PREFACE

District Census Handbooks were presented for the first time in 1951. Since then such documents are being brought out as parts of Census publications everytime. Though District Census Handbooks are State Government publications they are processed and compiled by the Directorate of Census. District Census Handbooks are compiled in three parts, viz., Parts A, B and C. Parts A and B in respect of all the 17 districts in Bihar have already been published. While Part A contains Town and Village Directory, Part B consists of Village and Townwise Primary Census Abstracts. For 1971 Census the Analytical Report, Administrative Statistics and Census Tables were to be presented in Part C. This volume should also have been brought out along with Parts A and B but due to various reasons the entire material for this book could not be compiled in time and this caused inordinate delay in its publication. In order to avoid further delay it was decided to reduce the coverage of D.C.H. Part C. The present volume, therefore, now comprises 3 sets of tables, viz., (i) Census tables, (ii) Secondary tables on Village Directory and Primary Census Abstracts and (iii) Tables on Administrative, Welfare and Developmental Statistics.

There are 65 Census tables, 10 Secondary tables on Village Directory and Primary Census Abstracts generated on computer and 52 tables relating to the Administrative, Welfare and Developmental Statistics. The Census tables have been drawn from the main Census Publications of 1971 while the secondary tables have been prepared on the basis of the material compiled for Village Directory and Primary Census Abstracts. Tables on Administrative, Welfare and Developmental Statistics have been compiled in the Census Office on the basis of the statistical data supplied to us by different departments of the State Government. The tables give an idea of the progress achieved in various welfare and developmental sectors by the State Government over the decade.

The work on District Census Handbook Part C was initiated just after the presentation of the data of 1971 Census. But as mentioned earlier the entire material required could not be compiled and this held up the progress. Work was resumed in 1978 when it was decided that the present volume should be made available as soon as possible even if it involved reduction in coverage and trimming of material. Consequently the work gained momentum thereafter and the job was completed in 18 months' time, thanks to the concerted efforts made by the officers and staff of the Directorate and the Cooperation extended to us by various State Government agencies.

I am grateful to the State Government for their cooperation in the finalisation of this volume. In my office Shri J.C. Kalra, former Deputy Director of Census Operations assisted by Shri S.C. Saxena, the then Assistant Director of Census Operations, organised the work of compilation of the figures and prepared the necessary write-up. These two officers were subsequently succeeded S/Shri R.D. Aggarwal and N.M. Alvi respectively. In this voluminous job valuable assistance was rendered to them by Shri S.K. Sinha, Tabulation Officer who was responsible for supervision and scrutinising the entire job. Shri Sinha was ably assisted by Shri T.N. Singh, Statistical Assistant and other technical staff of the section who worked with devotion to complete the job. Sri A.L. Das, Investigator also supervised the work in its initial stage assisted by Sri Ramanuj Sharma, Statistical Assistant and others. Sri Mohd. Hassan Azad and Sri Sohrai Rajak, who have done the typing work in a very short time also deserve thanks. I should like to commend particularly the efforts of Shri Sheo Prasad and his team of devoted workers who pored over the proofs diligently and made the final printing possible. They received necessary guidance in this regard from Shri R.B. Singh, Dy. Director.

I shall, however, be failing in my duty, if I do not record my appreciation and gratitude to all those who have been associated with preparation of this volume at one stage or other. It is not the extent of contribution that we prize most, but the spirit of dedication which metamorphoses items of individual contribution into crystals of knowledge capable of coherent presentation. Such has been the tradition of the Census machinery and I have every hope that individual talents shall continue to sustain it and enrich it further.

I am very much indebted to Shri P. Padamanabha, Registrar General, India for his valuable guidance and instructions at different stages of work. I am grateful to Shri N.G. Nag, Assistant Registrar General (S.S.) for providing necessary guidelines and giving suggestions for this publication. A word of sincere gratitude is due to Shri Tirath Das, Deputy Director, Office of the Registrar General of India who has taken a very keen interest in expediting the printing of this volume.

I owe my thanks to M/S Akashdeep Printers, 20, Daryaganj, New Delhi-110002 who have undertaken the work of printing of this volume and accomplished with promptness.

