SOCIAL AND CULTURAL TABLES

C. S. GUPTA
OF THE INDIAN ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICE
Superintendent of Census Operations, Rajasthan

PREFACE

This book contains some fundamental classifications of population which are of basic importance for the analysis of other data obtained in the Census, and for making it more meaningful for demographic and sociological interpretation. The classification of population by age, sex, marital status, education, mother tongue and religion are some of the subjects which comprise the social and cultural tables presented in this volume.

The Statistical Statements and the Fly leaf to Table C-V, presented as Annexures, were prepared respectively by Shri K. D. Ballal, Central Tabulation Officer and Shri R. C. Nigam, Linguist of the office of the Registrar General, India while the matter given as Appendices to Table C-III was tabulated by Shri S. C. Sharma of the same office. Dr. U. B. Mathur, Deputy Superintendent of Census Operations, Rajasthan has assisted me in the preparation of this work. I thank them all.

I am grateful to Shri Asok Mitra, Registrar General, India and his Deputy Shri D. Natarajan for their guidance.

C. S. Gupta

CENSUS 1961

INTRODUCTION

The data presented in this book deals with the social and cultural characteristics of the population and was obtained through the replies to the various questions put to the people on the Age last birthday, Marital status, Religion, Scheduled Caste/Scheduled Tribes, Literacy and education, Mother-tongue and Bilingualism.

The first of the eight tables presented here is, however, based on the information collected for the household as a whole and shows the distribution of household population by relationship to the heads of households. This table prepared on a 20% sample shows the distribution separately for three types of households classified by economic activity i.e., participation or otherwise in cultivation and/or household industry. The cultivating households are further classified according to the size of land cultivated by them. Such comprehensive data on the composition of households has been presented for the first time in India and the increased attention on the household is no doubt on account of the recognition of its role as a basic socio-economic unit.

Information on the age structure is considered essential for many purposes such as analysis of the factors of the population change, preparation of population estimates, calculation of mortality rates, acturial analysis, analysis of the factors of manpower, study of the problems of dependency of children and old persons etc. Information on age is also required for the analysis of other census data such as marital status, educational characteristics, economic activity etc., the interpretation of which becomes more meaningful for sociological demographic studies when presented for various age-groups. Classification by sex, in the same way, is also one of the important features of analysing all types of population statistics. Classification by age and marital status, like age and sex is also of fundamental importance. Marital status of population is related to population growth and when presented in juxta position with sex and age, it gives valuable information on the reproductive capacity of population. Apart from its demographic importance, statistics on marital status are considered valuable for sociological studies. Such data are also of primary importance for various kinds of economic analysis.

The second, third and the fourth tables deal with Age and Marital status; Age, Sex and Education; and Single year Age returns. Some Appendices to Table III present information collected specially for the scientific and technical personnel in the State.

The Fifth and Sixth tables in this series relate to Mother-tongue and Bilingualism. Data on Mother-tongue are useful for analysing the ethnic composition of the population as mother-tongue is considered a more sensitive index of the ethnic origin than the place of birth, for linguistic differences tend to persist until complete cultural assimilation has taken place. The data on bilingualism is important specially for linguistic borders where one language impinges on the other.

The Seventh table deals with religion.

The last table in the series has been prepared specially for the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and presents an abstract of the detailed data presented as Special Tables for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes issued separately as Part V-A of our report.

Two statistical statements and a Fly-leaf given in the Annexures at the end form an important part of this book. The first statement showing the percent change in each of the past decades (1911-61) in the speakers of important languages, indicates the changes that are not always apparent on the surface. The second statement showing the absolute figures, percentage variation and percentage to total population for the period 1911—61 of the first three numerically important languages as returned in 1961, brings out the rise and fall experienced by each of these languages over the last fifty years. The Fly-leaf to table C-V specially prepared by the linguist explains in detail the linguistic classification of the various mother-tongues returned in 1961.

COMPOSITION OF SAMPLE HOUSEHOLDS BY RELATIONSHIP TO HEAD OF FAMILY CLASSIFIED BY SIZE OF LAND CULTIVATED

(Note to Table C-I)

This table is prepared on 20% sample from the Census Population Record, Part II of the Household Schedule for total, rural and urban areas. The table is of sociological interest as it indicates the strength of the joint family system.

2. The family members have been classified into heads of household (who could be males or females) and their spouses, married sons and other married relations and never married, widowed and divorced or separated relations.

