are literates their highest educational level attained was also ascertained. The highest educational level attained by a person was one that he had actually passed and not the one in which he was studying at the time of enumeration. In respect of those persons who had passed a Standard and had relapsed into illiteracy had been treated as illiterates.

3. At present in Kerala standards I to IV constitute the Lower Primary section while standards V to VII the Upper Primary section. The High School section or Secondary School section has standards VIII to X. Those persons who are studying in Lower Primary sections and have not passed standard IV are classified under 'Literate (without educational level)'. Persons who have passed standard IV and not passed standard VII are grouped under 'Lower Primary', while those who have passed standard VII and not passed standard X come under 'Upper Primary'. The persons whose educational level is given as 'Middle' in the table are inclusive of those passed the Upper Primary. Similiarly those persons who have passed standard X, S.S.L.C. or equivalent are treated as persons having educational qualification 'Matriculation or Higher Secondary'. In regard to those persons whose educational level could not be classified have been included under 'literate (without educational level)'.

B-IV INDUSTRIAL CLASSIFICATION OF WORKERS BY MAIN ACTIVITY

FLY-LEAF

This table, giving the estimates based on a sample of 10 per cent in the rural areas and 20 per cent in the urban areas consists of four parts as given below:

Part-A Industrial classification of persons at work other than at cultivation as main activity by sex and divisions, major groups and minor groups (An appendix to this table is also given).

Part-B Industrial classification of workers in manufacturing, processing, servicing and repairs on household industry basis as main activity by sex and class of workers.

Part-C Classification of workers in non-household industry, trade, business, profession or service as main activity by class of workers-age and sex.

Part-D Industrial classification by sex and class of workers of persons at work in non-household industry, trade, business, profession or service as main activity.

There are some slight differences in the concepts and definitions adopted on the economic questions in the Censuses of 1961 and 1971. They have been dealt with in detail in the Introductory Note of this volume.

2. The broad relationship of the tables on industrial classification of workers in 1971 with the similar tables in 1961 is given below :

1971 Census	1961 Census
B-IV Part-A	..
,, Appendix	B-IV Part-C
B IV Part-B	B IV Part-A
B IV Part-C	..
B-IV Part-D	B IV Part-B

3. The salient features of the tables are given below

(i) Table B-IV Part-A gives sex-wise distribution of working population other than those engaged in cultivation by divisions, major groups and minor groups of the National Industrial Classification 1970. This table is prepared for all areas and urban areas of the State down to district level. The appendix to this table gives data on workers engaged in manufacturing, processing, servicing and repairs classified by household industry and non-household industry.

(ii) Table B-IV Part-B gives details of workers at household industry for total, rural, and urban areas of the State by sex. The workers are further classified by class of workers viz. employees and single workers. The number of family workers is not presented separately in this table but it can be derived from the table itself. The table is presented by divisions and major groups of NIC 1970.

(iii) Table B-IV Part-C is a newly introduced table in 1971 which gives the age composition of each class of worker engaged in activities in non-household industry, trade, business, profession or service. The table is presented for the total and urban areas of the State. The age-groups adopted for this table are 0-14, 15-19, 20-24, 25-29, 30-39, 40-49, 50-59, 60+ and age not stated.

(iv) Table B-IV Part-D provides data on the distribution of workers by each class of worker viz. employer, employee, single worker and family worker by sex and also by divisions and major groups of NIC 1970. This table is presented for total and urban areas of the State down to the district level.

4. The industrial classification adopted in the population censuses vary from census to census. Till the 1951 Census the classification was generally an amalgam of industrial and occupational features. In the 1951 Census all industries and services (other than cultivation) was divided into the following ten divisions:

0 Primary industries not elsewhere specified
1 Mining and quarrying
2 Processing and manufacture of food stuffs, textiles, leather and products thereof
3 Processing and manufacture of metals, chemicals and products thereof
4 Processing and manufacture not elsewhere specified
5 Construction and utilities
6 Commerce
7 Transport, storage and communications
8 Health, education and public administration
9 Services not elsewhere specified.

The above ten divisions were further sub-divided into 88 sub-divisions and 217 groups.

5. In the 1961 Census, for the first time in census history the economic data were collected and tabulated separately under 'industrial' and 'occupational' classifications. For this purpose the term 'industry' denoted the sector of economic activity in which the worker was engaged while the term 'occupation' covered the exact function or work that an individual performed in that sector. The Standard Industrial Classification adopted in the 1961 Census was divided into 9 divisions, 45 major groups and 343 minor groups. The details of the divisions are given below :

0	Agriculture, live stock, forestry, fishing and hunting
1	Mining and quarrying
2 & 3	Manufacturing
4	Construction
5	Electricity, gas, water and sanitary services
6	Trade and commerce
7	Transport, storage and communications
8	Services
9	Activities not adequately described

A one-digit code number represents a division, a two-digit code number represents a major group and a three-digit code number represents a minor group of industries.