INTRODUCTION

The tradition of presenting District Census Handbooks has been maintained since 1951 Census. Though these Handbooks are State Government publications, they are compiled in the Census office. Since all the material required for presentation of District Census Handbook was not available at the same time, it was decided to split up this publication into two volumes. The first volume which has already been brought out contains Part A and Part B dealing with Village and Town Directories and Town and Village Primary Census Abstract respectively. District Census Handbook Part C which is now being published embodies information pertaining to the district grouped under three broad heads :

(1) Abstract of Census Tables

These Census Tables have been reproduced from different 1971 Census publlications of Bihar and contain a number of tables under the following series :

(i) A-Series (General Population Tables) : Tables A-I, Annexure to Table A-I, Appendix I to Table A-I, Appendix II to Table A-I, Appendix III to Table A-I, A-II, Appendix to Table A-II, A-III, A-IV and Special Appendix to Table A-IV.

(ii) B-Series (General Economic Tables): Tables B-I Part A, B-II, B-III Part A, B-IV Part A, B-IV Part D, B-VI Part A (i), B-VI Part A (ii), B-VI Part B (i), B-VI Part B (ii), B-VII and B-VIII.

(iii) C-Series (Social and Cultural Tables) : Tables C-I Part A, C-III Part A, C-III Part B, C-V Part A (i), C-V Part A (ii), C-V Part B (i), C-V Part B (ii), C-VII, Annex. I to Table C-VII, Annex. II to Table C-VII, C-VIII Part A, Appendix to Table C-VIII Part A, C-VIII Part B and Appendix to Table C-VIII Part B.

(iv) D-Series (Migration Tables) : Tables D-I, Appendix I to Table D-I, Appendix II to Table D-I, D-V and D-VI.

(v) E-Series (Establishment Tables) : Tables E-I, E-II Part A, E-II Part B, E-II Part C, E-III and E-IV.

(vi) H-Series (Housing Tables) : Tables H-I, H-II and H-III.

(vii) SC/ST-Series (Special Tables on Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes) : Tables SC-I Part A, SC-I Part B, SC-II, SC-III Part A, SC-III Part B, SC-IV, ST-I Part A, ST-I Part B, ST-II, ST-III Part A, ST-III Part B, ST-IV and ST-V.

These tables mainly deal with population classified according to its demographic, economic, social and cultural and migratory characteristics besides showing housing pattern and different types of establishments located in the District.

(2) Secondary Tables on Village Directory and Primary Census Abstract

For the first time an attempt has been made to introduce a set of tables in the District Census Handbooks showing pattern of distribution of various amenities and infrastructural elements at the village level. The villages distributed with reference to their different attributes like area, density of population, land use, select demographic characteristics, average size etc. cross-classified further according to distance from nearest town and also with reference to level of literacy and preponderance of scheduled castes and scheduled tribes have been indicated here. These statements have been generated on computer on the basis of villagewise data reflected in the Village Directory (District Census Handbook Part A) & Primary Census Abstract (District Census Handbook Part B). In order to facilitate readers to recapitulate the contents of the District Census Handbooks Part A and Part B which have already been published, a brief introduction of these publications is given below :

The District Census Handbook Part A gives Village Directory and Town Directory. The Village Directory gives the list of villages arranged thanawise and development blockwise. It provides for each inhabited village information about various amenities available in the village e.g. electrification, existence of communications, transport facilities, educational facilities, drinking water facilities, name of staple food, area under forest irrigated area, unirrigated area, culturable waste, area not available for cultivation, nearest town, market day copies of newspaper coming in the village, motor cycle, scooter, car, jeep and/or tractor available in the village. For uninhabited villages, information about area under forest, irrigated area, unirrigated area, culturable waste and area not available for cultivation has been presented. These data have been compiled at the time of Houselisting operations of 1971 Census undertaken in May—June, 1970. Similarly, Town Directory gives data pertaining to cities and twons in the district elaborating their history, growth, status, finances, civic, medical educational, recreational and cultural facilities available. Some data regarding trade, commerce and industry of the towns are also presented. Town Directory also gives population of towns and cities by religion and scheduled castes/scheduled tribes as per 1971 Census.