3. As the definition of a census household also included outsiders residing with the family during enumeration, such persons have been shown in the table as unrelated persons.

4. The heads of households are shown as less than the total number of households in some areas on account of the fact that some enumerators had apparently not indicated any person as the head of household in the 'Population Record' where the conventional head of household was absent from the household at the time of enumeration and not been enumerated in that household.

TABLE C-II

AGE AND MARITAL STATUS

(Note to Table C-II)

This is an important demographic table prepared on full count. It gives the distribution both by age groups and marital status separately for total/rural/urban. The population has been distributed into 14 age groups further classified into four types of marital status viz., never married, married, widowed, divorced or separated. The age groups followed in this table largely conform to the international requirements recommended by United Nations Organisation.

2. This table is likely to be useful for studying the trends in the age of marriage. The data compiled here can be very well used for studying mortality in different marital statuses and also in different age groups. The data on married females by age groups can be utilised for forecasting the future births from age specific birth rates. All persons falling in age group 0-9 have been treated as 'Never Married' for the purpose of this table.*

3. This table compares with Union Table C-III of 1951 (prepared on 10% sample) and with Imperial tables VII of 1941 and 1931.

Marital Status of this group finds place in a separate monograph—Child marriages in Rajasthan.*

TABLE C-III

AGE, SEX AND EDUCATION

(Note to Table C-III)

This table gives the distribution of total population by broad educational levels, sex and by broad age groups. The population has been distributed into quinquennial age groups upto the age of 34 and the age groups 35-44, 45-59 and 60+. The table has been compiled into three parts. Part A relates to all areas while part B and C deal with Urban and Rural areas respectively. The educational levels followed in Part B of this table are in greater detail than that of part A and part C.

2. This table can be utilised to measure the growth of literacy in the population as a whole as well as in urban and rural areas separately and in the different age groups since the last Census. The table is of special interest to the educational authorities for future planning and also to study the public attitudes towards adult education.

3. The table corresponds with table C-IV of 1951 prepared on 10 percent sample.

APPENDICES TO TABLE C-III

SCIENTIFIC AND TECHNICAL PERSONNEL

In consultation with the council of Scientific and Industrial Research a special questionnaire was designed and a special business reply card was distributed by the enumerator to the scientifically and technically trained persons during his first round at households that claimed such persons. The persons concerned had either to fill up the card and hand it over to the enumerator during his second call or mail it direct to the Registrar General's office.

The enquiry was conducted in all the urban areas of the State and in a few selected rural areas where such personnel was likely to be found. Four thousand six hundred and seventy nine filled up cards were received back. The response, as was to be expected in such a procedure, was incomplete but not discouraging.

The information received was processed and a series of 8 tables prepared in the office of the Registrar General, India which are presented in these Appendices.

TABLE C-IV

SINGLE YEAR AGE RETURNS

SINGLE YEAR AGE RETURNS

(Note to Table C-IV)

This table presents data classified in ages 0 to 100 separately for total/rural and urban down to district level. The infants below aged one year have been shown against age 0 and all old persons aged above hundred have been clubbed together and are shown against item 'Over hundred'.

2. The data presented in this very important demographic table is useful for the Census Actuary for computing mortality rates from the age date of the earlier censuses and for the preparation of life tables. It also provides data for studying bias in age returns at the Census.

3. This table corresponds with Union Table C-V of 1951 Census (Prepared on 10% sample).

TABLE C-V

MOTHER TONGUE

MOTHER TONGUE

(Note to Table C-V)

This table presents data separately for total, rural and urban population for the State and only for total for districts classified by sex of persons speaking a particular language or a dialect as mother tongue. The mother tongues are arranged in this table in an alphabetical order.

2. According to Census 1961 'Mother Tongue' is the language or dialect spoken in childhood by the person's mother to the person or mainly spoken in the household.

3. This table is of great interest to Philologists in view of large variety of languages and dialects spoken in the State and will be of great assistance for ensuring the implementation of the various safeguards granted to the linguistic minorities under the constitution.

4. A Flyleaf to this Table prepared by the Linguist and some interesting statements prepared by the Central Tabulation Officer appear as Annexures at the end of this publication.

TABLE C-VI

BILINGUALISM

BILINGUALISM

(Note to Table C-VI)

This table has been prepared only for total population relating to speakers of the various mother tongues classified by sex. Speakers of languages subsidiary to the mother tongue have also been shown classified by sex. Names of Subsidiary languages followed in each case by number of male and female speakers in brackets have further been indicated in the table.