6. After the 1961 Census an attempt was made to evolve a standard industrial classification in the line with I.S.I.C. For this purpose a Technical Committee consisting of the representatives of the office of the Registrar General, India, Directorate General of Employment and Training, Ministry of Internal Trade and Industry, and the Central Statistical Organization was constituted to work out a three-digit level of standard classification of industries. The committee prepared the National Industrial Classification 1970. This has been adopted by the Office of the Registrar General, India with suitable modifications. The NIC 1970 consists of 10 divisions (at the first digit level) 66 major groups (at the second digit level) and 386 minor groups (at the third digit level). The divisions along with the code numbers are listed below :

0	Agriculture, hunting, forestry and fishing
1	Mining and quarrying
2 & 3	Manufacturing and repair
4	Electricity, gas and water
5	Construction
6	Wholesale and retail trade and restaurants and hotels
7	Transport, storage and communications
8	Financing, insurance, real estate and business services.
9	Community, social and personal services
X	Activities not adequately described.

7. For the benefit of the data-users a statement showing the correspondence between the National Industrial Classification, 1970 and the Standard Industrial Classification 1960 is given below:

NOTE—1 Importing and exporting of goods and commodities under minor group 690 of S. I. C. 1960 will go under respective minor groups of wholesale and retail trade of commodities concerned.

2 * It may be noticed that the major group 03-Agricultural services—has been included for the first time in the National Industrial Classification of 1970 for which there is no corresponding major group in Standard Industrial Classification of 1960. Hence it is difficult to establish one to one code correspondence in such cases.

8. As already pointed out cultivators and agricultural labourers have been excluded from this table as such minor groups 000 to 006 do not appear in this table. Minor group X00 and X10 have been merged with minor group 990 for presentation of data in this table. The descriptions of each division, major group and minor group of the NIC 1970 are given as appendix II to this volume.

APPENDIX IX I

INSTRUCTIONS TO ENUMERATORS FOR FILLING UP THE ECONOMIC QUESTIONS OF THE INDIVIDUAL SLIP, 1971 CENSUS

Question 16: Main Activity

Every person will be asked what his main activity is, that is, how he engages himself mostly. For the purpose of this question, all persons will get themselves divided into two broad streams of main activity namely, (1) as workers and (2) as non-workers according to the type of main activity that the person returns himself as engaged in mostly.

'Worker' defined: A 'worker' is a person whose main activity is participation in any economically productive work by his physical or mental activity. Work involves not only actual work but effective supervision and direction of work.

Reference period: The reference period is one week prior to the date of enumeration in the case of regular work in trade, profession, service or business. If a person had participated in any such regular work on any one of the days during this reference period and this has been returned as his main activity, the person will be categorised accordingly. A person who normally works but had been absent from work during this reference period on account of illness or travel, holiday, temporary breakdown, strike etc., the person should be treated as engaged in regular work in which he would have otherwise been employed but for his temporary absence. Persons under training such as apprentices with or without stipends or wages should be considered as economically active and recorded as working. A person who has merely been offered work but has not actually joined it, is not to be treated as engaged in work.

There are certain types of works which are not carried on throughout the year such as cultivation, livestock keeping, plantation work, some types of household industry, etc. A person's main activity should be ascertained with reference to such work in the last one year even if he was not economically active in the week prior to enumeration. It is likely that even when a person is engaged in some other work during the period of one week prior to the date of enumeration, the main activity of the person may be cultivation, agricultural labour or some other work attended to normally by him in the course of the year. Care must be taken to see that the main activity is properly ascertained in such cases. For example, a person's main activity may be agricultural labour and in the week prior to enumeration he may be engaged as a sugar-cane factory labourer or as a road cooly. He should be categorised for his main activity as agricultural labourer only as returned by him as he engages himself mostly in that work and the other work should be treated as his subsidiary work.

A man or woman who is engaged primarily in household duties such as cooking for own household or performing one's own household duties or a boy or a girl who is primarily a student attending institution, even if such a person helps in the family economic activity but not as a full-time worker should not be treated as a worker for the main activity. On the other hand, if a person is primarily engaged in some economic activity but at the same time does also attend to some household chores or attends a night-school etc., he or she should be treated basically as a worker for the main activity and categorised accordingly.

A person who merely receives an income such as a rent receiver or a pensioner who does not have to work for receiving the income, will not be treated as economically active unless the person is also engaged in some economic activity and if that activity is returned as the main activity of the individual.

Q. 16(a) Broad Category (i) Worker (C, AL, HHI, OW) (ii) Non-worker (H, ST, R, D, B, I, O)

The main activity returned by the person will entitle him to be categorised either as a worker in 16 (a) (i) or as a non-worker under 16 (a) (ii).