The District Census Handbook Part B contains Town and Village Primary Census Abstract. It is subdivided into two parts. The first Part is the District Abstract of Census Data giving figure for the total, rural & ubarn areas of the district, subdivisions and development blocks and also for each town of the district. The other Part is the village/urban blockwise Primary Census Abstract, which gives figure upto urban block level for urban areas. Primary Census Abstract gives area figures, number of occupied residential houses and number of households, total population by sex, population by sex of scheduled castes and scheduled tribes of literate and educated persons and of workers classified into nine industrial categories and non-workers. For uninhabited villages, however, the names, thana numbers and area figures have only been presented.

(3) Administrative, Welfare and Developmental Statistics

This part of the Handbook also contains official statistics collected from various departments of the State Government, statutory bodies and corporations giving basic data of the district on Agricultural statistics, Livestock, Industry, Education, Public Health, Communication and other administrative branches, description of which have been made in the relevant flyleaves of the tables. Similar nature of information was presented in the 1951 Census as well as 1961 Census also.

The present volume of the District Census Handbook supplemented with the Part A and Part B published earlier thus provides ample scope for various institutions, data users and other interested readers to study and analyse in depth the changes in the socio-economic, demographic structure and various other important aspects of the district during the last decade. A brief description about Purnea District regarding its composition and salient demographic features as revealed during 1971 Census has been discussed in the following paragraphs.

Purnea district is one of the constituent districts of Bhagalpur Division lying almost in the north-eastern part of the State. It consists of four sub-divisions. The 38 Development Blocks in the district are distributed in the above four subdivisions as indicated below :

Subdivision	Number of Development Blocks
1. Sadar	11
2. Katihar	11
3. Araria	9
4. Kishanganj	7

Due to reorganisation of districts in Bihar during the year 1972-73, Purnea district has been bifurcated into two administrative districts viz., (i) Purnea and (ii) Katihar. However, the present handbook deals with the old Purnea district as such existing at the time of 1971 Census.

The population of Purnea at the 1971 Census was 3,941,863 which accounts for 6.99 per cent of the total population of Bihar State. The geographical area of the district is 11,013 Km^2 which accounts for the 6.33 per cent of the State figure. Thus the district of Purnea occupies 5th rank in population and 8th so far the area is concerned within the State. The density of the district is also on the higher side than the State having 358 persons per square kilometre as against 324 for the State. As compared to other districts in the state Purnea falls almost in the medium range. The sex-ratio (number of females per 1,000 males) for the district is 918. The district appears to be less urbanised in the sense that only 6.34 per cent of the total population resides in urban areas as compared to per cent for the state as a whole.

The percentage of literate and educated persons in the district is considerably low, the literacy rate being 15.73 per cent. This will be slightly higher if the effective literacy rate (excluding populating in age group 0-4) is taken which comes to be 18.66. The literacy differential between males and females is quite high being 24.25% and 6.44% for males and females respectively.

Workers in the district of Purnea account for 33.23% and non-workers 66.77% of the total population of the district. For the Sate the corresponding figures are 31.03% and 68.97% respectively. The highest percentage of workers are engaged in agricultural activities, i.e., either as cultivator (42.59 per cent) or agricultural labourer (43.66 per cent).

The scheduled castes and scheduled tribes comprise 11.34 per cent and 3.95 per cent respectively of the district's total population.

The total number of occupied residential houses and households at the 1971 Census comes to be 664,257 and 713,997 respectively for the district of Purnea. The total urban population of the district is contained in 8 towns whereas total rural population lives in 3,732 inhabited villages out of total 4,362 villages in the district.

The actual figures on area, houses and different characteristics of population as discussed above are displayed in the appropriate tables presented in this part of the handbook.

Concepts and Definitions

Village—A village or a revenue mauza is a parcel of land which as a rule is partly built over but mostly cultivated and waste with a definite position and area, the boundaries of which were defined either at the time of the cultural survey or at the time of revenue survey. It may contain no houses at all or, on the other hand, several hamlets each bearing a different name.

Town—For Census purposes all municipalities, notified area, civil lines and cantonments are treated as towns irrespective of their population, size, density of population or livelihood pattern. Places were to be treated as towns also if (a) they had a population of 5,000 or more (b) density of population was not less than 400 persons per square kilometer and (c) at least three-fourths of the male working population was engaged in non-agricultural livelihood. In few exceptional cases of tourist interest or administrative significance or their having urban characteristics were also treated as towns.