2. The table is important especially for linguistic borders where one language impinges on the other.

(Note to Table C-VII)

This is an important sociological table. It presents the data down to the district level separately for rural and urban areas in addition to the figures for total. The population has been distributed in six main religions and the figures of all other religions including the figures of those having 'Indefinite belief' such as Atheists and Agnostics have been clubbed together and noted under heading 'Other Religions and Persuations'. Separate heading 'Religion not stated' has also been provided for those who do not follow any religion and have given out only their nationalities such as Goans, Israelists, Italians etc.

2. This table corresponds with Union table D-II of 1951.

TABLE C-VIII

SCHEDULED CASTES AND SCHEDULED TRIBES

SCHEDULED CASTES AND SCHEDULED TRIBES

(Note to Table C-VIII)

This is a new table compiled in the 1961 Census. It has been prepared into two parts A & B. Part A presents the data of Scheduled Castes and Part B of Scheduled Tribes.

2. The names of the Scheduled Castes and Tribes in Rajasthan are mentioned in the list of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes for Reorganised Rajasthan State according to the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes list (modification) order 1956 issued by the President of India.

3. It gives the distribution of population by literacy, classification of workers into different industrial categories based on the Standard Industrial Classification, and non workers.

4. This is a general table that is prepared for the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes. In addition to this a number of special tables have also been prepared which find place in the Part V-A of 1961 Census Report.

5. This table has some correspondence with Union table D-III, prepared at the 1951 Census for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes, which provides data only about total number of persons belonging to Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes classified by sex for the State and Districts.

ANNEXURE I

STATEMENT I

Percentage change in each decade (1911-1961) of a language which had a strength of more than 50,000 in the census of 1951

NOTE :—

(i) N.A. denotes that figures are not available.

(ii) Transfers of villages or small groups of villages have not been taken into account while computing and adjusting the language data to conform to the 1961 territorial jurisdiction.

*(1) In 1951 language Banjari is recorded as Banjari or Labani and Khairari is recorded as Mewari-Khairari.

(2) In 1911, 1921 and 1951 the language Malvi is recorded as Rangri, Malvi or Ahiri.

(3) In 1911-1931 Hindi includes the figures of Western Hindi.

(4) In 1931 Rajasthani includes Ajmeri, Mewati and Harauti, Merwari includes Bagri, Merwari and Mewari; Hindi includes Braj Bhasha and Urdu and Malvi includes Sondhwari in that portion of former Rajputana States which now forms part of Rajasthan.

ANNEXURE I—contd.

STATEMENT II

Percentage change in each decade (1911-1961) of population of three numerically most important languages (including mother tongues grouped under them) as of 1961

NOTE : * Indicates that the total population of the district on which language figures have been worked out is trifle less than its total population according to Table A-II of 1961 Census for the Census in question for the reason that transfer/s of isolated villages or groups of such villages could not be fully taken into account for want of language statistics.

 Denotes the district of which the total population (on which the language figures have been worked out) is trifle more than its total population according to Table A-II of 1961 Census for the same reason as stated above.

ANNEXURE II

FLYLEAF TO TABLE C-V

NOTE 1.

(i) The following mother tongues arranged in alphabetical order in Col. 1 of the table given below as per Table C-V have been classified in the Linguistic Survey of India. The Linguistic Survey of India Classification No. is mentioned against each mother tongue in Col. 3.

(ii) If in Col. 3 no Classification No.is given against any mother tongue of Col.1 then it would mean that the name refers to either old or middle Indo Aryan language or a language group or branch or family name from the Linguistic Survey of India.

(iii) Wherever a tongue is mentioned in Col.3 it is to be understood that the mother tongue is either a dialect or another name or form of the tongue mentioned against it in Col. 1 which in its turn has been classified by the Linguistic Survey of India in the appropriate place for that tongue.

(iv) If in Col. 1 there is a tongue which bears no classification number in the Linguistic Survey of India then in Col. 2 the name of the classified language or group has been given of which the mother tongue of Col. 1 is either a dialect or another name or form. In such a case the number of classified language of Col. 2 has been given in Col. 3.

(v) In Col. 2 standardized spelling according to Linguistic Survey of India has been given against each mother tongue of Col. 1.