16 (a) (i) Worker (C, AL, HHI, OW)

Where the main activity of a person qualifies him to be treated as a worker he should be further categorised according to the type of work, and one of the appropriate abbreviations indicated against this question should be entered in the box provided for the purpose. If the person is not engaged in any economic activity an 'X' should be noted in the box. The abbreviations to be used for workers are explained below:

C: CULTIVATOR

For a person who returns his main activity as working as a cultivator, the abbreviation 'C' should be used.

Definition of Cultivator: For purposes of the census a person is working as cultivator if he or she is engaged in cultivation by oneself or by supervision or direction in one's capacity as the owner or lessee of land held from Government or as a tenant of land held from private persons or institutions for payment of money, kind or share.

Cultivation involves ploughing, sowing and harvesting and production of cereals and millet crops such as wheat paddy, jowar, bajra, ragi etc., and pulses, raw jute and kindred fibre crop, cotton etc., and other crops such as sugar-cane, groundnuts, tapioca, etc., and does not include fruit-growing, vegetable-growing or keeping orchards or groves or working of plantations like tea, coffee, rubber, cinchona and other medicinal plantations.

A person who merely owns land but has given out land to another person or persons for cultivation for money, kind or share of crop and who does not even supervise or direct cultivation of land, will not be treated as working as cultivator. Similarly, a person working in another person's land for wages in cash, kind or share (Agricultural labourer) will not be treated as cultivator in this question.

AL: AGRICULTURAL LABOURER

A person who returns his main activity as engaged as agricultural labourer, the abbreviation 'AL' should be used in the box.

Definition of an Agricultural Labourer: A person who works in another person's land for wages in money, kind or share should be regarded as an agricultural labourer. He has no risk in the cultivation but he merely works in another person's land for wages. The labourer could have no right of lease or contract on land on which he works.

H.H.I.: HOUSEHOLD INDUSTRY

For a person who returns his main activity as engaged in some production, processing, servicing or repair of articles of goods such as, say, handloom weaving, dyeing, carpentry, bidi rolling, pottery manufacture, bicycle repairing, blacksmithy, tailoring etc., it has to be ascertained if it is a household industry, and if so, it should be indicated by the abbreviation 'HHI' in the box.

Definition of a Household Industry: A household industry is defined as an industry conducted by the head of the household himself/herself and/or mainly by the members of the household at home or within the village in rural areas and only within the premises of the house where the household lives in urban areas. The industry should not be run on the scale of a registered factory.

The main criterion of a household industry is the participation of one or more members of a household. This criterion should apply to urban areas too. Even if the industry is not actually located at home in rural areas there is greater possibility of the members of the household participating even if it is located anywhere within the village limits. In the urban areas where organised industry takes greater prominence, the household industry should be confined to the precincts of the house where the participants live. In urban areas even if the members of the household by themselves run an industry but at a place away from the precincts of their home, it will not be considered a household industry. It should be located within the precincts of the house where the members live.

A household industry should relate to production, processing, servicing, repairing or making and selling (but not merely selling) of goods. It does not include professions such as a pleader or doctor or barber, musician, dancer, waterman, dhobi, astrologer, etc., or merely trade or business, even if such professions, trade or services are run at home by members of household.

Sometimes it is likely that the person who may not be working in his own household industry may be working as a petty employee in another household industry. You should, therefore, enquire whether the person who is not working in his own household industry is working in any other household industry as an employee and record as per instructions given above.

OW: Other Workers

If a person gives his main activity as engaged in any other work which is not cultivation, agricultural labour or household industry, this may be indicated by merely noting 'OW' in the box. The type of workers that may come under the 'Other Workers' category are factory workers, those working in trade or transport, all Government servants, municipal employees, teachers, mining workers, political or social workers, building labourers, etc. etc. In effect, all types of economic activity not covered by cultivation, agricultural labour or household industry will come under this residual category. Workers engaged in plantation or forestry should not be treated as cultivators or agricultural labourers but as 'Other Workers'.

Further details pertaining to this 'Other' category of workers, as also those engaged in household industry, will be recorded in the subsequent sub-parts (b) to (f) of question 16.

16 (a) (ii) Non-worker (H, ST, R, D, B, I, O)

As was stated earlier, question 16 is intended to ascertain the main activity of every individual whether he or she is economically active or not. While 16 (a) (i) helps to broadly categorise all those who have returned some work as their main activity, 16 (a) will help to categorise those whose main activity is not engaged in any economically productive work, but are basically non-workers. These may be categorised under seven broad heads whose abbreviations are indicated against this question. The appropriate abbreviation will have to be entered in the box provided. The abbreviations are explained below:

H: Household Duties

This covers all those persons basically engaged in unpaid home duties doing no other work, or even if such a person may also be participating in some other work, it is not to the same extent as a whole-time worker and if the person has returned his or her main activity as attending to household duties. The main activity of such a person should be entered as 'H'. If a person whose main activity is attending to household duties, also engages oneself in some other economic activity such as helping in family cultivation or preparing cowdung cakes at odd times for sale etc., that economic activity will be covered as secondary work under question 17. On the other hand, a woman who works primarily as a factory worker or a plantation labourer or an agricultural labourer or in some office or shop etc., and also attends to household duties, obviously her main activity will be the economic activity in which she is mostly engaged in and should not be categorised as 'H' for her main activity in this question. She should have been treated basically as a worker and her main economic activity should have been recorded against 16 (a) (i).