Urban agglomeration—An 'urban agglomeration' has been defined as "a continuous urban spread constituted of a town and its adjoining urban outgrowths or two or more physical contiguous towns together with a continuous well recognised urban outgrowths, if any, of such towns".

City—A city is a town with a population of one lakh and above.

House—A "house" has been defined as "a building or part of a building having a separate main entrance from the road or common courtyard or stair-case etc., used or recognised as a separate unit. It may be inhabited or vacant. It may be used for a residential, non-residential purpose or both".

Occupied residential house—'Occupied residential house' refer to such houses as were occupied and were used for dwelling purposes or where the residence was combined with other uses such as shop-cum-residence, workshop-cum-residence, school-cum-residence etc.

Household—A 'household' has been defined as "a group of persons who commonly live together and would take their meals from a common kitchen unless the exigencies of work prevented any of them from doing so. There may be 'one-member household, two member household or multi-member household'. For Census purposes each one of these types is regarded as a 'household'.

Institutional household—There may be household of unrelated persons such as Boarding Houses, Hostels, Residential Hotels, Orphanages, Rescue Homes, Ashrams, etc. These are called 'Institutional Households'.

Houseless Population—Houseless population refers to that section of population which have no 'house' to live in such as pavement dwellers or beggars living in the open.

Institutional population—Institutional population refers to persons living in institutions such as jails, hospitals, asylums, hostels, etc.

Worker—At the 1971 Census a person has been categorised as a worker or a non-worker on the basis of his main activity. If the persons were primarily engaged in some economic activity as full-time workers then only they were treated as workers.

'Worker' defined—A 'worker' is a person whose main activity is participation in any economically productive work by his physical or mental activity. Work involves not only actual work but effective supervision and direction of work.

The reference period had been one week prior to the date of enumeration in case of regular work in activities like trade, profession, service or business. For certain types of other works such as cultivation, livestock keeping, plantation work and some typical household industry, the person's main activity was ascertained with reference to such work in the last one year even if he was not economically active in the week prior to enumeration.

There has been a change in definition of worker in the 1971 Census in comparison with that of 1961 Census. In the 1961 Census if a person has had some regular work for more than one hour a day during a great part of the season, he was treated as a worker. Thus, if a person helped in the family economic activity even part time he was treated as a worker, e.g. a person who was engaged primarily in household duties or a boy or a girl who was primarily a student helped in the economic activity of the family even in spare time was treated as a worker as per definition of 1961 Census. In the 1971 Census, however, stress was given on the main activity in which a person engaged himself mostly. Even if he was not engaged in that activity during the reference period, if he had engaged himself in the main activity reported by him in course of last year that was entered as his main activity. That section of unpaid family workers who do only marginal work but who were basically not economically active, their marginal contribution towards economic participation was recorded as their secondary work. This category also includes workers who have dual works such as students, housewives, retired persons etc.

The workers have further been classified into nine Census Industrial Categories according to the sector of economic activity in which the persons are engaged. The details of the nine fold classification of workers have been discussed in the introductory note to Table B-I Part A.

Establishment—An 'Establishment' is a place where goods are produced or manufactured not solely for domestic consumption or whose servicing and/or repairing is done such as factory, workshop or household industry or servicing and or repair workshop or a place where retail or wholesale business is carried on or commercial services are rendered or an office, public or private or a place of entertainment or where educational, religious, social or entertainment services are rendered. It is necessary that in all these places one or more persons should be actually working. Thus, an establishment will cover manufacturing, trade and other establishments where people work.

Government or Quasi-Government—An establishment is treated as a Govt./Quasi-Govt. institution if the Central or State Govt. or a Local Authority such as Zilla Parishad, City Corporation or Municipality etc. completely owns or has a majority of shares as to control the management of the establishment.

Private—Establishments owned and managed by private individuals or corporate bodies not being co-operative institution or Government or Quasi-Govt. institutions are treated as Private Establishments.

Co-operative—Establishments registered under Co-operative Societies Registration Law of the State, alone fall in the category of 'Co-operative'.

Registered factory—A factory which is registered under the Indian Factories Act is treated as a 'Registered Factory'. Thus workshops using power (electric or other power) and employing 10 or more persons or those without power employing 20 or more persons are treated as Registered Factories.