ST: Student

This refers to those whose main activity is returned as a student. This will cover all full-time students or children attending school Even if such persons participated in some work but not to the same extent as a full-time worker, by merely helping casually as an unpaid family worker in family cultivation, household industry, trade or business, they should be treated primarily as students, if that is their main activity. 'ST' should be entered in the box. The other economic activity, if any, that such persons attend to will be reflected under question 17 as secondary work.

R: Retired Person or a Rentier

A person who has retired from service and is doing no other work i.e. not employed again in some full-time work or does not engage himself in some other work as cultivation, in business, trade, etc., or a person who is a rentier or living on agricultural or non-agricultural royalty, rent or dividend, or any other person of independent means for securing which he does not have to work, will come under this category. 'R' should be noted in the box for a person coming under this category.

D : Dependent

This category will include all dependents such as infants or children not attending school or a person permanently disabled from work because of illness or old age. If a girl or an old woman attends to household duties she should be categorised under 'H' for her main activity rather than 'D'.

Dependents will include all non-workers even if able-bodied who have no other activity coming under any of the categories of non-workers and who are not seeking any work either but are purely dependent.

B : Beggars etc.

This will cover beggars, vagrants or such cases as independent women without indication of source of income and those of unspecified sources of subsistence and who are not engaged in any economically productive work.

I : Institutions

This will cover convicts in jails or inmates of a penal, mental or charitable institution, even if such persons are compelled to do some work such as carpentry, carpet weaving, vegetable-growing etc., in such institutions. An under-trial prisoner in a jail should not, however, be brought under this category but has to be indicated according to the main activity he was engaged in before he was apprehended. Inmates of such institutions will be noted as 'I'.

O : Other Non-workers

This will include all non-workers who may not come under any of the six categories above but are seeking work, they should be noted as 'O' in the box. A boy or girl who has completed education or has stopped studying and is seeking work, will come under this category. If a person is merely spending his time at home as a dependent and is not doing any work and is not seeking any work will come under 'D' rather than 'O'. A person irrespective of age and whether educated or not, if he reports that he is not engaged in any other activity but is seeking work will come under this category.

If the main activity of the person who is enumerated does not qualify a person to be treated as a worker and he does not fall under any of the four broad categories of workers covered by 16 (a) (i) and an 'X' has been put in the box against that question, then he must necessarily be categorised under any one of the seven broad types of non-workers and the appropriate abbreviation entered in the box opposite to question 16(a) (ii). Conversely if a person has already been treated as a worker and his main activity has been indicated in the box against question 16 (a) (i), then question 16 (a) (ii) will not apply to the person and an 'X' should be put in the box against question 16(a) (ii). Thus 16(a) (i) and 16 (a) (ii) are mutually exclusive.

Q. 16 (b) to 16 (f)

These sub-parts of question 16 will have to be filled only to describe the details of the household industry or other work indicated against question 16 (a) (i). If the main activity has been shown as 'C' or 'AL' against 16 (a) (i), there is no need to give the details of the cultivation or agricultural labour in these sub-sections.

Similarly, if the main activity of an individual has been returned as a non-worker against 16 (a) (ii), sub-sections (b) to (f) will not apply and a 'X' may be put right across all these questions.

Q. 16 (b) : Place of Work (Name of village/town)

Ascertain from each person who is already taken as a worker other than in cultivation or agricultural labour i.e. question 16(a) (i) has been answered as HHI or OW, the village or town where he or she works. If the place of work is the same as the village or town of enumeration write 'PL'. In all other cases you should write the name of the place fully. If a person has no fixed place of work such as, say, a travelling vendor of vegetables or a pedlar or a rickshaw puller who may go from one village or town to another, note 'No fixed place of work'. If he works in one particular town or village that should be noted.

Q. 16 (c) : Name of Establishment

This question and the subsequent sub-sections of question 16 need not be answered for cultivators and agricultural labourers who are already noted as 'C' or 'AL' against question (16) (a) (i).

Record here the exact name of the factory, firm, workshop, business house, company, shop, office etc., and in respect of public offices you should clearly indicate whether they are Central or State Government or local body offices, etc. If the establishment does not have any definite name such as, say, in the case of a household industry like hand pounding of rice, gur making, beekeeping, handloom weaving, potter's house, blacksmithy etc., note 'No particular name'.