Unregistered workshop— A workshop like a factory is a place where manufacturing or servicing or processing activity is going on. A workshop which is not registered under the Indian Factories Act is treated as unregistered workshop. Workshops which are run as household industry are treated as Household Industry.

Household Industry—A 'Household Industry' is an industry conducted by the Head of the household himself/herself and/or mainly by the members of the household.

In the rural area it is necessary that the household industry is located within the same village where the household is and in the urban area within the same house where the household resides. Another restricted is that the industry should not run on the scale of a registered factory.

*Towns treated as such for the first time in 1961 which continue as towns in 1971 Census are shown with asterisk on their left.

Towns and outgrowth of Towns which are constituents of urban agglomerations are shown with double asterisks on their right.

The names of the urban agglomerations and their constituents are given in the Annexure. The figures of the urban agglomerations are also given in the Annexure.

(1) The density figures urban areas of Development Block/Sub-division/District have been worked out using the area figures corrected upto 2 places of decimals obtained by adding the areas of the towns in the respective units and not using the area figures given in the Table for "Total and Rural" the density is worked out on area figures corrected upto one place of decimal.

(2) Total area figures given in column 3 against District represent 'Geographical' area figures supplied by the Surveyor General, India. The Urban Areas are based on the area figures of individual towns supplied by the Local Officers. The rural area for a district has been arrived at by subtracting the urban area from the 'Geographical Area' supplied by the Surveyor General, India.

(3) The rural area figures of units lower than the District do not add up to the area figure of the District because the rural areas of units lower than the District have been computed from the Thana Jurisdiction Lists maintained by the State Survey Office while rural area of the District has been derived by subtracting the urban area of the District as supplied by the Local Officers from the total area of the Districts as supplied by the Surveyor General, India.

(4) The following abbreviations have been used for the Status of Town.

M—Municipality, N—Notified Area.

Roman numerals within brackets after the names of towns indicate their location code numbers.

N.A. means Not Available.

NOTE :—*Area figures shown under columns 2 and 4 have been supplied by the Surveyor General, India. The figures in column 4 differ from those in column 2 even though the districts have not in all cases been affected by territorial changes. Such differences may be due to revised computation. The figures may not necessarily agree with the coorsponding figures in Appendix I to Table A-I as the area figures in appendix I to Table A-I have been derived by adding the area figures of the affected villages from thana jurisdiction lists.

SECONDARY TABLES ON VILLAGE DIRECTORY AND PRIMARY CENSUS ABSTRACT DATA

FLY-LEAF

This series consists of 10 tables. As already mentioned in the introductory part of this handbook, the tables have been derived on the basis of village-wise data presented in Village Directory and Primary Census Abstract of the 1971 Census. These tables have been presented at District/Dev. Block levels. The number and titles of the tables are given below :

1. Table 1—Distribution of villages with reference to area (in Hectares).
2. Table 2—Distribution of villages by select amenities, infra-structure and land use data with reference to distance from nearest town.
3. Table 3—Distribution of villages by select-demographic characteristics and distance range from nearest town.
4. Table 4—Average size of village by distance range from the nearest town by size class.
5. Table 5—Distribution of villages by size class of population having select servicing institutions and demographic characteristics.
6. Table 6—Distribution of villages by number of hamlets and percentage of scheduled caste and scheduled tribe population.
7. Table 7—Distribution of villages by density of population per hectare.
8. Table 8—Distribution of villages by proportions of scheduled castes and scheduled tribes population.
9. Table 9—Villages by percentage of irrigated area to total cultivated area and density of population per hectare.
10. Table 10—Villages by percentage of literacy having and not having telephone with reference to nearest town.

A brief description of the contents of the tables and their presentation can be seen from the following paragraphs :

Table 1—Distribution of villages with reference to area (in Hectare).

This table provides information regarding distribution of villages according to their jurisdictional area classified in various groups. The total area and the rural area shown under each class tally with each other since there is no area classified as 'partially urban' in the whole of the State of Bihar.

Table 2—Distribution of villages by select amenities, infra-structure and land use data with rejrence to distance from nearest town.