Q. 16 (d): Nature of Industry, Trade, Profession or Service

The answer to this question will have to be adequately precise to enable proper classification of the sector of economy in which the person is working. The sector of economy in which a person works may relate to (i) Plantation, Forestry, Fishing, Live-stock etc., (ii) Mining and/or Quarrying (iii) Manufacturing (iv) Construction (v) Electricity, Gas or Water Supply (vi) Transport and Communications (vii) Trade and Commerce (viii) Professions and Services. Full details of the type of industry, trade, profession or service in which the person is engaged will have to be recorded here.

Q. 16 (e) Description of Work

This question has to be filled up for all persons for whom the main activity is shown as 'HHI' or 'OW' in question 16 (a) (i) and for whom you should have also to answer the other sub-sections of question 16. Under this question, the description of the actual work that the person enumerated is doing is to be recorded irrespective of which type of industry, trade, profession or service he may be working and which is already recorded under question 16(d). His actual work should also be given in sufficient detail. If for example a person is merely recorded as say, clerk with no other details, it will be impossible to properly categorise him as to the type of work he does. He may be a clerk attending to correspondence or book-keeping or accounting. Similarly if a person were merely to be recorded as a mechanic, it will not help to determine what type of mechanic—electrical mechanic, or a motor mechanic or a locomotive mechanic, etc., he is The description of the actual work done by a person should be ascertained in adequate detail and recorded against this question.

It has been found in the past that substantial number of persons are recorded merely as general labourers. It is necessary to make a probe and find out in which type of work he is mostly engaged as a labourer such as, say, a road cooly, a loader or unloader at a market, a construction labourer, etc.

For those in Military service it is enough if it is merely noted as 'in the service of the Central Government'. Other details need not be given.

General:

There need be no confusion as to the scope of 16 (d) and 16 (e). 16 (d) would represent the nature of industry, trade, profession or service i.e. the field of economic activity in which a person is engaged in work and 16 (e) represents the occupation or the actual work that the person does in the industry, trade, profession or service in which he is engaged. Thus, for example the answer to question 16 (d) may be say cotton textile manufacture and the answer to question 16 (e) may be, chemical engineer in that industry or a clerk or an accountant in that industry or a labourer in that industry or a truck driver or the managing director of that industry and so on. Similarly in question 16 (d) the nature of service may be some department of the State Government Service and in question 16 (e) the description of work may be a clerk or an accountant, a director of the department, jeep driver in the Dept. etc., etc. Again say, against question 16 (d) the answer may be private medical practice and in 16 (e) may cover orthopaedic surgeon, or nurse or a sweeper etc., working in that private medical practitioner's nursing home.

Q. 16 (f) Class of Worker

For a person who is;

(i) an Employer, that is, who hires one or more persons in his work described in question 16 (e), write.....ER

(ii) an Employee, that is, who does his work described in question 16 (e) under others for wages or salary in cash or kind, write..... .....EE

(iii) a Single Worker, that is, who is doing his work described in question 16 (e) without employing others except casually, and without the help of other members of the family except casually and a participant in work as members of cooperatives, write..... ...SW

(iv) a Family Worker, that is, who is doing his work described in question 16(e) in a family enterprise along with other members of the family without wages or salary in cash or kind, wrie ....FW

For a person for whom an 'X' is put in questions 16 (d) and 16 (e), put an 'X' in this question also.

Explanation:

An Employer is a person who has to employ other persons in order to perform the work entered in question 16 (e).

That is to say, such a person is not only responsible for his own personal work but also for giving work to others in business mentioned in question 16 (e). But a person who employs domestic servants for household duties or has subordinates under him in an office where he is employed by others, is not an employer, even if he has the power to employ another person in his office on behalf of his own employer or employers.

An Employee is a person who usually works under some other person for salary or wages in cash or kind. There may be persons who are employed as managers, superintendents, agents, etc., and in that capacity employ or control other workers on behalf of their own employers. Such persons are only employees, as explained above, and should not be regarded as employers.

A Single Worker for the purpose of question 16 (f) is a person who works by himself. He is not employed by any one else and in his turn does not employ anybody else, not even members of his household except casually. This definition of a Single Worker will include a person who works in joint partnership with one or several persons hiring no employees, and also a member of a producer's co-operative. Each one of the partners or members of such producers' co-operatives should be recorded as 'Single Worker'.

A Family Worker is a member who works without receiving wages in cash or kind, in an industry, business, trade or service. For example, the working members in a family of dhobis where they all participate and each does not receive wages separately will be family workers. There may be family workers in industry, trade or professions as well. For the purpose of this definition members of a family may be drawn from beyond the limits of the household by ties of blood or marriage. The family worker may not be entitled to a share of the profits in the work of the business carried on either by the person or head of the household or other relative.

Members of the household who help solely in household duties should not be treated as family workers.

In the case of persons engaged in household industry i.e., in the case of persons for whom the answer to question 16 (a) (i) is 'HHI.' there will be three classes of workers viz., Family Worker, Single Worker and Employee. There will be no Employer. Household industry by its very definition is conducted by the head of the household himself or/and other members of the household, the role of hired workers being secondary. If the head along with the members of the household is working in a household industry employing hired workers, the head and other members who are working should be treated as 'Family workers'. If the head alone is working with the assistance of hired worker(s) whose role would be secondary as indicated above, he would be treated as a 'Single Worker'.

Q. 17: Secondary Work

This question should be asked of every person whether he has returned some work as his main activity against 16 (a) (i) or had returned himself under any of the basically non-working categories against question 16 (a) (ii). As was noted earlier, 16 (a) (ii) will cover cases like persons performing household duties or students who may not be engaged in any other economically productive work at all, as also those who, though basically are performing household duties or students etc., for the purpose of their main activity, still participated in some other economic activity such as helping the household in several items of work, as in cultivation or in household industry or in looking after the cattle, in attending to family business etc. but not to the extent as a full-time worker. Such participation will be considered as secondary work of these persons.

Ask of each person if, besides what he had already returned as his/her main activity against questions 16 (a) (i) or 16 (a) (ii), he/she participated in any secondary work. A number of unpaid family workers participating in the household enterprises, who might have returned themselves mainly as 'H' or 'ST' or 'R' under question 16 (a) (ii) for their main activity will be netted here for their economic activity which is subsidiary. Mere rendering of service for one's own home or production of goods for purely domestic consumption are not to be treated as economic activity. For example, a servant who works as a cook in his or her employer's home for wages will be considered economically active but, a housewife, even if she may work much more than a paid servant, in having to cook for the family or looking after the household will not be treated as economically active for the purpose of this classification. Similarly, women who may produce cloth on a loin loom at home for domestic consumption will not be treated as economically active unless the products are sold and the household derives an income. Participation in work that goes to augment the income of the household will only be treated as economic activity. A boy whose main activity is shown as a student under 16 (a) (ii), can have the secondary work of say, cultivation if he helped the head of the household in the family cultivation during some parts of the season. But if a girl student, whose main activity is shown as 'ST' under 16 (a) (ii), also helped in weaving cloth purely for domestic consumption on a loin loom at home, or helped in attending to household chores, she will not be treated as having any secondary work. Secondary work will be reckoned only if the person is engaged in some economic activity even if marginal in addition to whatever is the main activity under question 16. A person whose main activity is shown as, say, a clerk in a Government Office or a teacher under question 16, also attends to some cultivation by his direct supervision or undertakes some tuition, this will be shown as secondary work under question 17. A person's main activity may be cultivation in question 16 and his subsidiary activity money lending in question 17. Again main activity may be agricultural labourer and subsidiary work sugar factory labourer and so on and so forth.

The instructions for the usage of abbreviations in categorising workers under 16 (a) (i) and filling in the details under 16 (b) to (f) will apply mutatis mutandis, to question 17 (a) to (f), except that while question 16 (a) (i) will cover the main work, Q. 17(a) is intended to cover secondary work which may be possibly part-time. It may also be noted that the non-working categories of activity will not be reported as secondary work under question 17.

APPENDIX II

NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL CLASSIFICATION (N.I.C.) 1970

(As adopted by the office of the Registrar General, India, for the Industrial Classification of 'Establishment' and economically active population)

INTRODUCTION

Industrial Classifications are used in the classification of economically active population, in the presentation of statistics of industrial production and distribution, labour statistics and economic data like national income etc., comparability of statistics available from various sources on different aspects of economy, and the usability of data for economic analysis demand standardisation of the system of Industrial Classification.

The Industrial Classification used in the population censuses differed from one census to another and till 1951 Census, it was generally an amalgam of industrial and occupational features.

In the 1961 Census, the Indian Standard Industrial Classification (ISIC) evolved in 1958 by the Directorate General of Employment and Training was used. There has been a variety of Industrial Classifications in India such as Labour Bureau's industrial classification of factories, Standard Industrial Classification evolved by Central Statistical Organisation etc. While attempts have been made in several cases to bring these classifications in line with the I.S.I.C. these have produced different versions depending on the nature of the respective needs. An attempt at evolving a Standard Industrial Classification was made when an interdepartmental meeting, in which all concerned departments of the Central Government along with other important users were represented, was held in April, 1964 to consider the subject. After a detailed consideration of general principles for a Standard Industrial Classification, the meeting appointed a Technical Committee consisting of representatives of the Registrar General, India, Directorate General of Employment and Training, Ministries of Internal Trade and Industry and the Central Statistical Organisation (C.S.O.) to work out a three-digit level standard classification of industries. In the meantime, the Statistical Office of the United Nations was also considering the revision of the I.S.I.C. 1968. This was ready in September, 1968 and it was circulated by the C.S.O. among all concerned organisations inviting their suggestions. After a number of meetings of the representatives of these organisations, the National Industrial Classification (N.I.C.) 1970 was finalised. This has been adopted by the Office of the Registrar General, India, with suitable modification.