This table gives classification of villages according to various facilities available in the villages cross-tabulated by distances of these villages from nearest town. The different amenities include availability of Primary and Middle Schools, High or Higher Secondary Schools. Colleges and electric supply facilities in the villages. It further contains information regarding number of villages connected by pucca road, kutcha road, navigable river/canal etc. together with land use statistics showing area under forest, irrigated and un-irrigated area, cultivable waste and area not available for cultivation of these villages.

Table 3—Distribution of villages by select demographic characteristics and distance range from nearest town.

The information embodied in this table deals with the distribution of villages according to the population by sex with reference to distance ranges from the nearest town (in k.m.). The different ranges are the same as specified in table 2. It further indicates average population per village, average households per census house, sex-ratio (no. of females per 1,000 males) and average literacy of these villages along with involvement of the total workers and female workers of these villages in different sectors of economy viz., primary, secondary and tertiary.

Table 4—Average size of village by distance range from the nearest town by size class.

This table has been presented to give distribution of villages according to their distance range from nearest town. The distance ranges adopted in this table are in conformity with tables 2 & 3 which have further been classified by size class of such towns. The different size classes of towns are indicated below.

Size class VI—Less than 5,000 population
" V—5,000—9,999
" IV—10,000—19,999
" III—20,000—49,999
" II—50,000—99,999
" I—1,00,000 & above

Table 5—Distribution of villages by size class of population having select servicing institutions and demographic characteristics.

This table broadly classifies the villages in different size classes of population. This also pin points number of villages having facility of post offices, post and telegraph offices, telephone connections and medical institutions. It further provides for each group of villages, their average distance from nearest town, sex-ratio (no. of females per 1,000 males), per cent literacy and percentage of workers.

Table 6—Distribution of villages by number of hamlets and percentage of Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe population.

This table furnishes distribution of villages according to different groups of hamlets. This also deals with no. of populated and depopulated villages, total population together with population of scheduled castes/scheduled tribes and their percentage to total population.

Table 7—Distribution of villages by density of poppulation per hectare.

This table furnishes data regarding distribution of the total villages in the district and its development blocks by their density of population per hectare. The total distance of each of such group of villages from the nearest towns along with the average distance of each village from them have also been indicated in the table.

Table 8—Distribution of villages by proportion of scheduled castes & scheduled tribes population.

This table contains information regarding distribution of villages under different classes of proportions of scheduled castes/scheduled tribes population to total population. The total no. of villages and villages having area specified under two sub-heads of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes are also provided.

Table 9—Villages by percentage of irrigated area to total cultivated area and density of population per hectare.

This table reflects distribution of villages by percentage classes of irrigated area to total cultivated area further classified according to density of population per hectare. The density of population per hectare has been grouped in a manner presented for Table 7 earlier.

Table 10—Villages by percentage of literacy having and not having telephone with reference to nearest town.

This table has been generated to give information regarding number of villages which are having/not having telephone connections with reference to nearest town at various distances. The information has further been cross-tabulated by the literacy percentages also. The distance ranges of the nearest towns are same as shown for table 7.

TABLES ON ADMINISTRATIVE, WELFARE AND DEVELOPMENTAL STATISTICS

FLY-LEAF

This part of the Handbook gives tables which have been prepared from the data collected from different departments of the State Government, statutory bodies and other agencies outside Census department. These along with the Census Tables attempt to give a complete statistical picture of the district.

The tables on administrative, welfare and developmental statistics included in this series are devised on the pattern adopted for the District Census Handbook of the 1961 Census so as to make the data comparable. Statistics on a few other topics have also been given. All the tables which were actually proposed to be included in the present Handbook could not be prepared on account of non-availability of data on certain topics. As such, a good number of tables had to be dropped, the details of which are indicated below :

Table 3—Major events of the decade (1961-70).

Table 4—Length of roads (by nature of materials) as maintained by public authorities

(a) P.W.D. and other Government Departments and (b) Local bodies.

Table 74—Yearwise income and expenditure of Municipalities.

The salient features of the tables which have been presented in this Handbook are discussed below. Every attempt has been made to adhare to the formats of the tables originally prescribed for the project. In a few cases, however, formats of the tables have been slightly modified to suit the mode of the data collected.

Table 1—Minimum and maximum temperature by month during 1961-71.