Like the I.S.I.C.-1969, the National Classification attempts to group together economic activities which are akin in terms of the process adopted, the raw materials used and the finished products produced. The Classification does not draw any distinction according to the type of ownership or type of economic organisation. And except in cases like textiles etc., where traditional processes of production are in vogue in significant measures, the classification does not endeavour to distinguish between various modes of operation as for instance, using power or not using power factory or household, large-scale or small scale. Identification of the special features of the Indian economy, where in certain sectors traditional processing is substantial, has been attempted in the two-digit and three-digit levels in the N.I.C. 1970.

The basis of classification being the nature of economic activity carried on in an establishment, it follows that the unit classification should be an establishment. The term 'establishment' may be defined as an economic unit which is engaged in one or predominately one kind of activity usually at a single physical location under single ownership or control. A firm or enterprise may have more than one establishment either on the same location or on different locations engaged either in the same economic activity or in different economic activities. In either case, each establishment is to be counted separately and classified appropriately. It is also likely that some establishments are engaged in more than one economic activity. To the extent possible, it is desirable to treat each technical unit, or ancillary unit or welfare unit, engaged in a different type of activity as a separate establishment. Examples of technical units are the departments of textile mills which spin yarn, weave cloth, and dye the cloth or departments of a meat packing plant which produce lard lure bacon or can meat. Clearest examples of ancillary units are central administration offices, warehouses, garages, repairshops and electric power plants which primarily serve their parent units. Examples of welfare units are schools or dispensaries run by say, steel mills for the benefit of their employees. Where it is not possible to separate technical, ancillary and welfare units from their parent establishments, the establishment will have to be classified into one or other of the minor groups in the classification according to the major activity of the establishment. The major activity of the establishment should generally be ascertained by reference to value added by the production of different products or services rendered or net revenue derived from the various activities. Where such an assessment is not possible, the classification may be determined in terms of gross revenue attributable to the products or services put out by the establishment, the number of persons employed on various activities or the proportion of labour-cost assignable to those activities whichever may be convenient and appropriate. Where the integration of activities in an establishment and in the case of a factory producing pulp as well as paper, the classification will have to depend on the final product irrespective of the magnitude of the value added at different levels of production. In the Indian economy, it sometimes becomes necessary to classify, by industry, persons who are own-account workers, as in the censuses of population and sample surveys of households. In such cases the distinction between industrial and occupational classifications becomes blurred. In the case of such own-account workers, it is desirable to classify them under industries appropriately akin to their occupations.

The National Industrial Classification (N.I.C.)-1970 consists of

10 Divisions (at the first digit level)

66 Major Groups (at the second digit level); and 385 Minor Groups (at the third digit level).

While adopting the N.I.C.-1970, the Office of the Registrar General, India, have made a modification in the classification of .'Repairing' or 'Repair-service'-establishments.

In the N.I.C.-1970 'Repair work' has been included in 'Manufacture' in some cases, like Minor Groups.

"351-Manufacture and repair of drills, coal cutting machines, etc., etc.," and

"359-Manufacture and repair of non-electrical machinery etc., etc.".

While in case of other repairing establishments, such as "Repair of Footwear and Leather goods etc. Electrical repair shops, repair of Motor Vehicles and Motor Cycles, etc."

these have been classified under Major Group 97-"Repair Services" and yet another Division 'Y' and Major Group 'YO' as 'Repair Service (if not included under Major Group 97)', has been provided.

It was felt that 'Repairs or Servicing' should be assigned to 'Manufacturing or processing' activity under Divisions '2 & 3' which incidentally makes for comparability of classification at the 1961 Census. Accordingly a Major Group '39-Repair' has been inserted under Divisions 2 & 3 with the following Minor Groups:

390-Repair of footwear and other leather goods

391-Electrical repair shop

392-Repair of motor vehicles and motor cycles

393-Repair of watch, clock and jewellery

394-Repair of bicycles and cycle-rickshaws

395-Repair enterprises not elsewhere classified

The N.I.C.- 1970 incorporates some of the major revisions contained in the I.S.I.C, 1969, e.g., transfer of 'Restaurants and Hotels' from 'Services' to 'Trade', clubbing of Banking, insurance, real estate, and business services: transfer of veterinary service from agricultural services to medical and health services, treating sanitary services among community services etc.

APPENDIX III

A NOTE ON THE SAMPLING PROCEDURE ADOPTED IN THE 1971 CENSUS

Sample size

From the Individual slips relating to the rural parts of a taluk 10 percent sample of the slips was selected linear systematically with a random start. In the urban part of the district a 20 per cent systematic sample of the individual slips was selected with separate random start. The sample sizes were adopted on consideration of required precision, available resources and operational convenience.

Selection procedure

The sample design adopted in 1971 Census was stratified systematic sample of individual slips. For the purpose of sample selection, each district was divided into three sub-regions as follows :

1 Taluk (Rural)
2 Non-city Urban district
3 City (Urban unit with 100,000 & above population).

These sub-regions were termed as operational units. If, however, any of the operational unit was unduly large, it was divided into sub-operational units of atleast 20,000 persons. Similarly, small sized operatinonal units were either clubbed together or tagged on to a contiguous larger unit so as to form an "effective operational unit" of the required minimum size. Adoption of these operational units ensured accuracy in sample selection maintaining at the same time stability in the sampling fraction within the tabulated areas. The procedure adopted has ensured effective control over sample selection within each block, as also in the entire operational units.

For the purpose of the Primary Census Abstract (PCA) the individual slips were sorted out according to ten broad industrial categories and nine broad age-groups for each of the sexes. The ten industrial categories of workers were as follows :

	Category
I	Cultivators
II	Agricultural labourers
III	Livestock, forestry, fishing, hunting and plantations, orchards and allied activities
IV	Mining and quarrying
V(a)	Manufacturing , processing, servicing and repairs in household industry
V(b)	Manufacturing, processing, servicing and repairs in other than household industry
VI	Construction
VII	Trade and commerce
VIII	Transport, storage and communictations
IX	Other services
X	Non-workers

The nine age-groups into which the slips belonging to each industrial category were sorted were 0—14, 15—19, 20—24, 25—29, 30—39, 40—49, 50—59, 60+ and 'age not stated'. Thus, the individual slips of a particular operational unit were sorted out in $11 \times 9 = 99$ cells separately for males and females. Sampling was done in each of the operational units independently by taking separate random starts. The slips were then distributed into 10 (or 5) pigeon holes for Rural (Urban) samples and one pigeon hole was selected at random, the slips falling in the selected pigeon hole constituting the sample. For the operational details of the sampling procedure and instructions, 'Manual of instructions on sorting, compilation (manual processing) & sampling procedures' may be consulted.

Estimation procedure

The tables prepared for each of the Districts/States from the 10 per cent rural and 20 per cent urban sample slips have been inflated to give the final estimated tables. Estimates have been obtained by making use of the cell frequencies (usually labelled as 'controls') available from the tables prepared on full count basis, namely, Primary Census Abstract and B-I Part A.

In order to ensure maximum possible inter-table consistency it became necessary to use the estimated frequencies of a few of the final tables as controls for estimating some cell frequencies of other tables.

This way of estimating the cell frequencies ensured marginal totals of estimated tables tally with that of the full-count tables. This is convenient to the user, because after adjustment, the identical marginal totals are found in tables having the same marginal specification. "The adjustment diminishes the sampling variance to some extent; the more the controls the smaller the sampling variance of the adjusted frequencies[1]". Further, adjustment to known control totals has at the same time the effect of eliminating biases in the nature of inherent differences between the sample and complete count.

For the purpose of estimation of final tables, a set of multipliers was prepared for each table. A multiplier is the ratio of full-count frequency of some characteristics from Primary Census Abstract or Table B-I Part A (or some estimated frequency from some already estimated table) and the corresponding sample frequency of the same characteristics from the sample tables. The following statement gives the level of presentation of the table and the related controls on which the multipliers are based. The details will be presented in the report on sampling procedures to be publishedlater.

Reliability of the estimates

No exact formula can be given for the precision of the estimates in view of the systematic sampling design adopted. A very rough estimate of the relative standard error on the basis of simple random sample may be estimated as $\sqrt{(1-f)\ \frac{1-p}{np}}$, where 'f' is the proportion sampled (0·10 in case of rural areas and 0·20 in case of urban areas) and 'p' is the estimated proportion in any cell and 'n' the sample size, being equal to 10 per cent of individual slips in rural areas and 20% in urban areas. The size of the universe for the various values of the proportion from 0·000001 to 0·9 by percentage relative standard error shown in table I and II will help in deriving quickly an idea of the level of precision of any cell. Since in the present census, slips were sorted by sex, industrial category and age-group before sampling, it is expected that the efficiency must be considerably higher than a simple random sample of identical size. Extensive studies conducted have indicated that systematic sampling of individuals is more efficient than random sampling specially when the slips were pre-sorted for most of the socio-economic characteristics covered in a census[2]. Thus the estimates prepared on the basis of the systematic sampling in the present census can be expected to be quite reliable. Hence the standard error indicated by the table should be treated as an upper limit.