This table gives information regarding temperature (inDegrees centigrade)recorded at Forbesganj and Purnea station observatories for all the twelve months during 1961-71 as well as for all months combined during the period. The table displays the data for Mean maximum, Highest, Mean minimum and the Lowest temperatures. In the 1961 Census the figures were given in degrees Fahrenheit unlike those given in this table.

Table 2—Rainfall statistics—District average in m.m. by months and years.

This table furnishes monthly rainfall data recorded for the decade 1961-70. For each of the year the data has been presented under two heads, viz; rainy days and rainfall (in m.m.) for all the twelve months separately along with the decadal average of the district.

Table 7—Ploymetric table of distances (in k.m.) of towns, markets and other important places on the national highway.

This is a polymetric table giving distances (in k.ms.) of towns on National Highway in the district. There are 6 such towns in the district which have been connected with each other by a vertical line. Thc road distanee between any two can be read at the intersection of the vertical and horizontal lines connecting them.

Table 8—Polymetric table of distances (in k.m.) of towns, markets and other important places on the district road.

This is also a polymetric table similar to Table 7 giving distances of towns, markets and other important places on the district roads. Here also the method of reading distances between any two places is same as discribed in the earlier table. Similar table was presented in the 1961 Census also.

Table 9—Bus routes, 1970.

This table shows the bus routes connecting the district headquarters and other sub-divisional headquarters with the other important places in the district and also a few important places outside district. The distances of each of these routes (in k.ms.) along with the nature of service i.e. whether the route is notified or partly notified or a new route is also mentioned in this table. This table is a new presentation giving road connections of the district. The information embodies in this table pertains to the year 1970.

Table 10—Circuit House/Inspection Bungalow/Travellers Bungalow/Tourist Home/Youth Hostel Maintained by P.W.D., Ministry of Tourism and Civil Aviation, Local Bodies etc.

This table furnishes the list of Inspection bungalows, Dak bungalows, Rest houses, Rest sheds, Dormetories, etc. located in different parts of the district maintained by the P.W.D., Local Bodies, Irrigation Departments and Forest Departments for the use of travelling officers and public. Availability of number of rooms as also the amenities like electricity, septic lavatory and water tap in these bungalows have also been given.

Table 11—Railway Stations in the District, amenities provided and distance from district and State head quarters.

The name of Railway stations in the district grouped under each line and gauge falling in the district have been presented in this table. The distance of each of these railway stations from the nearest previous station, district headquarter and State headquarter have also been shown. Information regarding amenities such as waiting rooms, retiring rooms, refreshment rooms, stalls, etc. provided at the railway stations can also be seen from the table.

Table 12—Sources of irrigation.

This table gives the net area irrigated (in Acres) by different sources in the district for the agricultural years from 1961-62 to 1670-71. The sources of irrigation are classified as :

(i) Canal-Government,

(ii) Canal-Private,

(iii) Tanks,

(iv) Tube wells,

(v) Wells, and

(vi) Other sources

In the 1961 Census, the above information was presented for each decade from 1911.

Table 14—Gross area (by crops) irrigated (in acres).

This table gives the gross area irrigated under different crops for the district as a whole. The breakup of the irrigated area by total food crops and total nonfood crops has also been shown. Besides the above information it also gives net area irrigated and area irrigated more than once for different years. The data has been presented for the Agricultural years from 1961-62 to 1970-1971. In the 1961 Census also similar information was presented in the handbook, the years coverved, howeer, were 1911, 1921.....1961.

Table 15—Towns and villages connected by Electricity.

This table gives information regarding number of towns and villages connected by electricity in the district for the years 1961 to 1970. For each year the position in this behalf as on 31st March has been indicated.

Table 16—Commercial Banks and their Branches, 1970.

This table is meant to furnish list of scheduled and non-scheduled banks and their branches functioning at different places in the district classified by rural and urban areas. No branch of non-scheduled bank is, however, encountered in the district. Similar information was presented in the district Census Handbook of 1961 also.

Table 19—Medical and Para-Medical Personnel.

This table indicates the number of registered medical practitioners in the district for the years 1961 to 1970. The medical practitioners include medical as well as para-medical personnels. The medical personnels have, however, been categorised as allopathic, Homeopathic, Ayurvedic practitioners and Hakim and Hakim Surgeons besides Nurses and Midwives who form para-medical group.

Table 21—Drinking water.

Table 24—Primary, Secondary, Higher Secondary and other non-collegiate Educational Institutions together with the strength of pupils.

This table gives number of different type of educaitonal institutions with regard to their respective strength of boys and girls students in the district. The data for each type of such institutions along with the strength of pupils enrolled at the end of March, 1961, March, 1966 and March, 1971 have been furnished. The institutions are educationally classified as (i) Primary, (ii) Junior Basic, (iii) Junior Secondary (Middle), (iv) Senior Basic, (v) Secondary and (vi) Higher Secondary. Similar information was provided in 1961 Census also.

Table 25—Primary, Secondary Higher Secondary, and other non-collegiate Educational Institutions together with strength of teachers.

This table gives similar information as Table 24 with the difference that here the information regarding educational institutions in the district with the strength of teachers (males and females) is provided. Tables 24 and 25 together provide an overall picture of educational pattern in the district at three points of time specified earlier.

Table 28—Library and Reading Room facilities in the district.

The Census Tables on Housing presented in Census Part of this Handbook give an idea about the housing conditions prevailing in the district based on Houselisting operations conducted during May-June, 1970 as a part of 1971 Census Programme.

A 'Census House' in the 1971 Census was defined as a building or a part of a building having a separate main entrance from the road or common courtyard or Stair-case, etc., used or recognised as a separate unit. It may be inhabited or vacant. It may be used for residential or non-residential purposes or both.

According to houselist of 1971 Census, as will appear from Table H-I, there are in all 751,925 houses in Purnea district-out of which 11,245 houses were found vacant at the time of houselisting operations and the rest were occupied. The Census houses used wholly or partly for residential purposes account for 86.8 per cent while the corresponding figure for the State is 80.3 per cent. The rest 13.2 per cent of the houses are utilised as shops or business houses, factories or workshops, eating places, places of entertainment or worship, schools, dispensaries, etc., including the vacant houses. The percentage of vacant houses in the district is 1.5 as against 3.4 Percent as a whole as for the state. These vacant houses are not put to any specific use.

In rural areas of the district, as shall be evident from Table H-II, 84.3 per cent of the houses are having walls made of grass, leaves, reeds or bamboo followed by houses having walls made of mud which accounts for 11.1 per cent. Remaining houses in rural areas have walls either of burnt bricks, wood, or G.I sheets or other metal sheets. Similarly 85.1 per cent of houses have the roofs made of grass, leaves, reeds, thatch, wood, mud, unburnt bricks or bamboo and 6.8 per cent of the houses have corrugated iron, zinc or other metal sheets, as the material of their roofs. The rest of the houses in rural areas have their roofs made of tiles, slate, shingle concrete, R.B.C. (Reinforced brick concrete), R.C.C. (Reinforced cement concrete), bricks and lime, etc. In urban areas, however, the use of burnt bricks is the most common material used for walls, its percentage being 46.7 followed by walls made of grass, leaves, reeds or bamboo. (43.8 per cent). unburnt bricks and wood are not so preferred materials for wall in these areas. As regardsroofs of the houses in urban areas of the district, the most common materials are grass, leaves, reeds, thatch, wood, mud, unburnt bricks or bamboo constituting 35.3 per cent and concrete; R.B.C. (Reinforced brick cement)/R.C.C. (Reinforced cement concrete) sharing 26.0 per cent followed by corrugated iron, zinc or other metal sheets (18.3 per cent). The other materials used are tiles, slate shingle contributing 12.3 per cent, bricks and lime 5.5 per cent and asbestos cement sheet (2.6 per cent).

As regards intensity of congestion in the houses, it may be seen in Purnea district that the average number of persons per room in rural areas and urban areas is 2.91 and 2.86 respectively. However, a more realistic picture of congestion can be obtained when we look into details about the number of persons per room distributed in various type of households. On this basis it is seen that in one room households. There are more than 4 persons per room (on an average) both in the rural as well as urban areas of the district. Thereafter there is a gradual decline and degree of congestion is comparatively lower in the households having 2 or 3 rooms. Households having 4 rooms and above have no congestion at all in both the rural and urban areas of the district.
